

Index

- Act of Union 1801 40, 161, 244, 292, 365 advantages brought by 163–4 giving political rights to Catholics 163 Ireland as dependency or Crown colony under xxxi loyalty of Ulster resulting from 163–4
 Pitt the Younger, and 54, 60, 365 triumph of provincialism over imperialism, as 290
- Africa
 British Empire, and 58 ‘scramble’ for xxii
 South Africa see South Africa
- Alexander, Bishop William 364
- Amery, Leopold S.
 biography lviii
 criticism of dominion home rule xxxiii
 ‘Home Rule and the Colonial Analogy’ 101–22
 colonial analogy, prominence of 101–2 colonial analogy based on three main confusions 102–3 colonial experiences useful for strengthening Union 121 colonial policy as popular self-government 104–5 colonial responsible government as artificial system 105–7 colonial self-government, problems with 106–7 colonies surrendering home rule, reasons for 110–11
- conditions in colonies not present in Ireland 107–8
 confusion between imperial and national/dominion functions 120 confusion between self-governing dominion, and colonial state status 113–20 confusion between self-government and separate government 102–13
 disunion, effects of 111–12
 Durham Report 104–5
 essence of home rule as creation of
 separate government 104
 federalism, rejection of 113–20 imperial council having oversight of dominions xxxiii independent Irish Parliament 109 Ireland enjoying greater liberty and privileges than dominions 109 Ireland and Great Britain best as members of one organisation 102
 Ireland treated politically as a colony 108 mistakes depriving Union of much of its effect 109–10 Newfoundland analogy for Ireland under
 home rule 112–13
 requirements for effective and stable Union 121–1 success of colonial policy not argument for home rule 120–1
- Andrews, Thomas 295

---

Index

---

- armed forces
- British Army 181–2
    - Black and Tans and Auxiliaries xxix
    - boycotting 14
    - proportion of Irish population in Army 206–7
  - Irish Army, supposed danger from 334–5
  - Irish Citizen Army xxvi, lxi, lxxv, 233
  - Irish Republican Army (IRA) xxviii
  - submarines
    - submarine offensive, conditions for 335–6
    - submarine peril 335
  - Ulster army
    - fighting war and home army 308–13, 316–18
    - formation and equipping 301–3, 305–6
- Arnold Matthew xviii, xx
- Asquith, Herbert Henry xxiii, xxv, 163, 191, 351, 352
- dependent on Labour and Irish Party xxiii
  - indefeasible authority of imperial parliament 103
  - Ireland regarded as a ‘nation’ xl
- Balfour, Arthur 57, 63, 83, 128, 363
- Boer War 59
  - Chief Secretary for Ireland, as xiii
- Balfour, Gerald 63, 69
- Bastable, Charles Francis 152
- Belfast 73, 183, 298–99, 303–6, 312–13, 315, 319, 363
- Belfast administration xxix, xli
  - Belfast Technical Institute 73, 86
  - Dublin, and xxi, 81–2
  - riots in response to first Home Rule Bill ix
  - success of 138
  - two-thirds Protestant population 95
  - Ulster Provisional Government 306, 308, 310–11
  - Ulster Unionist Convention xii
- Bennett, Louie xxvii
- biography lix
  - ‘Ireland and a People’s Peace’ 271–6
  - controlling factors of Peace Settlement 276–7
  - internationalism and democracy 278, 279–84
  - ‘Ireland a Nation amongst Nations’, as ideal 272
- Irish people true to principle of freedom 278
  - nationality and democracy 273–7
  - new vision of civilisation/spirit 271, 277–8
  - struggle for freedom, concessions in interests of humanity, and 273–4
- Birrell, Augustine 65, 355
- Bismarck, Otto Prince of xxxvi, 50, 51–4
- Danish War 50–4
- Franco-Prussian War 54–6
- purpose 51
- Boers/Boer War xxii, lx, lxii, 57, 58–9, 67, 116
- Bonar Law, Andrew xxiv
- Botha, General Louis 208
- Bright, John 164, 356–7
- British Army
  - Black and Tans and Auxiliaries xxix
  - boycotting 14
  - proportion of Irish population in Army 206–7
- British Commonwealth xxv, xxix, 263, 343, 346, 347
- British Empire xxii, 162, 229, 231, 299, 342, 343, 356
- dominions and government xxxii, 274, 313
  - inherent disloyalty of Nationalist Ireland to 354–6
- Burke, Edmund 165
- Butt, Isaac xxxii, 82
- Campbell-Bannerman, Henry xxiii
- Cannan, Prof Edwin 145, 147
- Canning, George 40, 42, 46
- Carey, Henry xxxvi, 43–6
- doctrine of protection 44
  - nationalism 145
- Carey, Matthew 43–4
- Carlyle, Thomas xx
- Carson, Edward xxiv
- benefits of Union xxxv
  - biography lix–lx
- Catholics
  - dominance, Protestant fears about xl
  - refusal to admit to power and responsibility 194–5
- federalist arguments 129–35
- home rule

Index

- Carson, Edward (cont.)
 first stage of organised resistance to demand for home rule 295–307 loyalty to the Crown 139, 163–4, 299–301, 353–4, 356, 358
 outbreak of war, second stage after 307–13
 Protestant German rule, preference for 303, 305
 Provisional Government, Ulster 296–7, 298, 300–7, 308, 313–16
 rebellion under arms, possibility of 295, 296
 third stage of Convention to answer Irish question 313–16
 Ulster army, formation of 301–3, 305–6
 Ulster army in war and home army 308–13, 316–18
 Ulster Day signing of Covenant 297–99
 Ulster policy of ‘ourselves first and last, ourselves all the time’ 294–5, 318–19
 Irish Unionist Alliance, and xii, xxi ‘Settlement of an Old Controversy’ 123–39 federalism 132–3, 134 home rule as religious question 138 home rule no benefits to Irishmen 137
 Home Rule Bill, criticisms of 132–9
 Home Rule Bill not precursor of similar devolution to other UK countries 130–2 Irish Parliament, status of 135–6 no outstanding grievances in Ireland 127 taxation in Ireland 127–30, 133–4, 137
 Ulster policy 181, 182–3
 Unionism, and 181
 Castlereagh, Lord 40–2
 conferring on Ireland equal partnership in UK 109
 Catholicism xxxv, 24, 40
 Act of Union giving political rights to Catholics 163 aristocracy, and 82 boycotts 303–4
 democracy xl
 Catholic dominance, Protestant fears about xl emancipation 8, 109, 163
 opposition to 195
 Catholic Ireland
 lethargy and xxi tool for spiritual re-conquest of England, as 23–4
 Catholic Irish, responsibilities and powers of free men and 194–5 Catholic University x ix, 136, 136
 clericalism in secular affairs 360–2 Co-operative movement, and 75
 education
 denominational character of 86 facilities for higher education for Catholics 64–5
 Municipal Technical Institute 73, 86
 secondary education, increased number of Catholics in xix Ireland as Roman Catholic country 83, 84
 Irish priests, nature of 360 military draft on Ireland, opposing xxvii, 361 obedience of adherents, enforcement of 360–2
 Parnell’s adulterous relationship xiii
 Poland 8
 religious dissension and rivalry 353, 359–62
 religious intolerance of 93
 Roman Catholic clerical influence xiii
 Roman Catholic imperium xviii
 Union, and 94, 138
 Vatican decrees 361–2
 Celtic Literary Society xvi
 Celticism xviii
see also Gaelic Ireland
 Chamberlain, Joseph Austen xxii, xxxii, lviii, 57, 363
 Chambers, James 299, 303
 Childers, Erskine
 biography lx
 criticism of Childers’ arguments xxxiii–xxxiv dominion home rule as solution xxxi–xxxiii
 ‘federal chimera’ as wholly impracticable 113
Framework of Home Rule, The xxxi, 61–97, 101 congested districts 86–7
 Conservative policy of amelioration in Ireland 63–4 Co-operative movement/Agricultural

