Index

AAP. See American Academy of Pediatrics academic competence, in middle childhood, 223–224 acceptance, by parents discipline and punishment strategies and, children’s perception of, 127
Interpersonal Acceptance-Rejection Theory, 7
for LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents
over time, 454
stress responses influenced by, 453–454
well-being influenced by, 452–453
in parenting science research, 13, 127
acculturation, 156
ACEs. See adverse childhood experiences active learning, 98–99
dialogic reading, 99
ADA. See Americans with Disabilities Act ADHD. See attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder adolescence, parenting behaviors. See also externalizing disorders adverse childhood experiences during, resilience strategies for, 476 brain development and
in neurobiological susceptibility models, 61
in normative parenting models, 55–58
for children with intellectual disabilities, 380, 388
conceptual approach to, 236 control behaviors during, 237–238 authoritative parenting, 237 discipline and punishment strategies during, 124–125 early, 611
emotion socialization in, 77–80 family-based interventions, 617 culturally-sensitive, 618–619 Family Check-Up, 617–618 for risk behaviors, 617–619 fathers during, 244
emotion socialization, 80
in risk behavior interventions, 622 social-emotional development, 341–342
future research on, 247–248 inconsistencies in parenting, demographic factors for, 243–245
cultural influences on, 244–245
for fathers, 244
by gender, 244
for mothers, 244
by race, 244–245
late, 612
middle, 611–612
Modular Approach to Therapy for Children, 616 monitoring behaviors, 238–242
autonomy supportive, 239–240
definition of, 238–240
information management, 240
for media exposure, 240–241
for peer management, 241–242
restrictive, 239–240
*Orygen Adolescent Development Study, 55–56 parental warmth during, 237–238
by mothers, 237–238
parent-child relationship during, 236
for LGBTQ children, 243
for sex communication, 243
policy implications for, 245–247
for drivers education, 245–246 for juvenile justice interventions, 246–247 for sex education interventions, 247 promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities during, 312–313
race and ethnicity and color-blind approach to, 242–243
demographic factors for, 244–245
parenting behaviors influenced by, 244–245
promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities, 312–313
risk behaviors influenced by, 622 socialization strategies influenced by, 242–243
risk behaviors during
as adaptive mechanisms, 614 cognitive factors for, 613–614, 616 common factors for, 621 community-based interventions for, 620–621 co-occurrence of, 621 disparities in risk-taking, 615 Ecological Systems Theory and, 615 etiology of, 613, 615
family-based interventions for, 617–619
fathers' role in, 622 future approaches to, 621–623 gender as factor for, 622 LGBTQIA-identity as factor for, 623 neurobiological factors for, 613–614 prevention of, 615–616
race as factor for, 622 school-based interventions for, 619–620 social factors for, 614–615 Social Learning Theory and, 616 Self-Determination Theory and, 236–237 separation-individuation theory and, 259
socialization strategies
for culture and race, 242–243
for LGBTQ children, 243
for sex communication, 243
in sub-Saharan Africa, parenting styles and, mental health outcomes, 149–150 as transitional period, 236–237 adoptive family systems, 366–367
children with intellectual disabilities in, 390 adult function, neurodevelopment and early life care and, 38–41 neurocircuirty and, 41–42
well-being and, 41–42
adolescence. See emerging adulthood adverse childhood experiences (ACEs), 368 cognitive development influenced by, 468 conceptual approaches to, 465–466 cycles of, interruption of, 468–475 authoritative parenting styles and, 470 through Balanced Parenting, 469–470
definition of, 465
early care and education programs and, 494–495 emotional development influenced by, 468 exposure to, 465–466
future research on, 477–478
intimate partner violence and, 468–469 negative effects of, 466 neurobiological development influenced by, 466–468 brain structure, 466–467
of prefrontal cortex, 466–468 protective and compensatory experiences, 466, 470–471
by age group, 471–472
parent-child relationship and, 471–474 resilience strategies for, by age, 475–477
resources for, 474–475
supportive environments for, 474–475 resilience strategies for for adolescents, 476
during emerging adulthood, 476
during infancy and early childhood, 475–476
intervention programs, 477
through parent education programs, 476–477
for protective and compensatory experiences, 475–477
for school-age children, 476 social development influenced by, 468 adversity, family systems theory and, 368 adverse childhood experiences, 368
through status risk, 368
through stressors, 368
affection and love, expressions of, by parents, in parenting science research, 12–13 Africa. See South Africa; sub-Saharan Africa African-American families, parenting behaviors in for academic achievement and engagement, 306–312 academic socialization, 307–308
educational expectations, 307–308
parental involvement levels, 307–312
racial achievement gaps, 306 school environment context, 306–307
coping skills for discrimination, promotion of, 317–319 EMBRace Intervention, 319–320
intervention programs, 319–320
parental attitudes towards, 318–319 cultural socialization in contextual predictors for, 316–317 intergenerational transmission of, 316–317
intervention programs, 319–320
promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities through, 313–317
scope of, 314–316
during middle childhood, parental behavior, 219 promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities, 312–317
in adolescence, 312–313
in childhood, 312–313
through cultural socialization, 313–317
age. See also adolescence; emerging adulthood; infancy and early childhood discipline and punishment strategies by, 123–125
for corporal punishment, 124
Ainsworth, Mary, 7, 31–32. See also attachment theories alcoholism and substance abuse, 284–285
maltreatment in families influenced by, 567–568
alternative parenting contexts
attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder, in children, 410–411
for children with intellectual disabilities, 388–391
adoption as, 390
grandparents’ engagement in, 389–390
American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP), 170–171 Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), U.S. (1990), 291 amygdala, in child maltreatment studies, 53–54 anxiety disorders, in children, 285
behavioral control, by parents, 428–432
cultural influences on, 429–432
by fathers, 430
by mothers, 430
parent warmth, 430–431
conceptual approach to, 425–427
fathers and
behavioral control by, 430
overprotective parenting by, 428
future research on, 436–437
intervention strategies for, 432–435
cognitive behavioral therapy, 432–433
cultural influences on, 434–435
Individualized Educational Plans, 436
Interpersonal Psychotherapy for Adolescents, 432–433
for LGBTQIA+ youth, 433
parental involvement in, 433–434
mothers and
behavioral control by, 430
overprotective parenting by, 427
from overprotective parenting, 427–428
by fathers, 428
by mothers, 427
policy implications for, 435–436
under Disabilities Education Improvement Act, 436
under Rehabilitation Act, 436
psychological control, by parents, 428–432
cultural influences on, 429
parent warmth, 430–431
suicidality and, 436
asexual populations, defined, 446–447 Attachment Biobehavioral Catch-Up program, 83 attachment theories, 7, 29–31
child welfare system and, 561 Emotional Security Theory, 7
for infants, 29–30
in kibbutz environments, 31 monotropy, 30
natural cues, 29–30
in orphanages, 30–31
through repeated encounters, 30 signaling for, 30
Interpersonal Acceptance-Rejection Theory, 7
LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents and, 450–452, 454
maltreatment in families and, 564
neurodevelopment and, 40
Learning Theory of Attachment, 40–41
perinatal protocols for attachment risk, 177 universality of, 195
attention
in engaged learning, 99
in parenting science research, 16–17
attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), 285, 403 in alternative family systems, 410–411 behavioral parent training with, 415 case studies for, 413–414 cultural responses to, 407 familial risk and, 411–412
future research on, 416–417, 419
heritability of, 411–412 individual parental characteristics, 405 interventions strategies for, 418–419 parental affiliation stigma and, 405 parenting strategies, 414–416 parents with ADHD as caregivers, 412–413 policy recommendations for, 416–417 practice recommendations, 417–420 self-efficacy views and, 404–405 stress factors with, 404–405
authoritative parenting
during adolescence, 237
with adverse childhood experiences, 470 in Southeast Asia, 152
in sub-Saharan Africa, 149
autonomy
during adolescence, 239–240
during emerging adulthood
development of, 260–261
positive outcomes as result of, 261
in middle childhood, 223–224
Baby Positive Parenting Program (Baby Triple P), 178
Baby-Friendly Hospital Initiative (BFHI), 172 Balanced Parenting program, 469–470
Baldwin, Albert, 13–14
Bandura, Albert. See also social cognition theories socialization theories and, 7–8 <table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
<th>635</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>modeling studies, with Bobo dolls, 8</td>
<td>emerging adulthood and, 260</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>social cognitive theory, 8</td>
<td>emotion socialization and, 75–76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Baumrind, Diana, 14</td>
<td>experience as factor in, 50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>behavioral control, for anxiety and depression, 262–263, 428–432</td>
<td>future research on, 62–64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cultural influences on, 429–432</td>
<td>expansion of sample populations, 63–64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>by fathers, 430</td>
<td>gender differences in</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>by mothers, 430</td>
<td>in neurobiological susceptibility models, 61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>parent warmth, 430–431</td>
<td>in normative parenting models, 57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>behavioral genetics approach, 18</td>
<td>integration of approaches, 62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>behavioral genetics theory, 8–9</td>
<td>maternal, prenatal bonding and, 166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>deterministic views in, 9</td>
<td>maternal behaviors and, 63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in parenting science research, 18</td>
<td>methodological measures for, 50–52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>unidirectional views in, 9</td>
<td>functional MRI, 51–52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>behavioral parent training (BPT)</td>
<td>with neuroimaging modalities, 50–51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>with ADHD, 415</td>
<td>resting state MRI, 51–52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for fathers, 415</td>
<td>structural MRI, 51–52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in technology interventions, 593</td>
<td>neurobiological susceptibility models, 59–62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>behaviorism, Watson and, 11</td>
<td>in adolescents, 61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BFHII. See Baby-Friendly Hospital Initiative</td>
<td>behavioral markers in, 60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>biblical interpretation, of discipline and punishment strategies, 129</td>
<td>brain function in, 61–62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>biocological model of human development, 144–145</td>
<td>brain structure in, 60–61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>child welfare system and, 560–561</td>
<td>differential susceptibility theory, 59–60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>parents’ role in, 333–334</td>
<td>gender differences in, 61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>during middle childhood, parental behavior in, 213–214, 217–218</td>
<td>breastfeeding support, 170–172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>factors for individual children, 217–218</td>
<td>Baby-Friendly Hospital Initiative, 172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>parent mental health in, 217</td>
<td>federal policies for, 171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>personality factors in, 217</td>
<td>state law policies for, 171–172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>stress factors in, 218</td>
<td>World Health Organization guidelines on, 170–171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bio-Ecological Systems Theory, 10</td>
<td>Bronfenbrenner, Urie, 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>bisexual populations. See also LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents</td>
<td>Buddhism, 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>defined, 446–447</td>
<td>Cairns, Robert, 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>bottom-up model, in schema development, 38–40</td>
<td>Cambodia, parenting styles in, 153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bowlby, John, ?</td>
<td>Canada, refugee status in, parental styles influenced by, 155</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BPT. See behavioral parent training</td>
<td>CareerAdvances program, 542</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>brain aging, 36</td>
<td>caregiving models, for brain development, 60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>brain development. See also neurodevelopment; normative parenting models in adolescents</td>
<td>CBT programs. See cognitive behavioral therapy programs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in adolescents</td>
<td>CCNES. See Coping with Children’s Negative Emotions Scale</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in neurobiological susceptibility models, 61</td>
<td>CD. See conduct disorder</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in normative parenting models, 55–58</td>
<td>child development. See also brain development; infancy discipline and punishment strategies and, links between, 123–128</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>caregiving models and, 60</td>
<td>during adolescence, 124–125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>from child maltreatment studies, 52–54</td>
<td>mechanisms for, 127–128</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>amygdala volume, 53–54</td>
<td>mediators for, 127–128</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hippocampal structure, 53</td>
<td>neurocognition in, 128</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hypothalamic pituitary adrenal axis, 52–53</td>
<td>child effects and transactions approach, 15–16</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
child maltreatment studies
brain development and, 52–54
amygdala volume, 53–54
hippocampal structure, 53 hypothalamic pituitary adrenal axis, 52–53 neural pathways, 54
for infancy and early childhood, 197–199
resilience strategies, 198–199 child neglect, as maltreatment, 562–564 child welfare system. See also maltreatment conceptual approach to, 560–578
overview of, 577–579
parenting programs, 569–577 comprehensive home visitation, 569–576 interventions and, 576–577
policies for, 569–575
targeted parenting interventions, 576 theoretical approaches to, 560–561
attachment theory, 561
bioecological theory of human development, 560–561 for developmental psychopathology, 561 ecological-transactional theory, 561
childbirth perinatal support during, 173–176 prenatal bonding and, 168
childcare costs, 541–542 childhood. See adolescence; infancy and early childhood; middle childhood children with intellectual disabilities
in adolescence, 380, 388
alternative parenting contexts, 388–391
adoption as, 390
grandparents’ engagement in, 389–390
conceputal approaches to, 377–379 global perspective, 378 historical development of, 377–378 pathological model in, 377–378 context of, 379–380 development of intellectual disability, 379 cognitive development processes, 380 comorbidities in, 380
etiology of, 379–380
Disabilities Education Improvement Act, 436
in early childhood, 380
during emerging adulthood, 387–388 family processes with, 384–387 fathers of, 384–387
in co-parenting dynamic, 385, 387–400
mothers compared to, 385–387
International Classification of Functioning, Disability, and Health, 378 intervention strategies, 391–393 direct parenting effect programs, 391–392 eyearly intervention programs, 392–393 indirect effects from, 392–393 across lifespan, 387–388
stress factors, 388
parenting processes with, 383–384 psychological functioning as influence on, 384 stressors with, 380–383 conceptual models, 381
cultural influences on, 382
across lifespan, 388
as mediation model, 382–383
Children’s Equity Project, 503 Chinese families, parenting behaviors in academic achievement and engagement and for Chinese-American families, 309–311 parental involvement levels, 309–311
emotion socialization in, 80
executive function skills, 96
for postnatal parent-infant bonding, 177 as discipline and punishment, 126 Circle of Security program, 86 circular relational patterns, 354 cisgender, 447
cognitive compensatory approaches, 292 cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) programs, 294 for anxiety and depression disorders, 432–433 cognitive compensatory approaches, 292 cognitive development. See also learning adverse childhood experiences as influence on, 468
fathers’ role in, 332–336
in infancy and early childhood, 196
science of learning, 95
in sub-Saharan Africa, parenting styles as influence on, 151 cognitive remediation therapies, 292 collaboration, learning and, 102–103
historical development of, 102
in parent–child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
color-blind approach, to race, 242–243 communication
language development and, 103–104
learning through, 103–104
conversation skills, 103
in parent–child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
community-based intervention programs, for prenatal bonding, 176–179
The Companion Curriculum (TCC), 496–497 comprehensive home visitation programs, 569–576 conduct disorder, 403
confidence, learning and, 106–107
as fixed or growth mindset, 106
in parent–child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
struggle models and, 106–107
Confucianism, 152
filial piety as element of, 265 conscience, development of, 128 context lens, in family systems theory, 353 control behaviors, by parents
during adolescence, 237–238
authoritative parenting, 237
during middle childhood, 215 control systems, in family systems theory, 360 Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) 128–129
conversation skills, 103
co-occurrence, of risky behaviors, in adolescence, 621 co-parenting
for children with intellectual disabilities, fathers' role in, 385, 387–400
emotion systems and, 358 systems theories and, 10–11 coping strategies for African-American/Latino families, for discrimination, 317–319
EMBRace Intervention, 319–320
intervention programs, 319–320
parental attitudes towards, 318–319
in middle childhood, 221
Stress and Coping model, 381
Coping with Children’s Negative Emotions Scale (CCNES), 73–74
corporal punishment
age as factor for, 124
during infancy and early childhood, 197
cultural differences in, 126–127
Global Initiative to End Corporal Punishment, 130–135
power assertion through, 121
COVID-19 pandemic
socially-interactive learning during, 100 technology during, 603–604 truth and accuracy issues, 604–605 work life during, parenting challenges and, 551–552 CRC. See Convention on the Rights of the Child creativity
definition of, 105–106
through exploration, 106
language development and, 105
learning and, 105–106
in parent–child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
critical thinking skills, learning and, 104–105 academic performance influenced by, 105
development of, 105
in parent–child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
cultural socialization
in African-American families, 314–316 in Latino families, 314–316 culture, parenting styles influenced by. See also Southeast Asia; sub-Saharan Africa
during adolescence, 244–245
socialization strategies, 242–243
with anxiety and depression disorders behavioral control with, 429–432 intervention strategies influenced by, 434–435 psychological control and, 429
for children with intellectual disabilities, 382
definition of, 144
discipline and punishment strategies influenced by, 126–127
for corporal punishment, 126–127
for desired behaviors, 126
shaming, 126
early care and education programs and, 505
during emerging adulthood, 264–267
in Asian cultures, 265
familism and, in Latino families, 265–266 filial piety and, 265
for hotel families, in Italy, 266–267
positive parenting, 265
emotion socialization influenced by, 80–82
in Chinese families, 80–81 grounded theory approach to, 82
in Indian families, 81–82
mothers’ role in, 81–82
culture, parenting styles influenced by. (cont.)
as exosystem, 144–145
for externalizing disorders, in children and adolescents, 406–408
attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder, 407 discipline strategies and, 407–408 social behavior model, 407
for fathers, 335
during infancy and early childhood, 200 language development influenced by, 97
as macrosystem, 144–145 as mesosystem, 144–145
as microsystem, 144–145
during middle childhood, 218–220
immigration status and, 218–219 needs signaling influenced by, for infants, 33 research on, 146–147
new themes in, 156–157
scope of, 144–145
cultural differences influenced by, 144 theoretical frameworks for, 144–147 bioecological model of human development, 144–145 conceptual models for, 146–147
developmental niche theory, 145–146
sociocultural theory, 145
Cuna Más program, 506

