Index

2010 Summer Survey, 234
abeyance, 221–222
abuse physical abuse of a child, 210 sexual abuse of left-behind children, 22 Africa, 50, 138–139, 153 age
and children’s relationships in skipped generation families, 198–207 and children’s views of parents’ support, 110 and life course, 4
children’s age at father’s migration, 153, 160 agency and inequalities, 40
and structure/context, 6–10
definition, 4
of children, 7, 10, 22, 36, 211, 216–225 agricultural mechanisation, 126 agricultural production. See farming agricultural taxes, 42
alcohol, 29
ambiguous loss, 156
ambivalence, 156, 170, 174, 196, 203
Anagnost, Ann, 32
Anhui
economic conditions, 40–53
migration patterns, 49
percentage of rural children left behind, 51
Ariès, Philippe, 4
aspiration
for education, 67–70
aspirations
and expectations, 85
and striving, 5
definition of, 9
for education, 66
of parents for children’s education, 45, 70–73 to buy urban housing, 59
urbanisation of, 17, 59
Atkinson, Will, 7–9, 95, 225
attachment
mother–child, 29, 136
parent–child, 26
Bijie county, Guizhou province, 22, 77, 227 boarding school, 20, 53–64, 93, 98, 123–126, 194, 224 Bourdieu, Pierre, 7–9, 25, 31, 217 boys and behavioural problems, 121, 130 impact of parental migration on, 27–28 poor nutrition of left-behind boys, 29, 105 teachers’ view of, 60
Brandstädter, Susanne, 33
Bronfenbrenner, Urie, 6, 36, 229 bullying, 28
Caihong, 168–170, 172–176
capital, 152
accumulation of, 22, 184, 225, 227
definition of, 8
numeric, 44, 222
placeless, 225
capitalism
global, 13, 15
renewal of, 225
Western neoliberal, 30
care
across distance, 19, 36
as provisioning, 185
children’s wish to care for migrant parents, 203
definition of, 18–19
ethic of, 18–19, 226
idiom of, 24, 231
of left-behind children, 18–20, 207
Care for Left-Behind Children activities to, 229–231 official calls to, 77
slogans, 25
care histories of children, 196–197 Chao, Ruth K., 35
child development, 26, 35 child, as a relational category, 33–34 childhood, new social studies of, 4 child-raising, intensive, 10 children
and play, 39, 61, 226, 240 as emotionally precious/rising scarcity value, 36, 99, 132 as sites of accumulation, 217 encouraging mothers to stay at home, 140 go to ‘waste’, 185, 211 living alone, 20, 83
perceptions of gender inequality, 115–120 perceptions of grandparents’ care, 185–186 perceptions of parental support, 84, 138 relationship with migrant parents, 191–192, 195–214 children, young, 192, 198–203 children’s outings, with migrant parents, 209–210 children’s viewpoints, 4, 22, 183, 216, 222 children’s voices, 33, 224–227
Chinese New Year, 72, 155, 158, 190–192
Choi, Susanne and Yinni Peng, 133–134, 166 cities concentration of educational resources in, 59 inland, 103
left-behind children’s experiences of, 207–211 low status of migrants in, 17–18, 133 class, 9, 23–25
classmates/friends, 63, 83, 84, 93, 152, 178, 181, 209 Coe, Cati, 19, 20, 138, 160, 206, 217–218, 225
communes, 11, 30, 44
communication technologies, 19, see phone calls communication, parent–child, 19, 28, 36, 82 Compulsory Education Law, 15–16, 46
Connell, Raewyn W. and James W. Messerschmidt, 133 construction workers, 49–50, 138–139, 154, 158–159 cousins, 119, 128, 191, 198–200, 208, 209 crime, by left-behind children, 23 cultural capital
accumulation of, 9, 132
definition of, 8
cultural context, 30–37, 98–100, 219–221 Cultural Revolution, 45 culture of migration, 9, 137 curriculum
regional differences in, 17
rural–urban differences in, 45, 67
urbanisation of, 75