Index

- Co-operation 73–7, 79, 80
- Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction 67–73, 80, 85–6
- ‘devolutionist’ episode 64
- drunkenness and temperance 88–9
- education, problems in 84–6: religion as immediate cause of 86
- foundations of new social order 65–6
- Gaelic League 77–9
- home rule xxxi–xxxiii, 80–3, 91–7: large majority of Irishmen wanting 61–2; powerful minority in Ireland against home rule 61; self-government as fundamental 62–3; spiritual impulse behind the desire for home rule 62
- Industrial Development Associations 76, 79
- Ireland having no organic national life 81–2
- Irish Conference 66
- Irish finance and expenditure 89–91
- labour troubles and National Insurance 88
- land legislation and peasant proprietorship 87–8
- Liberal improvement measures 64–5
- local government 83–4
- national revival, development of 66–7
- Recess Committee 67–8, 71, 74
- Sinn Féin 79
- state aid 73–4
- wasted talent in Ireland 83
- Ireland resembling British Crown colony xxxi–xxxii
- Ireland as ‘first and nearest of the Colonies’ 108
- Is Ireland a Danger to England?* 331–40
- alliance, first consequences of 339
- alliance, strategic conditions of 339–40
- alliance against England? Ireland’s motives to the contrary 339
- analogy from World War 337
- appeal for clear thinking 332
- choice before England 333
- England’s Interest in freedom of Ireland 337
- governing strategic facts 335
- Ireland’s defensive power against England 337–8
- Lloyd George’s view 333–4
- other possibilities 337
- possible allies 338–9
- submarine offensive, conditions for 335–6
- submarine peril 335
- supposed danger from Irish Army 334–5
- throwing money into sea 336–7
- violation of a neutral Ireland 338
- Treaty 1922 xxx
- Westminster government not answerable to Irish interests xxxv
- worries about intolerance misplaced xl
- chronology of events xvii–lvii
- Church of Ireland lix, 65, 86, 90, 179
- disestablishment xix, 65, 170–1
- Churchill, Lord Randolph 363
- Churchill, Sir Winston 57, 134–5, 297
- civil war, Irish xii, xxx, xl, lx, lxiv, lxviii, 109, 165–6, 172, 263, 296, 305, 306, 315, 318
- civilisation
- heritage enjoyed by a few, as 214
- labour sharing in fruits of 215
- meaning of 213–14
- new vision of 271
- war for civilisation, meaning of 214–15
- war waged by forces of organised labour 215–16
- class and class struggle
- class friction in Ulster, cessation of 362–3
- fight for national liberty, struggle of the most subject class and 27
- indifference of Irish politicians to sufferings of the people 28
- Irish peasants, low status of 23, 24
- landlord class loyal to England 32
- possessing/conservative class, victory for 30–2
- upper class under England’s protecting power 32
- working class see working class
- Cobden, Richard 10, 45
- Coleridge, Samuel Taylor xx
- Collins, Michael xxix
- Treaty 1922, and xxx, 343
- colonies
- colonial experiences useful for strengthening Union 121

Index

- colonies (cont.)
 government
 artificial system, as 105–7 popular self-government, colonial policy as 104–5 refusal to submit to control 290 self-government, problems with 106–7 status of self-governing dominion and colonial state, confusion between 113–20 surrendering home rule, reasons for 110–11 home rule, and
 colonial analogy, prominence of 101–2
 colonial analogy based on three main confusions 102–3 conditions in colonies not present in Ireland 107–8
 Ireland
 ‘first and nearest of the Colonies’, as 108 treated politically as a colony 108 tariffs
 protectionist tariffs 106
 tariff experiments in Australian colonies 154
 Congested Districts Boards xiii, 63, 64, 86–7, 122, 315
 Connolly, James xvii, xx, xxii, 25
 biography lx–lxi
 Catholic Ireland as tool for spiritual reconquest of England 23–4 ‘Continental Revolution, A’ 198–201 any action justified to stop ‘colossal crime’ 200–1 hatred of militarism 199
 socialist movement in Europe at outbreak of war 198–9 socialists of other countries as fellow-patriots 201 war between socialists and socialist countries 199–200 democrat by nature 277
 Easter Rising of 1916 xxvii, xxxix education of Irish abroad
 children taught to despise Irish language and traditions 24 impact on Gaelic culture of 21–2 instilling feudal ideas of divine right of kings 23
 Irish social life and customs, lack of knowledge of 26
 Gaelic Ireland 21–2
 ancient social system and language, loss of 22, 25 break up of the clan system 30
 Celtic revival in Ireland 26–7
 communal ownership of land giving way to private ownership 30
 Gaelic culture, destruction of 21, 22, 23–4
 Gaelic language 22, 25, 26
 Gaelic principle of common ownership 26, 29–30
 prolonged arrested development in Ireland 23 Irish Citizen Army, and xxvi, lxi, lxx
 Irish literature
 born in slavery of Irish race 24–6
 portrayal of Irishmen 24–6 written by Irishmen for English/Anglo-Irish consumption 24 Irish people basis of national and economic subjection untouched 32–3 emasculation of Irish National movement, and 30–2 fight for national liberty, struggle of the most subject class and 27
 indifference of Irish politicians to sufferings of the people 28
 Irish chief, position of 30
 Irish peasants, low status of 23, 24
 Irish working class as incorruptible inheritors of freedom fight 28
 landlord class loyal to England 32
 possessing/conservative class, victory for 30–2
 socially and politically lowest in Europe 23
 upper class under England’s protecting power 32
 working-class democracy 191, 193, 195, 196
 Irish Socialist Republican Party, establishing xxxix Labour in Irish History xxxviii, 21–33, 272 lessons of Irish History 27–33
 ‘Labour and the Proposed Partition of Ireland’ 191–2

Index

- ‘Our Duty in the Crisis’ 193–7
 Proclamation of the Republic, signing 235
 programme of revolution xxxviii–xxxix
Re-Conquest of Ireland, The xxxix, 217–21 co-operation between intellectuals and workers 219–20 co-operation between town and country 220 growth of unrest in industrial field 216
 Industrial Union as principle of action 218 political power from Industrial battlefield 219 principle of complete unity on Industrial plan 218 public ownership 219 salient facts of history 29–30 subordinate place of labour in Irish politics 27–8 trade unionism xxxix ‘War for Civilization, A’, as 213–16 civilisation, meaning of 213–14 civilisation as heritage enjoyed by a few 214
 war for civilisation, meaning of 214–15
 war waged by forces of organised labour 215–16
 ‘What Is a Free Nation?’ 227–32
 free nation, nature of 229–31
 Ireland denied her national rights 229–32
 Irish newspapers confusing public about Ireland’s status 227 Irish Parliamentary Party, criticism of 228–9 world affairs, following 280–1
 Co-operative movement xii, 79, 80, 218, 274
 Agricultural Co-operation movement 73–7, 79, 80 championed by Plunkett xii, xiv, 73 co-operative commonwealth 221, 281
 co-operative societies and creameries 74–5, 220 Co-operative weekly (Irish Homestead) 76 non-political 75 progressive elements of rural population, attracting 75
 Craig, Captain Charles 296
 Craig, Captain James xxiv, 296, 305
 Crimean War 49–50
 Cromwell, Oliver 14, 21, 108, 286, 310
 Danish War 50–4
 Daughters of Ireland (Inghinidhe na hÉireann) xvi
 Davis, Thomas 32, 240
 Arthur Griffith’s respect for 347 love, preaching 251, 253 republican ideology xxxviii
 Davitt, Michael
 Boer War and imperialism xxii–xxiii parliamentary procedures xvii de Lamartine, Alphonse 48
 de Valera, Éamon xix, 346, 347 Treaty talks xxix, xxx, 341 democracy
 acts of oppression/violations on part of a democracy 166, 173, 176
 agitational democracy xi
 Anglo-Saxon democracy xviii
 British democracy/democracy of England 207, 208, 209, 265
 UK, transformation in x–xii
 UK as democracy xi capitalist democracy xli
 Catholic democracy xl citizenship xii democratic nationalism x
 Ireland, in 274 democratic tenant-farmers of Ulster 82 economic justice as primary aim 281 elections, and 263
 European constitutional monarchies, challenges to x Gaelic ideas of equality and democracy 23 government by the majority as axiom of democracy 365 Irish democracy 259, 279–84, 293, 319 democratic ideals, promotion of 273 internationalism, and 278, 279–84
réveille of democracy in Ireland 241 majority, defining 364–5
 mass democracy requiring principle/myth of cohesion xxxix militant Irish democracy 26 nationality, and 273–7, 364–5
 Orange democracy 180
 paralysed by plea of nationality 364, 365

