

INDEX

- abortion, 52
- adoption, 65
- adulthood
 - divorce, 96–98, 263
 - gender and, 81–83
 - marital emotion, 90–91
 - marriage in, 83–88
 - physical abuse, 94–96
 - rape, 95–96
 - sentimental touching, 91–94
 - singleness, 96, 98
 - weddings, 89–90
- afterlife
 - Christian concepts of, 229, 296
 - traditional Egyptian concepts of, 228–29
- aftermath of death
 - ancestor cult, 226–28
 - spousal death, 223–25
 - wills and legalities, 225–26
- agent
 - defined, 3
 - in practice theory, 3
- akh*, 226, 228
- Alexandria
 - architectural wonders of world, 24
 - as intellectual hub, 24
 - Kom-el-Dikka, 25–27
 - public events and festivals, 119
- altars, domestic, 172
- amulets, 175, 185
- ancestor cult, 226–28
- animals, village, 41–42
- animals, wild, 189
- Antinoopolis, 119, 268
- Antoine Plague, 187–88
- apothecaries, 199–200
- apprenticeship, 79
- archaeological sources
 - for funerals, 221
 - for Roman Egyptian life, 9–12
- archaeology
 - defined, 9
 - historical disinterest in everyday households, 12
 - household material goods, 110–12
 - merging with papyrology, 12, 244
 - pitfalls of, 11–12
 - plundering of sites, 11, 244
- astrology, 174
- Athribis, 177
- auloi, 123–24
- Aurelius Pamour, 40–41
- B2 house (Trimithis)
 - ethnic affinity, 32–33
 - plan of, 32
- ba*, 228
- bathhouses, 136–37
- bathing
 - bathhouses, 136–37
 - frequency of, 137
 - priests and elite class, 136
 - simple home, 136, 272
 - as social norm, 137–38
 - social significance of, 136
- beards, 133
- beds, 268
- beer, 121–22, 269
- Bes figure, 51, 56, 168–70
- bilharzia, 188
- birth bricks, 57–58
- birthing stool, 58–60
- body modifications
 - piercings, 145–46
 - tattoos, 143–45
- body preparations after death
 - burial ceremony, 214–21
 - embalmers and necropolis workers, 209
 - embalming availability, 210
 - embalming routine, 210
 - final storage before burial, 210–11
 - mummification reasons, 209–10
 - non-mummified, 209
 - wrapping, 210
- breastfeeding
 - Christian preference of mother nursing, 63
 - professional wet nurses, 63
- brothels, 93
- burial ceremony

- burial ceremony (cont.)
 - changes as Christianity appeared, 221
 - changes over time, 214
 - fertility themes, 219
 - in Kellis, 214–15
 - of women, 217–19
 - prepubescent girls, 217
 - tomb architecture, 219–21
 - for young children, 215–16
- burial preparations
 - burial goods procurement, 212–14
 - funerary expenses, 211
 - mummy labels, 212
 - transportation to burial, 211–12
- canals, 42
- census records. see also demography of Roman Egypt
 - health of population, 185
 - large population, 20
 - omissions from, 20
 - periodicity of, 20
 - reorganization of, 20
 - as textual source, 8
- chamber pots, 139–40
- Cheese and the Worms, The*, 232–33
- child abuse, 69
- childbirth
 - birth bricks, 57–58
 - birthing stool, 58–60
 - complications, 56
 - ethnographic evidence, 15–16
 - high infant mortality rate, 56
 - at home, 55
 - midwife for, 55–56, 252
 - mundane supplies for, 57
 - music and dance for, 57
 - special lighting for, 56–57
 - squatting position for, 57
- children
 - affection for, 231
 - burial care for, 215–17
 - dress, 153
 - early childhood (ages three through eight), 67–72
 - infancy (birth to age three), 60–66
 - late childhood (ages 12 through 14), 74–79
 - middle childhood (ages nine through eleven), 72–74
- Christianity
 - afterlife, 229, 296
