

INDEX

- account of profits
 - equity and, 534–40
 - intellectual property and, 544–5
 - stages to, 534
- affirmation
 - as bar to rescission, 633
- aggravated damages, 476
 - availability of, 499
 - aggravated damages available for some statutory causes of action, 500
 - aggravated damages available for the breach of the Australian Consumer Law, 502–3
 - aggravated damages available for tort, 500
 - aggravated damages not available for breach of contract, 500
 - aggravated damages not available for equitable wrongdoing, 500–2
 - distinction between aggravated damages and exemplary damages, 496–8
- Anton Piller orders, 684–5
- apologies, 512–15
- apportionment, 251–3
- assessment of compensation for breach of
 - contract, 174
 - compensation for reliance loss, 190–3
 - failure to provide other services as promised, 188–90
 - impact of Clark v Macourt, 190
 - measure of expectation loss in particular contexts, 178–9
 - failure to build, maintain or repair property as promised, 183–8
 - failure to convey land as promised, 182
 - failure to deliver goods as promised, 180–2
 - non-pecuniary loss. See non-pecuniary loss
 - protection of the plaintiff's expectation interest, 176–8
- assessment of compensation in tort, 205
 - general principle, 207–8
 - specific contexts
 - damage to economic interests by reliance on a misrepresentation, 221–2
 - damage to goods, 216–17
 - damage to land or fixtures, 210–13
 - damage to reputation by defamation, 208–9
 - defective premises or goods, 219–21
 - other wrongful interference with goods, 217–19
 - other wrongful interference with land, 213–15
- assessment of compensation under the Australian Consumer Law, 298
 - attribution of responsibility. See attribution of responsibility for compensation under the Australian Consumer Law
 - certainty of loss and recovery for the loss of a chance, 309
 - compensation for misleading or deceptive conduct. See compensation for misleading or deceptive conduct
 - general principles, 299–300
 - non-pecuniary loss, 306–9
- assessment of equitable compensation
 - basic measure of equitable compensation, 324–7
 - object of equitable compensation, 321–2
 - recoverability of non-pecuniary loss, 323–4
 - attribution of responsibility for compensation under the Australian Consumer Law, 309
 - common sense test of causation, 311
 - factual causation, 311–12
 - multiple wrongdoers, 319
 - scope of liability, 313
 - foreseeability of the loss, 315
 - intervening cause, 313–15
 - plaintiff's contribution to the loss, 317–19
 - purpose of the provision contravened, 316–17
- attribution of responsibility for equitable compensation, 328
 - breach of an equitable duty of care, 348–9
 - breach of equitable duty of care
 - contributory negligence, 352–3
 - breach of fiduciary duty, 340
 - construction of the hypothetical world, 341–2
 - contributory negligence, 346–7
 - intervening acts and remoteness of loss, 343–6
 - mitigation, 347–8
 - breach of trust, 330–1
 - independent non-wrongful event, 331–8
 - intervening acts and remoteness of loss, 338–40
 - scope of liability, 349–52

- attribution of responsibility for liability, 88
 - causation and. See causation
- attribution of responsibility for loss, 223
 - contributory negligence. See contributory negligence
 - remoteness of damage. See remoteness of damage
- Australian Consumer Law*
 - aggravated damages and, 502–3
 - compensation under. See compensation under the Australian Consumer Law
 - disgorgement and, 556
 - exemplary damages and, 493
 - injunctions under, 422–4
 - other vindicatory remedies under, 525–9
 - rescission under, 611–12
 - specific performance under, 394–5
- bars to relief
 - affirmation, 633
 - discretionary bars to relief, 449
 - general equitable bars to relief, 379–83
 - hardship and the public interest, 415–17
 - laches, 419
 - lack of clean hands, 418–19
 - relevant only to specific performance, 383–93
- betterment discount, 27–31
- breach of contract
 - aggravated damages not available for breach of contract, 500
