Index

aesthetics. See also décor; fashion Black women’s bodies and, 24–26
airshafts, 219–22
American Cocktail (Reynolds), 22–23
American Indians
Dutch colonial settlement and, 110 fictional accounts of, 111 anti-imperialism and transnationalism
Du Bois on, 181–85
United Negro Improvement Association (UNIA) and, 236, 246, 250
Asian Exclusion Act (1924), 185 audio recordings, 46–47. See also sound recordings authenticity cabaret and, 41
ethnography and, 157–58 sound recordings and, 49–54, 66–67
The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man (Johnson)
Blackness, description of, 95 décor, use of description, 89 dress-making by narrator’s mother, 93–95 fashion, abstract descriptions of, 78, 80, 87–93 fashion, inner thoughts versus outward presentation, 80
lynching and, 87–93, 95–96
overview of, 78
religion and theatricality, 213
“The Back Room” (Hurston), 160–62
Baker, Houston A., Jr., 237–39
Baker, Josephine, 35
Banjo Man (Hurston)
Kossula and fractures in community, 169–70
Kossula’s agency, respect for, 158–71
Kossula’s construction of narrative, 167–69 publication history, 155, 167 beauty contests, 77
Benedict, Ruth, 158–60, 164
Patterns of Culture, 155, 159
Bennett, Gwendolyn, 11, 37, 281
Black bourgeoisie education, racial uplift, and lineage, 260, 262, 268, 271–75 taste and, 39
Black Cameos (Kennedy), 321
Black dandyism, 28, 86, 208–9
Black feminism leadership and, 244–46 politics of respectability and, 40
Black Manhattan (Johnson)
Black experiences, erasure of negatives, 130–48 crime in Harlem, 145
Dutch settlement and slavery, 124 economy and Black Harlemites’ work ethic, 138–39
Garveyism, dismissal of, 200
Great Depression as context for, 148
Harlem, Black movement to, 132 migrants to Harlem, 130
purpose of, 132
racial discrimination, erasure of, 138 violence, erasure of, 132, 134
Black masculinity
dandyism, 28, 86, 208–9
double-bind of, 85, 93 “feminization” of, 92–93 soldiers and masculinity, 85–86
Black No More (Schuyler), 117–18
Black women’s bodies agency and, 143, 165 fashion and, 32–33, 35, 38, 76, 84–85
The Blacker the Berry (Thurman), 33, 224, 260
Blackwell, Randolph, 252
“Blueprint for Negro Writing” (Wright), 148 blues tfolk song and, 48
jelly songs, 54–55
literature, influence on, 162 poetry and, 61–63, 66–67

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
blues (cont.)
records of, popularity, 50 technical aspects of, 19–60
Boasians and Franz Boas, 136–60
Bolden, Richard M., 147
Boni & Liveright, 315, 321
Bonner, Marita
“On Being Young – a Woman – and Colored,” 3–4
“Young Blood Hungers,” 214
Bono, Louis, 246
Bourdieu, Pierre, 19–20
Brigman, Jacob, 137
Brooker, Peter, and Andrew Thacker, 316
Brooks, Gwendolyn
Maud Martha (1953), 76
Brooks, Van Wyck, 122
Brown, 315–16
Brown, Elenore, 244
Brown, Sterling, 3, 57
“Ma Rainey” and Brown’s poetry, 63–66
Bundles, A’Leila, 24
Burghardt, Tom, 109, 114
Burnoughs, Nannie Helen, 215 cabaret authenticity of, 41
literary representations of, 37–41
religion, and similarities to, 210–17, 219, 224 Cane (Toomer)
advertisements for, 315, 321
Black-white racial binary, 119 cabaret culture, representation of, 37–18 fashion in, 38, 75
overview, 36
publication in magazines, 315–18
reception of, 109
religion and, 206
Carby, Hazel, 144
Caribbean migrants, 197, 224, 321. See also Garvey, Marcus; Garveyism; McKay, Claude census, 44747
“Characteristics of Negro Expression” (Hurston), 159
Chesnutt, Charles W., 198
Chicago Defender, 1, 6, 281
Clark, Alonzo Howard, 127n25
Claymes, Raymond, 140
Cohen, Octavius Roy
Birmingham, Alabama, fictionalized account, 297
Black response to, 289, 292–93, 295–96, 303–4 contemporary obscurity, 303–4