cuteness, as survival factor, in evolutionary theory, 6 decision-making, brain development and, in normative parenting models, 58 depression, in children
behavioral control, by parents, 428–432
cultural influences on, 429–432
by fathers, 430
by mothers, 430
parent warmth, 430–431
conceptual approaches to, 425–427
fathers and
behavioral control by, 430
overprotective parenting by, 428
future research on, 436–437
intervention strategies for, 432–435
cognitive behavioral therapy, 432–433
cultural influences on, 434–435
Individualized Educational Plans, 436
Interpersonal Psychotherapy for Adolescents, 432–433
for LGBTQIA+ youth, 433
parental involvement in, 433–434
mothers and
behavioral control by, 430
overprotective parenting by, 427
from overprotective parenting, 427–428
by fathers, 428
by mothers, 427
policy implications for, 435–436
under Disabilities Education Improvement Act, 436
under Rehabilitation Act, 436
psychological control, by parents, 428–432
cultural influences on, 429
parent warmth, 430–431
suicidality and, 436
depressive disorders, in parents, during infancy and early childhood, 202
Determinants of Parenting Model, 450–452
developmental niche theory, 145–146
developmental psychopathology, 561
dialogic reading, 99
differential susceptibility theory, 59–60
direct parenting effect programs, 391–392 Disabilities Education Improvement Act, U.S., 436 discipline and punishment strategies acceptance by parents and, children’s perception of, 127 for ADHD, in children and adolescents, 407–408 age as factor in, 123–125
for corporal punishment, 124
child development and, links between, 123–128
during adolescence, 124–125 discipline mechanisms, 127–128 mediators for, 127–128
neurocognition in, 128
child temperament as factor in, 125 conscience development influenced by, 128
 corporal punishment
age as factor for, 124
cultural differences in, 126–127
Global Initiative to End Corporal Punishment, 130–135
during infancy and early childhood, 197
power assertion through, 121
cultural differences in, 126–127
for corporal punishment, 126–127
for desired behaviors, 126
during infancy and early childhood, 197
shaming, 126
empathy development influenced by, 128 inductive reasoning and, 120–121
for externalizing disorders, in children and
adolescents, 407–408
by fathers, 122–123