dagong, 18, 39, 69, 73–74, 228 dailings, 98
and closeness to parents, 107
housing for, 106–107, 111
study pressures on, 110 death
of a grandparent caregiver, 83, 197, 201 of a parent, 64, 177–179 delinquency, of left-behind children, 23 disability, 139, 159, 167, 170, 176 discrimination, against migrants, 17 divorce, 26, 171
domestic chores
of children, 122–126, 127–128, 179
of grandmothers, 165–166 of grandparents, 35, 198, 201 of men, 166, 182
of women, 60, 133, 139, 165
Douglass, Mike, 7
Dreby, Joanna, 40, 71, 73, 95, 203, 212, 220, 244 drop-outs, 44, 46
Duan Chenrong, 12, 14, 17
education
and children’s gender, 69, 107–110
gender gap in, 48
returns to, 69–70
rural–urban gap in, 46, 56–59, 67–69 education migration, 217 education, compulsory, 53 educational progression, 46, 67 educational well-being
of left-behind children, 26–30
elder care, reliance on children, 99 Elder, Glen, 6, 195
emotional well-being of children of lone-migrant mothers, 167–168
of left-behind children, 26–29
exams, 17, 32, 75
guokao, 45, 53, 59, 70
zhongkao, 53, 67, 68, 91, 205
factories interns in, 88–89
migrants’ work in, 50–51
recruitment tests, 48 working conditions, 43, 74, 228–229 familialism, 110, 129, 218 mosaic familialism, 34–35 family bargains, 93
family conflict, 170–172, 189–190, 203, 212 family dissolution, 26
family division (fenjia), 11, 184, 188–192

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

www.cambridge.org
Index

internal stratification of, 68, 70 hobbies, 67
holidays, 202, 207–211, 230 homework, 1, 10, 23, 28, 72, 145, 148, 150, 155, 177, 185, 186, 210 household registration system. See hukou household responsibility farming system, 11, 44 household, definition of, 11 housing and marriage, 101–102
and school admissions, 59, 103 buying in the county seat, 103–106 house-building in villages, 101–103 improvements to, 103
prices in county seat, 104–106 hukou, 11, 12, 15–17, 49, 59, 64, 145, 150 conversion of, 17, 104 points-based system, 17 immobility, 21, 40, 137, 167, 223 imperial governing complex, 32 individualisation, 35, 231 Indonesia, 155, 163
industrial zones, 42
industrialisation, 11
industrialisation, in interior provinces, 228–229 industries, relocation inland, 49 injuries
of left-behind children, 29
of migrants, 15
intensive mothering, 132–133, 160 intergenerational comparison, 46–47 intergenerational debt, 34 internet, 88
addiction, 28
bars, 3
interviews, 3, 234–244
analysis of interview data, 244–245 children’s playfulness in, 239 follow-up interviews, 242 inconsistencies, 243 influence of school setting on, 238–239 matching interviews with adult caregivers, 239–244 maximum variation selection, 235 selection of research participants, 235–238 intimacy children and at-home fathers, 170 children and at-home mothers, 144 children and migrant fathers, 153–157 children and parents, 36–37 children and returnee mothers, 152 feminisation of, 132 gap in children’s lives, 230 girls and grandmothers, 128
Jacka, Tamara, 7, 11, 12, 165, 188
Jankowiak, William, 36, 134, 198
Japan, 10
Ji Yingchun, 34
Jiangxi
economic conditions, 40–53
migration patterns, 49
percentage of rural children left behind, 51
jiedufei, 59
Kaili, 164, 178–179
Katz, Cindi, 5, 14, 22, 37, 217, 225, 226
Kipnis, Andrew, 8, 33, 34, 43, 67–70, 99, 135
Kohrman, Matthew, 167
Koo, Anita, 85
labour shortages, 228
land
and subsistence, 19
transfers of farmland usage rights, 42 Lanlan, 169–176
left-behind
critique of framework, 21–22
left-behind children
behavioural problems, 28 policies towards, 79, 227–231 representation of, 22–25 school activity rooms for, 78–82 school support for, 77–84
statistics on, 13–14, 227–228
Lele, 109–110, 119, 155
Libya, 154
life course, 4, 6–7, 195–207, 216 linked lives, 6–10, 34, 183, 184, 195, 196, 215 Liu, Fengshu, 165
loneliness, 28, 29, 103, 142, 169, 200 majority world, 1, 4 manual work, 46
market economy, 9, 18, 165 marriage, 46, 99, 107, 111, 163–165 discord, 170–172, 176–177 Massey, Doreen, 39
maternal migration, negative view of, 24, 140 Mayall, Berry, 45, 220, 226 medical debts, 163
mega-cities, 17

