

Contents

Acknowledgements	page vi
Introduction	1
1 Development and the Origin of Psychological Concepts	9
2 The History of Christianity and the First Principles of Development: Linear Time, Interiority, Structure	22
3 The History of Education: Rearing the Elect Child	69
4 Pascal on the Ordering of Human Time	85
5 The Normalization of the Elect: Locke to Montesquieu	105
6 The Coining of a Developmental Theory: Leibniz to Bonnet	137
7 Emile : Rousseau’s Well-Ordered Developer	166
8 Nature versus Nurture and Cognitive Ability Testing: Historical Sketches	186
Postscript: Further Targets for Historical Research	205
Index	208