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org gender as factor in, 123 inductive reasoning, 120–121
empathy through, 120–121
moral behaviors through, 120–121
by mothers, 121
prosocial behavior through, 120–121
during infancy and early childhood, 196–197 with corporal punishment, 197
cultural influences on, 197
intervention programs
biblical interpretation, 129
No Hit Zones, 136
Positive Discipline in Everyday Parenting Program, 136
research-based, 129 Video Feedback Intervention to Promote Positive Parenting and Sensitive Discipline, 129–136
by mothers
characteristics of, as influence on, 122–123 inductive reasoning, 121
parent–child relationship as factor in, 125–126
in parenting science research, 12–13, 16–17
power assertion, 120–121
through corporal punishment, 121
negative outcomes from, 121 predictors of by child, specific characteristics as factor for, 121–123, 125 community-level factors, 123 familial stress, 122–123 parental factors, 122–123
research on Convention on the Rights of the Child influenced by, 128–129 future directions for, 136–138
Global Initiative to End Corporal Punishment, 130–135 limitations on, 136–138 policy objectives influenced by, 128–136 social information processing and, by children, 127–128 in sub-Saharan Africa, cultural influences on, 150–151 theoretical approaches to, 120–121
inductive reasoning, 120–121
love withdrawal, 120–121
power assertion, 120–121
disorganized infants, 193 diversity, of parent systems, 365–368
adoptive family systems, 366–367
family forms, 366–368
LGBTQAI+ family systems, 367–368
sexual-and-gender-minority family systems, 367–368
Double ABCX model, 381
Dweck, Carol, 12
dyadic time, with children, during middle childhood, 215 early care and education programs (ECE programs) adverse childhood experiences and, 494–495
Children’s Equity Project, 503
Cuna Más program, 506
Early Head Start, 495
Ecological Transactional Model, 492 equitable investments, policy implications for, 503–506 cultural considerations, 505 for family engagement, 504–505 modification of practices for, 505–506 family engagement in, 490–493 individual differences as factor for, 501–503 integrated perspectives on, 492–493 interventions for, embedded within Head Start programs, 495–498 spheres of influence model, 490–491 structural-relational model, 491
Head Start, 489, 491–492
The Companion Curriculum, 496–497 family engagement interventions embedded within, 495–498 Getting Ready intervention, 497–498
REDI-P, 495–496
historical development of, 489
home visiting approaches, 498–501 Healthy Families New York, 500–501
Home Instruction for Parents of Preschool Youngsters, 498–499 Parents as Teachers model, 499–500 for infancy and early childhood, developmental considerations for, 493–494 parent engagement in, 490–493 behavioral strategies for, 502–503 parental attitude as influence on, 501–502 stress mitigation through, 494–495 structural barriers to, 502 work life and, parenting influenced by, 540–543 childcare costs and, 541–542
conceptual approaches to, 544–545 empirical evidence for, 545–546 heuristic model, 544
intervention programs, 542–543 nonparental care and, 540–541 parents as ECE workers, 543 quality of care, universal effects of, 542–543 Early Head Start, 495
early life care, neurodevelopment and adult function and, 38–41
equifinality influenced by, 41–42
ECE programs. See early care and education programs ecological model, for refugee status, 526 ecological momentary approach, 17–18
Ecological Systems Theory, 615
Ecological Transactional Model, 492
ecological-transactional theory, 561
ECS. See Emotions as a Child Scale effortful control, in middle childhood, 220–221 EMBRace Intervention. See Engaging, Managing, and Bonding through Race Intervention emerging adulthood, parenting behaviors adverse childhood experiences during, resilience strategies for, 476
autonomy during
development of, 260–261
positive outcomes as result of, 261
brain development and, 260
cultural contexts as factor in, 264–267 filial piety, in Asian cultures, 265
for hotel families, in Italy, 266–267
positive parenting, 265
developmental foundations of, 259–261 emotion socialization during, 77–80 externalization of problems during, 260 from helicopter parenting, 264 family capacity acceptance, 269 flourishing in
behavioral control, by parents, 262–263
helicopter parenting, 263–264
parent-child relationship as influence on, 262–264 psychological control, by parents, 263
flourishing in
parent-child relationship as influence on, 261–262 transfer of resources as factor in, 267 independence and, 269 intellectual disabilities and, 387–388 interdependence and, 269 internalization of problems during, 260–261
from helicopter parenting, 264
norm compliance during, 269
parent-child relationship as influence on, 261–264
behavioral control, by parents, 262–263
flourishing as result of, 262–264
flourishing as result of, 261–262
support through, 262
risk behaviors during, 612 role transitions during, 269 self-regulation and, 259 separation-individuation theory and, 259 social structures during, 260–261 theoretical foundations of, 259–261 transfer of resources during, from parents, 267–272 flourishing and, 267
intergenerational exchange, 269
of knowledge, 269–270 of skills and values, 269–270 socioeconomic status and, 272
Emmerich, Walter, 17
emotion coaching parents, 72, 78 emotion dismissing parents, 72, 78 emotion regulation through emotion socialization, 72–73
in infancy and early childhood, 74–76
intervention programs for, 82–87
at physiological level, 75
in middle childhood, 220–221 emotion socialization (ES), 72–74 brain development influenced by, 75–76
in child reports
Coping with Children’s Negative Emotions Scale, 73–74
Emotions as a Child Scale, 73–74 cross-cultural considerations, 80–82
in Chinese families, 80–81
grounded theory approach to, 82
in Indian families, 81–82
mothers’ role in, 81–82
definition of, 72
in adolescence, 77–80
in emerging adulthood, 77–80
in infancy and early childhood, 74–76, 79–80
in middle childhood, 76–77, 80
emotion coaching parents, 72, 78
emotion dismissing parents, 72, 78 emotion regulation through, 72–73
in infancy and early childhood, 74–76
intervention programs for, 82–87
at physiological level, 75
fathers’ role in, 79–80
during adolescence, 80
during early adulthood, 80
during infancy and early childhood, 79–80
during middle childhood, 80
future research on, 87–88
hyperscanning and, 77, 79
during infancy and early childhood during, 74–76, 79–80 sensitive parenting and, 194–195
intervention programs for, 82–87
Attachment Biobehavioral Catch-Up, 83
Circle of Security, 86
Minding the Baby, 86
Positive Parenting Program, 86
Reflective Parenting Program, 86
Tuning in to Kids, 86–87
Tuning in to Teens, 86–87
during middle childhood, 76–77, 80, 215–217
supportive practices for, 73 Testing Emotion Attunement and Mutuality task, 79 unsupportive practices for, 73 emotion systems, in family systems theory, 358–360 in co-parenting strategies, 358 emotional development, adverse childhood experiences as influence on, 468
Emotional Security Theory, 7
emotional warmth
during adolescence, parenting behaviors and, 237–238
by mothers, 237–238
during middle childhood, parental behavior in, 215 emotions, parental expression of, during infancy and
early childhood, 199–200
Emotions as a Child Scale (ECS), 73–74 empathy, development of, discipline and punishment strategies as influence on, 128
inductive reasoning and, 120–121
engaged learning, 99
attention in, 99
Engaging, Managing, and Bonding through Race Intervention (EMBRace Intervention), 319
enrichment studies, for infants, 37 environmental crises, mental health of parents during, 287 epigenetic mechanisms, in neurodevelopment, 42 equifinality. See principle of equifinality ES. See emotion socialization ethnicity, 149, 220–221, 237, 247–248, 305–306. See also race equality in, 305–306, 309, 312–319 evolutionary theory, 6–7
cuteness in, as survival factor, 6 Darwin’s influence on, 6
natural selection, 6
parental investment in, 6–7 executive function skills, development of, 96–97, 104
fathers’ role in, 337

experiential learning, 96 exploration behavior, 37 creativity through, 106 extended family structures, in Southeast Asia, 154 externalization of problems
during emerging adulthood, 260
from helicopter parenting, 264
in middle childhood, 224–225
externalizing disorders, children and adolescents with.
See also attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder behavioral parent training with ADHD, 415
for fathers, 415
coercive interaction theory and, 405–406 cycles in, 406
generational factors in, 408 cultural approach to, 403–404
conduct disorder, 403