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Menjívar, Cecilia and Victor Agadjanian, 132
meritocracy, 70, 75
Mexico, 96, 134, 137, 158, 167, 203, 220 middle-class, 10, 24, 31, 92, 133, 137, 160, 208, 235 migrant children schools for, 15–17, 25, 68, 121 well-being of, 27
migrant parents, criticism of, 23 migrants
age of, 13
census definition, 12
destinations, 49, 50
gender of, 12–13, 49–53
generational change, 18 permanently temporary, 156
statistics on, 12
migration
transnational, 49
Mingming, 171–172, 176–177
Ministry of Civil Affairs, 14
Ministry of Education, 15, 16, 56, 78 motherhood, 7, 24, 132, 152, 216, 219 mothers and children’s studies, 144–145 as gatekeepers between migrant fathers and children, 158–159 as homemakers, 135–138
children’s relationships with at-home mothers, 140–146 children’s relationships with migrant mothers, 168–172 children’s relationships with returnee mothers, 146–152 educational disadvantages of, 133 lone migration of, 26–29, 49, 162–173 multilocal families
definition, 5
literature on, 7–8
multilocal intergenerational parenting coalitions, 182 multiple mothering, 182 neglect, of left-behind children, 23
new migrants, former left-behinds, 231–233
normalisation of parental migration, 39, 223–226 nutrition, 29, 96, 189, 194 off-farm employment, local, 42–43
On the Road to School, 14, 27, 28, 29, 85, 134, 163, 167
One Child policy, 24
Pan, Lu, 232
paradigm shift, 225–227 parent–child relationships, 36 parent-child striving teams, 10, 30, 38, 171–179, 217, 219–227 parenting
gendered models of, 132, 135–138, 159–161, 168, 218 impact of stress on, 26 impact of working conditions on, 229 interventions, 230 parents’ departures, 71–73, 86, 157, 202 Parents’ Differential Treatment (PDT) of siblings, 97, 110 parents, education of, 46 parent–teacher meetings, 176 Parreñas, Rhacel Salazar, 23, 134, 156, 220 patrarchy, 13, 34, 64, 145, 165, 226 peidu, 56, 105, 148–152, 165, 194, 200, 228 pension, old age, 15, 177, 189 people-centred development, 16 Philippines, 134, 155, 163 phone calls, 19, 27, 72–73, 82, 125, 153, 156, 159, 174, 178, 189 from lone-migrant fathers, 134 place
idea of, 39
in children’s lives, 61–62 pocket money, 46, 190 pollution, 104
population aging, 13
price scissors, 11
production, and forms of work, 5 production, ceaseless, 10 Production, definition of, 14
Public Security Bureau, 15
Puhua, 126, 141–142, 152, 157 punishment, corporal, 91, 145, 155, 202, 210, 230 qin (close), 137, 153, 170 real–estate, 16
recognition, 7–8, 66, 95, 127, 130, 173, 212, 220–221 relatives as caregivers, 202 remittances, 96, 132, 139, 153–159, 167, 182, 189–190, 193 repertoires, 8, 34, 36, 96, 206, 219, 225 research assistants, 237–239 resentment of teenagers towards migrant parents, 204–206 resilience, 84, 219, 232
Index

