

Index

- accommodationists, 49, 52
     and Republicans, 49 activists and partisan cleavage, 141, 142–146, 147, 148 political styles, 159
     and religious identification, 141, 145
     role in political parties, 16, 140–141, 167 Addington, Aislinn, 219 addition secularity, 9, 209, 221, 222
 AHA. See American Humanist Association (AHA)
 America as a religious nation, 10, 183
 America as a secular nation, 11–13, 17, 24
 American Atheists, 1, 2, 3, 9, 211
 American Ethical Union, 9
 American Humanist Association (AHA), 3, 13–14, 16, 29, 30, 47, 91, 211, 216, 220
     American Humanist Association Survey (2018), 17, 27, 31, 35–37
     membership demographics, 30
 American National Election Studies (ANES), 23, 98, 172–173
 “American Preservationists,” 172, 175
 American Secularists, demographics, 22
 American Values Atlas, 23
 Americans United for the Separation of Church and State (AU), 47, 221
 atheism, 5, 9, 14, 72, See also Nones, Secular Candidate Experiment, Partisan Secular Candidate Experiment distinct from secularism, 187 and political candidates, 20, 207
 Atheist Alliance, 27
 atheists, 8, 183–184, See also specific candidates aversion to, 182, 183–184, 186, 187 defined, 5
     discrimination against, 186 partisan gap toward, 187–188 as political candidates, 184, 186, See also Secular Candidate Experiment relationship to Nones, 7 “Atheists Don’t Have No Songs,” (Martin), 71 authoritarianism, 89, 90, 94

 backlash hypothesis. See politicized religion, backlash
 Baker, Joseph, 15, 25
 Barr, William, 138
 Bawn, Kathleen, 140
 Beinart, Peter, 139, 155
 Bellah, Robert, 50
 Biden, Joe, 165
 Bolling, Ken, 69
 bonding social capital, and civic engagement, 72–73
 Booker, Cory, 139, 152
 Boyle, Kevin, 138
 Brady, Henry, 71
 Breyer, Stephen, 47
 Buckner, Ed, 1
 Burke, Edmund, 70
 Bush, George W., 128, 216
 Buttigieg, Pete, 138, 139, 152, 165

 Campbell, David, 71, 98
 Carson, Ben, 138
 Carter, Jimmy, 215
 Casanova, Jose, 48
 Center for Inquiry, 1, 3, 9, 211

- Chaves, Mark, 11, 209
 Christianity as official religion, 52, 53
 Christians and free expression, 55 civic engagement, 70–81, See also each of the four groups and bonding social capital, 72–73
   nonpolitical activity, 17, 76–80
   and Non-Religionists, 70
   nonreligiosity, 76–80, 81
   personal secularism, 76–80 political activity, 17, 76–80
   and Religionists. See social networks and religious involvement, 71–72, 73, 76
   and secularism, 76
   and secularists, 17, 70, 72, See also social networks civil religion, 50, 63
   Pledge of Allegiance, 51, 52, 53
   presidential civil religion, 64–67
 Clerical Campaign Experiment, 17, 113
 Clinton, Hillary, 138, 152, 160–161
   and secularism, 95
 confessional party systems, 16
 Congressional Freethought Caucus, 211 conservatism and religiosity, 91
 Convention Delegate Studies (CDS), 17
   2012, 142
   2016, 142, 143, 145
 Cooperative Congressional Election Studies, 23
 Coulter, Ann, 166
 Council for Secular Humanism, 91
 cross-lagged models, 100, 101, 103 Cruz, Ted, 138, 170 culturally religious, 15, 172

 Darwin Day, 5
 datasets, 17
 Dawkins, Richard, 27
 Dean, Howard, 182
 Democratic conventions
   Iowa, 144, 145, 146
   Minnesota, 144, 145, 146
   Secularist delegates, 144
   Texas, 144, 145, 146
   Washington, 144, 145, 146
 Democratic Party, 3 and class, 164
   intraparty tension, 20, 139, 165
   party platform and God-talk, 152–153
   and race, 20, 139, 155, 164
   and religious identification, 144–146
   and secular caucuses, 211 and secular voters, 13, 83–85, 94, 105, 110–111, 149, See also voters
   and Secularists, 157–165
   secular–religious divide, 152–165
 Democrats, 3, 92, 96, See also political orientation
   and Non-Religionists, 89
   opinions on religion and politics, 111, 138, 188
   perception of secular candidates See Secular Candidate Experiment, Partisan Secular Candidate Experiment and Religionists, 20
   and secularist politics, 15, 19
   and Secularists, 13–14, 89
 Dewey, John, 10
 Djupe, Paul, 98