 - assessment of compensation for. See assessment of compensation for breach of contract
 - compensation for. See compensation for breach of contract
 - disgorgement and, 549–56
- breach of equitable duty of care
 - contributory negligence and, 352–3
- breach of fiduciary duty, 340
 - construction of the hypothetical world, 341–2
 - contributory negligence and, 346–7
 - intervening acts and remoteness of loss, 343–6
 - mitigation and, 347–8
- breach of trust
 - attribution of responsibility for equitable compensation for, 330–1
 - independent non-wrongful event, 331–8
 - intervening acts and remoteness of loss, 338–40
- ‘but for’ test, 89, 98–100
- causation
 - common sense causation in negligence, 92–5
 - common sense causation test, 90–2, 311
 - duplicative causation, 100–2
 - factual causation, 311–12
 - ‘but for’ test and its application, 89, 98–100
 - causal overdetermination, 100
 - civil liability statutes, 95
 - evidential uncertainty, 104–13
 - overview, 97
 - legal concept of, 89–97
 - pre-emptive causation, 103
 - scope of liability. See scope of liability element of causation
- clean hands
 - lack of, 418–19
- common sense causation test, 311
- compensation
 - assessment of equitable compensation. See assessment of equitable compensation
 - assessment of under the Australian Consumer Law. See assessment of compensation under the Australian Consumer Law
 - attribution of responsibility for equitable compensation. See attribution of responsibility for equitable compensation
 - benefits flowing from mitigating actions of the plaintiff, 32–7
 - certainty of loss and recovery for the loss of a chance, 42
 - balance of probabilities approach, 43
 - consequential loss, 49–51
 - degree of probabilities approach, 43
 - hypothetical conduct of the defendant, 64–8
 - overview of the current law, 43–9
 - personal injury as initial harm, 51–4
 - pure economic loss as initial harm, 54–63
 - compensatory principle and the identification of the wrong, 22–4
 - interest on compensation awards and compensation for the loss of the use of the money, 83–6
 - losses and benefits, 26
 - betterment discount, 27–31
 - cost of repair and diminution in value, 27
 - impact of tax law, 41
 - non-pecuniary loss, 26
 - other benefits arising from the wrong, 37–40
 - temporal considerations, 70
 - date of assessment, 71–9
 - determining the present equivalent of future pecuniary loss, 81–3
 - lump sum rule and the ‘once and for all’ rule, 70–1
 - relevance of inflation, 79–80

- compensation for breach of contract, 174
 - assessment of compensation. See assessment of compensation for breach of contract
 - attribution of responsibility, 196
 - contributory negligence, 203
 - remoteness of damage. See remoteness of damage
- compensation for misleading or deceptive conduct, 301
 - compensation for expectation loss, 304–5
 - compensation of reliance loss in excess of expectation loss, 305–6
 - reliance loss as the general measure of compensation, 301–4
- compensation for personal injury and death
 - actions on death
 - claim by the dependants of the deceased, 289–95
 - claim by the estate of the deceased, 289
 - benefits arising from an injury, 281–4
 - claims based on injury to another person
 - loss of an employee's services, 285–6
 - loss of consortium, 286–7
 - impact of legislation, 254
 - civil liability statutes, 256–7
 - statutory compensation schemes and ancillary regulation of common law damages, 255–6
 - loss suffered by an injured person. See loss suffered by an injured person
 - meaning of personal injury, 257–8
- compensation in tort
 - assessment of compensation. See assessment of compensation in tort
 - attribution of responsibility. See attribution of responsibility for loss
- compensation under the Australian Consumer Law, 297–8
 - assessment of. See assessment of compensation under the Australian Consumer Law
 - multiple wrongdoers, 319
- compensatory awards, 448
- compensatory principle, 22
