

Index

Page numbers in italics indicate illustrations.

- acclamations, Antiochian use of, 289
- Achaemenids, 70n160
- Achaeus (satrap), 56
- Actium, Battle of, 163
- Agathokles (Antiochian), 59n102
- Ake. See Ptolemais
- Aleppo. See Beroea
- Alexander the Great, 44, 51–52, 54, 70n160
- Alexander I Balas (Seleucid ruler), 61, 64–65, 66, 67, 91
- Alexander II Zabinas (Seleucid ruler), 102, 103, 107
- “Alexanders” (coins), 71n161
- Alexandria
 - coin finds from mint at, 281, 283, 286
 - compared to Antioch, 100, 151, 265
 - late antique minting of civic coins at, 288
 - third-century CE imperial mint at, 212, 282
- Amasia in Pontus, coins minted at, 244
- Ammianus Marcellinus, 6, 225, 266
- Amuq Valley, 2
- Amuq Valley Regional Project (AVRP), 48n31
- Annual Average Coin Loss Equation, 37, 313
- Antigonus (Jewish leader), 122
- Antioch. Syria, 1–18, 295–306. See also civic body between Seleucids and Romans; late antique imperial Antioch; provincial Roman Antioch; Seleucid Antioch; Tetrapolis; theoretical models and methodologies; third-century CE Antioch
 - chronology of rulers of, xx–xxii
 - coins, minting of, 19, 23
 - coins as medium for exploring, 2, 10–15, 296–306, 297, 299–300, 302, 304
 - earthquakes in, 1, 6, 151, 165, 264
 - geographic and strategic importance, 2–6
 - imperial power and local agency, intersection of, 1–2, 7, 15
 - modern scholarship on, 6–7, 296
 - as polis, 151, 295–304, 306
 - pre-Seleucid inhabitation of, 48n31
 - Seleucus I, foundation by, 4, 44, 47–56, 74, 303
 - textual and archaeological evidence, problems of, 7–9, 295–296
- Antiochians
 - acclamations, use of, 289
 - civic body between Seleucids and Romans, agency of Antiochians in, 96, 107–111
 - at festivals and games outside Antioch, 100
 - fickleness associated with, 168, 206, 226, 305
 - John Malalas on, 6, 8, 100, 120
 - Polybius, on Antioch as city of Antiochians, 46
 - in Roman administration, 170
 - spreading throughout Mediterranean world, 171 (See also specific locations)
 - Strabo on, 4, 8, 159
 - trade and commercial activity, involvement in, 100
- Antiochis (daughter of Antiochus III), 58n93
- Antiochus I (Seleucid ruler), 50n42, 57, 57
- Antiochus II (Seleucid ruler), 57, 58n93
- Antiochus III (Seleucid ruler), 44, 56, 58–60, 58n93, 87, 89, 91, 97, 278
- Antiochus IV (Seleucid ruler), 91
- Antiochus IV Epiphanes/Epimanes (Seleucid ruler), 43–44, 60–62, 63, 65–67, 69, 90
- Antiochus IX (Seleucid ruler), 101, 132n212
- Antiochus V (Seleucid ruler), 61
- Antiochus VI (Seleucid ruler), 61–62
- Antiochus VII (Seleucid ruler), 69, 77, 91, 100
- Antiochus VIII (Seleucid ruler), 101, 103, 104, 132n212
- Antiochus X (Seleucid ruler), 103, 110n105
- Antiochus XI (Seleucid ruler), 110n105