 - amulets for protection, 175–76
 - burial of children, 216
 - changes in burial ceremonies, 221
 - complex social experience of, 231–32
 - cult paraphernalia, 173
 - discouraging domestic ritual activities, 281
 - dress, 153
 - forbidding cosmetics, 141
 - holy men for healing, 198
 - hospitals, 200
 - simple daily hairstyles, 132–33
- cippi, 195–97, 288
- clavi*, 149
- clothing. see also dress
 - cut, 114–15
 - dyeing, 114, 267
 - image, 148
- conception
 - contraception, 50–52
 - demographic evidence, 48
 - fertility treatments, 49–50
 - taking longer to achieve than modern times, 49
- contemporary histories and descriptions (textual source), 8
- contraception
 - abortion, 52
 - medicines and magic, 51–52
 - prolonging nursing, 51
- Coptic language, 21–22
- cosmetics
 - Christianity forbidding, 141
 - equipment boxes, 142
 - and eye problems, 191
 - found in cemeteries, 141
 - kohl, 141–42
 - skin care, 141
 - substances to make, 141
- cottage crafts, 116–17
- cut clothing, 114–15, 116, 267
- Dakhleh Oasis. see also Kellis; Trimithis
 - houses in, 28, 30–32
 - iron-deficient diet, 190
 - location of, 30
 - storage niches in, 163
- dalmatic, 151
- death rituals
 - aftermath, 223–26
 - body preparations, 209–11
 - burial preparations, 211–14
 - family avoiding talk of death, 207
 - funeral, 221–23
 - grief and mourning expressions, 207–9
 - home with family, 206
 - public physician certifying death
 - if violent, 206–7
 - washing and wrapping corpse, 206, 290
- demography of Roman Egypt. see also census records
 - large population, 20
 - young population age, 19
- demotic script, 21
- Dendara, 169
- dental issues. see also oral care
 - cavities, 190
 - enamel hypoplasia, 190

- disability
 - from brother-sister marriage, 201
 - no ancient term for, 200
 - textual mention of incapacitation, 201
- divorce
 - abuse and, 263
 - asset division, 97
 - child custody, 97–98
 - as common practice, 96–97, 263
 - deeds of, 97
- domestic magical protection
 - archaeological evidence of, 177
 - foundation deposits, 177, 283
 - house entrance, 177
 - manuals for, 176–77
 - motifs on interior furnishings, 179
- dowry, 87–88, 151, 261
- dress. see also clothing
 - children’s, 153
 - cloth as consumption good, 148
 - image clothing, 148
 - religion and, 153
 - shoes, 153–55
 - soldier’s, 151–53
 - special occasion, 155–56
 - tunics, 148–51
 - vocation and, 151
 - women’s, 151
- dyeing clothing, 114, 267
- early childhood (ages three through eight)
 - child abuse, 69
 - high mortality rates, 67, 69
 - toys, 69–71
- embodied protection
 - amulets, 175
 - animal parts, 175
 - Christian, 175–76
 - spells, 175
- enamel hypoplasia, 190
- ephemeral arts
 - dances, 123, 269
 - music, 123–24
- Esna, temple of, 58
- ethnic affinity, 22, 32–33
- ethnicity in Roman Egypt
 - complexity of, 22
 - ethnic maneuvering, 22–23
- extended life course, 6
- eye issues
 - blindness, 191
 - cosmetic usage and, 191
 - fly-borne, 191
 - scars as distinguishing features, 130
 - trachoma surgery, 191
- Fayum
 - as least healthy area, 285
- Fayum portraits, 222, 294
- ferries, 42
- fertility
 - demographic evidence for, 48
 - peak age of, 251
 - social factors affecting, 49
 - work affecting, 49
- fertility treatments
 - healing objects for, 50
 - herbs for, 49–50
 - intubation period, 50
 - religious offerings, 50
- festivals
 - becoming sparse in third century, 160–61