Fairness for Breastfeeding Mothers Act, U.S. (2019), 171 familism, in Latino families, 265–266, 365
in family systems theory, 363 family adaptive systems (FAS), 359, 362 adoptive family systems and, 367
disequilibrium in, 364
multiple, 363–364
steady state dynamics in, 364
Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), U.S. (1993), 169–170
family capacity, acceptance of, 269 Family Check-Up (FCU), 617–618 family engagement, in ECE programs, 490–493
individual differences as factor for, 501–503
integrated perspectives on, 492–493 interventions for, embedded within Head Start programs, 495–498
family engagement, in ECE programs (cont.)
spheres of influence model, 490–491
structural-relational model, 491 family hierarchy traditions, in Southeast Asia, 153–154 family identity, 362 family laws, 361
family leave, 169–170
duration factors for, 169 under Federal Family and Medical Leave Act, 169–170 federal policies for, 169–170
state policies on, 170
Family Nurture Intervention (FNI), 176 family rituals, 361
family routines, 360–361 family rules, 361
Family Stress Model, 381 family systems theory, 10. See also alternative parenting contexts adversity and, 368
adverse childhood experiences, 368
through status risk, 368
through stressors, 368
boundaries in, 360–361 circular relational patterns in, 354 contextual approach to, 353–354 family as context lens, 353 family as system lens, 353 control systems in, 360
diversity of parent systems, 365–368
adoptive family systems, 366–367
family forms, 366–368
LGBTQAI+ family systems, 367–368
sexual-and-gender-minority family systems, 367–368 emotion systems in, 358–360
in co-parenting strategies, 358 evolution over time in, 356 familyism and, 363
family adaptive systems in, 359, 362 adoptive family systems and, 367
disequilibrium in, 364
multiple, 363–364
steady state dynamics in, 364 family laws in, 361
family rituals in, 361
family roles in, 361 family routines in, 360–361 family rules in, 361 fathers in, 342, 365–366
in mother-father-infant triangle, 365–366 feedback loops in, 364
morphogenesis of, 364
morphostasis of, 364
negative, 364
positive, 364
hierarchy in, 355–356
holism in, 355
interdependence in, 354
LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents and, 450–452
maintenance systems in, 363 meaning systems in, 361–362 family identity in, 362
family worldview in, 362
punctuation in, 362
situational meanings, 362
mothers in, 365–366
in mother-father-infant triangle, 365–366 mutual influence in, 354 parent–parent–child triangle in, 355 fathers, parenting behaviors of during adolescence, 244 emotion socialization, 80 risk behaviors, 622
social-emotional development, 341–342
with anxiety and depression disorders, in children behavioral control, 430
overprotective parenting by, 428
caregiving correlates for, 334–336
cultural influences on, 335
hormonal production, 336 mental health, 335
residential status, 335
for children with intellectual disabilities, 384–387
in co-parenting dynamic, 385, 387–400
mothers compared to, 385–387
contemporary trends for, 332–333 developmental benchmarks, 336–343 cognitive development, 332–336
executive function skills, 337
language development, 98, 338–339
for social-emotional development, 339–342 discipline and punishment strategies by, 122–123 emotion socialization by, 79–80
during adolescence, 80
during early adulthood, 80
during infancy and early childhood, 79–80
during middle childhood, 80
for externalizing disorders, in children and adolescents, 408–410 in behavioral parent training, 410 generational influences on, 408
parent–child relationship as influence on, 409–423 perceptions of child’s behaviors, 408–409
in family systems theory, 342, 365–366
in mother–father–infant triangle, 365–366 future research implications, 344–345 gender roles and, 332
during infancy and early childhood
emotion socialization by, 79–80
parent–child relationship during, 194
social–emotional development influenced by, 339–340 infant massage for, 177
intervention programs for, 344–345
Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education, 345
Responsible Fatherhood program, 345
language development influenced by, 98 mechanisms of, 342–344
family systems theory, 342
for father engagement, 342–343 proximal factors, 343 methodological approaches, 334 identification of fathers, 334 recruitment and retention of fathers, 334 policy implications, 344–345
social–emotional development influenced by, 339–342
during adolescence, 341–342
during infancy and early childhood, 339–340
for school-age children, 340–341 theoretical approaches, 333–334
in United States, 333
in bioecological model, 333–334
non-residency issues, 333
FCU. See Family Check-Up feedback loops, in family systems theory, 364 morphogenesis of, 364
morphostasis of, 364
negative, 364
positive, 364
financial insecurity, 282–283 fixed or growth mindset, confidence as, 106 floundering, in emerging adulthood
behavioral control, by parents, 262–263
helicopter parenting, 263–264
parent–child relationship as influence on, 262–264
psychological control, by parents, 263 flourishing, in emerging adulthood parent–child relationship as influence on, 261–262	ransfer of resources as factor in, 267
FMLA. See Family and Medical Leave Act
fMRI. See functional MRI FNI. See Family Nurture Intervention
food insecurity, 282
foster care, LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents in, 454–455 Freud, Sigmund
parenting science research influenced by, 12–13 theoretical approaches to parenting research influenced by, 6
fun, joyful learning and, 101 functional MRI (fMRI), for brain development, 63–64 Gardner, Bruce, 103
gender adolescence and
as demographic factor, for parenting behavior, 244 risk behaviors during, 623
brain development and
in neurobiological susceptibility models, 61
in normative parenting models, 57 discipline and punishment strategies and, 123
gender identity, 447, 449
parental reactions to, 450 gender non-conforming, 447 gender roles, for fathers, contemporary approaches to, 332 genderqueer, 447
Germany, refugee status, parental styles influenced by, 515–516, 520–523 asylum policies in, 520–522
Germany, refugee status, parental styles influenced by conceptual approach to, 514–515
detention policies in, 522–523 under European Union-Turkey Statement, 522–523 historical perspectives for, 529–530
prioritization of family unity in, 523 protection status hierarchy, 520–521 Schengen Agreement and, 524
socialization experience, for children, 516
for unaccompanied minors, 523–525
for undocumented families, 523–525
Getting Ready intervention, 497–498
Global Initiative to End Corporal Punishment, 130–135
grandparents
of children with intellectual disabilities, engagement with, 389–390
externalizing disorders and, in children and
adolescents, 410–411
grounded theory approach, to emotion socialization, 82 Hall, G. Stanley, 11–12
Head Start, 489, 491–492
The Companion Curriculum, 496–497 health care abuse prevention, for LGBTQA+ children and adolescents, 457
health care provider access, for LGBTQA+ children
and adolescents, 455–456
health education access, for LGBTQA+ children and adolescents, 456–457
Health Resources and Services Administration
(HRSA), 176–177
Healthy Families New York (HFNY), 500–501 Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education
(HMRE), 345
Healthy Start programs, 176–177
helicopter parenting, 263–264
heterosexism, 446–447
HFNY. See Healthy Families New York hierarchies, in family systems theory, 355–356 Hillis, Cora Bussey, 13
hippocampal structure, in child maltreatment studies, 53
HIPPY. See Home Instruction for Parents of Preschool Youngsters
HMRE. See Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education
holism, in family systems theory, 355 Home Instruction for Parents of Preschool Youngsters (HIPPY), 498–499 homelessness, for LGBTQA+ children and
adolescents, 454
homonegativity, 446–447
hormone production
for fathers, caregiving correlates influenced by, 336 prenatal bonding and, 166–167
Horney, Karen, 12–13
hospital-based intervention programs, for prenatal bonding, 173–176
housing insecurity, 283 HPA activity. See hypothalamic-pituitary-adrenal activity
HRSA. See Health Resources and Services Administration
hyperscanning, 77, 79
hypothalamic-pituitary-adrenal activity (HPA activity), 35 in child maltreatment studies, 52–53
ICF. See International Classification of Functioning, Disability, and Health
ID. See children with intellectual disabilities identity. See family identity IEPs. See Individualized Educational Plans immigration status, parenting styles influenced by for Chinese immigrant families, 219–220
during middle childhood, 218–219
incarceration, of parents, maltreatment influenced by, 568
The Incredible Years program, 391–392 independence, emerging adulthood and, 269 Indian families, emotion socialization in, 81–82
Individualized Educational Plans (IEPs), 436 Indonesia, parenting styles in
during middle childhood, 218–219 inductive reasoning, discipline and punishment strategies and, 120–121
empathy through, 120–121
moral behaviors through, 120–121
by mothers, 121
prosocial behavior through, 120–121 infancy and early childhood, parental behavior in.
See also early life care; externalizing disorders; specific topics adverse childhood experiences during, resilience
strategies for, 475–476
child maltreatment during, 197–199 resilience strategies, 198–199
for children with intellectual disabilities, 380 cognitive stimulation in, 196
conceptual approach to, 191–192
cultural factors during, parenting behaviors influenced by, 200
developmental milestones during, 191–192 discipline strategies during, 196–197 corporal punishment and, 197
cultural influences on, 197
eyear early care and education programs for, 493–494 emotion socialization during, 74–76, 79–80
sensitive parenting and, 194–195
enrichment studies for, 37 exploration behavior by, 37 future policy implications, 202–203 individual differences in parents characteristics and experiences as, 199 childhood experiences as, 200–201 cultural influences as factor for, 200 depressive disorders, 202
for emotional expression, 199–200
intimate partner violence and, 201 normative parental cognitions, 199–200 psychopathology and, 201–202 stress and trauma experiences, 201 parental socialization during, 195–196 parent–child attachment in, 192–195 with disorganized infants, 193
with fathers, 194
with mothers, 194
with resistant infants, 193
with secure infants, 193
promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities during, 312–313 relation-based intervention strategies, 203 scaffolding in, 196
schema development in, bottom-up model, 38–40 sensitive parenting in, 192–195
child outcomes from, 194
emotion socialization outcomes, 194–195 shape identification in, 38 stages of, 191–192
transitions during, 191–192 infant massage, for fathers, 177 information management, during adolescence, 240 intellectual disability (ID). See children with intellectual disabilities Interactive Internet/mobile Computer Mediated Interventions (ICMI), 594–598, 603 characteristics of, 595 contexts for, 605
facilitated research-based, 595–599
parent–child interaction therapy, 595–596 Play and Learning Strategies, 596–598 Strongest Families Smart Website, 599
gamification, 594–595
stand-alone research-based programs, 598–599 Parenting Wisely program, 599–600
Positive Parenting Program, 599–600
interdependence
emerging adulthood and, 269
in family systems theory, 354
intergenerational exchange, 269 internalized behaviors. See also anxiety disorders; depression; depressive disorders
during emerging adulthood, 260–261
from helicopter parenting, 264
in middle childhood, 224–225
International Classification of Functioning, Disability, and Health (ICF), 378
Interpersonal Acceptance-Rejection Theory, 7
Interpersonal Psychotherapy for Adolescents (IPT-A), 432–433 intervention programs. See specific topics intimate partner violence (IPV), 201 adverse childhood experiences and, 468–469 maltreatment risks with, 567
IPT-A. See Interpersonal Psychotherapy for Adolescents
IPV. See intimate partner violence Italian families
hotel families in, 266–267 parenting styles in, during emerging adulthood, 266–267 Jones, Edward, 12–13
joyful learning, 101
in Montessori school systems, 101
role of fun in, 101
Tools of the Mind curriculum and, 101 juvenile justice interventions, during adolescence, parenting behaviors and, 246–247
Kangaroo Care, 173, 177
Kenya, parenting styles in, 149 landmark parenting studies, in parenting science research, 13–15
in academic journals, 15 children’s impact on parents, 14
race and ethnicity in, 15
syndrome analysis, 13–14 typology of parenting styles, 14
language communication and, 103–104
definition of, 97
language development
communication and, 103–104
creativity and, 105
cultural contexts for, 97
fathers’ role in, 98, 338–339
Natural Language Processing, 601–602 socioeconomic status as influence on, 97–98 speed of, 95
Lareau, Annette, 309
Latino families, parenting behaviors in
for academic achievement and engagement, 306–312
academic socialization, 307–308
educational expectations, 307–308
parental involvement levels, 307–312
racial achievement gaps, 306
school environment context, 306–307
coping skills for discrimination, promotion of, 317–319
EMBRace Intervention, 319–320
intervention programs, 319–320
parental attitudes towards, 318–319
cultural socialization in contextual predictors for, 316–317
intergenerational transmission of, 316–317
intervention programs, 319–320
promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities through, 313–317
scope of, 314–316
during emerging adulthood, 265–266
familism and, 265–266
in family systems theory, 363
during middle childhood, 219
promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities, 312–317
in adolescence, 312–313
in childhood, 312–313
through cultural socialization, 313–317 laws. See family laws Laws, Gertrude, 12
learning active, 98–99
dialogic reading, 99
collaboration and, 102–103
historical development of, 102
in parent-child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
communication as part of, 103–104
conversation skills, 103
in parent-child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
through community interventions, 110 confidence in, 106–107