- Antiochus XIII (Seleucid ruler), 101n43, 103, 113, 119
- antoninianus* or radiate coins, third-century CE, 210, 216–223, 223, 254, 256
- Antoninus Pius (emperor), 179, 183, 231
- Apamea. See also Tetrapolis
- Antioch region, geography of, 2
- coins minted at, 50, 66, 109, 193n228
- Larissa, intercity rivalry with, 106n76
- late antique Antioch coins found at, 282
- as military center, 49, 60
- pre-Roman coin finds at, 142n229
- provincial issues at, 193, 243
- revolts in, 104, 114
- Seleucus I, foundation by, 48
- Apamea, Peace of (188 BCE), 74, 100
- Apollo (deity)
- Antioch and Daphne, founding of, 47
- on civic/provincial bronze coins from third-century CE Antioch, 231
- late antique Antioch, on civic coins from, 288, 288
- late Seleucid period, on civic coins from, 108, 109
- late Seleucid period, on royal coins from, 103, 103
- provincial Roman Antioch, on civic coins from, 158, 159
- provincial Roman Antioch/Daphne, celebration of cult in, 159
- Roman Republican period, on civic coins from, 115
- Seleucia Pieria, on coins from, 65
- Seleucid Antioch, on coins from, 52, 57, 57
- aqueducts, 58, 60, 148, 165
- Aradus
- coins minted at, 90, 109, 200n246
- Marathus, intercity rivalry with, 106n76
- Ariarathes IV (of Cappadocia), 58n93
- Aries (ram), coins with, 153, 159, 230, 231–232, 232
- Aristocreon (Antiochian scholar), 61n113
- Armenia
- fall of Seleucid Empire and, 96
- Roman Empire and control of, 162, 164
- Tigranes II in Syria, 111–113, 112
- Artemis (deity)
- late Seleucid period, on civic coins from, 108, 109
- late Seleucid period, on royal coins from, 103, 103
- provincial Roman Antioch/Daphne, celebration of cult in, 159
- Roman Republican period, on civic coins from, 115
- Seleucid Antioch, on coins from, 57
- Assur, provincial issues found at, 194n233
- Athena (deity)
- on Antioch coins, 57, 66, 103
- as countermark, 203
- Athens
- Antiochians in, 61n113, 68, 100
- civic coins of, 193n229
- third-century CE Antioch coins found at, 251
- Augustus Caesar (emperor), 147, 157, 161, 163, 166, 166, 168, 173, 173, 181, 182
- Aulus Gabinius (Roman governor), 118–120
- aurei. See also royal/imperial coins minted at Antioch
- Antioch, circulation from, 163, 163, 214
- Antioch, production at, 207, 210, 212, 215
- Aurelian (emperor), 216–217, 226
- Austria: third-century CE Antioch coins found in, 214
- autonomos*
- as civic title, 104, 106, 115, 120
- on coins of Antioch, 120
- Avidius Cassius (governor of Syria), revolt against Marcus Aurelius, 146–148, 152n34, 164, 169, 207
- AVRP (Amuq Valley Regional Project), 48n31
- Babylon, coins minted at, 52
- Bar Kokhba Revolt, 164, 179n180
- Belen Pass (Syrian Gates), 4
- Berenice (sister of Ptolemy III and second wife of Antiochus II), 58–59, 64n128
- Beroea (modern Aleppo)
- access from Antioch to, 4
- Antioch coins traveling to, 143
- coins minted at, 200n246
- Syriarch* appointed from, 292n155
- Berytus
- Antioch civic/provincial coins found at, 86, 88, 89, 185, 193, 199, 236, 244n176
- coins minted at, 152, 155, 193n227, 243
- hiera kai asylos* (sacred and inviolable), as city title, 104n59
- late Seleucid/early Roman-era coins found in, 136n217
- Ptolemaic control of, 87
- Vespasian, war council under, 19

- Bethsaida, Antioch bronze coins found at, 86n198
- binary logarithms, 39, 314–315
- boule*, at Antioch, 7, 45, 59, 151, 157–159, 258, 293
- bouleuterion*, 60, 151n27
- bouleutes*, 151
- Britain, coin finds in, 31n70, 32, 163n95, 185, 191, 214n56, 219, 251, 271, 281
- Brundisium, Antiochian in, 170
- Caecilius Bassus (ally of Pompey), 114
- Caesarea in Cappadocia coins from, 200n246
 third-century CE Antioch-minted radiates found at, 220n87 third-century CE Roman imperial mint at, 212
- Caesarea Maritima
 Antioch bronze coins found at, 86, 89n206
 as provincial caput of Judea, 147
- Caligula (emperor), 165, 183
- Calpurnius Bibulus (governor of Syria), 120
- capital, Antioch viewed as, 296, 305 as civic body between Seleucids and Romans (129–31 BCE), 98–99 as provincial Roman capital (31 BCE–192 CE) (See provincial Roman Antioch) as Seleucid capital (300–129 BCE), 44, 49–50, 54, 60–63
- Caracalla (emperor), 207, 209, 211, 224, 229, 233, 235, 247–249, 247
- Carrhae, coins minted at, 200n246, 252
- Cassius (Gaius Cassius Longinus; assassin of Caesar and governing official in Syria), 114, 118, 120, 122
- Cassius Dio
 anonymous continuer of, 225
 Antioch, military in, 169n137 on earthquake (115 CE) in Antioch, 1, 151 on Parthian invasions, 123
- Cato the Younger, 114
- Chalcedon, Council of (451 CE), 290
- Charitesia festival in Orchomenos, Antiochians at, 100
- chartalism/nominalism, 22n13
- CHRE Project (Coin Hoards of the Roman Empire), 14n68, 274n92, 308
- Christianity. See also New Testament
 Antioch, councils held at, 290
 Antioch for early Christians, centrality of, 6, 160
- Antioch, monastic movement in and around, 291
- civic coins temporarily issued in late antique Antioch, as anti-Christian propaganda, 289
- coins with symbols of, 269, 270, 271, 291
- episcopal see, Antioch as, 290
- insurrection due to imperial tax (Riot of the Statues) and, 258–259, 291
- in late antique imperial Antioch, 261, 263–264, 290–293
- Paul of Samosata, accusations against, 226–227
- state-sponsored persecutions of, 226, 263
- theological school at Antioch, 290
- in third-century CE Antioch, 226–227
- Zenobia's patronage of, 227
- Cicero, 6, 26, 100, 118, 120, 122
- Cilicia
 late antique Antioch coins found in, 277
 late Seleucid/early Roman-era coins found in, 126–127, 132n208
 as Roman province, 161
 Seleucid-era coins found in, 91
 third-century CE Antioch-minted coins found in, 220, 250
- circulation/distribution of coins
 bronze provincial coins (31 BCE–192 CE), 181–189, 195, 197, 200–201, 204 comparison of Seleucid versus late antique Antioch coins, 273 denominations, effect of, 26, 127, 132 foreign Greek coins circulating within Syria, 70–71, 72 holistic examination of, 298–304, 304
 of late antique Antioch, 271–284, 271–272, 274–275, 277–280, 282
 Seleucid Antioch, bronze coins from, 78–93, 79–81, 128
 Seleucid Antioch, silver coins from, 69–78 silver provincial coins (31 BCE–192 CE), 172–180, 173–174, 176–178
 theoretical models and methodologies, 25–30, 38–41
 third-century CE bronze civic/provincial coins, 235–246, 236–238, 240, 243, 245, third-century CE silver antoninianus or radiate coins, 218–223, 218–221, 223
 third-century CE silver provincial coins, 250–252, 251–252 trade and commercial activity, affecting, 19, 53, 75, 77, 80, 92, 144, 194, 272–273, 278, 303