 - domestic participation in, 160
 - temples, 159–60
- fever, 186–87
- figurines, household religious, 165–70, 179, 283, 284
- flesh journey, 130, 143
- folk medicine, 184
- food preparation areas, 265
- food preparation tools
 - basic nature of, 104
 - bread ovens, 104–5
- foundling children, 66
- funeral
 - internment, 221–23
 - lack of clear evidence for, 294
 - and social status, 221
 - sources for information, 221
- Galen, 48
- games
 - board, 124–25
 - marbles, 269
 - oral performances, 125, 269
- gender in Roman Egypt
 - idealized female representation, 81
 - idealized male representation, 81–82
 - men’s transition into adulthood, 82
 - roles despite societal change, 296
 - vulnerability of women, 83
 - women’s burial, 217–19
 - women’s transition into adulthood, 82
 - written sources on men, 82–83
 - written sources on women, 83
- genital mutilation, 72–73
- geography of Roman Egypt
 - delta, 18–19
 - Nile river, 18–19
 - oases, 19
- Ginzburg, Carlo, 232–33
- Greek cities in Roman Egypt
 - Alexandria, 23, 24–27
 - Antinoopolis, 23
 - Naukratis, 23
 - Ptolemais, 23

- Greek cities in Roman Egypt (cont.)
 - Roman style of, 23–24, 245
- Greek language, 21
- gymnasium, 75
- hair
 - age and gender and, 130–32
 - baldness cures, 135
 - depilatories, 271
 - dyes, 132, 271
 - men’s shaving, 135
 - men’s styles and beards, 133
 - most malleable body feature, 130
 - reuses, 271
 - ritualized, 132, 271
 - simple daily hairstyles, 132–33
 - toupees, 135
 - wigs and hairpieces, 132
 - women’s tools and headdresses, 133
- Harpocrates figure, 166–67
- Hawara, 141
- health care, domestic
 - body anxiety, 184–85
 - dental issues, 190
 - eye issues, 191
 - folk medicine, 184
 - household experience of, 231
 - illness patterns, 185
 - lung issues, 190–91
 - medical instruments, 191–92
 - pharmacy, 192–94
 - variations in, 191
- health care, professional practitioners
 - Christian holy men, 198
 - hospitals, 200
 - incubation for, 197
 - magical-religious, 195–98
- health care, secular practitioners
 - apothecaries, 199–200
 - inherited nature of, 198–99
 - transient physicians, 198
- henna, 271
- Heqet figure, 56
- Herophilos, 48
- hieratic script, 21
- homelife in Roman Egypt
 - afterlife, 228–29
 - bathing, 136–38
 - cosmetics, 140–42
 - death and the afterlife, 205–29
 - dress, 147–55
 - essence of an age in artifacts from, 1
 - human waste, 138–40
 - interdisciplinary approach to, 232
 - oral care, 138, 272
 - ordinary people contributed to social change, 2–3
 - perfumes, 140
 - reflect changes in culture, 1–2
 - reflecting everyday priorities, 1
 - source for social divisions, 2
 - special occasion, 155–56
- homosexuality, 93–94
- horned altars, 172, 281, 282
- hospitals, 200
- house, defined, 4
- household
 - defined, 5
 - as web of obligations, 242
- household in Roman Egypt
 - animals in, 41–42
 - demographics of, 5
 - festival participation, 160
 - home provisioning, 103–8, 231
 - in Kom-el-Dikka, 26
 - as locus of social life, 5
 - maintenance, 108–9
 - material goods, 110–12
 - production, 112–17
 - rest, 118–19
 - roles, 100–3
 - social events, 119–25
 - waste management, 109–10
- household life cycle, 5–6
- houses in Roman Egypt
 - background, 4–5
 - entrance protection, 177
 - in Kom-el-Dikka, 25–26
 - mosaics, 26–27
 - Oxyrhynchus, 29–30
 - Trimithis, 30–32
- houses in Roman Egypt, Karanis