 Edgell, Penny, 72, 183
 egalitarianism, 89, 90, 94
 Ekins, Emily, 172, 175
Elk Grove Unified School District v. Newdow (2004), 51 Establishment Clause, 47, 49, 50–53, 56, 221 attitudes toward, 57 evangelical as ideological identity, 167, 214, 215–216, 217

 Falwell, Jerry, 216
 Finke, Roger, 12
 First Amendment, 6, See also Free Exercise Clause, Establishment Clause protection from government establishment of religion, 17 protection of religious free exercise, 17
 Fischer, Claude, 11, 98–99
 Fox, Jonathan, 48
 France, 48
 Free Exercise Clause, 47, 48, 50, 53–56, 67, 221
   and nonreligiosity, 55, 59
   and personal secularism, 57
 Freedom From Religion Foundation, 2, 3, 47, 211
 freethought, 7, 27
 Frost, Jacqui, 72

 Galloway, Susan, 47
 Gallup Poll, 23, 184, 189, 198
 General Social Survey (GSS), 3, 7, 23, 98
 generational change, 11
 Gerson, Michael, 128
 Gerteis, Joseph, 183

Index

245

- Gervais, William, 183
 Goldwater, Barry, 167, 218
 Gorsuch, Neil, 46
 Graham, Franklin, 108
 Green, Emma, 81–82, 99
 GSS. See General Social Survey
- Habitat for Humanity (HFH), 222
 Hamilton, Alexander, 183
 Harris, Kamala, 139, 152
 Harris, Sam, 27
 headscarves, 54, 55, 59, 62–63
 Hershey, Marjorie, 140
Hillbilly Elegy (Vance), 172
 Hitchens, Christopher, 27
 Holyoake, George Jacob, 27, 90
 Hout, Michael, 11, 98–99
 human experience and knowledge, 27
Humanism and Its Aspirations (AHA), 27
 Humanist Manifesto, 30
 Humanist Society, 9
 humanitarianism, 89, 90, 94
 Hume, David, 27
- identity politics, 20
   and secularist politics, 13–14
 ideological identification and nonreligiosity, 94, 95
   and the Republican Party, 170
   and Secularists, 89–90, 94
 IHEU. See International Humanist and Ethical Union (IHEU)
 Inglehart, Ronald, 11
 International Humanist and Ethical Union (IHEU), 27,
 intraparty tension, 153
- Jacoby, Susan, 215
 Jefferson, Thomas, 183
 Jeffress, Robert, 130
 Jews and free expression, 55
 Johnson Amendment, 54–55
 Jones, Doug, 108
- Kant, Immanuel, 27,
 Kennedy, Anthony, 46, 47
 Klobuchar, Amy, 165
 Kostielney, Andy, 2–3
- laïcité*, 48, 63, 67
 Land, Richard, 130
 legislative prayer, 47
- Lemon v. Kurtzman*, 47
Letter Concerning Toleration (Locke), 183 liberalism, and nonreligiosity, 91 Libertarian Party, 211, See also Paul, Rand
   and Non-Religionists, 15, 20, 166, 210
 liminals, 122
 Lippman, Walter, 10
 Locke, John, 183, 184
- Margolis, Michele, 98
Masterpiece Cakeshop, Ltd. et al. v. Colorado Civil Rights Commission et al. (2018), 46–47, 55
 McCarthy, John, 138
 McGovern, George, 218
 Military Association of Atheists and Freethinkers, 3
 Moore, Roy, 51, 107–108
 moral objections and commerce, 55, 56, 57, 59, 62–63
 moral relativism, 89–90, 94
 Mosca, Gaetano, 140
 municipal displays of religion, 2–3, 4 Muslims and free expression, 55, 61, See also headscarves
 Mutz, Diana, 73
- national convention delegates, Democratic, 16, 144, 147, 150
 national convention delegates, Republican, 16, 144, 146, 147, 150
 National Day of Reason, 5
 National Secular Party, 3
 Neiheisel, Jacob, 98
 Newdow, Michael, 51
 Niose, David, 215 nonbelievers, 1
   civil rights protections for, 4
 Nones, 3, 7, 8, 10, 19, 40
   defined, 5
   emerging identity, 5 growing size of, 5
   increased engagement, 5
   liminals, 6
   nominals, 6 relationship to atheists, 7 rise of, 22, 23, 98, 106, 110–111, 209, See also politicized religion, backlash spirituals, 6
 nonestablishment of religion. See Establishment Clause
 nonpolitical activity, 70, 71