- civic body between Seleucids and Romans (129–31 BCE), 17, 95–145
- agency of Antiochians in, 96, 104–111
- as autonomos under Pompey, 115
- circulation/distribution of coins produced by, 125–144
- civic authorities and circulation/distribution of coins, 135–137, 135–144, 141
- civic coins, produced in late Seleucid period, 105–111, 109
- civic coins, produced under Romans, 115–116, 119, 121–125, 122
- civic coins, produced under Tigranes, 112
- client kings of Romans, installation of Seleucids as, 113
- coins as means of exploring, 297
- dating system on coins of, 124
- dominance of local coins found at Antioch, 135–137, 135, 140
- foreign (non-Antioch) coins found in, 140, 141
- Julius Caesar and, 95–96, 114, 120–122, 124
- late Seleucid period, 99–111
- Mark Antony and, 23n18, 114, 122–123, 123
- as metropolis, 110–112, 115, 120–121
- monograms on Antioch coins of, 118–120
- Pompey the Great and, 5, 95–96, 113–115, 124
- posthumous portrait of Philip I Philadelphus, coins with, 117–119, 117, 122, 122, 130
- “provincial capital” of Roman world, viewed as, 98–99
- Roman presence in Antioch during late Seleucid period, 97–99
- Roman Republic’s annexation of greater Syria, 111–125, 297
- Roman silver tetradrachms, production of, 116–120, 117
- royal authority and circulation/distribution of coins, 125–133, 126–130, 134
- royal late Seleucid coins, 101–104, 103, 105n67
- royal Seleucid client kings, coins of, 113
- Seleucid Empire, decline and fall of, 96–97
- taxes, Roman collection of, 116
- Tigranes II of Armenia, tenure of, 111–113, 112
- civic coins, 23
- of civic body between Seleucids and Romans, gap in minting, 113
- of civic body between Seleucids and Romans, under late Seleucid rulers, 105–111, 109
- of civic body between Seleucids and Romans, under Roman Republic, 115–116, 119, 121, 122, 125
- of civic body between Seleucids and Romans, under Tigranes of Armenia, 112
- halving of, 203
- late antique Antioch issuing for short period of time, 287–289, 288
- provincial coins compared, 171, 193, 196–200
- of provincial Roman Antioch, 152–159, 153–154, 158, 166, 166, 168, 202
- of Seleucid Antioch, 54–56, 65–69
- significance of, 303, 304
- termination of, 202, 252–256, 253–255
- in third-century CE Antioch, 210, 227–246, 230
- civic ethnics, 24, 55, 66n140, 181, 231–232, 236, 242, 250
- civic legends, 23
- civitas libera* (free city), Latin status of, 115
- Claudius (emperor), 165, 182, 197n241
- Cleopatra VII Philopater (Egyptian ruler), 114, 123, 123, 139n220
- closed currency system under Rome, 178–179
- coin finds. See also specific entries at hoard data and informational requirements, 308–311
- excavation reports listing Antioch coins, 15, 33–34, 36, 307, 321–333
- as historical evidence, 32–32
- methodology for studying, 32–42
- nature of find (single find or hoard), establishing, 308
- quantity of coins in find, 311
- recovery of coins in archaeological record, 30–32
- single coin finds, generally of base metals, 33n78
- Coin Hoards of the Roman Empire*. See CHRE Project
- coins, authority issuing, defined, 310
- coins, defined, 22
- coins of Antioch. See Antioch, Syria
- colonia* status of third-century CE Antioch, 224, 229
- comes Orientis*, Antioch as headquarters for, 266
- Commagene
- currency in, 194
- Roman Empire and, 162