 - construction, 34–35, 248
- houses in Roman Egypt, Kellis
 - domestic artifacts, 38–40
 - Manichaean religion, 41
 - papyri, 40–41
 - plan of, 38, 39
- human body
 - afterlife, 228–29
 - bathing, 136–38
 - body modifications, 142–46
 - as both instrument and outcome of social action, 127
 - cosmetics, 140–42
 - cultural differences on old age, 183–84
 - dental issues, 190
 - disability, 200–2
 - dress, 147–55
 - in everyday life, 184–85
 - eye issues, 191
 - eyes, 130
 - hair, 130–35
 - illnesses, 186–88
 - important way to distinguish people, 129
 - injury to, 188–90
 - jewelry, 146–47

- lung issues, 190–91
- old age, 202–4, 284
- oral care, 138, 272
- perfumes, 140
- preparations after death, 209–11
- skin, 129–30
- human waste
 - chamber pots, 139–40
 - communal toilets, 138, 272
 - daily family production, 273
 - as fertilizer, 273
 - house toilet, 138–39, 272
 - lack of toilet paper, 138
- illness
 - Antonine Plague, 187–88
 - bilharzia, 188
 - fever, 186–87
 - infectious viral diseases, 187
 - malaria, 188
 - patterns of, 185
 - typhoid, 187
- image clothing, 148
- incense, 171–72
- infancy (birth to age three)
 - breastfeeding, 63
 - carrying options, 64, 255
 - infanticide, 65–66
 - language skill, 64
 - legal adoption, 65
 - legal registration, 64
 - naming celebration, 62–63, 254
 - naming traditions, 61–62
 - physical and legal actions after birth, 60
 - roles if father absent, 61
 - sending away for economic reasons, 66
 - slavery for foundling children, 66
 - status of, 60
 - teething, 63–64
 - toilet training, 64, 255
 - transition to walking, 64
 - weaning, 63
- infanticide, 65–66, 200, 289
- infertility, 49
- injury
 - and infection, 189
 - more prevalent in preindustrialized society, 188–89
 - scorpion stings, 189–90
 - snake bite, 190
 - village animals, 189
 - wild animals, 189
- internment
 - ceremony, 221–22
 - Fayum portraits, 222, 294
 - meals and offerings, 223
 - rituals and spells, 223
- Isis figure, 168
- jewelry
 - archaeological evidence of, 146–47
 - less in the elderly, 204
 - and magic, 146
 - multiple layers of significance of, 146
 - status and, 147
- Juvenal, 8
- ka*, 228
- Kahun Gynecological Papyrus, 47
- Karanis
 - bread ovens, 105
 - cooking fireplace, 104
 - courtyards, 36
 - decorations, 35–36
 - domestic artifacts, 35
 - excavation history of, 34
 - house construction, 34–35, 248
 - household shrines in, 163
 - layout, 34
 - North Temple, 34
 - pharmaceutical storage box, 287
 - South Temple, 34
 - storage niches in, 163
 - textiles, 150
- Kellis. see also Dakhleh Oasis
 - burial types in, 214–15
 - clavi*, 149
 - domestic magical protection, 177
 - excavation history of, 248
 - good diet, 190
 - hairstyles, 132
 - House 2, 38–39
 - House 3, 39–41
 - houses in, 37–41
 - layout, 37
 - location of, 37
 - reconstruction of interred bodies, 228
- Kharga Oasis, 247
- kohl, 128, 141–42
- Kom-el-Dikka
 - households in, 26
 - houses in, 25–26
 - mosaics, 26–27
 - Villa of the Birds, 26–27, 246
- Kothos, 162
- Kysis, temple in Kharga Oasis, 161, 291
- lamp and torch rituals
 - to honor domestic deities, 171
 - special oils, 171
 - spells and, 171, 281
- language in Roman Egypt, 20–21
- late childhood (ages 12 through 14)
 - apprenticeship, 79
 - differences between sexes, 74
 - experiential vocational training, 79

- late childhood (ages 12 through 14) (cont.)