- consequential loss, 49–51
- contemptuous damages, 523–4
- contributory negligence, 244
 - apportionable loss, 251
 - apportionment, 251–3
 - breach of an equitable duty of care and, 352–3
 - breach of fiduciary duty and, 346–7
 - civil liability statutes, 247
 - common law, 244–6
 - compensation for breach of contract and, 203
 - contributory negligence statutes, 246–7
 - factual causation and the scope of the duty, 249–51
 - plaintiff's conduct, 247–9
- Corporations Act 2001* (Cth)
 - injunctions under, 424–6
- damages
 - aggravated damages. See aggravated damages
 - contemptuous damages, 523–4
 - equitable damages. See Lord Cairns' Act damages
 - exemplary damages. See exemplary damages
 - Griffiths v Kerkemeyer* damages, 265
 - inadequacy of damages
 - injunctions, 403–4
 - specific performance, 358
 - interlocutory injunctions and, 676
 - nominal damages, 521–3
 - reasonable fee damages. See reasonable fee damages
 - vindictory damages, 476, 504–10
- debt
 - as a species of special relief, 397–9
 - liquidated damages and penalties and, 474
- declarations, 516–21
 - requirements to establish an entitlement to a declaration, 518
- defamation
 - assessment of compensation for, 208–9
- delay
 - as bar to rescission, 633–5
- disgorgement
 - Australian Consumer Law* and, 556
 - breach of contract, 549–56
 - election, 540–4
 - equity and the account of profits, 534–40
 - intellectual property and the account of profits, 544–5
 - torts and 'waiver of tort', 545–8
- duplicative causation, 100–2
- eggshell skull rule, 241–4
- enforcement of remedies
 - interlocutory injunctions. See interlocutory injunctions
 - other pre-judgment remedies, 678
 - arrest of the person, 678–81
 - freezing orders, 681–3
 - search orders, 684–5
 - post-judgment enforcement, 685
 - enforcement of specific remedies, 692–3
 - post-judgment remedies
 - enforcement of money remedies, 686–91

- equitable compensation for equitable wrongs
 - assessment of equitable compensation. See assessment of equitable compensation
 - attribution of responsibility. See attribution of responsibility for equitable compensation
- equitable damages.
 - See* Lord Cairns' Act damages
- equitable liens, 649–50
- exemplary damages, 476
 - causes of action for award of
 - exemplary damages available for breach of some statutes, 489
 - exemplary damages available for tort, 488
 - exemplary damages not available for breach of contract, 490
 - exemplary damages not available for breaches of the Australian Consumer Law, 493
 - exemplary damages not available for equitable wrongdoing, 490–3
 - distinction between aggravated damages and exemplary damages, 496–8
 - nature and history of in Australia, 480–4
 - calculation of exemplary damages, 486–8
 - need to make out the 'host' cause of action, 484–6
 - unavailable if criminal punishment already imposed, 486
- factors influencing the exercise of the jurisdiction of Lord Cairns' Act damages
 - basis of assessment
 - compensatory awards, 448
 - timing, 446
 - basis of relief
 - reasonable fee awards, 446–8
 - Corporations Act 2001* (Cth) pt 9.5, 449–50
 - discretionary bars to relief, 449
 - general principles, 436
 - provide a 'middle ground' solution between no relief and specific relief, 436–8
 - provide novel forms of relief, 438–41
 - provide relief for future losses, 438
 - specific relief no longer available or in addition to specific relief, 436
 - Shelfer* criteria, 441–2
- factual causation, 311–12
 - 'but for' test and its application, 89, 98–100
 - causal overdetermination, 100
 - duplicative causation, 100–2
 - pre-emptive causation, 103
 - civil liability statutes, 95
 - contributory negligence and, 249–51
 - evidential uncertainty, 104
 - inference of factual causation, 104–5
 - material contribution to the harm, 106–9
 - material increase in risk, 110–13
 - overview, 97
- fusion fallacy, 12
- future pecuniary loss
 - determining the present equivalent of, 81–3
- garnishee order nisi, 689, 690
- goods
 - compensation for damage to, 216–17