Index

fiction of, and modernity, 287–88, 299–303 Midnight Motion Picture Corporation, recurring stories of, 287, 298–304 ubiquity of, 289, 294–95
Collins, Virginia, 250
colorism, 28, 31, 35, 208, 260
Committee of Fourteen (COF), 141–42, 146
Covarrubias, Miguel
Negro Drawings, 210–12
The Crisis
advertisements for, 339
art and, 180, 222, 281
gender and, 37
mainstream (“white”) magazines, authors’ shift toward, 312–13 modernism and, 109, 318 Pan-Africanism and, 105
racial discrimination, 136, 296
Cullen, Countee, 24, 51, 58, 105, 317
Curtis, A. Maurice, 266
Davies, Effa, 262
Dark Princess (Du Bois)
Afro-Orientalism and, 186–87 racial context for novel, 185–86, 188 segregation, worldwide expansion, 298 synopsis of, 186 transnationalism and, 187–91 violence, use of, 190–91
Dark Tower Salon, 22, 24. See also salons
Darkwater (Du Bois)
Africa, centering of, 182
anti-imperialism, 181–82
Dutch heritage of Harlem in, 114
Ethiopianism, use of, 182
readership of, 181
segregation, expansion worldwide, 291, 298 transnationalism, 181
World War I, criticism of, 181
Davis, Henrietta Vinton, 245
Davis, Thadious M., 262, 268, 270–71
Day, Marion D., 137
De los Reyes Castillo Bueno, María “Reyita,” 252
De Mena, Maymie, 245
décor class-based, 27–28, 38, 89 fantasy and whimsy, role of, 26 salons as fashionable, 24 women’s fashion, link to, 28
demi-monde, 32, 37
Dickinson, Blanche Taylor
“The Walls of Jericho,” 216
“The Dilemma of the Negro Author” (Johnson), 3
Domingo, W. A., 321
Donaldson, Ivanhoe, 252 double consciousness, 242, 290, 310
Douglass, Frederick, 114, 119–20
Du Bois, W. E. B. aesthetics, understanding of, 179–81
afro-asian philosophy of world history, 187
Cohen, response to, 103
devolution, counteracting of, 179–81
Dutch ancestry of, 109–10, 114, 119–20
education, views on, 258, 264
fluid text, 191–92
Garvey and, 199–200, 240, 247, 254
Garveyism, criticism of, 191
Great Migration and white workers, writing on, 179, 185–86
Larsen and Quickstand, 271 literary criticism, 77 problem of the color line, 290 race relations in New York City, 136 registration, segregation of own experiences of, 290–91 registration and transnationalism, 291–92 Sons of the American Revolution and, 117 stereotypes in fiction, response to, 296 Toomer, assessment of, 109 transnational figure, 291
Du Bois, W. E. B., works of. See also Dark Princess; Darkwater “Criteria of Negro Art,” 180, 303
“Of Work and Wealth” (Darkwater), 179
The Souls of Black Folk, 213, 310
“Strivings of the Negro People,” 310
World Tomorrow and, 323
“The Younger Literary Movement” (with Locke), 109
Duban, Paul Laurence
Saturday Evening Post, writing for, 297
Dust Tracks on a Road (Hurston), 159
Dutch ancestry, romanticism of, 112–13
Edison, Thomas, 49 education gender inequalities, 267–68 industrial schools as racial subordination, 265–66 racial uplift, Eurocentric ideals of, 259–61, 269–70
Ellington, Duke, 143, 219
Elliott, Michael A., 158–60
Ethiopianism, 182
ethnography. See also Hurston, Zora Neale autoethnography and authenticity, 158 “objectivity,” goal of, 157 scientific racism, refutation of, 156