- commercial activity. See trade and commercial activity
- Commodeia* (Antiochene festival), 166
- Commodus (emperor), 183, 206
- Constans (emperor), 270
- Constantine I (emperor), 263, 269, 270
- Constantinople
- Antioch compared to, 265, 267
 - coins minted in, 282–283
- Constantius II (emperor), 264
- Constitutio Antoniniana*, 209, 224
- Corinth, civic coins of, 193n229
- Cornelius Dolabella (governor of Syria), 122
- countermarks, 26–27, 29, 50n43
- circulation, extending of, 203
 - Cleopatra, head of, 139n220
 - Commagene, 194
 - legionary, 190–192
 - Parthian, 131
 - on provincial bronze coins, 185, 190
 - Seleucid anchor countermark, coins found with, 86n195
- Crassus (triumvir), 118
- Crateros of Antioch, 107n77
- Cyprus
- hoards with mixture of Cypriot and coastal Anatolian coins, 129n198
 - late antique Antioch coins found in, 277, 283
 - third-century CE Antioch civic/provincial coins found at, 237
 - third-century CE Antioch-minted radiates found at, 220
- Cyrrhus, coins minted in, 66
- Cyzicus, coins from, 256, 282
- Damascus
- as metropolis, 167
 - mint of Tigranes II in, 112n113
 - royal Seleucid coins struck in, 108
- Daphne, suburb and sanctuary of
- foundation by Seleucus I, 47
 - geography of Antioch and, 2
 - Polybius on festivals at, 5, 68
 - religious cults and communities at, 68, 159
 - royal entourage, chief priest appointed from, 58
 - Strabo on, 6
- Delos, Antiochians at, 100, 107n77
- Delphi, Antiochians in, 59n98
- delta-epsilon* on third-century CE Antioch coins, 232, 233–235, 247, 249
- Demetrius I (Seleucid ruler), 62, 63, 64
- Demetrius II (Seleucid ruler), 61, 64, 104, 107
- Demetrius III (Seleucid ruler), 110n105, 111
- demonetization. See monetization/demonetization
- demos*, at Antioch, 7, 45–46, 59, 64, 120, 151, 258, 293
- denarii. See also royal/imperial coins minted at Antioch
- circulation in Syria, 116, 176, 179
 - exchange of, 27, 178n176
 - production at Antioch, 123, 163–164, 207, 210, 212–215, 213
- denominations. See also specific denominations, e.g., tetradrachms
- of bronze coins of Antioch, 54, 67, 108–109, 115, 122, 158, 202, 231
 - circulation/distribution, effect on, 26, 127, 132
 - lack of imperial portrait as marker of, 157
 - non-Syrian provincial denominations minted in Antioch, 179
 - in reckoning taxation, 27, 192n225
 - standardization, lack of, 115–116
- digital humanities, 14
- digital mapping, 39, 318–320
- Diocletian (emperor), 218, 263, 267, 269, 270
- Diodorus Siculus, 106n76
- Dionysus (deity), on Seleucid coins from Antioch, 52
- discrepant identities in/experiences of Antioch, 16
- distribution of coins. See circulation/distribution of coins
- Domitian (emperor), 190, 203
- Downey, Glanville
- on civic body between Seleucid and Roman rule, 98, 107, 113, 115
 - modern scholarship on Antioch and, 6, 9
 - polis*, on Antioch as, 295
 - on provincial Roman Antioch, 147
 - on Seleucid Antioch, 44, 54n73, 60, 65
 - on third-century CE Antioch, 209, 227
- drachms, production of, 50, 103, 121, 123, 179
- Dura Europos
- imperial reigns represented by coins at, 203n255
 - late Seleucid/early Roman-era coins found at, 129–131
 - Parthian conquest of, 129–131
 - provincial Antioch issues found at, 26, 174n164, 185, 190, 194, 195, 197n241, 200
 - Seleucid anchor countermark, coins found with, 86n195