Index

- democracy (cont.)
 Peace Conference 258, 278–9
 principle of democratic control 280 ‘Protestant democracy’ in Ulster xxi public ownership, and 221 right of majority to govern, defining 364–5 ‘rude’ social democracy, expiration of xxxviii social democracy best advanced by labour unions xxxix Ulster democracy xl, 192, 298, 314, 323, 361, 364
 working-class democracy 191, 193, 195, 196
- Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction xiv, 67–73, 80, 85–6, 122
- Devlin, Joseph 191, 192, 230, 231, 356
- Dicey, Albert Venn xi, xii
 biography lxi
 Childers’s arguments, criticism of xxxiii, xxxiv democratic changes xi–xii duty of absolute obedience 165–6 acts of oppression justifying resistance 165, 176 only when law is clear and undoubted expression of nation’s will 166
Fool’s Paradise, A xi–xii, xxxiv, 159–78 changing Constitution must have assent of electors 169–72 coalition members believing electors opposed to Home Rule Bill 172 entrenchments not assented to by electorate, effect of 172–3 nationalists, and 177–8 objections to Home Rule Bill 1912 160, 164–5 Parliament Act not sanctioning coalition’s coup d’état 172 policy options with regard to England and Ireland 161 preliminary observations 162–6 Reform Act 1832 169–70, 174, 175 unfairness to England 165, 177
 Unionists’ duty to ensure Bill put before the electorate 167–8
 Unionists’ duty to resist Home Rule Bill 166
 Unionists’ duty to treat Home Rule Act as lacking sanction 168–9
 Unionists’ treatment of a Home Rule Act lacking constitutional authority 173–8 utilitarianism as correct approach 161–2
 ‘why the Act will lack Constitutional Authority’ 169–73 Gladstone xi home rule xxxiii–xxxv, 159–78 campaigner against xxxiv Ireland, attitude towards 162 principle of nationality xxxiv Ulster xxxv
 Wyndham’s land purchase scheme xxxv
- Dillon, John 137, 297, 356
- Disraeli, Benjamin 57, 58, 170
Sybil, or The Two Nations xxi
- dominions government, and xxxii, 274, 313 imperial and national/ dominion functions, confusion between 120 imperial council having oversight of dominions xxxiii
 Ireland
 criticism of dominion home rule xxxiii
 dominion home rule as solution xxxi–xxxiii
 enjoying greater liberty and privileges than dominions 109 self-governing dominion and colonial state status, confusion between 113–20 Southern Ireland established as self-governing dominion xxix
- drunkenness 13–14
 temperance and 88–9
- Dublin 10, 123, 137, 174, 176, 194, 288–9, 342, 355 Belfast, and xxi, 81–2 brewing and distilling 68
 co-operative societies 220
 Dublin Parliament 323–4, 326–7, 359, 364 lock-out of 1913–1914 217–8, 219 prices 45
 third Home Rule Bill, and xxix
- Dublin Corporation 84
- Dubois, L. Paul
L’Irlande contemporaine xvii
 ‘two Irelands’ xxi
- Duffy, Charles Gavan 242, 243, 250
- Dungannon Clubs xvi, 89

Index

- Dunraven, Earl of xx
- Durham, Lord xxxiii, 104–5, 108
Durham Report 1839 74, 91, 101, 104
- Easter Rising 1916 xxvi–xxvii, lxxvii, 277, 355
Connolly, and xxvii, xxxix lesson of 258
Proclamation of the Republic xxvii, 233–5 purpose of xxvii punitive military response, effects of xxvii
- economy and finance 89–91, 127
‘Economics of Nationalism’ 142–56 classical/English school of political economy 143–4, 148–9
external trade policy 151–4
historical school 150–1
internal development 154–6
‘National Economics’, concept of 143 nationalism, case for 145–8, 156
grants 129
marshalling national resources to national ends 229, 230–1
‘National Economics’, concept of 142
doctrine of National Economy 43–4, 45–6
prices, effect of war on 196 tariffs see tariffs taxation xxiii, 81, 91, 96, 127–30, 133–4, 137, 152, 177
collapse of tax collection xxix federal taxes 114 ‘Home Rule all round’, and 114 imperial taxation 86, 88, 132 imports, taxes on 10, 152, 153
land tax 9
local taxation 83
non-payment of taxes 174, 175 over-taxation of Ireland xxxv, 4, 91, 334 protective duties as indirect taxation 153 public objects, for 152 taxable capacity of Ireland 292–3 welfare programme, funding xxiii
- education xviii–xix, 8, 127
Catholics
denominational character of 86 facilities for higher education for Catholics 64–5
Municipal Technical Institute 73, 86
secondary education, increased number of Catholics in xix civilisation, and 214
denominational character of 86
destruction of Irish nationality, and 9
education of Irish abroad
children taught to despise Irish language and traditions 24
impact on Gaelic culture of 21–2
instilling feudal ideas 22, 23, 27 Irish social life and customs, lack of knowledge of 26 facilities for higher education 64–5, 127
Gaelic language 78
Irish educated to foreign standards 21–2
Municipal Technical Institute 73, 86
not a political issue 81 not permitting pro-English propaganda 14–15
primary education 127 problems in 84–6 religion as immediate cause of 86
- Edward VII, King xvi, 6
Eglinton, John xv
Elgin, Lord 104, 110
emigration 10, 155, 292, 326
efforts to halt emigration employing labour 11
west of Ireland, from xiii emigrants those Ireland could least afford to lose 13, 68
Presbyterians 362
rural emigration from Ulster 96
England see United Kingdom (UK)
- federalism xxv, 117–18 arguments for rejection of 113–20
British Empire, and xxxii
‘federal chimera’ as wholly impracticable
113
federalist arguments in UK xxxii, 102, 103, 129–35
‘Home Rule all round’ 113, 114, 117, 120, 130
Home Rule Bills, and xxiv, xxxiv, 115, 117–20
imperial federation, home rule and 101 independence, and 132–3, 134 mandates for 131