return migration
of children, 17, 60, 196
of fathers, 137–138, 154–155, 164, 167 of mothers, 136, 146–152, 163 of parents, 228
Risman, Barbara J., 95
Rozelle, Scott, 27, 136
rural status
devalued, 11, 24, 45, 64, 183 sacrifice
migration as, 71, 84, 94, 189, 217 mothers’ non-migration as, 142–146 of left-behind fathers, 175
Santos, Gonçalo, 182
Sanxin, 210–211
Schmalzbauer, Leah, 40, 212 school fees, 3, 17, 20, 45, 54, 68 school progression rates, 27 schools
admissions, 59, 105
and care of children, 20 and children’s daily lives, 62–64 and family care routines, 60 and meals, 53–56
as institutions, 8
as social services infrastructure, 40 mergers and consolidation, 53–56 private, 59, 61
senior high, 53
service sector, 59–51, 164, 228 sex ratio imbalance, 98–100, 120 Shenyi, 71, 164, 177–178 siblings, 27, 72, 83, 101, 111–122, 125, 128, 192, 200, 207–209 separated by parental migration, 120–122 skill, learning a, 89–91 skipped generation families, 181–207 smoking, 29
social and spatial mobility, 17, 33 social capital, 8, 71
social field
and recognition, 8–9
market economy as a, 9
translocal, 22
transnational, 217
social location, 40, 48
social reproduction, 225
definition, 14
schools’ contribution to, 53–62, 200–201 social services infrastructure, 40 socialisation, 21, 71
and gender, 95, 107
in school, 75–84
in the family, 71–74
of children, 8
to expect an urban future, 217, 232 sons
housing for, 101–106, 110
preference for, 98, 163 spectacle, childhood as, 22
Stafford, Charles, 35
State Council, 15, 78, 224, 227 strategies, definition of, 8 stratified reproduction, 20 striving, 30–33
definition, 5–10
objectives, 44
slogans, 75
striving ethos, 183
study
pressures, 110
as work, 5
children’s inner conflicts about, 84–89
pressures, 93, 211
Summer Survey, 4, 43, 46, 48, 49, 51, 56, 66, 125, 126, 162, 163, 167, 207, 232, 235
Sun Zhigang, 12
Sun, Wanning, 24, 41, 43
suzhi, 32, 43, 68, 124
suzhi education reforms, 67
Swider, Sarah, 156
Taihe, 164, 172, 174, 176–177
teachers
as substitute parents, 63, 76 boarding with, 58
during the Cultural Revolution, 45 numbers of, 53
pressures on, 76, 81
support to children from, 83 view of grandparent caregivers, 185 view of migrant parents, 23 teenagers, 84, 144, 203–207 television, 18, 23, 84, 111, 135, 137, 157 Tianming, 148, 158
time-space compression, 39 tragedies, involving left-behind children, 22, 227 travel, costs for migrants, 19, 155 tavel, to school, 53, 56, 62, 198 tutoring, 63, 66, 87, 145, 160, 177, 230 two basics, 69
two exemptions and one subsidy, 17 two-parent migration, 25–29, 49 underdevelopment
as identity, 43
rural, 24
urban bias, 18
Index

288 Index

urbanisation exclusionary, 27 in interior provinces, 49 policies, 16, 232
urbanisation rates, 49, 227 uterine family, 146

victimisation, 28
Vietnam, 164, 166, 175
visits of children to see parents, 2, 19, 73, 84, 123, 202, 207–211 of lone-migrant mothers, 175 of migrant fathers, 154–157 of parents to see children, 19, 72, 84, 125, 198 vocational schools and internships, 89 low status of, 69, 89 migrants’ access to, 16
regional differences in, 89–91

wages, 31
gender gap in, 137
in Africa, 139
of migrants, 15
wage penalty of former left-behinds, 231
Wang Delun, 48, 63–64, 90, 123, 186, 205–206, 213

Waters, Joanna, 217
Wenwen, 62–63
West, Candace and Don H. Zimmerman, 95, 168, 179–180 widowed grandparents, 199
Wolf, Margery, 36, 132
work
and affective value/emotions, 33 and masculinity, 133, 166–167, 172–174 children helping migrant parents with, 208 Chinese terms for, 18
conceptualisation of, 5–8, 33–34 working hours, 15
work points, 11
work unit, 30, 70
Woronov, Terry, 44
would-be migrants, 218

Xiang, Biao, 21, 24, 218
Xinhao, 144–145, 155–156
Xinhui, 90, 106–107, 111

Yan, Yunxiang, 31, 32, 225 yang, 1, 35, 157, 185, 198, 204
Yaping, 181–183
Ye Jingzhong, 18, 224
Yulin, 140–141, 154–155
Zhangyong, 1–3, 127, 190, 199, 208, 213