

Index

- Action Group party, 22–23, see also All Progressives Congress (APC)
- African Model City
 defined, 28
 making Lagos into, 27–29
- Ajomale, Henry, 31
- Alaba International Market, 37
- All Progressives Congress (APC), 23, 27–30, 32
- Alliance for Democracy party, see All Progressives Congress (APC)
- American Chemical Manufacturers' Association (CMA), 118–119
- associations, private, see also governance, private; markets; traders assuring information-sharing, 121–122 boundaries, 25–27, 36 citizen's arrests in, 71 collusion with government, 8
 competition within, see competition constitutions, 24–25
 defined, 55
 determining membership in, 42–43 dispute resolution within, 61, 77, 79–80, 84, 110 effect of homogeneity on, 102, 104, 119 effect of internal competition on, 8 effectiveness of, 34, 44, 45 ethnic composition of, 83, 86 governing slums, 117–118 in Guinea, 119
 history in Lagos, 21–23 impact on firm growth, 46–47
 importance of, 18–19
 information-sharing in, 50–53, 66, 115 lack of research on, 20 in Mexico City, 113–114 obstacles to leaving, 90 obtaining lists of, 36–37, 47–48 on government land, 96–98 policing within, 71–72 political engagement in, 31–32, 75–76, 78, 95, 100 product diversification in, 98–100 product-based, 121 regulation by, 17–18
 size of, 47, 65
 state influence on, 10
 structure of, 19–20
 surveyed, 127–130
 in Tehran, 114–116
 transport associations, 67 trust within, 11
 types of, 1–2, 27
 in the United States, 66–67
 in Uganda, 116–117
 urban versus rural, 10, 11, 55, 64–65, 105, 119
- Auerbach, Adam, 35, 38, 52, 79, 117, 119
- Barnes, Nicholas, 52, 58, 113
- bazaars in Tehran, effect of state threats on, 114–116
- Bernstein, Lisa, 53–54
- Bhopal disaster, 118–119
- Bola Tinubu, Ashiwaju Ahmed, 23, 29, 31
- Bourdillon, Bernard Henry, 22
- case studies of private governance, 1–2, 68–91, 113–118
- chairmen, see governance, local
- CMA (American Chemical Manufacturers' Association), 118–119
- Coase Theorem, 51
- competition, see also information-sharing effect on cooperation, 71

- effect on information-sharing, 60–61, 92–93, 113
- product diversification and, 93, 94, 98–100, 120–121
- contracting, relational, 63–64, 123–124, 130
- courts, in developing world, 1, 12
- credit
 - affect of social ties on, 4, 9
 - in developing countries, 4, 123–124
- credit bureaus, motivating cooperation, 61
- credit markets, effect of state threats on, 112
- credit unions
 - information-sharing within, 121–122
- Cross, John, 113–114

- Dabiri market, 69–70, 78–82, 87–88, 90
- data quality, strategies for assuring, 35–44, 46–48
- Destiny market, 69–70, 83–89
- Diamond Dealers Club (DDC), 53–54
- dispute resolution, 61, 77, 79–80, 84, 110
- Disu, Aderinola, 73–74
- Duggan, Catherine, 112

- Ebe Ebe market, 68–70, 76–78, 87–89
- economy, informal, 3
- Ellickson, Robert
 - Order without Law*, 9, 50–51
- Enterprise Survey in Nigeria (2009), 36
- enumerators
 - auditing, 41–42
 - avoiding discretion, 35, 38–41, 46
 - training, 42, 43
- Ereko Market, 21
- ethnic homogeneity, 83, 86, 88, 102, 104, 119
- extortion, see also leaders, predatory
 - by government, 7–8, 20, 79, 81
 - case studies of, 1, 68–69, 76–78, 89
 - discouraging, 31, 64–65
 - member openness concerning, 135

- Fashola, Babatunde, 23
- favelas, effect of state threats on, 113
- Fearon, James D., 51–52
- financing, see credit
- Frye, Timothy, 10