- Dura Europos (cont.)
 Seleucid bronze Antioch coins found at, 82, 87
 Seleucid-era coin assemblages at, 91–92
 third-century CE Antioch coins found at, 214, 236, 239, 244–246, 245–246
- eagle, provincial coins with, 174, 174, 231, 232, 247, 249–250, 250
- earthquakes, 1, 6, 151, 165, 264
- Ectabana, coins minted at, 52, 75
- EDA. See Exploratory Data Analysis
- Edessa, coins minted at, 200n246, 244, 252
- Edict of Gratidianus, 27
- Egypt. See Alexandria; Ptolemaic Egypt; Roman Egypt
- Elagabalus (emperor), 211, 213n54, 225, 229, 230, 232–233, 232, 237, 249
- Emesa, annexation of, 162
- Epiphanea. See Hama
- Ergeas, son of Ergeas (Antiochian), 100
- Eugenius (commander), revolt in name of, 263
- Euphron of Chalcis, 58
- Eusebius of Caesarea, 107n77, 226
- Eutychides's statue of Tyche, 48, 62, 109, 112, 159, 173, 180, 231, 242, 287
- excavation reports consulted, 15, 33–34, 36, 307, 321–333
- Exploratory Data Analysis (EDA), 14, 19–21, 37–42, 306, 313–318
- Expositio totius mundi*, 267n64
- festivals and games
 Charitesia festival in Orchomenos, Antiochians at, 100
 Panathenaic Games, 68
 Ptoion, Antiochians at festival in, 100
- festivals and games in Antioch/Daphne, 5, 6–7
Commodeia, 166
Hadrianeia (Antiochian festival), 166
 John Malalas on, 159, 165
 late antique imperial Antioch, 265 loss/regaining of rights to, 146, 149, 207
 Olympics, 224, 265
 Polybius on, 5, 68
 in provincial Roman Antioch, 146, 149, 159, 165
 in Seleucid Antioch, 61, 149
 third-century CE Antioch, 206, 209, 224, 228
- fickle, Antiochians portrayed as, 168, 206, 226, 305
- fiduciary monetary system, 22
- Flavianus (bishop of Antioch), 258–259
- Flavius Josephus. See Josephus
- foreign (non-Antioch) coins found in late antique imperial Antioch, 285, 286 found in late Seleucid/early Roman Antioch, 140, 141 found in provincial Roman Antioch, 196–198, 204 found in Seleucid Antioch, 84n192, 84–86 found in Syrian hoards, 70–72 found in third-century CE Antioch, 255
- free city (civitas libera), Latin status of, 115
- fullers' channel for water at Antioch, inscription on, 151
- Gallus (caesar), in Antioch, 264, 266
- games. See specific entries at festivals and games
- Gamla, provincial coins from Antioch found at, 175, 190n216
- Genius of the Roman people, on coins, 269, 270
- Gennaues (Antiochian), 60
- Georgia, Antioch coins found in, 273n90
- Gerasa. See Jerash
- Germanicus, on reckoning taxes in Roman denominations, 28
- Geta (son of Septimius Severus), 211
- Gindaros
 Antioch coins, dependence on, 91, 142, 303
 late Seleucid/early Roman coins found at, 142
 Roman defeat of Parthians at, 139
 Roman provincial Antioch, civic coins of, 152n35, 303
- Gordian III (emperor), 25n29, 215n62, 216, 217, 232, 249
- Gratidianus, Edict of, 27
- Greece, coin finds in, 219
- Gresham's Law, 254
- Gurob papyrus, 58
- Hadrian (emperor), 164, 168, 180, 182, 212
- Hadrianeia* (Antiochian festival), 166
- Haifa, late Seleucid/early Roman-era coin found in, 132n212
- halving of coins, 203
- Hama (Epiphanea), coins minted/found at, 142, 193, 243
- Hannibal of Carthage, 56
- Hasmoneans, 77, 100, 128, 132
- Hatra
 Antioch coins found at, 131, 248n191
 "SC" on coins from, 185n207
- Hauran (Si), third-century CE Antioch coins found at, 239

- Heliodoros of Antioch, 58
 Hellenistic Antioch. See Seleucid Antioch
 Heraclea, coins from, 256, 282
 Heracles-Melqart (deity), on coins from Tyre, 106
 Herod the Great (king of Judea), 122, 139, 165, 191
 Herodian of Antioch, 8, 206, 209
 Herodotus, 110
hiera kai asylos (sacred and inviolable), as city title, 104, 106, 110–111, 120–121, 168
 Hierapolis, coins from, 184n206, 200n246, 252 historical evidence, coins as, 22–32 hoards
 Syrian hoards with nonlocal coins, 70, 72 termination of production of civic and provincial coins, evidence of, 253–255, 253–256 hoards with Antioch coins bronze provincial coins (31 BCE–192 CE), 185n207, 191
 civic authorities and late Seleucid/early Roman coins, 142–143 data preparation for coins found in, 312
 holistic examination of, 298–303 late antique Antioch coins, 271–284 lists of, 15, 307, 334–357 quantity of coins in hoard, 311
 royal late Seleucid coins, 125–133, 126–130, 134
 Seleucid-era coins, 71–78, 73, 76
 silver provincial coins (31 BCE–192 CE), 172–180, 176–178
 third-century CE bronze civic/provincial coins, 244, 246 third-century CE imperial denarii and aurei, 214 third-century CE silver antoninianus or radiate coins, 218–223, 218–221, 223
 third-century CE silver provincial coins, 248, 250–252, 251–252

