

Contents

Abbreviations	page viii
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction: Awakening to Linguistic Otherness	i
1 Meeting the Alloglottic Other: The Socio-Linguistic Landscape of the Ancient Mediterranean and the Spread of Christianity	18
2 Languages and Identities in Greco-Roman and Jewish Antiquity	53
3 The Tower of Babel and Beyond: The Primordial Linguistic Situation, the Original Language, and the Start of Linguistic Diversification	99
4 Speaking in Tongues in Christian Late Antiquity	170
5 Foreign Languages and the Discourse of Otherness	220
6 The Languages of Saints and Demons	288
Conclusion: What’s in the Language?	324
Bibliography	348
Index	401