fashion. See also Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man (Johnson); VanDerZee, James agency, mark of, 81–82 belonging, mark of or exclusion from, 33–34, 91–92
Black masculinity and “feminization,” 92–93 bright colors and sensuality, 75–76 church clothes, 208–9 gendering of, 91, 95 literary device, 77–80, 83 mimicry and, 76, 92 modernity, signal of, 32, 35, 84–85 privilege and taste, 35
purpose of, 90–93
visual versus literary medium, 74, 76
Fauset, Arthur Huff, 154–58
“T’apin (Terrapin),” 167
Fauset, Jessie, 62, 136
Plant Bun, 76, 208
There Is Confusion, 321
Fine Clothes to the Jew (Hughes) blues influence on, 57–65
reception of, 57–58, 62, 66
Fire!!, 205, 323
The Fire in the Flint (White), 213
Fisher, Rudolph religion, portrayal of in short stories, 217–22 religion in The Walls of Jericho, 222–27
“The Caucasian Storms Harlem,” 139, 219
“The Promised Land,” 220–22
“The South Lingers On”/“Vestiges,” 218–20, 321
The Walls of Jericho, 208–9, 222–27
Fisk University, 259
fictionalized account (see Quickstand) fluid text (John Bryant), 179–79, 191–92 folk music, 52–53, 55
blues and, 48
mass production and mass marketed, 50
The Forum, 135–28
Frank, Waldo
Holiday, 321
Frankl, Paul T., 234
Franklin, E. Franklin, 264, 266
Garvey, Marcus. See also Garveyism; UNIA arrest of, 245
Dutchness and, 119–20
failure thesis of Harlem Renaissance, 237–39 Federal Bureau of Investigation and, 236 international travel of and influences on, 234
Garvey, Marcus. (cont.)
- Ku Klux Klan, meeting with, [234n15]
- legacy of, [237]
- Marcus Garvey: Look for Me in the Whirlwind (film), [232]
- portraiture, use of, [86, 240, 251]
- target of opponents, [236]

Garveyism. See also Garvey, Marcus; UNIA
- Black sovereignty, steps toward, [239–40]
- Black support for, [244]
- capitalism and, [247–50]
- criticism of, [101]
- diaspora, unification of, [247–50]
- failure of, perception of, [232–33, 239–40]
- flexibility of, [252]
- gender and, [244–46]
- Haiti and, [246]
- legacy of, [234]
- literary representations of, [106]
- portraiture, use of, [211]
- theatricality and symbolism of, [123, 241–45]
- utopianism and, [247–50]

Gates, Henry Louis, Jr., 84, 327
- Gentleman Jigger (Nugent), 295–96

Gilkandi, Simon, 20

Gimbel Brothers, 136

Gitelman, Lisa, 13, 47

Gold, Mike
- Hoboken Blues, 122–24
- Goldsby, Jacqueline, 87–89
- gospel music, 50

Grainger, Porter, 54–56

gramophone, 49

Grant, Colin, 239–40

Grant, Madison, 292–94

Great Masculine Renunciation, 85

Great Migration
- community through religion, 218–22
- dislocation and alienation, feelings of, [47, 49, 214–15, 218–19]
- organizations for migrants, 154
- urbanization within South, [297]
- white workers and, [179, 185–86]

Green Leaf Melody Club, 142

Greenwich Village, 38

Grice, Dennis, 147

Griffin, Farah J., 197, 207

Guridy, Frank, 243, 250–52

Gyasi, Yaa
- Homegoing, 11

Haarlem, Netherlands, 110

habitus, definition of, [20]

Haidarali, Lalita, 28, 34

Haiti
- U.S. occupation of, [246]
- Handy, W. C., 61

Harlem
- Black recreation, [140–42, 147–48]
- crime, [145–48]
- informal economy of, [138–42]
- legalism, use of, [135]
- migrants to, [143]
- police brutality in, [133–35]
- population increase of, [191]
- slavery in New York, [101]
- violence, interracial, [133–36]
- white gaze, [139]
- white gaze, escape from, [141]

Harlem (City of New York) (Riker), 112

Harlem at Night (Reiss), 227
- “Harlem Renaissance,” use of term, [305n4]
- “Harlem: Dark Weather-Vane” (Locke), 148
- “Harlem: The Culture Capital” (Johnson), [135, 139, 145]
- “Harlem – The Negroes of New York” (WPA), [124

Harrison, Hubert, 3

Hartman, Saidiya, 25, 41, 90

Hayes, Roland, 259
- “Heritage” (Cullen), 105
- hip-hop culture, [233, 240, 242]
- Hoboken Blues (Gold), [122–24]

Holiday (Frank), 321

Holland Society of New York
- Dutchness as Americanness, [113–16]
- membership as New York’s elite, [112–14]
- membership requirements, [117]
- United Negro Improvement Association (UNIA), comparison to, [120]
- Holly, Alonzo P., [246
- Holly, Theodora, [246

Home to Harlem (McKay), 77, 144

Homegoing (Gyasi), 11

Houenou, Kojo Tovalou, 86
- “How It Feels To Be Colored Me” (Hurston), [324–25]

