

Contents

List of Figures	page ix
List of Maps	xi
Acknowledgments	xii
Prologue	xiii

Introduction	1
------------------------	---

PART I THE RISE AND FALL

1 Abraham and Sarah: From One to the Many	19
2 Miriam: Empire and Exodus	29
3 Deborah: A New Dawn	43
4 King David: Between North and South.	57
5 Ahab and Jezebel: Putting Israel on the Map	72
6 Jehu and Elisha: Israel’s Downfall and Judah’s Jubilation.	87
7 Hezekiah and Isaiah: Putting Judah on the Map	101
8 Josiah and Huldah: Judah’s Downfall and Deportation	119

PART II ADMITTING DEFEAT

9 Daughter Zion: Finding One’s Voice	137
10 The Creator: Comforting the Afflicted.	153
11 Haggai the Prophet: Laying the Foundation.	169
12 Nehemiah the Builder: Restoring Judean Pride.	187

CONTENTS

13 Ezra the Educator: Forming a People of the Book 204
14 Hoshayahu the Soldier: Peoplehood as a Pedagogical Project . . 221

PART III A NEW NARRATIVE

15 Jeremiah and Baruch: A Monument to Defeat 239
16 Isaac and Rebekah: The Family Story. 252
17 Moses and Joshua: The People’s History. 270
18 Hannah and Samuel: The Palace History. 286
19 Solomon and the Queen of Sheba: The National Narrative . . . 302
20 Jonah and the Whale: The Prophets as Survival Literature. . . . 317
21 Yhwh and His People: Codes, Covenant, and Kinship 334

PART IV A PEOPLE OF PROTEST

22 The Matriarch: Women and the Biblical Agenda 355
23 The Hero: Redefining Gender Roles 366
24 The Other: Tales of War, Outsiders, and Allegiance 380
25 The Soldier: Sacrificial Death and Eternal Life. 393
26 The Prophet and the Priest: Open Access, Public Transparency, and Separation of Powers 406
27 The Sage: Job, Proverbs, and Ecclesiastes 421
28 The Poet: The Song of Songs and Psalms. 436
29 The Queen: Peoplehood without Piety. 452
30 Conclusions: Nations, Nationalism, and New Bibles. 464

Subject Index 473
Scholars Cited 477
Biblical References 481