 Iasos, Antiochians in, 68
 Icadion (Antiochian), 60 iconography on coin, defined, 311. See also specific iconographies, e.g., royal/imperial portraits and images on coins imperial coins. See royal/imperial coins minted at Antioch imperial cult
 in provincial Roman Antioch, 166–167, 166–167
 title of metropolis in relation to, 167 imperial portraits and images. See royal/imperial portraits and images on coins intercity rivalries between Aradus and Marathus, 106n76 coins expressing, 106 between Laodicea ad Mare and Antioch, 207n5, 233 between Larissa and Apamea, 106n76 between Sidon and Tyre, 106 intersection of imperial power and local agency, 1–2, 7 129–31 BE (See civic body between Seleucids and Romans) in late antique imperial Antioch (284–450 CE), 259–263 in provincial Roman Antioch (31 BCE–192 CE), 146–150, 164–171 in Seleucid Antioch (300–129 BCE), 43–44, 46–47, 58–60, 64–69 in third-century CE Antioch (192–284 CE), 209–210

 Isis (Egyptian deity), on coins from Seleucid Antioch, 62, 63 issuing city or mint, defined, 308–310, 309 issuing date of coin, defined, 310

 Jebel Khalid
 late Seleucid/early Roman coins found at, 142
 Seleucid-era coins found at, 91–92
 Jerash (Gerasa)
 provincial Roman Antioch, provincial coins from, 190n212
 third-century CE Antioch civic/provincial coins found at, 239
 Jewish coins of first century CE, wide dispersal of, 196 Jews. See also Josephus; Judea living in Antioch, 6, 49n35, 69, 122, 160, 169, 291
 Temple requirements for silver content of coins and, 132
 Zenobia's patronage of, 227n111
 John Chrysostom, 8, 258–259, 262, 291–293
 John Malalas
 on Antioch and Antiochians, 6, 8, 100, 120
 on colonia status for Antioch, 224n92 on festivals and games in Antioch/Daphne, 159, 165 on fire in Antioch, 151n27 on Tigranes's capture of Antioch, 111n110 on urban development of Antioch, 165 on Zenobia, 216

Josephus

- on Antioch, 5, 8, 151
- on Jewish population of Antioch, 6, 49n35, 160, 169
- on Mark Antony, 122
- on Philip Philadelphus, 101
- on Roman defeat of Parthians at Gindaros, 139
- on Roman governors in Antioch, 162
- on Seleucids in Antioch, 4n7, 61

Jovian (emperor), 270

Judea. See also Jews; specific locations

- Bar Kokhba Revolt, 164, 179n180
- First Jewish War, 162–163, 190
- Hasmoneans, 77, 100, 128, 132
- Herod the Great, 122, 139, 165, 191
- Maccabees* (Old Testament books) and Maccabean revolt, 60–61, 90, 100
- Roman military campaigns against, 190
- Roman province of, 162

Julia Domna (mother of Caracalla), 211

Julia Mamaea (mother of Severus Alexander), 212

Julian (emperor), 264, 266, 270, 270, 287, 289

Julius Caesar, 95–96, 114, 120–122, 124

Justinus, 107

Juvenal, 171

Lake of Antioch, 2

Lamedon (Antiochian), 59n98

Laodice (wife of Antiochus II), 58n93

Laodicea ad Mare. See also Tetrapolis

- Antioch temporarily a municipality of, 207, 229
- coins minted at, 50, 50n42, 66, 109, 152, 155, 200n246, 236, 247, 249, 252
- foundation by Seleucus I, 48
- intercity rivalry with Antioch, 207n5, 233
- as metropolis, 207n5
- as naval base, 49
- Teos, Syrians granted citizenship by, 59

Larissa's intercity rivalry with Apamea, 106n76

late antique imperial Antioch (284–450 CE), 18, 258–294

- acclamations, Antiochian use of, 289
- Christianity in, 261, 263–264, 290–293
- civic body, increasing inefficiency of, 259–263, 284–290
- civic coins, short-term issuance of, 287–289, 288
- coin finds from, 285–286, 285–287

- coin minted in, 267–284, 268, 270–272, 274–275, 277–280, 282, 287–289

- coins as means of exploring, 298

- emperors residing in, 264, 267

- festivals and games, 265

- foreign (non-Antioch) coins found in, 285, 286

- historical survey of, 263–266

- homogenization of currency throughout empire, 298

- imperial state, intensified involvement of, 259–263, 266–284

- imperial tax, insurrection due to (Riot of the Statues), 258–259, 261, 264, 266, 291