Index

- federalism (cont.)
 nature of federal scheme 113–14 taxation, and 132, 133
- Fenian movements xxxii, 32–3
 ‘Fenian’ outrages ix
 ‘O’Donovan Rossa: Graveside Panegyric’
 222–4
- feudalism 179, 180
 British feudalism 27, 30, 180 feudal prerogatives 22
 Irish feudalism 180, 182 education instilling feudal ideas 22, 23, 27
 feudal aristocracy 179, 180 feudal-capitalist system, adoption of 21
- finance see economy and finance
- First World War x, xxv–xxvi, 346 attitude of working-class democracy 193–7 home rule suspended during xxv impact of xxv–xxvi saving the poor from horrors of 196–7 suffering and misery amongst Irish people 195–6
 workers sinking in consequence 215
- Irish Parliamentary Party, and 229
- opposition to xxvi
- proportion of Irish population in Army 206–7
- recruiting in Ireland 205–9
- socialism, and
 any action justified to stop ‘colossal crime’ 200–1
 hatred of militarism 199
 socialist movement in Europe at outbreak of war 198–9
 socialists of other countries as fellow-patriots 201 socialists/socialist countries, war between 199–200
- upheaval in Europe after xxvii–xxviii ‘War for Civilization’, as 213–16
- Ford, Patrick 295, 296
- France 58, 59, 60, 109, 150, 208, 277, 359
 Bismarck’s victory over xxxvi
 Crimean War 49
 England, fighting 37–40, 41
 Franco-Prussian War 54–6
 free trade, and 41–2
 Ireland, as friend of 208
- Napoleon Bonaparte 48, 59, 144 Palmerston, and 46–9
- Franco-Prussian War 54–6
- free nation, nature of 229–31 absolute control over internal resources and powers 229, 230–1 complete control over own harbours 229–30
 full power to alter, amend, or abolish property laws 230
 full power to nurse industries to health 230
 Ireland denied her national rights 229–2
- free trade 81, 144, 149 arguments for 153–4 cost of food in Ireland 45 England adopting 43, 45 expansionism, and xxii, xxxvi folly of 109–10
 Ireland 153–4
 agrarian strife 109 milling industry, and 10 origins of 40–2 protectionism, and 151–2
- Froude, J. A. xxiii
- Gaelic Ireland 21–2 ancient social system and language, loss
 of 22, 25
 break up of the clan system 30
 Celtic culture 277
 Celtic Ireland compared to Wales and Highlands 107
 Celtic revival in Ireland 26–7, 77–9
 Celticism xviii
 communal ownership of land giving way to private ownership 30
- Gaelic culture destruction of 21, 22, 23–4 literary revival 77–9 poets and playwrights 78–9
- Gaelic language see Irish language
- Gaelic principle of common ownership 26, 29–30
 religion maintaining difference between Celtic and Teutonic Ireland 107–8
- Gaelic League xix, 77–9
 beginning of the Irish Revolution, as xiv, 186

Index

- 'Coming Revolution, The', and see under Pearse, Patrick
non-political and non-sectarian 77 poets and playwrights, Celtic culture and 78–9 reviving language and culture 77–8 women in 5
- Gandhi xviii
- George V, King 295–6, 229–300, 303, 346–7
- Germany 277, 283, 295, 296, 299
army and navy xxxvi, 334, 335, 336 Bismarck see Bismarck, Otto, Prince of doctrine of National Economy 43–4 emergence as rival to England 56–7, 57–8, 59, 60
England's competitor in sea power, as 44
federated structure xxxi
Franco-Prussian War 54–6
List, Friedrich see List, Friedrich nationalism and democracy 51 opening markets to England 41 Prussia 49, 50
ready-made goods 10 Republic xxviii rise of Germany xxxvi–xxxvii ship-building 16
- Gladstone, William Ewart xl, 56–9, 123, 139, 358
Boer Republics 58 character
'born enthusiast', as xi
'demagogy', and x–xi disestablishment of the Irish Church, and 170
'final settlement' 134
home rule
conversion to ix, 355, 357, 362
Home Rule Bill, 1886, failure of ix, xii, 363
Home Rule Bill, 1893 xiii, xxxiv stance seen as betrayal by Ulster 363
land legislation 362
nationalists, perception of 355 O'Shea scandal, effect of xiii
popular sovereignty xxxiv
South Africa 57–8
Ulstermen's loyalty to Union 139, 163–4, 299–300, 353–4, 356, 358
- Gonne, Maud xvi, xxii, lxx
- Government of Ireland Act 1920 xxix, 352
Grattan's Parliament xxxi, xxxvii, 29, 109
Gregory, Augusta xv, xxii
Green, Alice Stopford see Stopford Green, Alice
- Griffith, Arthur xvi, xxii
Anglo-Hibernian condominium, proposal for xxxvi–xxxvii
biography lxii
British 'imperialism' subverting interests of Protestants and Catholics xxxv–xxxvi
'Hungarian' policy xvi, xxxv Ireland's difficulties attributable to constitutional causes xxxv
Leinster Literary Society xvi nationality and Empire xxxvii
'Pitt's Policy' 37–60 conclusion 59–60
Crimean War 49–50
Danish War 50–4
Franco-Prussian War 54–6
fundamentals of English statecraft 37–40
Gladstone 56–9
List and Carey 43–6 origin of free trade 40–2 Palmerston 46–9 policy of abstention for Irish MPs at Westminster, proposing xvi
Thomas Davis, and 347
Treaty 1922 xxx,
'Debate on Treaty' 341–8
- Hartington, Lord 174, 175
- Hobson, J. A. xxii reporting on Boer War xxii
- home rule
Amery: 'Home Rule and the Colonial Analogy' see under Amery, Leopold S.
Carson: 'Settlement of an Old Controversy'
see under Carson, Edward Childers: The Framework of Home Rule see
under Childers, Erskine Dicey: A Fool's Paradise see under Dicey, Albert Venn
Gladstone, and see under Gladstone, William Ewart
'Home Rule all round' 113, 114, 117, 120, 130
Home Rule Bill 1866, first ix, xii
Parnell's support with reservations ix

Index

- home rule (cont.)
 Home Rule Bill 1893, second xiii
 Home Rule Bill 1912, third xiii, xxiv–xxv amending Bill to exclude Ulster temporarily xxv, 203–5 criticism of see Fool's Paradise, A under Dicey, Albert Venn
 opposition to xxiv–xxv
 Unionists' duty to ensure Bill put before the electorate 167–8
 Unionists' duty to resist Home Rule
 Bill 166
 Unionists' duty to treat Home Rule Act
 as lacking sanction 168–9 Unionists' treatment of a Home Rule
 Act lacking constitutional authority
 173–8
 Irish Parliamentary Party ix
 Sinn Féin see Sinn Féin suspension during First World War xxv– xxvi
 Hyde, Douglas xiv–xv, xvii, xix
 Gaelic League 77
 peace, and 186–7
- Ibsen, Henrik 146
Peer Gynt xv, 146
- ideas in contention xxxi–xli
 Amery xxxiii
 Carson xxxv, xl
 Childers xxxi–xxxiii, xl
 Connolly xxxviii–xxxix
 Dicey xxxiv
 Griffith xxxv–xxxvii
 Pearse xxxvii–xxxviii, xxxix
- identity 149
 portraying political loyalties by resort to x
- Industrial Development Associations see Irish Industrial Development Associations
- Ingram, Dr John Kells 149, 152
- internationalism 278, 279–84
- Ireland
 agrarian unrest ix
 Boer War, impact of xxi–xxiii collapse of English sea-power, reasserting independence after 38
 'constructive unionism', pursuit of xiii–xiv
 Cromwell, and 108
 cultural innovation/rejuvenation xiv–xx
 Anglo-Irish literature xiv–xv cultivation of 'Irish Ideas' xvi–xvii retreat from politics into art xvii Dáil Éireann establishment of xxviii objective of independent state xxx shadow government, formation of xxix Treaty debates xxx, 341–8 economy and finance see economy and finance
 education xviii–xix
 elected councils, introduction of xiii England
 connection with 107–8 control by 29–30
 Ireland economically dependent on 108
 Fenian movements see Fenian movements
 Gaelic Ireland see Gaelic Ireland geography 107
 Grattan's Parliament xxxi, xxxvii, 29, 109
 home rule see home rule
 Irish National League xi
 Irish Parliamentary Party see Irish Parliamentary Party materialism, denouncement of xix–xx MPs, stipend to xi nationalism see nationalism
 'north-east' and 'south and west' schism xxi
 partition see partition political and social reform xiii–xiv
 racial elements 107
 religion maintaining difference between Celtic and Teutonic Ireland 107–8
 Southern Ireland established as self-governing dominion xxix tenants' right to purchase xiii
 Wyndham Land Act 1903 xiv, xxxv, 64,
 65, 67, 67
 Treaty 1922 see Treaty 1922
 'two Irelands' xxi
 universities xix
 voting see voting
 War of Independence see Irish Revolution
 whether Ireland danger to England see under Childers, Erskine
 Williamite Wars xxxviii
 Irish Agricultural Organization Society 74, 76