- Non-Religionists, 8, 13, 14, 16, 39, 40–41, 44, 62–63, 70, 144, 210
 and civic disengagement, 175 and lack of distinct worldview, 13 and the Libertarian Party, 15, 20, 166, 210
 moral traditionalism, 175, 176–178
 and nonpolitical activity, 77, 79 party identification, 89, 96–97, 144, 163
 political activity, 79, 80, 157, 160
 in the Republican Party, 169, 170–171, 176, 178–179
 and Trump, 166–167, 168, 171, 172, 173–174, 175
 nonreligiosity, 17, 36, 37
 and Free Exercise Clause, 55, 59
 and opinions toward nonestablishment, 58
 over time, 42–43
 nontheistic belief systems, 9
 Norris, Pippa, 11
 North Carolina, 52
 Northern Indiana Atheists, 2–3, 4, 5, 14
- O’Hair, Madalyn Murray, 27
 Obama, Barack, 1, 3, 152–153, 211
 opinions on religion and politics
 Clerical Campaign Experiment, 113,
 114–122, 125, 134
 Democrats, 111
 Political Pastor Experiment, 113,
 122–128, 134
 Republicans, 111
 Transactional Religion Experiment, 113, 130–136
 opinions toward free exercise, 62, 63
 and nonreligiosity, 57, 59
 and party identification, 59
 and party politics, 57
 and personal secularism, 57, 59
 opinions toward nonestablishment, 62
 and nonreligiosity, 58
 and party identification, 57, 58
 and personal secularism, 57
 O’Reilly, Bill, 166
 O’Rourke, Beto, 139, 152
- Palmquist, Bradley, 99
 Partisan Secular Candidate Experiment, 17, 190–194, 197–211
 Democratic response, 200, 201, 203–206
 Republican response, 200, 201–202, 203 response to atheism, 201
 secularism and negative perceptions, 203 secularism in voters, 204–206
 Patrikios, Stratos, 98
 Paul, Rand, 166, 170
 Paul, Ron, 15, 166
 Pence, Mike, 135, 136
 and evangelicals, 136
 personal nonreligiosity, 7–12, See also
 Non-Religionists
 measures of, 22, 23–24
 personal religiosity, decline of, 6 personal secularism, 7–12, 16, 36, 68, See also Secularists
 defined, 26
 distinct from nonreligiosity, 17, 34–40
 and Free Exercise Clause, 57
 measures of, 22
 and opinions toward nonestablishment, 57
 over time, 42–43
 Personal Secularism Index, 26–27, 33–34, 39, 40, 215
 instrument design, 34–35, 36
 Pew Religious Landscape Survey (2014), 23
 Phillips, Jack, 46–47
 Philpott, Daniel, 48 pillars of faith
 addition of, 12
 realignment of, 11
 transformation of, 12
 Pledge of Allegiance, 6, 51, 52, 53
 polarization, political, 5, 80, 85–86, 105, 106, 149, 151, 210
 and secularism, 219–220
 political activity, 70
 and secularism, 77, 79, 81–82, 86
 political candidates, secular, 15, 20, 139, 152, 187, 212, See also Sinema, Kyrsten,
 Secularists, as political candidates,
 Sanders, Bernie
 political endorsements by clergy, 54–55, 56, 57–58, 59
 and race, 58
 political leaders, and religious talk, 111 political orientation
 and opinions toward nonestablishment, 57, 58
 and religious orientation, 83–85, 96–102
 and secularism, 92, 98–105, 106
 political parties. See also individual party entries
 Political Pastor Experiment, 17, 113
 politicized religion, backlash, 20, 107, 126, 134, 137, 210