How to Play and Sing the Blues Like the Phonograph and Stage Artists (Grainger and Ricketts), 55

Howard University, 260

Hubert, James, 146

Hughes, Langston
- African Americans’ cultural distinctiveness, celebration of, [223]
- blues poetry and, [57–63]
- fashion, description of, [75]
- film-making and, [287]
- identity and, [288]
Index

music and, 47, 52–53, 57, 64 publication in periodicals, 317
white gaze, 140
Hughes, Langston, works of. See also Fine Clothes to the Jew
The Big Sea, 32, 58
Black and White (film) and, 287
“Harlem,” 103
“The Negro Artist and the Racial Mountain,” 47, 222, 304
“The Weary Blues” (poem), 24, 47
The Weary Blues (collection), 52–53, 60
“When Sue Wears Red,” 75
Hurston, Zora Neale
autoethnographer, 158
Broadway productions of, 55
career of, 134–56
Cohen, response to, 298
community as fractured, 165–66, 169–70 composer of blues songs, 54–56 education of and Bosaians, 156–60 ethnographic objectivity, subversion of, 160–61, 164, 167–69 ethnography, addressing Benedict, 159–60, 164 ethnography, publications, 157 fashion, use of in writing, 77 fiction and folklore, blending of, 157 field work in South, 158 folk music and, 51–53
gaze and, 162–67
HBCUs, views on, 260
Hughes, marketing of, 56 religion, study of, 213 sound recordings, use of in field, 53–54 sound recordings as inauthentic, 49–54 urban fiction ties to ethnography, 158
Hurston, Zora Neale, works of. See also Barracoon
“The Back Room,” 160–62
“Characteristics of Negro Expression,” 159
Dust Tracks on a Road, 159
“How It Feels to Be Colored Me,” 324–25
“Jelly, Look What You Done Done!,” 54–56
“Monkey Junky,” 162–64
Mules and Men, 171
Their Eyes Were Watching God (1937), 77
Hutchinson, George, 36–37, 284, 288, 313, 314, 316
In Search of Nella Larsen, 259, 262–63, 269, 272–73
Imes, Elmer S., 271, 278n13 immigration and nativism, 183–86, 188, 292–93
imperialism, 236
International Workers of the World, 316
Irving, Washington, 111, 123
Jacobs, Harriet, 15
James, Felicia, 141
jazz, 50, 301
“Jelly, Look What You Done Done?” (Hurston), 54–56
Johnson, Barbara, 324
Johnson, Charles S., 317, 321, 327. See also Johnson, James Weldon, experience at, 50–51
Johnson, Darlene, 140
Johnson, Gabriel, 324
Johnson, Guy B.
The Negro and His Songs with Odum, 31
Johnson, James P., 144
Johnson, James Weldon
career of, 130
Haiti and Garveyism, 246
Harlem as beacon for Black world, 132, 135
New York City portrayal, shift in, 130 preachers, criticism of corruption, 208 racial discrimination, challenges to, 136, 138 rural discrimination, erasure of whites’ actions, 138
Johnson, James Weldon, works of. See also The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man; Black Manhattan
“The Dilemma of the Negro Author,” 3
“Harlem: The Culture Capital,” 135, 139, 145
“The Making of Harlem” (1925), 132
“Words and Clothes,” 90–93
Josephson, Matthew, 315, 318
Jung, Carl, 326
Kachun, Mitch, 200
Kellogg, Paul, 319–23
Kennedy, R. Emmet
Black Camel, 321
Kossula, 104, 155, 167–71. See also Barracoon
(Hurston)
Ku Klux Klan, 254n15
Lamothe, Daphne, 148, 171, 214–15
Larsen, Nella. See also Quicksand dialect, use of in fiction, 327–28 religion, use of in fiction, 208 “Sanctuary,” 325–28
scholarship and biographies on, 262
Tuskegee Institute, experience at, 264–68, 271
366