Index

- Irish chiefs 30
- Irish Citizen Army xxvi, lxi, lxx, 233
- Irish Convention 1917–1918 xxv, 126 alleged unrepresentative character of Convention 263–4 appeal to those who have refused cooperation 265–6
case for an all-Ireland Support 264–5
Convention and its critics 262
Ireland at the Peace Conference 262–3
Ulster, and 313–16
Ireland's difficulty, Ulster's opportunity 267–8
- Irish Government Act see Government of Ireland Act 1920
- Irish Industrial Development Associations
11, 76, 79
- Irish language 22, 25, 26, 77–8, 201
children taught to despise Irish language 24
decline xix, xxxv loss of 4, 22, 25, 26, 221 promoting xiv revival xv, xvii, 77–8 schools, in 9, 24, 78
- Irish Literary Society xvi
- Irish Literary Theatre xv
- Irish literature
born in slavery of Irish race 24–6
portrayal of Irishmen 24–6
written by Irishmen for English/Anglo-Irish consumption 24
- Irish Loyal and Patriotic Union xii
- Irish Parliamentary Party Boer War xxii effective machinery/discipline xi falling into disarray xiii
First World War, and 229
losing support xxvii
loss of momentum xiv
new leadership under John Redmond xiii outwitted by Carson and Unionists 229 split in party xiii support with reservations for first Home
Rule Bill ix
- Irish peasants see working class
- Irish Republican Army (IRA) xxviii
- Irish Republican Brotherhood xxiv, xxvi, 223 Irish Revolution ix
beginning of xxviii
- Black and Tans and Auxiliaries xxix
continuation of killing in north xxix escalation of violence xxviii–xxix intelligence gathering xxix martial law xxix Treaty 1922 xxix–xxxii truce xxix
Westminster relying on emergency powers xxix
- Irish Socialist Republican Party xxxix
- Irish Trade Union Congress lix
- Irish Unionist Alliance xii, xxiv
- Irish Volunteers xxiv, xxv, xxvi, 257–60
'O'Donovan Rossa: Graveside Panegyric' 222–4
- Irish Women's Franchise League xix
- Joyce, James xiv, xviii, xix
- Kettle, Thomas M. xvii, xix, xx biography lxii–lxiii death xxvi, li
'Economics of Nationalism, The' 142–56
classical/English school of political economy 143–4, 148–9
external trade policy 151–4
historical school 150–1
internal development 154–6
'National Economics', concept of 143
nationalism, case for 145–8
'outray against parliamentarianism' xvii principle of nationality xx
presupposing capacity for sacrifice xx rejecting pursuit of protection xxxvi
- Ladies' Land League 5
- Lalor, James Fintan xxxvii, 229
democrat by nature 250
effectual ownership and possession of soil in people 243–6
Irish Felon, writing for 243, 247, 249, 250 landlords/landowners, address to 243, 246–8 material ownership of nation's soil coexisting with right to make laws 243 national independence 242–3 nature and character 241–2 programme of action 248 armed revolution, leading to 248–9 declaring the revolution 249–50

---

Index

---

- land ownership
 agrarian tenure, alterations to 63
 communal ownership of land giving way to private ownership 30
 Gaelic principle of common ownership 26, 29–30
 home rule harnessed to land question 63 Land Act 1896 63
 land legislation 87–8
 Land Purchase 63, 64, 82, 128, 164
   State-aided Land Purchase 62
   Wyndham Land Act 1903 xiv, xxxv, 64, 65, 67
 land tax 9
 landed aristocracy 82–3 landlord class loyal to England 32
 peasant proprietorship 87–8 transfer of half the land from landlord to 65 rural councils acquiring land for labourers' plots/cottages 64 tenancies see tenants
 Landry, Prof. Adolphe 150
 Lansdowne, Lord 180
 Larkin, James Ixi, 188, 233, 266
 League of Nations 275, 280, 345
 Lecky, E. H. xxxii
   Catholic Ireland 93–4
   popular sovereignty xxxiv
 Leinster Literary Society xvi
 Lewis, George Cornwall xxxi
 Lincoln, Abraham 365
 List, Friedrich xxxvi, 41, 43–6, 61, 149 background 43–4
   doctrine of National Economy 43–4, 45–6 imprisonment and poverty 51
   nationalism 145
   opposition to List 46 propositions 45–6
 Lloyd George, David xxvi, 303
   covert concessions to unionism xxv
   'ourselves' first and last as action line 294
   social reform programme as Chancellor xxxiii
   Treaty talks xxix
   letter to Arthur Griffith 344–6 whether Ireland danger to England 333–4, 335 Londonderry, Lord 305, 325
 Lonsdale, Sir John 313–14, 316
 Lynd, Robert biography lxiii
   intolerance worries misplaced xl
   'Ulster: The Facts of the Case' 323–7 education, Ulster to have provincial autonomy over 326
     Irish Parliament's focus on national problems 326
     Ulster and the South, unity of interest of 325–6
     Ulster as an integral part of Ireland 327
     Ulster's fear of home rule: illusory nature of 325–7; reasons for 323–4
 MacBride, John xxii
 MacDonagh, Thomas 257
   Proclamation of the Republic, signing 235
 Macdonald, Sir John 118
 MacKnight, Thomas xxi
 MacNeill, Eoin xix, xxiv biography lxiii–lxiv
   'North Began, The' 179–83
     British army not sufficient 181–2
     feudalism 179–80
     Irish people determined to have their own way 183
     no 'Homogeneous Ulster' 182
     Orange democracy and Presbyterian rural party as home rulers 180–1 parties against home rule 179–80
     Ulster Feudal Remnant 'loading a machine gun' 182–3
   Ulster's Stand for Union see under Ulster
 Maine, Sir S. H. 364, 365
 McCulloch, John Ramsay 155 McNeill, Ronald
   biography lxiv–lxv
   defending partition xl
 Maine, Henry Sumner xx
 Manning, Cardinal Henry Edward 358–9
 Markiewicz, Constance xvi, xix, xxxv, 3–17 altruism xx
   biography lxv
   British Army, boycotting 14 decline of national feeling, addressing xxxvii–xxxviii drunkenness 13–14
   education 8

Index

- destruction of Irish nationality, and 9
not permitting pro-English propaganda 14–15
- emigration 13
- England
criticisms and perceptions of 4–5, 8–9, 10, 13, 14, 16
- Ireland growing closer to English views on life 8
- land tax 9
- legislation to be examined from standpoint of Nation 7
- splitting Ireland into divisions and sub-divisions 9
- Tariff Reform 10
- wealthiest and most influential Irish moving to 5
- men and politics 7
- opposing Unionism xxxv
- religion 16
Catholic emancipation 8
spiritual faith xxxvii
- republican sovereignty xxx
- self-sacrifice 15–16
- tenant right and peasant proprietorship 8
- universal suffrage 8
- women
bringing ideals and principles into public life 6–8, 15–16, 17
emancipation 6, 7, 16
fighting nation's cause 15–17
joining English ranks of 'toadies and placehunters' 5 limited role in Irish public life 3, 5–6, 7, 12 nationalist women to support suffrage and Free Ireland 6 Russia, in see under Russia
suffrage 8
urged to buy Irish goods 10–12 urged to take place in public life 12–13
Women, Ideals and the Nation 3–17
- Marx, Karl xxxviii
- Maunsel and Company xix
- Mazzini, Giuseppe xv
- Meagher, Thomas Francis 26
- Menzel, Wolfgang 50–1
- Meredith, George 209
- Mill, John Stuart 148, 154
- Mitchel, John 79, 82, 223, 242 doctrine and proposals of Fintan Lalor, and 250 hate, preaching 251–3 last of new testament of Irish nationality, teachings as 250–4
nature and character 250
republican ideology xxxviii
United Irishman, suppression of 243
- Mommsen, Theodor xviii
- Money Penny, W. F. xxi
- Moran, D. P. xv, xxii
- Morgan, Lewis H. 27
- Morris, William xx
- narrative of events xii–xli
battle of ideas xviii–xix Boer War in Transvaal, impact of xxi–xxiii
cultural innovation/rejuvenation xiv–xx
Easter Rising of 1916 xxvi–xxvii
First World War xxv–xxvi
Home Rule Bill, second xiii
Home Rule Bill, third xxiv–xxv
Irish Party losing support xxvii
Irish Revolution xxviii–xxix
Irish unionism growing more organised xiii
Irish Unionist Alliance. formation of xii Liberal reliance on Irish Party xxiii–xxiv opposition to home rule gaining momentum xii
political and social reform xiii–xiv
Sinn Féin success in 1918 elections xxvii Treaty 1922 xxix–xxxi
Ulster Unionist Convention xii–xiii upheaval in Europe after First World War xxvii–xxviii voting rights, extension of xix
- Nation* newspaper 5, 243
- National Council xvi
- National Literary Society xv, xvi
- National Volunteers xxv
- nationalism
case for 145–8
character of x
conversion to republicanism xii
democratic nationalism x disloyalty as essential characteristic of nationalism, perception of 354–8