as fixed or growth mindset, 106
in parent-child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
struggle models and, 106–107 content areas of, 104
executive function skills, 104
in parent-child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
spatial skills, 104
creativity and, 105–106
in parent-child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
critical thinking skills and, 104–105
academic performance influenced by, 105
development of, 105
in parent-child activities, 107–108
through play, 107–108
definition of, 96
engaged, 99
attention in, 99
experiential, 96
joyful, 101
in Montessori school systems, 101
role of fun in, 101
Tools of the Mind curriculum and, 101 meaningful, 99–100 optimization of, 96
through play, 96, 107–110
in parent-child activities, 107–108
as process, 98–101
reading and, 95–96
science of learning, 95
social aspects of, 95–96 socially-interactive, 100 during COVID-19 pandemic, 100
technoference and, 100 success evaluation mechanisms, 101–107 traditional models for, 101–102
Learning Theory of Attachment, 40–41
Legacy for Children, 178–179
Levin, Richard, 14
LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents anxiety and depression disorders in, intervention strategies for, 433 in cis-normative society, 447–448 legislative discrimination against, 447–448 liberation movements in, 448 common terms for, 446–447
conceptual approach to, 446
family systems, 367–368

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment
www.cambridge.org
Index 647

gender identity, 447, 449
parental reactions to, 450
health effects for, 452–455 in heteronormative society, 447–448 liberation movements in, 448
homonegativity, 446–447
interventions for, 457–459 liberal movements against, 447–448 parental acceptance and
over time, 454
stress responses influenced by, 453–454
well-being influenced by, 452–453 parental rejection and, 452–453
foster care as result of, 454–455
homelessness as result of, 454
parent–child relationship as influence on, 243, 451–452 parents as advocates for, 455–457 for health care abuse prevention, 457 for health care provider access, 455–456 for health education access, 456–457 Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays Organization, 455 policy implications for, 457–459
population demographics, 448–449 age of coming out, 449–450 risk behaviors and, 623 risk factors for foster care, 454–455
homelessness, 454 same-sex marriage rights and, 448 sexual identity, 446–447, 449
parental reactions to, 450
theoretical approaches to, 450–452
Attachment Theory, 450–452, 454
Determinants of Parenting Model, 450–452
Family Systems Theory, 450–452
transnegativity, 447
typologies for, 446–447
gender identity, 447, 449
sexual identity, 446–447, 449–450 unique experiences of, 449–450 well-being for, 452–455 parental acceptance as influence on, 452–453
self-esteem and, 452–453 lifesign changes
for children with intellectual disabilities, 387–388
stress factors, 388
neurodevelopment as influence on, 38–42 Lorenz, Konrad, 6
love withdrawal, 120–121
Maccoby, Eleanor, 14 magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) functional, 63–64
resting state, 51–52
structural, 51–52
maintenance systems, in family systems theory, 363 maltreatment, in families, 561–569. See also child maltreatment studies attachment theory and, 564 defining features of, 561–562
risk factors for, 565–569 child-specific risks, 565–566 family poverty, 566–567 incarceration of parents, 568 intimate partner violence, 567 mental illness for parents, 568–569 parental substance abuse, 567–568 parent-specific risks, 566–569 social information processing model and, 564–565 tax type of maltreatment, 562–564 child neglect, 562–564 psychological maltreatment, 563 sexual abuse of children, 563 MATCH. See Modular Approach to Therapy for Children maternal behaviors
brain development influenced by, 63
overprotective behaviors, 12 maternal brain development, 166 meaning systems, in family systems theory, 361–362
family identity in, 362
family worldview in, 362
punctuation in, 362
situational meanings, 362 meaningful learning, 99–100 media exposure, monitoring of
during adolescence, 240–241
during middle childhood, 216
mental health, of parents under Americans with Disabilities Act, 291 basic task domains influenced by, 282–284
financial insecurity, 282–283
food insecurity, 282
housing insecurity, 283
social skills, 283
conceptual approach to, 281
depressive disorders
developmental task domains influenced by, 285–286
during infancy and early childhood, 202
developmental task domains influenced by, 284–286
mental health, of parents (cont.)
- alcoholism and substance abuse, 284–285
- anxiety disorders, 285
- attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder, 285
- depressive disorders, 285–286
- post-traumatic stress disorder, 285
- psychotic disorders, 286
- schizophrenia, 286
- epidemiology of, 281–282
- of fathers, caregiving correlates for, 335
- hazardous task domains influenced by, 286–287
- child health care, 286
- during environmental crises, 287
- health care during pregnancy, 286
- injury risks, 286–287
- special needs issues, 286–287
- during infancy and early childhood, depressive behaviors, 202
- intergenerational transmission of, prevention strategies, 293–294
- cognitive behavioral therapy programs, 294
- interventions for, implications of, 290–293
- for cognitive remediation therapies/compensatory approaches, 292
- for health care, 292–293
- for injury prevention, 292–293
- for nutrition, 292–293
- for promotion of parenting capacities, 291–292
- for survival issues, 291
- maltreatment in families influenced by, 568–569
- methodological approaches to, 284
- during middle childhood, 217
- policy practices for, 294
- predictive determinacy and, 281
- psychopathology of, 284
- risks to children influenced by clinical symptoms, in parents, 287
- social information processing model, 287–302
- transdiagnostic mechanisms for, 287–290