 - gymnasium entry, 75
 - legal changes, 75
 - literacy, 76–79
 - menstruation, 74–75
 - shaving, 75
 - societal expectations, 75–76
- life course, 6
- life course in Roman Egypt
 - adulthood, 80–98
 - age identification, 46–47
 - childbirth, 55–60
 - conception, 47–49
 - early childhood (ages three through eight), 67–72
 - gender identification, 45–46
 - infancy (birth to age three), 60–66
 - late childhood (ages 12 through 14), 74–79
 - middle childhood (ages nine through eleven), 72–74
 - pregnancy, 52–55
- literacy in late childhood
 - for girls, 77
 - textual thoughts and feelings, 78
 - for upward mobility, 76
 - for wealthy, 76–77
- locks and keys, domestic, 242
- looms, 114
- Louvre figurine, 179, 284
- Lucretius, 47–48
- lung issues, 190–91
- magic
 - defined, 283
 - jewelry and, 146
- magic for practical applications
 - specific instructions for, 180
 - wax figurines, 179–80
 - writing spells in, 180–82
- maintenance, home
 - constant need for, 108
 - mud brick, 108–9
- malaria, 188
- malfortium*, 151
- mallokouria*, 12–15, 244
- Manichaean religion, 41
- marriage
 - based on unwritten societal agreement, 84–85
 - contract, 85–87
 - dowry, 87–88, 261
 - lack of age restrictions, 84
 - morality clauses, 88
 - and procreation, 84
 - sibling, 87
 - and society, 83–84
- Maspero, Gaston, 144–45
- material goods, 110–12
- medical instruments, 191–92
- menstruation
 - rags for, 74–75
 - social stigma of, 75
 - sparse evidence for, 74
- metropolite class, 62
- middle childhood (ages nine through eleven)
 - contacts outside of household, 73
 - ease of mobility in, 73
 - genital mutilation, 72–73
 - language exposure, 73
 - parental concern over, 73–74
 - relations with other household children, 73
 - spatial orientation, 73
 - work requirements of, 72
- midwifery, 55–56, 252
- mud brick
 - home maintenance, 108–9
 - Karanis house construction, 34
- mummification process
 - embalmers and necropolis workers, 209
 - embalming availability, 210
 - embalming routine, 210
 - final storage before burial, 210–11
 - reasons for, 209–10
 - wrapping, 210
- mummy labels, 212
- natron, 267
- niches, wall
 - decorative architectural shrine, 163–64
 - for hanging oil lamps, 171
 - as shrines, 162–63
 - storage, 163
- Nile river
 - agricultural labor and, 117–18
 - branches, 18
 - cataracts, 19
 - delta, 18
 - Fayum, 18
 - valley, 18
- nome*, 28, 247
- North Temple (Karanis), 34
- oases of Egypt, 19
- old age
 - depictions of men, 204
 - depictions of women, 202–4
 - forties and fifties as, 202
 - less jewelry, 204
 - living with younger family, 204
- oral care, 138, 272. see also dental issues
- ornaments. see jewelry
- orris root, 193
- ostraka, 116–17
- Oxyrhynchus
 - bathhouses, 136
 - houses in Roman Egypt, Kellis, 29
 - as large city, 28–30

- public events and festivals, 119
- waste disposal, 110
- Panopolis, 144–45
- papyri
 - hunters of, 11–12
 - Kahun Gynecological Papyrus, 47
 - in Kellis, 40–41
 - material turn in, 12
 - in Oxyrhynchus, 28–29
 - as textual source, 7
- parapherna*, 87
- parties, 120–21
- performing cult, 161–62, 278
- perfumes, 140
- pharaonic Egyptian life, 16
- pharmacy
 - ambiguous evidence for, 192
 - orris root, 193
 - processing of, 193
 - purgatives, 194
 - storage of, 194
 - traditional preparations for, 192–93
- Philae Temple, 168