Index

- nationalism (cont.)
 ‘Economics of Nationalism’ see under economy and finance
 fissures within xl
 Gaelic League as preparation for living as Irish Nationalists 185–6 Home Rule Bill 1912, Nationalists and 177–8
 Ireland constituting a nation 365
 Irish nationalism as ‘democratic revolt’ xxxii
 ‘moderate’, or ‘constitutional’ nationalism 358 national rights as democratic rights xii
 no single doctrine xii
 ranking among first principles of material prosperity 156 restriction on freedom, as 144
 socialism, and 145, 147–8
 unionism, and
 both forms of attachment as ‘nationalist’
 in character x democratic nationalism, as forms of x depiction of abiding contest between nationalism and unionism x differences between xii nature of animosity between xii progressive redefinition of object of allegiance x–xi nationality 145, 147 appeal rooted in concept of popular sovereignty xxxiv ‘colossal fact of’ 151 decline of Irish nationality 15 democracies paralysed by plea of nationality 364, 365
 democracy, and 273–7, 364–5 democratic theory of sovereignty of the general will xxxiv distinctiveness, and 8 empire, and xxxvii
 free trade, and 152
 Ireland’s nationality, educational system destroying 9
 Ireland’s right of nationality xxiii
 Ireland’s separate nationality 231, 250–1, 253 legitimacy of principle of xxxiv
 presupposing capacity for sacrifice xx
 primordial nature of xxxvii principle of organisation, as 143 repression of nationality, effects of 78 root of nationality as ‘the will to live together’ 352 serving as principle/myth of cohesion xxxix spirit of nationality as ‘forgotten truth’ xxxvii spiritual fact, as 236, 237, 240–1, 253
 Ulster’s appeal to nationality xl
 Newman, Cardinal John Henry 355
 ‘No-Popery’ sentiment 179, 359
 North of Ireland Women’s Suffrage Society
 xix
 Northern Ireland Troubles (1968–98) ix
 O’Brien, William xiii, 87, 92
 O’Casey, Sean xxii
 O’Connell, Daniel 180, 186, 242, 244, 289, 357
 O’Grady, Standish xv
 Orange Order/Orangemen xxi, xxiv, 67, 77,
 97, 179–80, 182–3, 188, 192, 295, 297, 308, 359, 362
 aristocratic Orange military clique 228
 First World War, and 228–9
 Orange democracy as home rulers 180–1
 O’Shea scandal xiii Palmerston, Lord 46–9, 53, 56 carrying out Pitt’s propositions of English foreign policy 47
 Crimean War 49–50
 Paris Peace Conference 258, 278–9
 Ireland at 262–3
 Parnell, Charles Stewart 356
 adulterous relationship with Katherine O’Shea xiii
 ‘agitational democracy’, and xi harnessing home rule to land question 63 leader Irish Parliamentary Party at Westminster ix
 support with reservations for first Home
 Rule Bill ix
 partition ix, xxix, 352
 Carson, and lix,
 Connolly, and lxi
 Government of Ireland Act 1920 xxix, 352

---

Index

---

- 'Labour and the Proposed Partition of Ireland' 191–2
 McNeil, and xl partition of Ireland into 'two nations' xxi Plunkett, and 268
 temporary partition of Ulster lxvii Pearse, Patrick xiv, xix, xx, 257 biography lxv–lxvi
 'Coming Revolution, The' 184–8
   Gaelic League as preparation for living as Irish nationalists 185–6
   Gaelic League as 'spent force' 188–9
   Gaelic League bringing into Ireland 'not peace but a sword' 186
   Gaelic League 'too busy with resolutions' 187 good and bad men tending towards Irish revolution 186–7 men realising themselves as men 187–8
 democrat by nature 277
 Easter Rising 1916 xxvii, xxxix nation, nature of xxxvii nationality as primordial xxxvii
 'O'Donovan Rossa: Graveside Panegyric' 222–4
 Proclamation of the Republic, signing 235
 social reconstruction anchored in 'democratic truths' xxxviii
 'Sovereign People, The' 236–54
   Fintan Lalor, doctrine and proposals of 241–50
   Mitchel's teachings 250–4
   nation, nature of 237–8
   national independence involving national sovereignty 236
   national sovereignty, nature of 236–7
   nation's sovereignty over nation's material resources as absolute 237, 238
   people, nation and 237–8, 239–40
   physical freedom, necessity of 236–7
   property held subject to national sanction 238
   representation 239–40
 peasants see working class
 Pitt, William xxxvi, 37, 39, 171–2
   Act of Union, and 54, 60, 365
   conferring on Ireland equal partnership in UK 109
   foreign policy fundamentals 39, 59
   fundamentals of English statecraft 37–40
   Lord Castlereagh carrying out Pitt's policy 40–2
   Lord Palmerston carrying out Pitt's policy 47
   Pitt's policy necessitating Union 39, 40 impact of policies on Ireland 60 quarrel of Pitt's disciples/birth of Liberals and Conservatives 42 Plunkett, Horace xiv, xx, 76, 257
 biography lxvi
 Co-operative movement xii, xiv, 73
 'Defence of the Convention, A' 261–8 alleged unrepresentative character of Convention 263–4 appeal to those who have refused co-operation 265–6 case for an All-Ireland Support Convention and its critics 262
   Ireland at the Peace Conference 262–3
   Ireland's difficulty, Ulster's opportunity 267–8
 hope of harmony between North and South xxi
 Irish Convention 1917 xxv
 Irish government within British Commonwealth xxv Irish Unionist Alliance, and xii loss of Parliamentary seat 80 new philosophy of Irish progress, rehabilitation based on xiv Northern Ireland xl
 Recess Committee 67–8
 Plunkett, Joseph
   Proclamation of the Republic, signing 235
 Poland xxviii, 195, 259
   Catholic emancipation 8
   home rule 208
   partition 191
   Polish National Movement 8
   Polish Revolution 15
   Prussian Poland 200
   women's role in radical movements xix
 Poynings's Law and the Declaratory Act xxxi, 103
 Presbyterianism xxi, 86, 182, 183, 301, 359, 362 rural community 179, 324 rural party as Home Rulers 180–1