Index

247

- backlash hypothesis, the, 110–120, 125, 128, 134
- evangelicals, 108–109
- politicized secularism, 181
- presidential civil religion, 64–67
  - and nonreligiosity, 64, 66
  - and party identification, 64, 66
  - and religionists, 65, 67
  - and secularism, 64–65, 66, 67
- presidential inaugural address, 1
- Principles of Secularism, The* (Holyoake), 27, 90
- Pruyser, Paul, 25
- public religion, 47–48
- Public Religion Research Institute, 23, 81
- public secularism, 6, 9, 17, 45–52, 210
  - distinct from private secularism, 48
  - and partisan differences, 49
- Putnam, Robert, 71, 98
- rationalism, 7
- Reagan, Ronald, 216
- Reason Rally, 3
  - 2012, 2
  - 2016, 2
  - and secularist politics, 13
- religion and conservative politics, 20
- religion in public life
  - Americans' perceptions of, 50, 55–56
  - and personal secularism, 50, 55–56
- Religionists, 8, 17, 21, 32, 39, 40, 41, 53, 62–63, 65, 68, 70, 76, 95, 96–97, 105, 128, 138, 139, 142, 144, 145, 170, 219–220
- moral traditionalism, 175, 176–178
- and nonpolitical activity, 77, 79, 80
- political activity, 79, 80, 81, 85, 86, 146, 150, 152, 160, 163
- Republican convention delegates, 144
- and the Republican Party, 166–167, 168, 169, 170–171, 172–176, 209
- religious diversity, 1
- religious humanism, 9
- religious leaders, and political engagement, 111
- religious liberty, 46–48
- religious markets theory, 12
- religious modernists, 8
- Religious Right, 11, 20, 54–55, 56, 107, 215, 216
  - and secularist politics, 13
- Religious Secularists, 8, 15, 16, 32, 39, 40–42, 43, 62–63, 77, 80, 96, 97, 142
  - and nonpolitical activity, 77, 79
  - political activity, 79, 80
  - religious symbols, wearing of, 54, 55, 59, 61
- Republican conventions, 168–171
  - delegate religious orientation, 168–170
  - Illinois, 144, 145
  - Religionist delegates, 144
  - Texas, 144, 145, 146, 170
  - Utah, 144, 145, 170
- Republican Party
  - intraparty tension, 116
  - and Non-Religionists, 176–179
  - and Religionists, 166, 167
  - and religious identification, 83, 97, 98, 144–146
  - and secular voters, 149
  - and secularism, 20
  - and Secularists, 166
- Republicans, 15, 20, 96, See also political orientation
  - moral traditionalism, 174–178
  - and Non-Religionists, 174–179
  - opinions on religion and politics, 111, 188
  - perception of Democratic humanist extremism, 138, 152, 166
  - perception of secular candidates See Secular Candidate Experiment, Partisan Secular Candidate Experiment
  - and Religionists, 174–179
  - religious exemptions to the law, 179
  - and religious voters, 83–85, 110–111, 167, See also voters
  - and Secularists, 15
  - white racial grievance, 178
- Robertson, Pat, 216
- Rockwell, Norman, 46
- Romney, Mitt, 147
- same-sex marriage, 46, 55, 84, 91, 101–102, 107
- Sanders, Bernie, 2, 5, 139, 147, 152, 160–161, 165, 182, 218
  - atheism, 182
- SAS. See Secular America Studies (SAS)
- Schickler, Eric, 99
- Schlozman, Kay, 71
- science and objective evidence, 27
- scientific naturalism, 7
- secular alternatives, 9–10
- Secular Age, A* (Taylor), 9