 - compensation for failure to deliver as promised, 180–2
 - compensation for wrongful interference with, 217–19
 - injury to property rights in, 406–7
 - specific performance and contracts involving goods, 362–5
- Griffiths v Kerkemeyer* damages, 265
- Hadley v Baxendale* test, 199
- inflation
 - relevance of in compensation, 79–80
- initial harm
 - personal injury as, 51–4
 - pure economic loss as, 54–63
- injunctions, 400
 - bars to injunctions equivalent to those in specific performance, 419
 - general equitable bars to relief
 - hardship and the public interest, 415–17
 - laches, 419
 - lack of clean hands, 418–19
 - inadequacy of damages, 403–4
 - injunctions under statute, 420–1
 - Australian Consumer Law*, 422–4
 - Corporations Act 2001* (Cth), 424–6
 - intellectual property, 421–2
 - other statutory injunctions, 426
 - interim interlocutory injunctions under statute, 676–7
 - interlocutory injunctions. See interlocutory injunctions
 - quia timet* injunctions, 413, 430
 - relationship between specific performance, 357
- rights protected by injunctions
 - contracts for services, 412–13
 - injunctions restraining a breach of negative covenant in a contract, 411–12
 - injury to bodily integrity, 408–9
 - injury to economic rights, 407–8
 - injury to intellectual property, 407
 - injury to privacy, 410–11

- injunctions (cont.)
 - injury to property rights in goods and funds of money, 406–7
 - injury to property rights in land, 404–5
 - injury to reputation, 409–10
- intellectual property
 - account of profits and, 544–5
 - injunctions and, 407
 - injunctions under statute, 421–2
 - reasonable fee damages, 562
 - specific performance and, 370–1
 - specific performance and contracts involving intellectual property, 370–1
- interlocutory injunctions, 667
 - balance of convenience, 673
 - interim injunctions under statute, 676–7
 - interlocutory injunctions which finally determine the matter, 674–5
 - legal, equitable or statutory rights, 667–9
 - mandatory interlocutory injunctions, 674
 - quia timet* interlocutory injunctions, 674
 - ‘serious question to be tried’, 669–72
 - steps to establish an interlocutory injunction, 667
 - undertakings as to damages, 676
- joint tortfeasors
 - as multiple wrongdoers, 151
 - distinction between multiple tortfeasors, 156
 - liability at common law, 150
- laches, 419
- land
 - compensation for damage to, 359–62
 - compensation for failure to convey as promised, 182
 - compensation for wrongful interference with, 213–15
 - injury to property rights in, 404–5
 - specific performance and contracts involving land, 359–62
- liquidated damages and penalties, 465
 - debt and, 474
 - does penalty doctrine apply to clause, 466–9
 - is clause a penalty on the facts, 469–74
 - other stipulated contractual remedies, 475
- Lord Cairns’ Act damages
 - advantages of for a plaintiff, 430
 - factors influencing the exercise of the jurisdiction of. See factors influencing the exercise of the jurisdiction of Lord Cairns’ Act damages
 - for statutory wrongdoing, 434–5
 - future of, 450–1
 - history, 429
 - jurisdiction to award, 430–1
 - need for a ‘wrongful act’ in some Australian jurisdictions, 431
 - Australian legislation mentioning ‘wrongful act’, 432
 - Australian legislation not mentioning ‘wrongful act’, 432–4
 - loss suffered by an injured person
 - medical expenses and cost of institutional care, 261–3
 - non-pecuniary loss, 275
 - loss of amenities, 277–8
 - loss of expectation of life, 278–9
 - pain and suffering, 275–6
 - statutory regulation, 279–80
 - overlap between different heads of loss, 281
 - pecuniary loss resulting from needs created by the injury, 261
 - cost of managing a lump sum award, 266–7
 - domestic services to the injured person, 263–5
 - increased cost of living at home, 266
 - pecuniary loss resulting from the impairment of capacities, 267
 - loss of capacity to do domestic work, 272–4
 - loss of earning capacity, 268–9
 - loss of employment-related benefits, 270–2