- intersection of imperial power and local agency in, 259–263

- military, as launching point for, 267

- mint, locals working at, 287

- pluralistic religious community in, 291

- Sasanians, threat of, 264, 267

- size, population, and wealth of, 264–266

- late Seleucid period. See civic body between Seleucids and Romans (129–31 BCE)

Libanius

- Antioch, encomium on, 4, 8, 98, 262, 264–266

- on civic body of late antique Antioch, 284

- on early Seleucid imperial women in Antioch, 58

- on Eugenius revolt, 263

- on insurrection due to imperial tax (Riot of the Statues), 258–259

- metropolis*, on late antique Antioch as, 292

- on Sasanian attacks, 225, 267

Licinius (emperor), 263, 269, 289

liturgies, 50n43, 247, 249, 284

location or find spot of coin, defined, 310 loss of coins in archaeological record, 30

Lucian, 157n50

Lucilla (daughter of Marcus Aurelius), 234

Lucius Verus (emperor), 164, 183n201

Lysias (guardian of Antiochus V), 61

Maccabees (Old Testament books) and

- Maccabean revolt, 60–61, 90, 100

Macrinus (emperor), 211, 213n54

Malalas. See John Malalas

Malchion (Christian Antiochian), 226

Manilius (Antiochian astrologer), 111n108

Marathus's intercity rivalry with Aradus, 106n76

- Marcus Aurelius (emperor) Antiochian as son-in-law to, 170 coins produced during reign of, 180, 183n201, 183, 231 revolt of Avidius Cassius against, 146–148, 152n34, 164, 169, 207
- Mariades (Antiochian), 225
- Marius Maximus, 146
- Mark Antony, 23n18, 114, 122–123, 123
- Masada, provincial coins from Antioch found at, 175, 179n180, 190
- Maximinus II (emperor), 270, 289
- Menelaus (Jewish High Priest), 69
- merchants. See trade and commercial activity
- metal used for coins, defined, 310
- metallism, 22n13
- metropolis*, Antioch known as John Chrysostom on, 291–292 under late Seleucid/early Roman Republic, 110–112, 115, 120–121 Libanius on, 292
 as provincial Roman town, 152, 166–168 temporary losses of status, 147, 207, 259
- metropolis*, other cities of region known as, 167–168
- Milan
 compared to Antioch, 265
 silver radiates from, 256
- military
 Apamea, as Seleucid military center, 49, 60
 Cassius Dio, on military in Antioch, 169n137 circulation/distribution of coins due to movements of, 271
 Eugenius (commander), revolt in name of, 263
 late antique Antioch as launching point for, 267 provincial bronze coins used by, 190–192, 201 provincial Roman Antioch's civic relations with, 169–170
- mints and minting. See also reforms of currency/mints at Antioch, 19, 23 (See also Antioch in Syria) of late Roman imperial government, 268
- Misopogon* (Julian), 264, 266, 287, 289
- Mithridates of Pontus, 58n93, 111
- monastic movement in and around Antioch, 291
- monetization/demonetization, 16, 29–30, 32, 53–54, 70n159, 84
- moneychangers, 27, 140
- mosaics in Antioch, 8, 159, 215n65, 265
- Mount Silpius, 2
- Mucianus (Roman governor), 169
- Mysta (courtesan of Seleucus II), 58n93
- Nabataean coins found at Antioch, 196
- Neokaisareia, “SC” on coins from, 184n206
- Nero (emperor), 162, 170, 174–178, 174, 180, 248n191
- New Testament
 centrality of Antioch for early Christians in, 6 on issuing authority, 28–29
- Nicomedia, coins from, 282, 288
- Niger. See Pescennius Niger
- Nimrud, bronze coins from Seleucid Antioch found at, 82
- Nineveh, Antioch coins found at, 131, 248n191
- Nisibis
 coins minted at, 244
 late Seleucid/early Roman-era coins found in, 131, 143
- nominalism/chartalism, 22n13
- non-Antioch coins. See foreign (non-Antioch) coins
- normal distribution, 39, 315–318, 318
- North Africa, coin finds in, 271–272, 277
- numismatics for Antioch. See Antioch in Syria
- nummus*, 269, 288
- Odenathus (husband of Zenobia), 216
- Olympics, 224, 265
- Onias (Jewish High Priest), 69
- open currency policy of Seleucids, 70–71, 129
- Orchomenos, Antiochians at Charitesia festival in, 100
- Oriens* administrative unit, 260
 Antioch as headquarters for comes Orientis, 266
 Antioch coins found within, 280, 280–284, 282
- origin/issuing city or mint, establishing, 308–310, 309
- Orontes River and Valley as coin iconography, 48, 112, 159, 173, 230n128, 230, 231, 287 political geography of, 2, 47–48, 139, 142
- Orophernes of Cappadocia, 64
- Palaestina*, coin finds in late antique provinces of, 283
- Palmyra
 Antioch provincial issues found at, 193, 199, 244
 Antiochians in, 151