- governance in Nigeria, 23, 30
- governance, local
 - extorting traders, 7–8, 20, 79, 81
 - involvement in markets, 31–32, 73–76, 82–83, 86
 - not formally recognized, 30
 - quality of, 108–109
 - structure of, 27–28
 - threatening markets, 7, 15, 32–33, 93
- governance, private
 - assessing, 93–94
 - business outcomes and, 122, 136
 - case studies, 1–2, 68–90, 113–118
 - clustering and, 106–107
 - effect of homogeneity on, 65, 69, 88, 104
 - effect of long-serving leaders on, 87
 - effect of proximity to local government, 105
 - effect of state threats on, 5–9, 15–16, 57–61, 120
 - effect of trader mobility on, 105–106
 - effect on economy, 124
 - features of good governance, 52–53, 55, 70–71
 - findings on, 15–16
 - on government versus private land, 15, 93, 96–98, 132–133, 136
 - improving, 121–122
 - in United States, 9, 50–51, 118–119
 - in-group sanctioning and, 50–51
 - inducements to, 54–60
 - influences on, 122–123
 - invisibility of bad governance, 91, 109
 - member openness concerning, 135
 - obstacles to good governance, 10–11, 60–61, 90
 - political engagement and, 100
 - product diversification and, 93, 94, 98–100, 103, 120–121
 - quality of local governments and, 108–109
 - rarity of good governance, 91, 95–96
 - reasons for bad governance, 80–81
 - reducing need for, 123–124
 - relationship to products sold, 104–105
 - rule of law and, 119–120
 - social ties and, 103–104
 - spectrum of, 98
 - theories of, 2–3, 9–10, 12, 49–67
- group leaders, see leaders
- groups, informal, see associations, private
- guilds, medieval
 - effect on economy, 124

- Hadfield, Gillian, 9
- homogeneity, ethnic, 83, 86, 88, 102, 104, 119
- Hummel, Calla, 38

- Ilu committee, 21
- informal associations, see associations, private
- informal economy, 3
- informal groups, see associations, private
- informal urban markets, see markets

Index

147

- informal workers, see ranchers; taxi drivers; traders
- information-sharing, see also competition between traders, 100 effect of competition on, 60–61, 92–93, 113 in associations, 53, 57, 102–122 obstacles to, 63–64
 regarding markets, 90, 105–106
- Ingleby, Richard, 51
- Islamic Association of China and Glassware Guild of Tehran, 115
- Islamic Revolution, effect on bazaaris in Tehran, 114–116
- Kampala City Council Authority, 116–117
- Kang, David, 9
- Keshavarzian, Arang, 114–116
- King, Andrew A., 118
- Lagos
 as African Model City, 27–29
 informal economy in, 3, 125
 Lagos state, 23–24
 markets in, 1–3, 7–8, 11–12
 rule of law in, 12, 33
 self-sufficiency, 30
 size of, 12
- Lagos Market Women Association, see Lagos
 Market Women's Guild
- Lagos Market Women's Guild, 21–23
- Lagos State Ministry of Local Government and Chieftancy Affairs, 125
- Lagos Trader Survey associations surveyed in, 127, 130 exogenous variation in, 102–103 first round of, 36
 incentivizing participation in, 39–40 questions asked in, 132 results of, 130, 132, 136
 second round of, 45
- Laitin, David D., 51–52
- Larson, Jennifer M., 52
- law, intentional nonenforcement of, 20
- leaders, see also associations, private; markets as powerful, 19, 21, 22
 characteristics of, 11
 colluding, 61–63, 77 discouraging extortion by, 31, 64–65 governing well, 53–55, 70–72
 importance of, 3–6, 51–52
 incentives of, 56–57
 information sharing, 53 lifetime appointments of, 87–88, 94–95, 102 market versus slum leaders, 117–118 mobilization tactics, 31–32 obstacles to removal of, 10–11, 62 responding to group homogeneity, 65–66 response to threats, 59–61, 81, 113–118, 120 sanctioning local government, 31–32 selection of, 117 sharing information, 57, 100, 102
 state influence on, 7–8 strength of, 22, 57, 68–69, 76–87
 types of, 1–3
 view of taxation, 32
- leaders, predatory, see also extortion among street vendors, 113–114
 case studies of, 1, 68–69, 76–78, 89 in transportation associations, 116–117
 in United States, 118–119
 member mobility and, 119
- Leeson, Peter, 57, 121
- legal system, see courts
- Lenox, Michael J., 118
- local governance, see governance, local
- Macaulay, Herbert, 21, 22
- market associations, see associations, private
- market leaders, see leaders
- Market Men and Women Association, 23, 81, 125, see also Lagos Market Women's Guild
- market unions, see associations, private
- markets, see also associations, private; traders allocation of stalls in, 22
 case studies, 68–91
 characteristics of, 3
 competition within, see competition
 creating sampling frame, 36–37 distance from local government, 105 effect of trader social ties on, 103–104
 ethnic composition of, 88–89
 on government versus private land, 15, 23, 93, 94, 103, 132–133, 136 government involvement in, 83 government tolerance of, 20 in colonial Uganda, 112 in medieval England, 112
 lack of information sharing on, 90 obtaining information about, 105–106 perceptions of, 17, 20
 political engagement in, 31–32, 75–76, 78, 95, 100
 product diversification in, 93, 98–100, 103
 products sold in, 46, 135
 size of, 104
 starting, 90