---

Index

---

- Proclamation of the Republic xxvii, 233–5 protectionism xxxvi, 44, 106, 151–2
 Protestantism xiii, xxxv Catholic dominance, Protestant fears about xl, 95
   Church of Ireland xix, lix, 65, 86, 90, 179 clericalism, resisting 359, 360 local administration and patronage in Protestant hands 83
   Orangemen see Orange Order/Orangemen
   Presbyterians see Presbyterianism
   ‘Protestant democracy’ in Ulster xxi
   Protestant unionism xiii, 65, 81, 163, 165, 172, 297, 303, 354
   fracturing between North and South xli
   Ulster Protestants 94, 297, 358, 359, Vatican decrees, and 361–2
- Recess Committee 67–8, 71, 74
 Redmond, John xii, xiii–xiv, xxii, xxii, 92, 172, 180, 191, 192, 193, 231, 295–7, 311 benefits of membership of Empire xxxii biography lxvi–lxvii colonial analogy, and 103 disapproval of extremes both of means and ends 357–8
   First World War, impact of xxv–xxvi support for British war effort lxv
   Irish Parliamentary Party, and xiii, xxvii Liberals relying on xxiii–xxiv
   losing support xxvii
   Redmondism xxvii
   ‘Speech on the Suspensory Bill’ 202–9
     Amending Bill xxv, 203–5 Home Rule Bill, practical certainty of 202–3 proportion of Irish population in Army 206–7
     recruiting in Ireland 205–9
 Redmond, Willie 291 religion see Catholicism; Presbyterianism; Protestantism
 Renan, Ernest xviii
 Rhodes, Cecil 58, 102
 Richey, A. G. 162
 Rising of 1916 see Easter Rising 1916
 Rooney, William xvi, 260
 Roscher, Wilhelm 149–50
 Rosebery, Lord 365
- Rossa, Jeremiah O’Donovan
   ‘Graveside Panegyric’ 222–4
 Round Table Movement xxxii
 Royal Irish Constabulary xxix
 Ruskin, John xviii
 Russell, George W. 7 6, 220
 Russia 10, 41, 48–9, 200, 214, 265
   Crimean War 49
   England, and 52, 57, 58, 59, 194
   Finland’s independence from xxviii Orthodox religion 8
   Russian Poles 52
   Russian Revolution 193, 213, 258, 284
     Russian aptitude for revolutionary thinking 283
   women’s role in radical movements xix,
     3–4
- Salisbury, Lord ix, 57, 363
 Saunderson, Col. Edward xii
 Schmitt, Carl xxxix
 Shaw, George Bernard
   ‘neo-Gaelic’ movement xvii–xviii Sheehy-Skeffington, Hanna xvi, xix biography lxvii–lxviii ‘State of Ireland’: The Volunteers 257–60 looking to US for help 258, 259–60
     Peace Conference 258
- Sinclair, Thomas xiii
 Sinn Féin 292
   formation xvi, xvii Griffith’s ‘Hungarian’ policy, commitment to xvi hatred and distrust of British connection 355
   home rule 79
   nationality, and 2 82
   objective of complete independent sovereignty for Ireland 354 policy of abstentionism xvi political origin 79
   protecting Irish goods 11 success in 1918 election xxvii Treaty talks xxix
   women in 5
Sinn Féin newspaper xxxv, xl
 Smith, Adam xxxvi, 41, 43, 108, 148
   Wealth of Nations 41
 Smith, F. E. 302, 307, 311

Index

- Smuts, General Jan 208
- socialism
- extreme socialism 82
  - future socialist state ending antagonism
    - between town and country 220
  - hatred of militarism 199
  - insurgency, and xxxix
  - Ireland's attitude to 82
  - Marxian Socialism 318
  - nationalism, and 145, 147–8
  - socialist movement in Europe 219
    - at outbreak of war 198–9
  - socialist republicanism xli
  - socialists of other countries as fellow-patriots 201
  - socialists/socialist countries, First World
    - War as war between 199–200
- Society of the Gaels (Cumann na nGaedheal) xvi
- Solemn League and Covenant, Ulster 140–1
- Sombart, Prof Werner 147–8
- Sorel, Georges xi
- South Africa xxii, xxxii, 16, 110, 111, 117, 120, 208–9, 313
- Boers/Boer War xxii, lx, lxii, 57, 58–9, 67, 116
  - economic process 121
  - Gladstone, and 57–8
    - South African Conference 68
  - South African Councils 119
  - South African Union 67, 103, 117, 118
- sovereignty
- nation, nature of 237–8
  - national independence involving national sovereignty 236
  - national sovereignty, nature of 236–7
  - nation's sovereignty over nation's material resources as absolute 237, 238
  - people, nation and 237–8, 239–40
  - physical freedom, necessity of 236–7
  - popular sovereignty xxxiv
  - property held subject to national sanction 238
  - representation 239–40
- Stopford Green, Alice
- biography lxi–lxii
  - Irish educated to foreign standards 21–2
  - Irish republicanism, espousing xl
  - Loyalty and Disloyalty: What it Means in Ireland* 285–93
- English rule historically 286–90
- government of Ireland by Union Parliament, faults of 290–3
- rule of a nation by a nation as tyrannous 285–6
- Making of Ireland and Its Undoing, The* xxxviii, 21
- submarines 335–6
- Ourselves Alone in Ulster* 294–319
- Catholics, position of 303–4
  - first stage of organised resistance to demand for home rule 295–307
  - loyalty to the Crown 299–300
  - Protestant German rule, preference for 303, 304
  - Provisional Government, Ulster 296–7, 298, 300–7, 308, 313–16
  - rebellion under arms, possibility of 295
  - second stage after outbreak of war 307–13
  - securing sympathy among English nobility and clergy 298–9
  - third stage of Convention to answer Irish question 313–16
  - Ulster army, formation of 301–3, 305–6
  - Ulster army in war and home army 308–13, 316–18
  - Ulster Day signing of Covenant 297–9
  - Ulster policy of 'ourselves first and last, ourselves all the time' 294–5, 318–9
- Syngé, J.M. xvi
- tariffs xxxvi, 121, 146, 153
- agriculture and rural industries, assisting 122
  - colonies
    - protectionist tariffs 106
    - tariff experiments in Australian colonies 154
  - consolidation, promoting xxxiii
  - effects of 153–4
  - external trade policy 151–4
  - funding programme to tackle poverty xxiii
  - German goods 10
  - object of protective tariff to raise prices 152
  - Tariff Reform 10, 81, 166
  - taxation see under economy and finance

Index

- tenants 8
- class friction, cessation of 362–3
  - compensation for improvements at end of lease 64
  - Irish peasants as tenants-at-will 23, 24
  - lowering of rents 63
  - quarrels between landlord and tenants 362
  - right to purchase xiii
    - Wyndham Land Act 1903 xiv, xxxv, 64, 65, 67
  - Ulster, in 81, 82, 362–3
- Tone, Wolfe 82, 223, 277, 357
- contempt for ‘the gentry’ 240
  - democrat by nature 250, 277
  - republican ideology xxxviii
  - sounding réveille of democracy in Ireland 241
- trade unions xxxix, 199, 216, 274
- anti-militarist 199
  - concept of one Big Union embracing all 218
  - Industrial Unions of the respective industries 218
  - Irish Trade Union Congress lix
  - Irish Transport and General Workers’ Union (ITGWU) lxi, 188, 191
  - multiplicity of unions hampering operations 218
  - opposing military draft xxvii
  - trade union, militia xxvi
- Treaty 1922 xii, xxix–xxxi
- Boundary Commission xxx
  - debates on xxx, 341–48
  - existence of Northern Ireland a reality in Treaty talks xxix
  - Lloyd George’s letter to Arthur Griffith 344–6
  - Northern Ireland’s opt-out xxix–xxx
  - proliferating disagreements xxx–xxxii
  - terms of xxix–xxx
    - Southern Ireland as self-governing dominion within British Commonwealth xxix
    - Treaty of equality, as 344
  - ‘two nations’, visions of xx–xxi
- Ulster
- Belfast administration, establishment of xxix
  - Dicey, and xxxv
  - character of x
  - democracy xl, 192, 298, 314, 323, 361, 364
  - existence of Northern Ireland a reality in Treaty talks xxix
  - existence of Ulster democracy in Ireland xl
  - Government of Ireland Act 1920 xxix
  - home rule
    - first stage of organised resistance to demand for home rule 295–307
    - loyalty to the Crown 299–300, 353–4
    - opposition, reasons for 351–65
    - outbreak of war, second stage after 307–13
    - Protestant German rule, preference for 303, 304
    - Provisional Government 296–7, 298, 300–7, 308, 313–16
    - rebellion under arms, possibility of 295, 297
    - third stage of Convention to answer Irish question 313–16
    - Ulster army, formation of 301–3, 305–6
    - Ulster army in war and home army 308–13, 316–8
    - Ulster Day signing of Covenant 297–8
    - Ulster policy of ‘ourselves first and last, ourselves all the time’ 294–5, 318–9
  - home rule, allaying Ulster’s fear and education, Ulster able to have provincial autonomy over 326
  - illusory nature of Ulster’s fear of home rule 325–97
  - Irish Parliament’s focus on national problems 327
  - reasons for Ulster’s fear of home rule 323–4
  - Ulster as an integral part of Ireland 327
  - unity of interest of Ulster and the South 325–6
- Home Rule Bill 1912
- Amending Bill to exclude Ulster temporarily xxv, 203–5
  - opposition to xxiv–xxv
  - Unionists’ duty to ensure Bill put before the electorate 167–8
  - Unionists’ duty to resist Home Rule Bill 166
  - Unionists’ duty to treat Home Rule Act as lacking sanction 168–9
  - Unionists’ treatment of a Home Rule Act lacking constitutional authority 173–8