Index

consumerism, celebration of, 11
folk art, 48, 50
minstrelsy and commodification of Blackness, 67–94
utopianism and, 34–50
Mays, Benjamin, 226
The Negro God, 205
McDowell, Deborah E., 4–5, 276
McHenry, Elizabeth, 12
McKay, Claude, 239, 317, 321
Home to Harlem, 11, 77, 144
Hughes, response to, 58
McLaughlin (Police Commissioner), 147
Mencken, H. L., 296
Mending Socks (Motley), 212
Meschrapom film company, 287
The Messenger, 21, 282, 313, 324
The Letters of Davy Carr (Williams), 26–27, 29
Middle Passage, 167
Miller, Monica L., 15, 28, 208
Mills, Jacob Samuel, 250
minstrelsy, 13. See also Cohen, Octavus Roy violence, reproduction of, 67–94
“Monkey Junk” (Huston), 162–64
Monroe, Amy, 142
Moore, Audley, 252
Moore, Fred D., 135, 147
Morales, Eduardo, 250
Morrison, Toni, 200, 219
Morley, Archibald
Mending Socks, 212
Tongues (Holy Rollers), 212
Moton, Robert R., 270
movies, 221, 299–303
Black film companies, 287, 300
Muhammad, Elijah, 252
Mules and Men (Huston), 171
Mullen, Harryette
Trimmings, 77
Murray-Washington, Margaret, 267, 272 NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People), 136. See also The Crisis
Natalie Mann (Toomer)
Black aristocracy and Washington, DC, 39
cabaret culture in, 39–41
Marxism and, 40
overview, 36
setting of, 38
nativism, 18–86
The Negro and His Songs (Odum and Johnson), 51
“The Negro Art-Hokum” (Schuyler), 222
Negro Drawings (Covarrubias), 210–12

The Letters of Davy Carr (Williams)
cabaret culture, description of, 38 colorism, critique of, 35
décor, appraisal of, 27, 34–35
overview of, 26
Washington, DC, and Black imitation, 35–36
Washington, DC, and Harlem, juxtaposition of, 32
Washington, DC, as stylish, 35
When Washington Was in Vogue (Williams) and, 294–96 women’s bodies and fashion, 32–33, 35
Lewis, David Levering, 237–39
Lewis, Theophilus, 18
The Liberator, 316–17
Liberia, 120
Little, Earl, 252
Locke, Alain
annual retrospective in Opportunity, 6
Faust and, 156
Hughes, response to, 58
stereotypes, harm of, 291
Survey Graphic and, 291, 313, 319–23
Locke, Alain, works of. See also The New Negro
“The Concept of Race as Applied to Social Culture,” 320
“Harlem: Dark Weather-Vane,” 148
“The New Negro” (essay), 2, 291
“The Younger Literary Movement” (with Du Bois), 109
Loews Theaters, 137
Logan, Rayford
Why We Should Study Negro History,” 292
Lorimer, George Horace, 294, 297, 303
Love, Robert, 235
lynching, 87–93
depiction in literature, 95–96
“Ma Rainey” (Brown), 63–66
Maceo, Antonio, 250 magazines advertisements in, 316, 319, 321, 327
Black-edited periodicals, 312–13, 318 codes and, 314, 316, 321, 326–27 mainstream (“white”) publication of Black authors, 317–19
modernity, centrality to, 311 networks, construction of, 313–14 publications as dialogue, 313–16
“The Making of Harlem” (Johnson), 132
Marke, George O., 86
Marxism, 40, 316
Mason, Charlotte Osgood, 167, 175n58 mass consumption. See also stereotypes and representations
© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
“Negro Life in New York’s Harlem” (Thurman), 143–44, 207, 215
Negro World, 119, 122, 232–33, 235, 243–46, 250, 282. See also UNIA
The Negro’s God (Mays), 205
The New Negro (Locke) contributors to, 156, 167, 182, 293
“The New Negro” (essay), 2, 291 publication in Survey Graphic, 313, 319–23 race records (music), omission of, 50 religion and biblical iconography, 205 white supremacy (domestic and global), 292
New Negro Literary Decor, 28
New Negro recording imaginary blues as folk song, 48 definition of term, 47
folk art versus mass produced and marketed, 50
The New York Age, 135
New York Amsterdam News, 6, 147, 281
New York Urban League (NYUL), 145–47
Nkrumah, Kwame, 252
Nugent, Richard Bruce
Gentleman Jigger, 295–96
Olum, Howard
Negro and His Songs (with Johnson), 51
Opportunity, 6, 281, 312–13, 318
Page, Myles, 163
Palms, 317
Parsons, Elsie Clows, 157 passing, 28, 444, 271. See also The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man (Johnson) patronage salons and, 12
Patterns of Culture (Benedict), 155, 159 performance. See cabaret; Garveyism; religion
Petty, Ann
The Street, 103
phonograph, invention of, 49
Plant, Deborah, 155
Plantation (Fauset), 76, 208
Porter, James A.
Woman Holding a Jug, 162
portraiture. See also VanDerZee, James Garveyism use of, 240
unworthiness and, 83–84
Powell, Adam Clayton, Sr., 209
Powell, Richard J., 77, 81, 86
“The Promised Land” (Fisher), 220–22 prostitution, 141–42
fight against, 145–47
Quicksand (Larsen) Black bourgeoisie, portrayal of, 268, 271–75 education, racial uplift, and Eurocentrism, 258–65, 268–71, 275–77
fashion in, 76
religion in, 208, 214, 217
spectatorship in, 216–17 race construction of through social processes, 320–23 fluidity of, 331–43 racial identity as dichotomy, 324–25
scientific racism, refutation of, 156 race riots, 237 rational uplift. See also Quicksand (Larsen) community initiatives and political action, 276 defined narrowly, 169
fallacy of, 263–65
Red Summer of 1919, 1–2, 130, 206, 282
Reis, Winold, 321
Harlem at Night, 227 religion
biblical texts, interpretation of, 225–27
capitalism and, 219–22
churches in urban space, 207–8 community and continuity during Great Migration, 218–22 evangelicalism as modern, 212
gender and, 214–15
modernity and, 214
performance and, 210–17, 219, 224 scholarship on, lack of, 205 social stratification and, 208–9, 224–27 southern religious practices, 212–14 spirituality of the blues, 219 rent parties, 142, 147–48, 220–22 resistance, forms of, 235–27 respectability politics, 38, 40, 81–83, 153, 1976. See also racial uplift Reynolds, Anita
American Cocktail, 22–23
Ricketts, Bob, 55
Riker, James, 112
Rivera, Lino, 254, 419
Roosevelt, Theodore Dutchness of, 114
Rose, Tricia, 200, 233, 240
Russell, Horace O., 257, 1100