- types of associations in, 1–3
- urban versus rural, 10, 11, 55, 64–65, 105, 119
- Mattingly, Daniel C., 65
- McMillan, J., 52
- megacities, 12, 27–29
- megaprojects in Lagos, 27–29
- Mogaji, Abibat, 23
- Mohammad Reza Pahlavi, 114
- monorails in Lagos, 29
- National Agency for Food and Drug Administration and Control (NAFDAC), 74–75
- Ogilvie, Sheilagh, 90
- Oke Arin market, 68–76, 87–89
- Oke, Rabiātu Alaso, 22
- Olanrewaju, Aluko Abubakar, 37
- Olatunji, Eshinlokun Sanni Wasiu, 74
- Olson, Mancur, 11, 65, 87, 94, 104
- Order without Law* (Ellickson), 9, 50–51
- Ostrom, Elinor, 10, 51–53, 88, 121
- Owen, Olly, 56
- Paller, Jeffrey, 52, 117
- Pelewura, Alimotu, 21–22
- Peoples Democratic Party (PDP), 23, 29, 32
- Polanyi, Karl, 9
- politicians
 - incentives of, 56
- Post, Alison, 124
- predatory leaders, see leaders, predatory
- private associations, see associations, private
- private governance, see governance, private
- product diversification, private governance
 - and, 93, 94, 98–100, 103, 120–121
- property rights protection, 4
- Pullen marketing scheme, 22
- ranchers
 - private governance among, 9, 50–51
- Responsible Care, 118–119
- Richman, Barak D., 51, 53–54, 112
- settlements, informal, 29
- shop sleeping, 31, 95, 100, 102
- Skarbek, David, 51, 53, 67
- sleeping in shops, 31, 95, 100, 102
- social ties
 - affect on credit, 4, 9
 - breakdown of, 115
 - effect on private governance, 103–104
 - protective nature of, 55, 65, 117
- Startz, Meredith, 64, 105
- state threats
 - effect on bazaaris in Tehran, 114–116
 - encouraging group solidarity, 6–8
 - land type and, 15, 32–33, 93, 96–98
 - leader response to, 59–61, 81, 113–118, 120
 - leading to credit markets, 112
 - leading to good governance, 5–9, 15–16, 57–61, 120
 - prosperity and, 102–103
 - reasons for, 15, 58–59, 93, 96–98, 103
 - rule of law and, 119–120
- street vendor associations, see associations, private
- street vendors, see also traders
 - extortion of, 113–114
- Stringham, Edward, 51, 91
- supplier-trader relations, 63–64, 121, 123
- taxi drivers, in Uganda, 19, 116–117
- Tehran Bazaar, private governance in, 114–116, 119
- Thachil, Tariq, 36, 38, 39, 52, 79
- Tilly, Charles, 58
- Tinubu-Ojo, Folashade, 23
- trade associations, see associations, private
- Trade Fair, 26, 27, 42–43
- trade in developing countries, 124
- trader extortion, see extortion
- traders, see also associations, private; markets
 - creating sampling frame, 36–37
 - dealing with predatory leaders, 64–65, 89
 - determining association membership, 42–43
 - extortion of, see extortion
 - in Tehran, 114–116
 - incentives of, 56–57
 - mobility of, 43–46, 66, 90, 105–106, 114, 119
 - monetary concerns, 4
 - products sold by, 46, 135
 - property rights, 4
 - questions asked of, 132
 - reasons for market selection, 90, 105–106
 - relations with suppliers, 63–64, 121, 123
 - sampling, 37–42
 - sharing space, 47
 - size of business, 123–124
 - social ties between, 4, 9, 65, 103–104, 115
 - speaking out about extortion, 135
 - statistics on, 44–46, 133
 - surveying, 34–48, 69–70, 93–98, 109
 - taxation of, 21–24, 32, 47, 55, 86
 - in United States, 3
 - urban versus rural, 4, 10–11, 55, 64–65, 105, 119

Index	149
Uganda Taxi Operators and Drivers Association (UTODA), 116–117 vertical integration, 124
Weingast, Barry, 5, 9, 54
Woodruff, C., 52
workers, informal, see ranchers; taxi drivers; traders World Bank Enterprise Survey in Nigeria (2009), 36 “zoning”, 86	