- Philo of Alexandria, 8
- physical abuse
 - as good family discipline, 94–95
 - regional perceptions of, 95
- piercings
 - defined, 145
 - ear, 145–46
- practice theory, 3
- pregnancy
 - lifestyle changes during, 53
 - malformations and miscarriages, 53
 - religious figure for protection, 53–55
 - special precautions during, 53
 - status of unborn child, 55
- priests and ritual specialists as doctors, 197
- private clubs, 123
- production, household
 - agricultural labor, 112, 117–18
 - cottage crafts, 116–17
 - cut clothing, 114–15, 116, 267
 - laundry washing, 115–16
 - mending clothes, 116
 - spinning, 113–14
 - textile production, 112–13, 114, 266
 - weaving, 114, 266
- prospora*, 87
- prostitutes, 93
- protection, religious
 - charms for, 174
 - domestic, 176–79
 - embodied, 175–76
 - from treacherous daemons, 174
- provisioning the home
 - cooking space, 104
 - food preparation tools, 104–5
 - foods, 104
 - housework, 105–6
 - textual evidence of, 103–4
 - water procurement, 106–8, 265
- public events and festivals
 - as excuse to take time off work, 120
 - religious, 120
 - women’s roles in, 120
- public mourning period
 - communal nature of, 207, 208
 - dramatic, 207–8
 - funeral ending mourning period, 209
 - gender and, 208
- punishment, tattoos as, 143–44, 274
- purgatives, 194
- rape, 95–96
- regional cities in Roman Egypt
 - Oxyrhynchus, 28–30
 - Trimithis, 30–33
- religion
 - and dress, 153
 - generational tenacity, 158
 - infusing all facets of life, 157
 - Manichaean, 41
 - materiality, 161
 - priests and ritual specialists, 159, 277
- religion, household
 - cult paraphernalia, 173
 - domestic shrines, 162–65
 - figurines, 165–70
 - holy men making house calls, 159
 - lack of textual evidence for, 158, 277, 278
 - magic for practical applications, 179–82
 - performing cult practices, 161–62, 278
 - for protection, 174–79
 - rhythms of ritual practice, 173–74
- rest
 - afternoon siestas, 118–19
 - bed, 268
 - siestas, 118–19
 - sleeping rug, 118–19, 268
- ritual practice, domestic
 - astrology, 174
 - predictable rhythm of, 173
 - special foods for, 174
- role in Roman Egypt household
 - gendered expectations, 101–3
 - head of household, 100
 - slaves, 101
 - typical, 100
- Roman Egypt
 - demography of, 19–20
 - ethnicity, 22–23
 - geography of, 18–19
 - languages, 20–21
 - writing, 21–22

- Roman Egyptian communities
 - Greek cities, 23–27
 - lack of typical cities, 27–28
 - regional cities, 28–33
 - regional gods, 27
 - villages, 34–41
- Roman imperial practices, 16
- roses, 123
- Rufinus Aquileiensis, 177
- Schatzki, Theodore, 3
- scorpion stings, 189–90
- sebbakh*, 11, 246
- sentimental touching in Roman Egypt
 - brothels and prostitutes, 93
 - lack of clear evidence of, 91–92
 - between men, 93–94
 - sex and love, 92–93
- Serenos’s house (Trimithis)
 - location of, 31
 - separation of entrances, 31–32
- shoes
 - baby, 155
 - leather, 154–55
 - palm fiber, 154
 - status and, 153
- shrines, domestic
 - altars, 172
 - horned altars, 172, 281, 282
 - incense, 171–72
 - lamps as, 170–71
 - niches as, 162–63
 - wooden, 164–65
- siestas, 118–19
- sites of the social, 3
- skin. see also tattoos
 - color, 129
 - scarring, 129–30
- slaves
 - demographic data, 101
 - foundling children, 66
 - lack of respect for, 101
 - rough life of, 101