 - loss of social security benefits, 272
- Mareva orders, 681–3
- misleading or deceptive conduct
 - compensation for. See compensation for misleading or deceptive conduct
- mitigation, 90, 138–47
 - breach of fiduciary duty and, 347–8
 - three rules of, 138
- multiple wrongdoers, 148
 - as joint tortfeasors, 151
 - attribution of responsibility for compensation under the Australian Consumer Law and, 319
 - common law rules, 149–60
 - contribution claims in equity, 158
 - contribution statutes, 160–5
 - interplay of the three regimes, 171
 - proportionate liability statutes, 165–70
 - several concurrent wrongdoers at common law, 154
- nemo dat quod non habet*, 624
- nominal damages, 521–3
- non-pecuniary loss, 26, 193
 - assessment of under the Australian Consumer Law, 306–9
 - recoverability of, 323–4

- restrictions at common law, 193–5
 - restrictions under statute, 195–6
 - novus actus interveniens*, 90, 115
 - nuisance
 - abatement of, 462–3
 - once and for all rule, 70–1
 - personal injury
 - as initial harm, 51–4
 - compensation for. See compensation for personal injury and death
 - meaning of, 257–8
 - pre-emptive causation, 103
 - privacy
 - injury to, 410–11
 - property
 - compensation for failure to build, maintain or repair as promised, 183–8
 - self-defence of, 456–8
 - proprietary remedies, 643
 - constructive and resulting trusts, 643–8
 - criteria for award of, 650
 - proprietary remedies and unconscionability, 651
 - discretionary factors and bars to relief, 663–4
 - equitable liens, 649–50
 - need for more defined criteria, 664
 - proprietary powers, 648–9
 - proprietary remedies and perfection, 651–2
 - proprietary remedies and unjust enrichment, 652–7
 - proprietary remedies and wrongdoing, 657–63
 - pure economic loss
 - as initial harm, 54–63
 - quantum meruit*, 590, 607
 - quantum valebat*, 592
 - quia timet* injunctions, 413, 430
 - quia timet* interlocutory injunctions, 674
 - reasonable contemplation test, 239–41
 - reasonable fee awards, 446–8, 532
 - introduction and history, 559
 - reasonable fee damages, 18
 - academic and judicial accounts, 559
 - compensatory analyses, 559–60
 - restitutionary analyses, 560–1
 - allowances for skill and effort, 581–4
 - contract, 570–9
 - discretionary factors and bars to relief, 584
 - equity, 562
 - future of, 584
 - general patterns, 561–2
 - intellectual property, 562
 - tort, 563–9
 - reliance loss
 - assessment of compensation for, 190–3
 - remedies
 - common law and equity divide in Australia, 90–2
 - fusion of some areas of common law and equitable remedies, 15–18
 - common law and equity division in Australia
 - alternative taxonomy of rights and remedies, 13–14
 - definition, 1–5
 - distinction between primary and secondary rights, 5–6
 - dualism view, 9–10
 - judicial commands and orders and, 6–7
 - middle ground between monism and dualism, 10–11
 - monism view, 7–9
 - enforcement of. See enforcement of remedies
 - functional approach to, 18
 - proprietary remedies. See proprietary remedies
 - restitutionary remedies, 586
 - for subtractive unjust enrichment. See unjust enrichment
 - self-help remedies. See self-help remedies
 - vindictory remedies under the Australian Consumer Law, 525–9
- remoteness, 90
- remoteness of damage, 197–8, 226
 - assumption of responsibility as overriding criteria, 201–3
 - eggshell skull rule, 241–4
 - Hadley v Baxendale* test, 199
 - significance of the defendant's knowledge of the plaintiff's circumstances, 200–1
 - test of natural and probable consequences, 226–8
 - test of reasonable foreseeability, 228–39
- remoteness of damages
 - test of reasonable contemplation, 239–41
- repair
 - cost of and diminution in value, 27
- reputation
 - injury to, 409–10
- rescission, 465
 - bars to rescission, 630
 - affirmation, 633
 - delay, 633–5
 - executed contracts and innocent misrepresentation, 639
 - impossibility to complete restoration, 631–3
 - intervening third party rights, 636–9

- rescission (cont.)