Index

- Irish Convention 267–8
- Irish Revolution, continuation of killing in north during xxix
- Liberalism 82, 362
- loyalty of Ulster as result of Act of Union 163–4
- Ulstermen's loyalty to Union 139, 163–4, 299–300, 353–4, 356, 358
- nationality, appeal to xl
- no single doctrine xii
- partition see partition
- prosperity and loyalty as vindication of Union xxxv
- Solemn League and Covenant 140–1
- 'thrift and industry', in xx
- Treaty 1922 see Treaty 1922
- Ulster home rule xii
- Ulster's stand for Union* 351–65
- class friction, cessation of 362–3
- consciousness of differences between North and South 352–3
- disloyalty seen as essential characteristic of nationalism 354–7
- Gladstone's home rule giving encouragement to Irish disloyalty 363
- 'Home Rule meant Rome Rule' 359
- Liberals becoming Unionist 362
- 'loyalist' tradition acquiring fresh meaning and strength 363–4
- loyalty to British Crown and British flag, importance of 353–4, 356, 358
- 'moderate', or 'constitutional' nationalists 358
- no halting-place between legislative union and complete separation 358–9
- objection to a Dublin Parliament inspired by clericalism and disloyalty 364
- religious dissension and rivalry 353, 359–62
- reluctant acceptance of separate local constitution 364, 365
- will of majority, defining 364–5
- see also* Unionism
- Ulster Covenant and Declaration xxiv
- Ulster Unionist Convention 1892 xii–xiii
- Ulster Unionist Council xxiv, 296–7, 298, 305, 314
- Ulster Volunteer Committee 300
- Ulster Volunteers xxiv, lix, 109, 180–1, 205, 309
- Ulster Volunteer Force, reformed into xxiv, xxv, 310, 311, 312
- Ulster Women's Unionist Council 141
- Unionism
- 'constructive unionism' xiii
- Irish unionism
- culminating in form of home rule in North xii
- growing more organised xiii
- leaders of Unionism in England 363
- Lloyd George's covert concessions to xxv
- nationalism, and see under nationalism
- opponents of xxxv
- policy of Unionists to coincide with duty as patriots 163
- power of unionist minority 65
- Protestant unionism fractured between North and South xli
- requirements for effective and stable Union 121–1
- splintered between status quo and home rule in Belfast xli
- Ulster, and see Ulster
- Unionist Clubs 301
- United Irish League xiii
- United Irishman* xvi
- United Irishwomen 75–6
- United Kingdom (UK)
- Act of Union, advantages of 163–4
- Boer War in Transvaal xxi–xxiii
- British Commonwealth xxv, xxix, 263, 343, 346, 347
- British Empire see British Empire
- British government as enemy of Ireland 195
- charismatic leadership, rise of x
- criticisms and perceptions of England (Markievicz) 4–5, 8–9, 10, 13, 14, 16
- education, elementary xviii–xix
- English rule over Ireland historically 286–90
- free trade see free trade
- fundamentals of English statecraft 37–40
- Germany as England's competitor in sea power 44
- industrial hegemony, absolute nature of 148–9
- George V, King 295–6, 299–300, 303, 346–7

Index

- United Kingdom (UK) (cont.)
 leaders of Unionism in England 363
 objective to work together as a whole 129 political transformation in x–xii secession see Treaty 1922
 US as England's commercial rival 44 Westminster xli
 abolition of Lords' veto xi franchise reform x–xii
 Irish Parliamentary Party ix
 Irish policy see under Ireland
 Irish Revolution see Irish Revolution not answerable to Irish interests xxxv Parliament Act 1911 xxiii professional classes as MPs xi
 whether Ireland danger to England see under Childers, Erskine
- United States (US)
 American native civilisation 26 civil right of self-government xxvii
 doctrine of Protection 44
 England's commercial rival, as 44
 Ireland, and 258, 259–60
 Southern secession from American Union
 xxxiv
 War of Independence 37, 257, 274, 277, 287
- voting
 electorate, growth in xi extension of voting rights xix franchise reform in England x–xii women see under women
- Wagner, Adolph 149, 155
 Wagner, Richard xv
 Walmesley, Rev T. 363
 War of Independence see Irish Revolution
 Weber, Max x–xi
 Westminster government see under United Kingdom
 White, Arnold 181
 White, Jack 233
 Wilson, Woodrow xxviii
- women
 bringing ideals and principles into public life 6–8, 15–16, 17
 emancipation 6, 7, 16
 fighting nation's cause 15–17
 Gaelic League, in 5
 Irish goods, urged to buy 10–12 joining English ranks of 'toadies and placehunters' 5
 Ladies' Land League 5
 limited role in Irish public life 3, 5–6, 7, 12
 public life
 limited role in 3, 5–6, 7, 12 women urged to take their place in 12–13
 Russia, in see under Russia
 Sinn Féin, in 5
 Ulster Women's Unionist Council 141
 Solemn League and Covenant 141
 United Irishwomen 75–6
 voting, and xix
 council elections xix
 Irish Women's Franchise League xix nationalist women to support suffrage and Free Ireland 6
 North of Ireland Women's Suffrage Society xix
 suffrage 8
 'Woman of Ireland' (Bean na hÉireann) xvi
Women, Ideals and the Nation see Markiewicz, Constance
 Women's Council, The (Cumann na mBan)
 xxiv
- working class
 basis of national and economic subjection untouched 32–3 battling to preserve standards of life 216 co-operation between intellectuals and workers 219–20
 co-operative societies, industrial workers and 220
 craft divisions 217
 Dublin lock-out of 1913–1914 217–8, 219 emasculation of Irish National movement,
 and 30–2
 fight for national liberty, and 27
 growth of unrest in industrial field 216 impact of First World war on 215–16 indifference of Irish politicians to sufferings
 of 28
 Irish peasants, low status of 23, 24

Index

-
- Irish working class as incorruptible
  inheritors of freedom fight 28 political power for working classes from industrial battlefield 219–20
socially and politically lowest in Europe 23
trade unions see trade unions war for civilisation, engaged in 215–16 workers at bottom of civilised society 215
- working-class democracy 191, 193, 195, 196
  1914 crisis, and 193–7
World War I see First World War Wyndham Land Act 1903 see under land ownership
- Yeats, W. B. xv, xvi, xvii, xx, xxii
  Easter Rising of 1916 xxvi