 - tattoos to identify, 143–44
- sleeping rug, 118–19, 268
- snake bite, 190
- social change
 - scholarly history of ordinary people’s influence, 3
 - weaving and, 3
- social events in Roman Egypt
 - ephemeral arts, 123–24
 - feasting and drinking, 121–23, 269
 - games, 124–25
 - parties, 120–21
 - private clubs, 123
 - public events and festivals, 119–20
- social skin
 - bathing, 136–38
 - body modifications, 142–46
 - as both instrument and outcome of social action, 127
 - cosmetics, 140–42
 - defined, 127
 - dress, 147–55
 - eyes, 130
 - hair, 130–35
 - important way to distinguish people, 129
 - jewelry, 146–47
 - oral care, 138, 272
 - perfumes, 140
 - skin, 129–30
 - tattoos as, 143
- Soknopaiou Nesos, temple of, 120, 159, 163
- soldier dress, 151–53
- sources, types of
 - archaeological, 9–12
 - ethnographic comparisons, 15–16
 - textual, 7–9
 - visual, 12–15
- South Temple (Karanis), 34
- spells
 - embodied protection, 175
 - internment, 223
 - for lamp and torch rituals, 171, 281
 - for practical magic, 180–82
 - by professional healers, 195
- sterility, 49
- sticharia*, 149–50
- Strabo, 8
- subfertility, 49
- tattoos. see also skin
 - archaeological interpretations of, 143, 274
 - as permanent social skin, 143
 - procedure, 143–44
 - as punishment, 274
 - rarity of, 144–45
- Tawaret figure, 53–55, 56
- tax documents (textual source), 8
- Tebtunis, 177
- Tebtunis, temples of, 194
- teething, 63–64
- temples
 - fertility treatments, 50
 - festivals, 159–61
 - importance of, 27
 - incubation place for medical treatment, 197
- Karanis, 34
- materiality, 161
- oracles, 277
- Oxyrhynchus, 29
- textile production, 112, 266
- textual sources
 - gynecological, 47–48
 - limitations of, 8–9

- makes permanent what could have been temporal, 9
- for Roman Egyptian life, 7–9
- Titianos, 7
- tomb architecture, 219–21
- Tomb of Isidora, 227
- toys, dolls, 70–71
- toys in Roman Egypt
 - caregiver oversight, 71–72
 - from everyday materials, 71
 - gendered expectations, 72
 - meant to mimic specific activities, 70–71
 - purchased, 69–70
- trachoma, 191
- transportation in Roman Egypt
 - arduous nature of, 43–44
 - necessity of, 44
- transportation in Roman Egypt, land
 - cart/wagon animals, 43
 - cost and speed of, 43
- transportation in Roman Egypt, water
 - boats, 42
 - canals, 42
 - ferries, 42
 - piracy, 42–43
- Trimithis. see also Dakhleh Oasis
 - B2 house, 32–33
 - cooking hearth, 105
 - schoolrooms, 77
 - Serenos’s house, 31–32
 - storage niches in, 163
- tunics
 - composition of, 148–49
 - decorations, 149
 - gendered expectations, 150–51
 - to hide flaws, 149
 - how to wear, 149
 - motifs, 150
 - quality differences, 150, 276
 - sleeved, 149–50
 - wardrobe, 150
- typhoid fever, 187
- unguentarium*, 128
- Villa of the Birds, 26–27, 246
- villages in Roman Egypt
 - animals, 41–42
 - Karanis, 34–36
 - Kellis, 37–41
- visual sources, 12–15
- waste management
 - difficulty of, 109
 - lack of sites for, 110
 - pigs and, 266
 - types of, 109–10, 265
 - unscrupulous nature of, 110
- weaning, 63
- weaving, 3
- weddings
 - arranged, 89
 - ceremony, 90
 - invitations, 89–90
 - roses in, 90
- wills and legalities, 225–26
- wine, 122–23, 128, 269
- writing in Roman Egypt
 - Coptic, 21–22
 - demotic script, 21
 - examples of, 21
 - Greek, 21
 - hieratic script, 21