Merkel, Angela, 520

middle childhood, parental behavior in biocultural context for, 213–214, 217–218
- factors for individual children, 217–218
- parent mental health in, 217
- personality factors in, 217
- stress factors in, 218
- control behaviors, 215
- corporal punishment during, 215
- cultural factors for, 218–220
- immigration status and, 218–219
- developmental context for, 213–214

for developmental tasks, 220–225
- academic competence, 223–224
- autonomy, 223–224
- coping strategies, 221
- effortful control, 220–221
- for emotional regulation, 220–221
- externalization of problems, 224–225
- internalization of problems, 224–225
- peer acceptance/rejection, 223
- problem-solving, 221
- self-concept, 221–222
- self-esteem, 221–222
- for self-regulation, 220–221
- social relationship development, 223
- social-emotional competence, 222–223 dyadic time with children, 215
emotion socialization during, 76–77, 80, 215–217
emotional warmth, 215
ethnicity as factor for, 218–220 immigration status and, 218–219
for Latino families, 219 evolution of, 214–217
family context for, 235
intervention programs for, 226–227 involvement behaviors, through dyadic time with children, 215 monitoring behaviors, 216
of media exposure, 216
parental coaching, 222–223 positive parenting and, 215 for prosocial behaviors, 217–218 racial factors for, 218–220
for African-American families, 219
for Chinese immigrant families, 219–220
immigration status and, 218–219
scaffolding, 216
sociodemographic context for, 235

Minding the Baby program, 86 misgendering, 447
modeling by Bandura, with Bobo dolls, 8
in parenting science research, 16–17
in socialization theories, 8 Modular Approach to Therapy for Children (MATCH), 616 monitoring behaviors during adolescence, 238–242 autonomy supportive, 239–240 definition of monitoring, 238–240
information management, 240
for media exposure, 240–241
Index 649

for peer management, 241–242
restrictive, 239–240
during middle childhood, 216
of media exposure, 216
Montessori school systems, joyful learning in, 101 morality
discipline and punishment strategies and, 120–121
inductive reasoning and, 120–121
Moss, Howard, 18
mother–father–infant triangle, 365–366 mothers, parenting behaviors of during adolescence, parenting behaviors by, 244 parental warmth of, 237–238
with anxiety and depression disorders behavioral control and, 430 overprotective parenting and, 427 for children with intellectual disabilities, fathers compared to, 385–387
discipline and punishment strategies and
inductive reasoning and, 121
personal characteristics as influence on, 122–123 emotion socialization by, cultural as influence on, 81–82
in family systems theory, 365–366
in mother–father–infant triangle, 365–366
in mother–father–infant triangle, 365–366 parent–child relationship and, during infancy and
early childhood, 194
MRI. See magnetic resonance imaging multifinality. See principle of multifinality multiple family adaptive systems, 363–364 Myanmar, parenting styles in, 153

Natural Language Processing (NLP), 601–602 natural selection, in evolutionary theory, 6 nature/nurture approach, 5 epigenesis and, 5
foundational elements of genetics as, 5 parental styles as, 5 needs, signaling of, by infants, 32–33
cultural influences on, 33 negative feedback loops, in family systems theory, 364 neglectful parenting, 12 neural pathways, in child maltreatment studies, 54 neural synchrony, in brain development, 59 neurobiological susceptibility models, 59–62
in adolescents, 61
behavioral markers in, 60 brain function, 61–62
brain structure, 60–61
differential susceptibility theory, 59–60 gender differences in, 61 neurorecognition, discipline and punishment strategies and, 128 neurodevelopment. See also neural pathways; neural synchrony; responses to challenges adolescent neurocircuitry, 41–42 adult function early life care and, 38–41 neurocircuitry and, 41–42
well-being and, 41–42
adverse childhood experiences as influence on, 466–468
brain structure, 466–467
in prefrontal cortex, 466–468 attachment strategies and, 40
Learning Theory of Attachment, 40–41 brain aging and, 36 early life care
adult function and, 38–41
equifinality influenced by, 41–42
enrichment studies, for infants, 37
epigenetic mechanisms and, 42 through exploration behavior, 37 genetic variations as influence on, 42 intergenerational transmission, 38–42 lifespan changes, 38–42 parental sensitivity and, 40 in prenatal bonding, 165–167 maternal brain changes, 166
neural pathways, 167
neurobiological research on, 165 neurological changes, 166 schema development
bottom-up model, 38–40
top-down model, 38–40
shape identification, 38 neuroendocrine development, prenatal bonding and, 166–167
hormone production, 166–167
oxytocin production, 166
Nigeria, parenting styles in, 149
NLP. See natural language processing
No Hit Zones, 136
nontypical, 447
norm compliance, during emerging adulthood, 269 normative parenting models, brain development in, direct influence on, 54–59
in adolescents, 55–58
brain function, 56–58
brain structure, 55–56
normative parenting models, brain development in, direct influence on (cont.)
decision-making and, 58 developmental timing of exposure, 58–59 gender factors in, 57
neural synchrony, 59

ODD. See oppositional defiant disorder operant conditioning theory, 7–8 oppositional defiant disorder (ODD), 403
Orygen Adolescent Development Study, 55–56
overprotective parenting, anxiety and depression disorders and, 427–428
by fathers, 428
by mothers, 427
oxytocin production, prenatal bonding, 166

PACES. See protective and compensatory experiences PALS. See Play and Learning Strategies parent cognition approach, 17 parent education programs. See also early care and education programs
for adverse childhood experiences, 476–477 parental acceptance. See acceptance parental affiliation stigma, for ADHD, 405 parental investment, in evolutionary theory, 6–7 parental rejection. See rejection parental sensitivity.40. See also sensitive parenting parental warmth. See warmth
Parent–Child Interaction Therapy, 391–392 parent–child interaction therapy (PCIT), 595–596 parent–child relationship
during adolescence, 236
for LGBTQ children, 243, 451–452
for sex communication, 243
discipline and punishment strategies influenced by, 125–126
emerging adulthood influenced by, 261–264
behavioral control, by parents, 262–263
flourishing as result of, 262–264
flourishing as result of, 261–262
support through, 262
externalizing disorders and, in children and adolescents influence on, 409–423 during infancy and early childhood, attachment in, 192–195
with disorganized infants, 193
with fathers, 194
with mothers, 194
with resistant infants, 193
with secure infants, 193