 election, 619
 consequences of an election to rescind, 623–6 how to make an election to rescind, 620–3 reasons behind the election to rescind, 626 equitable rescission, 611
 legal rescission, 611
 ‘partial’ rescission, 627–30 requirement of restitutio in integrum, 612–19
 rescission under the Australian Consumer Law, 611–12
- restitutio in integrum*, 592, 636 as requirement of rescission, 612–19 complete restitutio in integrum, 611 substantial restitutio in integrum, 611, 613, 614, 615
- restitution, 330
 for unjust enrichment, 533
- scope of liability element of causation, 90, 113
 plaintiff’s contribution to the loss, 137
 contributory negligence, 137–8
 mitigation, 138–47
 purpose of the duty breached, 135–7
 remoteness of damage, 134–5
 subsequent event
 additional loss intervening events, 115–24 basic loss casually dependent subsequent event, 133–4 basic loss casually independent subsequent event, 124–33 distinction between basic and additional loss, 115
- self-help remedies contract and self-help liquidated damages and penalties. See liquidated damages and penalties
 rescission, 465
 tort and self-help, 454
 abatement of nuisance, 462–3
 eviction of trespassers, 456
 recaption, replevin and specific restitution, 459–61
 self-defence of property, 456–8
 self-defence of the person, 458–9
- specific performance
 debt as a species of special relief, 397–9
 discretionary factors and bars to relief, 377 bars to relief relevant only to specific performance, 383–93
 general equitable bars to relief, 379–83
 inadequacy of damages, 358
 nature of, 356
- other requirements for specific performance, 372 binding contract, 372–6 personal remedy, 372 relationship between specific performance and injunctions, 357 specific restitution or specific delivery of property, 395–7 subject matter of contract, 359
 contracts for services, 371
 contracts for the benefit of third parties, 368–70 contracts involving goods, 362–5 contracts involving intellectual property, 370–1 contracts involving land, 359–62 contracts involving shares and stock, 365–7 contracts to loan money, 367
 under the Australian Consumer Law, 394–5
- tax law
 compensation and, 41
- test of common sense causation, 90–2
 test of natural and probable consequences, 226–8
 test of reasonable contemplation, 239–41
 test of reasonable foreseeability, 228–39
- tort aggravated damages available for, 500 assessment of compensation in tort. See assessment of compensation in tort compensation in. See compensation in tort reasonable fee damages and, 563–9 and self-help, 454
 abatement of nuisance, 462–3
 eviction of trespassers, 456
 recaption, replevin and specific restitution, 459–61
 self-defence of property, 456–8
 self-defence of the person, 458–9
- torts
 ‘waiver of tort’, 545–8
- trespassers
 eviction of, 456
- unjust enrichment
 defences to a claim for restitution, 592 change of position defence, 592 elements of, 587
 precise remedies for, 587
 goods claims, 592
 services claims, 590–2
 precise remedies for money claims, 588–9

- proprietary remedies and, 652–7
- relationship between contract and restitution
 - for unjust enrichment, 593–607
 - restitution for, 533
- vindictory damages, 476, 504–10
- wrongdoers
 - multiple wrongdoers. See multiple wrongdoers
- wrongdoing
 - aggravated damages not available for equitable wrongdoing, 500–2
 - Lord Cairns' Act damages for statutory wrongdoing, 434–5
 - proprietary remedies and, 657–63
- wrongs
 - equitable compensation for. See equitable compensation for equitable wrongs