GET IT RIGHT!

like + -ing

We use like + the -ing form of the verb. If the verb ends in consonant + -e, we drop the final e.

✓ live – living

X live - liveing

If a short verb ends in consonant + vowel + consonant, we double the final consonant before adding the -ing.

✓ swim – swimming

X swim - swiming

With verbs with two or more syllables, we do not usually double the final consonant.

✓ listen – listening

X listen - listenning

Correct the -ing forms.

- 1 writting
- 2 comming
- 3 studing
- 4 waitting
- 5 chating
- 6 useing
- 7 listenning
- 8 planing

Gina Jones and her sister Karen have the same hobby. They both love photography. In fact, they are both in a photography club. But they don't take photographs of their friends or the interesting places they go to. They take photographs of other people taking photographs! They have a big collection - more than 2,000. They write a blog about their hobby and you can see all their photos on it. The sisters don't know the people in their photos. They are just people they see in the street. But they always ask them if they can use the photos for their blog. Most people say yes.

58-year-old Dan Baker loves roller coasters. Every Saturday, he visits the Alton Towers theme park and spends all day on them. Luckily, he lives very close to it. Some days he has more than 50 rides. His favorites are Nemesis and Th13teen. He doesn't take his wife with him - she hates roller coasters – but he often takes his grandchildren or brother. He also collects postcards of roller coasters. Every summer, he travels to theme parks in different countries: Six Flags in Mexico, PortAventura in Spain, and Everland in South Korea. But Dan wants more. He wants to ride every roller coaster in the world.

Adam Roberts is a little different from a lot of other teenagers. He likes animals. That's nothing strange. Many people his age like animals. He also keeps animals as pets. There's nothing unusual about that, either. But do most teens keep spiders, lizards, and snakes? Adam does. He has a spider from Brazil, a lizard from Australia, and a snake from South Africa. He buys them from his local pet store. He spends all his pocket money on his pets, and he also spends a lot of his time taking care of them. Adam knows what he wants to do when he is older. He wants to work in the insect house at a zoo.

UNIT 1

Routines

1 INPUT Read about Amy's hobby. Check (/) the photo that matches her blog.

? ABOUT ☆ HOME ■ NEWS Every weekend, I go to a theater group and I love it! Acting isn't a very unusual hobby, but my group is special. We only mime, so we never talk in our shows. Instead, we move, we dance, and we use music to tell a story. I have lots of friends in the group and we always have fun - but when we're on stage, we don't speak. The mime group usually meets on Saturday mornings, but before a show, we meet three times a week to practice. Miming is special because you learn to communicate without speaking. Some of my friends don't like speaking in front of big groups of people, but they're good at miming.

| 2 | Complete the sentences with and, but, to, or so |

• We use to to express an objective.

We go to school to learn.

• We use so to express a consequence.

He does a lot of exercise, so he gets hungry.