protective and compensatory experiences and, 471–474
parent–child separation, refugee status and, 525–527 parenting programs, 569–577. See also specific programs
comprehensive home visitation, 569–576
interventions and, 576–577
policies for, 569–575
targeted parenting interventions, 576 parenting science research, 11–20. See also theoretical approaches attention strategies in, 16–17 contemporary approaches in, 15–19 behavioral genetics approach, 18 child effects and transactions approach, 15–16 ecological momentary approach, 17–18
parent cognition approach, 17
sample longitudinal datasets, 18–19 social address approach, 17
social learning approach, 16–17
traits approach, 15
discipline and punishment strategies in, 12–13, 16–17 emergent period of, 11–13 on discipline approaches, 12–13 Freud as influence during, 12–13 on maternal overprotection, 12 on neglectful parenting, 12 on parental acceptance and rejection, 13 on parental expressions of affection and love, 12–13 evolutionary theory and, influence of, 11 landmark parenting studies, 13–15
in academic journals, 15
children’s impact on parents, 14
race and ethnicity in, 15
syndrome analysis, 13–14
typology of parenting styles, 14
methodological approaches to, 11–12
trends in, 20
modeling in, 16–17
race and ethnicity factors, 19 in landmark parenting studies, 15 reformers in, 16–17
social cognitive theory, 17
trends in, 19–20
expansion of approaches, 20 in methodology, 20
race and ethnicity factors, 19 parenting styles. See also theoretical approaches typology of, in parenting science research, 14 Parenting Wisely program (PW program), 599–600 parent–parent-child triangle, 355
mother-father-infant triangle, 365–366 parents. See also fathers; mothers; specific developmental periods; specific topics emotion coaching, 72, 78 emotion dismissing parents, 72, 78
in parenting science research acceptance by, 13, 127 affection and love, expressions of, 12–13 children’s impact on, 14 rejection by parents, 13
Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG), 455
Parents as Teachers model (PAT model), 499–500 Parents Plus Children’s Programme, 391–392
Parke, Ross, 17
PAT model. See Parents as Teachers model pathological model, for children with intellectual disabilities, 377–378 Patterson, Gerald, 8
PC TALK program, 600–601
PCIT. See parent-child interaction therapy Pearson, Karl, 8
behavioral genetics approach, 18
peer acceptance/rejection, in middle childhood, 223 peer management, during adolescence, 241–242
perinatal protocols, for attachment risk, 177 personality, of parents in biocological model of human development, 217
during middle childhood, 217
perturbations, in family systems theory, 356–357 relational processes, 356–357 stressor events, 357
PFLAG. See Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays Philippines, parenting styles in, 152
phone-assisted parenting support, 600–601 physiological responses to challenges, by infants, 34–35 hypothalamic-pituitary-adrenal activity, 35 stress hormones, 34
play coognition through, 96–97
learning through, 96, 107–110
in parent-child activities, 107–108
Play and Learning Strategies (PALS), 596–598
Positive Discipline in Everyday Parenting Program, 136 positive feedback loops, in family systems theory, 364
positive parenting
during emerging adulthood, 265
during middle childhood, 215
Positive Parenting Program (Triple P), 86, 391–392, 599–600
Baby Positive Parenting Program, 178 postnatal parent-infant bonding breastfeeding support and, 170–172 Baby-Friendly Hospital Initiative, 172
federal policies for, 171
state law policies for, 171–172 World Health Organization guidelines on, 170–171
family leave and, 169–170
duration factors, 169
under Family and Medical Leave Act, 169–170
socioeconomic status and, 169
corporal punishment, 121
negative outcomes from, 121
state family leave policies, 170 World Health Organization guidelines on, 170
healthy start programs, 176
community-based, 176
Family Nurture Intervention, 176
Healthy Resources and Services Administration, 176–177
Healthy Start programs, 176–177
infant massage, for fathers, 177
Kangaroo Care, 173, 177
Legacy for Children, 178–179
perinatal protocols for attachment risk, 177 resources on, 174–175
maternal relationship experiences, 167
neurobiology of, 165–167
maternal brain changes, 166
neural pathways, 167
neurological changes, 166
neuroendocrine factors, 166–167
hormone production, 166–167
oxytocin production, 166
research on, 179–180
gaps in, 179–180
integrated systems in, 180 policy approaches to, 180
risk factors for, 168
two-generational approach to, 180 post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 285 poverty
family systems theory and, 368
as maltreatment risk, 566–567
power assertion
through corporal punishment, 121
in discipline and punishment strategies, 120–121 through corporal punishment, 121
negative outcomes from, 121

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment
www.cambridge.org
predictive determinacy, mental health and, 281 pregnancy mental health of parents during, 286 physiological experience of, prenatal bonding through, 167–168 prenatal bonding. See also attachment theories definition of, 165

factors for, 165
intervention programs for, 169, 173–179
community-based, 176–179
hospital-based, 173–176
maternal relationship experiences, 167
neurobiology of, 165–167
maternal brain changes, 166
neural pathways, 167
neurological changes, 166
research on, 165
neuroendocrine factors, 166–167
hormone production, 166–167
oxytocin production, 166
risk factors for, 167–169
childbirth experience, 168 environmental influences, 169 parent factors, 167 physiological experience of pregnancy, 167–168 principle of equifinality, 365 principle of multifinality, 365 problem-solving, in middle childhood, 221 prosocial behaviors through inductive reasoning, 120–121
during middle childhood, 217–218 protective and compensatory experiences (PACES), 466, 470–471
by age group, 471–472
parent-child relationship and, 471–474
resilience strategies for, by age, 475–477
resources for, 474–475
supportive environments for, 474–475
psychological control, by parents, 263
with anxiety and depression disorders, 428–432

cultural influences on, 429
parent warmth and, 430–431 psychological maltreatment, 563
psychotic disorders, 286
PTSD. See post-traumatic stress disorder punctuation, in family systems theory, 354 in meaning systems, 362 punishment. See discipline and punishment strategies PW program. See Parenting Wisely program queer, 447

race
ethnicity and, parenting behaviors influenced by (See also African-American families; Chinese families; Italian families; Latino families)
for academic achievement and engagement, 306–312
academic socialization, 307–308 concerted cultivation concept, 309
educational expectations, 307–308 natural growth concept, 309 parental involvement levels, 307–312
racial achievement gaps, 306
school environment context, 306–307
during adolescence
color-blind approach to, 242–243
demographic factors for, 244–245
parenting behaviors influenced by, 244–245
promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities, 312–313
risk behaviors during, 622
socialization strategies, 242–243
conceptual approach to, 303–306
coping skills for discrimination, promotion of, 317–319 EMBRace Intervention, 319–320
intervention programs, 319–320
parental attitudes towards, 318–319
cultural socialization
contextual predictors for, 316–317
intergenerational transmission of, 316–317
intervention programs, 319–320
promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities through, 313–317
scope of, 314–316
ecological contexts for, 304–305 ecological contexts for, macrosystems in, 304–305 heuristic model for, 305 during infancy and early childhood, promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities, 312–313 methodological approaches to economic demographics, 303–304
population demographics, 303
during middle childhood, 218–220
for African-American families, 219
for Chinese immigrant families, 219–220
immigration status and, 218–219
for Latino families, 219
overview of, 319–324
in parenting science research, 19
in parenting science research, in landmark parenting studies, 15 promotion of positive ethnic-racial identities, 312–317
in adolescence, 312–313
in childhood, 312–313
through cultural socialization, 313–317 terminology contexts for, 305–306 reading dialogic, 99
learning and, 95–96
reasoning. See inductive reasoning REDI-P. See Research-based, Developmentally Informed - Parent program
Reflective Parenting Program, 86
refugee status in parental styles influenced by, acculturation as part of, 156
in sub-Saharan Africa
acculturation as part of, 156 refugee status, parenting influenced by, 154–156. See also Germany; United States in Canada, 155
ecological model of, 526 international protocols on, 516–518 detention, 517–518 family unity, prioritization of, 518 right to asylum, 517 structural mechanisms for, 525–529 for community violence, 528 demand characteristics of asylum policies, 528–529 denial of access to social services, 527–528 for parent-child separation, 525–527 for refugee hardship, 527–528 trauma exposure and, 154–155
in Western-host countries, 155–156
Rehabilitation Act, U.S., 436 reinforcers, 16–17
rejection, by parents
Interpersonal Acceptance-Rejection Theory, 7
for LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents, 452–453
foster care as result of, 454–455
homelessness as result of, 454
in parenting science research, 13 research. See theoretical approaches Research-based, Developmentally Informed - Parent program (REDI-P), 495–496 Resilience model, 381
resilience strategies
for adverse childhood experiences
for adolescents, 476
during emerging adulthood, 476
during infancy and early childhood, 475–476
intervention programs, 477
through parent education programs, 476–477
for protective and compensatory experiences, 475–477
for school-age children, 476
in family systems theory, 368
for infancy and early childhood, 198–199 resistant infants, 193 responses to challenges, by infants abandonment history as influence on, 32 costs of, 31–35 physical, 31
experiencing of situation, 32 neurophysiological effects, 35–37 accelerated development, 36 brain aging, 36
physiological, 34–35
hypothalamic-pituitary-adrenal activity, 35
stress hormones, 34
regulation of, 33–34
of stress, 36–37
signaling of needs, 32–33
cultural influences on, 33
Responsible Fatherhood program, 345 resting state MRI (rsMRI), for brain development, 51–52 restrictive monitoring behaviors, during adolescence, 239–240 Ribble, Margaret, 12–13 risk behaviors. See specific topics rituals. See family rituals roles
family, in family systems theory, 361 gender, for fathers, contemporary approaches to, 332 routines. See family routines rsMRI. See resting state MRI rules. See family rules same-sex marriage rights, 448 sample longitudinal datasets, in parenting science research, 18–19
scaffolding
in infancy and early childhood, 196
during middle childhood, 216
schema development
bottom-up model, 38–40
top-down model, 38–40
schizophrenia, 286
science of learning, 95
Sears, Charles, 11–12
Sears, Robert, 14