- Secular America Studies (SAS), 16, 19, 23–24
 datasets, 17
 Secular America Panel Study (SAS)
 (2010–2012), 17, 99–102
 Secular America Study (SAS) (2017), 17, 29, 30, 32, 34–38, 73–76, 83, 94, 145 survey design, 24–33
 secular American voting bloc, 2
 Secular Candidate Experiment, 17, 189–195
 political party differences, 192, 194, 197
 Secular Coalition for America, 3, 69, 181, 210,
 211, 214
Secular Faith: How Culture Has Trumped Religion in American Politics (Smith), 26 secular holidays
 Darwin Day, 5
 National Day of Reason, 5
 secular humanism, 9
 Secular Left, 21
 need for a common identity, 212–214, 215, 216–219
 rise of?, 211–223
 and virtual organizing, 219 secular politics, 13 secular self-descriptions, 183–184
 by Americans, 183, 186–187
 by political candidates, 183, 188–189
 Secular Student Alliance (SSA), 3, 69–70, 211 secular worldview, 24, 31–32, See also personal secularism
 secularism, 209
 defined, 5–6, 41–53
 distinct from absence of religiosity. See Secular America Studies (SAS)
 distinct from atheism, 187 and liberalism, 15, 56, 85–86, 87, 90, 91–92, 94–95, 96, 99, 101–102, 104, 153, 155, 157, 160, 170
 and party politics, 20, See also Democratic Party, and secular voters and political candidates, 20
 and politicized religion, 210 and public opinion, 19
 voter responses to, 20
 secularism and nonreligiosity gaps, 87–89, 95–96
 in the Democratic Party, 139
 and ideological identification, 157
 Secularist organizations, 3–5
 American Atheists, 3, 211
 American Ethical Union, 9
 American Humanist Association (AHA), 3, 13, 16, 29, 30, 47, 91, 211
 Americans United for Separation of Church
 and State (AU), 47
 Atheist Alliance, 27
 Center for Inquiry, 1, 3, 9, 211
 Council for Secular Humanism, 91
 Freedom From Religion Foundation, 3, 211
 Humanist Society, 9
 International Humanist and Ethical Union
 (IHEU), 27–28
 Military Association of Atheists and Freethinkers, 3
 National Secular Party, 3
 Northern Indiana Atheists, 2–3, 4–5, 14
 Secular Coalition for America, 3, 69, 181,
 210, 211, 214
 Unitarian Universalist Association, 9
 UUHumanists, 9
 Secularists, 8–12, 39, 40, 43–44, 209
 civic engagement by, 17
 (lack of) common identity, 212–214, 215, 216–217
 core principles, 27–28, 33–34
 Democratic state conventions, 144 demographics, 164
 distrust of, 15
 and nonpolitical activity, 77, 79
 organizational infrastructure, lack of, 218–219
 political activity, 13, 79, 80, See also Democrats
 as political candidates, 181–182, 183, 184, 188–189, 198, 210
 political engagement, 13, 14 as a potential constituency, 218, See also Secular Left
 and religious identification, 40–41
 self-identification, 29–31 secularization theory, 10–13 and the politicization of religion, 11 secular–religious cleavage. See polarization, political, secular–religious divide secular–religious divide, 95–97, 146, See also polarization, political secular–religious divide, Democrats, 140–146 and candidate preferences, 160–161 demographic determinants, 162–164
 and ideological identification, 158
 intraparty, 152–165 and liberal policy issues, 157 and political orientations, 157–165

Index

249

- and political style, 157, 158–160
- and race, 163–164
- Republican Party, 146
- secular–religious divide, interparty, 116
- secular–religious divide, Republicans
  - ideological orientation, 170
  - intraparty, 166–167, See also Trump, Donald
  - and Presidential preference, 170–171
  - in the Trump era, 167–168, 170–173, 180
- separation between church and state, 6, 17, 49, 52, 67
- separationists, 49, 52
  - and Democrats, 49
  - and Secularists, 52
- Sessions, Jeff, 46, 47, 107
- Silverman, David, 2
- Sinema, Kyrsten, 181–182
- Smidt, Corwin, 71
- Smith, Buster, 15, 25
- Smith, M. A., 26
- social networks, 72–76, 80, See also civic engagement
  - and like-minded communities, 74–76
- Sokhey, Anand, 98
- Southern Baptist Convention, Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, 130
- Speckhardt, Roy, 30
- Stark, Rodney, 12
- State Convention Delegate Study (SCDS) (2016), 17, 142–144, 145, 155
- state religion, absence of in United States, 48
- Strickland, Ted, 153
- subtraction stories, 9, 11, 209, 221–222
- Sunday Assembly, 9
- Taylor, Charles, 9, 10, 43, 48, 209, 221
- Ten Commandments, 51–52, 53, 107, 138
- theism, 8, 9
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 70
- Town of Greece v. Galloway*, 47
- Transactional Religion Experiment, 17, 113
- Trump, Donald, 54–55, 147, 165, 170, 172–184, See also Trumpism
  - and evangelicals, 54, 109, 128–130
  - and evangelical voters, 171
  - and Non-Religionists, 20
  - and religionists, 95
  - and Republican Non-Religionists, 172–174
- Trumpism
  - and Non-Religionists, 174–176, 179
  - and the Religious Right, 174
- US Supreme Court, 46, 47, 51, 129, 138
- Unitarian Universalist Association, 9
- United States as a religious nation, 6, 11, 43
- United States as a secular state, 6, 43
- UUHumanists, 9
- Vance, J. D., 172
- Verba, Sidney, 71
- Villaraigosa, Antonio, 153
- Voas, David, 11, 209
- voters, 20, 83–85, 87–89
- Warren, Elizabeth, 139, 152, 165
- Wehner, Peter, 108
- Zuckerman, Phil, 41