Index 367

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
sovereignty and anticolonialism, 236, 246–47, 250 theatricality of, 120–22, 250–52 transnational reach of, 237
Up from Slavery (Washington)
Garvey’s reading of, 235
Van Doren, Carl, 114
Van Vechten, Carl
Dutch ancestry of, 114
Hughes and, 53
Larsen and, 271
Nigger Heaven, 60, 78 parties and, 12
Van Vechten, Charles D., 114
VanDerZee, James
Black femininity, 127–8
Black masculinity, 127–8

consumerism, celebration of, 11
criticism of, 41
fashion, centrality to portraiture, 81 racism, contestation of, 82 respectability, 81–83
vernacular and dialect, use of, 77, 198, 224, 327–28
“Vestiges”/“The South Lingers On” (Fisher), 218–20, 321
Vogel, Shane, 11, 20, 38, 198, 207, 223–24
Walker, Ada Overton, 29
Walker, A’Leila
Dark Tower Salon, fashionable, 24
opulence of Villa Lewaro, 22–23
Walker, Madam C. J., 24
“The Walls of Jericho” (Dickinson), 226
The Walls of Jericho (Fisher), 208–9, 222–27 vernacular, use of, 224
Warner, Charles Dudley, 112
Warner, Francis, 250
Washington, Booker T.
education, views on, 258, 264
The New York Age, 135
Up from Slavery, 235
Washington, DC, 32, 35
Washington, Naomi, 144
Waters, Muddy, 46–47
“When Sue Wear Red” (Hughes), 75
When Washington Was in Vogue (Williams), 295–96
White, Walter
The Fire in the Flint, 213
white gaze, 83, 119–41
rebuttal of, 87, 89
Whitin, Frederick, 146
“Why We Should Study Negro History” (Logan), 292
Williams, Edward Christopher. See also Letters of Davy Carr literary circles of, 37
When Washington Was in Vogue, 295–96
Woman Holding a Jug (Porter), 162
Woolworth Company, 136
“Words and Clothes” (Johnson), 90–93
Works Progress Administration (WPA), 124, 169
The World Tomorrow, 317, 323–25
World War I
Black soldiers, portraits of, 85–86 democratic promises as unfulfilled, 183–84, 191
Wright, Richard
“Blueprint for Negro Writing,” 148
X, Malcolm, 232
Young, Kevin, 5
“Young Blood Hungers” (Bonner), 214

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org