Index

653 secure infants, 193
self-concept, in middle childhood, 221–222 Self-Determination Theory, 5–6, 236–237 self-efficacy, ADHD and, 404–405
self-esteem
for LGBTQA+ children and adolescents, 452–453
in middle childhood, 221–222
self-regulation
emerging adulthood and, 259
in middle childhood, 220–221 sensitive parenting, in infancy and early childhood, 192–195
child outcomes from, 194
emotion socialization outcomes, 194–195 separation-individuation theory, 259 sex communication, during adolescence, 243 sex education interventions, during adolescence, parenting behaviors and, 247 sexual abuse, of children, as maltreatment, 563 sexual identity, for LGBTQA+ children and adolescents, 446–447, 449
parental reactions to, 450
sexual-and-gender-minority family systems (SGM family systems), 367–368 SFSW. See Strongest Families Smart Website
SGM family systems. See sexual-and-gender-minority family systems shaming, as discipline and punishment strategy, 126 shape identification, in infants, 38
SIP model. See social information processing model Skinner, B. F., 7–8
sMRI. See structural MRI
social address approach, 17
social behavior model, 407
social cognition theories, 9–10
Bandura, and, 8
social information processing, 10 Theory of Planned Behavior, 9–10
social cognitive theory, 8
in parenting science research, 17
social information processing model (SIP model), 10, 287–302 discipline and punishment strategies and, 127–128 executive function deficits, 289
maltreatment in families and, 564–565 problem-solving deficits, 289 schema development and, 287–289
social learning approach, 16–17
Social Learning Theory, 616
Social Relational Theory, 8 social relationships, development of, during middle childhood, 223 social skills, mental health of parents and, 283
social-emotional competence
fathers’ role in, 341–342
during adolescence, 339–342
during infancy and early childhood, 339–340
for school-age children, 340–341
during middle childhood, 222–223
socialization theories, 7–8 adolescence and, parenting behaviors during
for culture and race, 242–243
for LGBTQ children, 243
for sex communication, 243
Bandura and, 7–8
modeling studies, with Bobo dolls, 8
social cognitive theory, 8
correction theory, 8
for infancy and early childhood period, 195–196
operant conditioning theory, 7–8
Social Relational Theory, 8 socially-interactive learning, 100
during COVID-19 pandemic, 100
technoference and, 100
sociocultural theory, 145
socioeconomic status
family leave and, 169
language development influenced by, 97–98
transfer of resources influenced by, during emerging adulthood, 272 South Africa, parenting styles in, 149 Southeast Asia
parenting styles in, cultural influences on, 151–154 (See also Chinese families) authoritarian parenting, 152 Buddhism as influence on, 152
in Cambodia, 153
Confucianism as influence on, 152 Confucianism as influence on, filial piety as element of, 265
during emerging adulthood, 265 extended family structures in, 154 family hierarchy traditions in, 153–154 in Indonesia, 152–153
in Myanmar, 153
in Philippines, 152
refugee status in, 154–156
acculturation as part of, 156
in Canada, 155
trauma exposure and, 154–155
in United States, 155–156
in Western-host countries, 155–156 regional boundaries of, 151–152 Taoism as influence on, 152 in Vietnam, 153
spatial skills, 104
special needs issues, mental health of parents and, 286–287
spheres of influence model, in ECE programs, 490–491
spillover theory, 544
Stodgill, Ralph, 12–13
Stolz, Lois, 17
stress from adversity, in family systems theory, 368
in biocological model of human development,
during middle childhood, 218
children with intellectual disabilities and, 380–383
conceptual models for, 381
cultural influences on, 382
across lifespan, 388
as mediation model, 382–383
discipline and punishment strategies and, as predictor of, 122–123
eyearly care and education programs and, 494–495
family systems theory and perturbations and, 357 response systems for, 363–365 infancy and early childhood and, parental behavior influenced by, 201
for LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents, 453–454 regulation of, in infants, 36–37 in sub-Saharan Africa, parenting styles influenced by, 148
Stress and Coping model, 381
stress hormones, 34
Strongest Families Smart Website (SFSW), 599 structural MRI (sMRI), of brain development, 51–52 structural-relational model, in ECE programs, 491 struggle models, confidence and, 106–107 sub-Saharan Africa. See also South Africa
parenting styles in, cultural influences on, 148–151 adolescent mental health outcomes, 149–150 authoritative parenting in, 149
cognitive development, 151 discipline approaches, 150–151 indigenous practices in, 151 in Kenya, 149
in Nigeria, 149
refugee status in, 154–156
socioemotional development in, 151 in South Africa, 149
stressors as influence on, 148 UN classification of countries, 148 substance abuse. See alcoholism and substance abuse suicidality, with anxiety and depression disorders, 436 survival issues, mental health of parents and, 291 syndrome analysis, 13–14
system lens, in family systems theory, 353 systems theories, 10–11. See also family systems theory Bio-Ecological Systems Theory, 10
coparenting and, 10–11
Taoism, 152
targeted parenting interventions, 576
TCC. See The Companion Curriculum TEAM task. See Testing Emotion Attunement and Mutuality task
tecnوفر, 100
technology, parenting and. See also Interactive Internet/mobile Computer Mediated Interventions
advancements in technology, 601–602 natural language processing, 601–602 smart speaker technology, 602 with virtual reality, 616
conceptual approach to, 592–593 during COVID-19 pandemic, 603–604 truth and accuracy issues, 604–605 global development of, 592–593
interventions for
barriers to implementation of, 593–594
behavioral parent training, 593 efficacy strategies, 593–594
phone-assisted parenting support, 600–601
in underserved populations, 604–605 temperament, of children, discipline and punishment strategies influenced by, 125
Testing Emotion Attunement and Mutuality task (TEAM task), 79
theoretical approaches, in parenting science research, 5–11
attachment theories, 7
Emotional Security Theory, 7
Interpersonal Acceptance-Rejection Theory, 7 behavioral genetics theory, 8–9 deterministic views in, 9 unidirectional views in, 9
evolutionary theory, 6–7
cuteness in, as survival factor, 6
Darwin’s influence on, 6
natural selection, 6
parental investment in, 6–7
theoretical approaches, in parenting science research (cont.)

Freud as influence on, 6
Self-Determination Theory, 5–6
social cognition theories, 9–10
Bandura and, 8
social information processing, 10
Theory of Planned Behavior, 9–10
socialization theories, 7–8 coercion theory, 8
operant conditioning theory, 7–8
social cognitive theory, 8
Social Relational Theory, 8 systems theories, 10–11 Bio-Ecological Systems Theory, 10
co-parenting and, 10–11
family systems theory, 10
Theory of Reasoned Action, 5–6
Theory of Reasoned Action, 5–6
Tools of the Mind curriculum, 101 top-down model, in schema development, 38–40 traits approach, 15
transfer of resources, during emerging adulthood, 267–272
flourishing and, 267
intergenerational exchange, 269
socioeconomic status and, 272 transfer of knowledge, 269–270 transfer of skills and values, 269–270 transgender populations. See also LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents defined, 447
transnegativity, 447
trauma exposure, refugee status and, 154–155 triangle relationship dynamics. See mother-father-infant triangle; parent–parent-child triangle Triple P. See Positive Parenting Program
Trump, Donald, 518–519
Tuning in to Kids program, 86–87 Tuning in to Teens program, 86–87 two-generational approach, to postnatal parent-infant bonding, 180 unaccompanied minors in Germany, refugee status and, 523–525
in U.S., refugee status and, 523–525 underserved populations, technology use in, 604–605 undocumented families in Germany, refugee status and, 523–525
in U.S., refugee status and, 523–525
United States (U.S.)
Americans with Disabilities Act, 291
Disabilities Education Improvement Act, 436
Fairness for Breastfeeding Mothers Act, 171 fathers as parents in, 333 in biocological model, 333–334
non-residency issues, 333
Federal Family and Medical Leave Act, 169–170
Health Resources and Services Administration, 176–177 refugee status in, parenting styles influenced by, 155–156, 515–516 asylum policies in, 519
cultural conceptual approach to, 514–515 detention policies in, 519–520
historical perspectives for, 529–530
national refugee policies in, 518–520 prioritization of family unity in, 520
socialization experience, for children, 516
for unaccompanied minors, 523–525
for undocumented families, 523–525
Rehabilitation Act, 436
Video Feedback Intervention to Promote Positive Parenting and Sensitive Discipline (VIPP-SD), 129–136
Vietnam, parenting styles in, 153 VIPP-SD. See Video Feedback Intervention to Promote Positive Parenting and Sensitive Discipline warmth, by parents
during adolescence, 237–238
by mothers, 237–238
for anxiety and depression disorders, in children, 430–431 Watson, John B., 7–8
behaviorism and, 11
well-being
adult function and, 41–42
for LGBTQIA+ children and adolescents, 452–455
parental acceptance as influence on, 452–453
self-esteem and, 452–453
WHO. See World Health Organization women. See also gender; maternal behaviors; mothers maternal brain development, 166 work life, meaning of, for parenting. See also early care and education programs CareerAdvances program, 542
conceptual approach to, 536
COVID-19 pandemic and, 551–552
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>In developed nations, comparisons with</td>
<td>550–551</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Economic policies and programs for</td>
<td>546–551</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For earnings protections</td>
<td>549–550</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For household income protections</td>
<td>549–550</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To support workers</td>
<td>546–549</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Economic resource or investment theory and</td>
<td>545</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Employment contexts</td>
<td>536–539, 543–546</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conceptual approaches to</td>
<td>544–545</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Earnings volatility</td>
<td>538–539</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Empirical evidence for</td>
<td>545–546</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Low wage growth and</td>
<td>538–539</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Structural changes for</td>
<td>537–538</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For women</td>
<td>536–537</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Overview of</td>
<td>551–552</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spillover theory and</td>
<td>544</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Work-family conflicts</td>
<td>544</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Health Organization (WHO)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Baby-Friendly Hospital Initiative, 172</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Breastfeeding support guidelines</td>
<td>170–171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International Classification of Functioning, Disability, and Health</td>
<td>378</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Young adulthood. See emerging adulthood</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>