- Palmyra (cont.)
 coins minted at, 193, 243
 tax payments in, 27, 192n225 under Zenobia, 5, 208, 216, 226–227
- Panathenaic Games, 68
- Paneas, third-century CE Antioch coins found at, 239
- Parthians
 Dura Europos, conquest of, 129 efforts to conquer Antioch by, 5
 fall of Seleucid Empire and, 96
 Gindaros, Roman defeat of Parthians at, 139 late Seleucid/early Roman-era coins found in areas of empire of, 131
 Pompey and, 96
 Roman Empire, negotiations with, 162–163
 Roman imperial military campaigns against, 190–191, 208, 213
 Roman Republican incursions into Syria and, 97
 Roman Syria, Parthian invasions of, 114, 120, 123–124
 Sasanian overthrow of, 208
 Seleucid Empire, conflicts with, 44, 75, 100, 111
 Tigranes II of Armenia and, 111
 Trajanic campaigns against, 163–164
- PAS. See Portable Antiquities Scheme (PAS) Project
- Patrobius (Tiberius Claudius), 170
- Paul of Samosata, 226–227
- Paulus, on money and coinage, 22n11, 22n12
- Pausanias, on Eutychides's statue of Tyche, 109
- Peace of Apamea (188 BCE), 74, 100
- people of Antioch. See Antiochians
- Pergamum
 civic coins of, 193n229
 moneychangers at, 27
- permissus* to mint, sought from Roman government, 157
- Persians. See Sasanian Empire
- Pescennius Niger (governor of Syria), 206–212, 213, 214, 224, 228, 247
- Petra
 Antioch coins found at, 185n207
 as metropolis, 167
- Philip I (Roman emperor), 230–231, 237, 250, 250
- Philip I Philadelphus (Seleucid ruler), 101, 103, 110n105, 117–119, 117, 122, 122, 130, 132n208, 173
- Philip II (Seleucid ruler), 101n43, 113
- Philip II the Younger (Roman emperor), 250
- Philippopolis, “SC” on coins from, 184n206
- Pliny the Elder, 48n27, 111n108, 161
- Plutarch, 114
- polis*, Antioch as, 7, 45, 151, 295, 304, 306
- Polybius
 on Achaeus (satrap), 56
 on Antioch as city, 7, 45 on Antioch as city of Antiochians, 46 on Antioch as imperial Seleucid center, 44 on Antiochus IV Epiphanes/Epimanes in Antioch, 43–44, 68
 on Daphne, 5, 68
 on games and spectacles in Antioch/Daphne, 5, 68
- Pompeianus (Tiberius Claudius), 170
- Pompey the Great, 5, 95–96, 113–115, 124
- Porphyry of Tyre, 113
- Portable Antiquities Scheme (PAS) Project*, 14n68, 33n79, 163n95, 214n56
- portraits, royal/imperial. See royal/imperial portraits and images on coins
- Posidonius, 106n76, 110n105
- praetorian prefect of eastern empire, Antioch as headquarters for, 267
- production of coins, 22–25
- provincial coins minted in Antioch, 24. See also “SC” on provincial coins 31 BCE–192 CE, 171–204
 bronze provincial coins (31 BCE–192 CE), 181–204
 bronze provincial coins (third century CE), 210, 227–246, 232 civic coins compared, 171, 193, 196 denominational role of, 202 forces affecting use of, 200–204
 halving of, 203
 holistic examination of circulation/distribution of, 301–302, 302 military use of bronze coins, 190–192, 201
 non-Syrian provincial denominations minted in Antioch, 179 royal/imperial coins compared, 171
 silver provincial coins (31 BCE–192 CE), 172–181, 173–174, 176–178, 180 silver provincial coins (third century CE), 210, 246–252, 247, 250–252 size of, 202n250
 Syrian provincial coins minted outside of Antioch, 179, 247–249 termination of production of, 252–256, 253–255

- weakening of Roman standardization effort through, 200–202
- provincial Roman Antioch (31 BCE–192 CE), 17, 146–205
 - Antiochians in Roman administration, 170
 - Avidius Cassius (governor of Syria), revolt against Marcus Aurelius, 146–148, 152n34, 164, 169
 - bronze provincial coins, 181–204, 182, 186–187, 189, 195, 197, 200
 - chronology of, 150
 - circulation/distribution of civic coins, 152n35
 - civic coins minted in, 152–159, 153–154, 158, 166, 166, 168, 202
 - as civic entity, 151–161
 - civic institutions and construction projects, 151–152
 - closed currency system under Rome, 178–179
 - coins as means of exploring, 297–298
 - earthquakes, 1, 6, 151, 165
 - eastern empire, Roman imperial strategies for managing civic communities in, 148–150, 161
 - emperor/imperial cult, civic celebration of, 166–167, 166–167
 - emperors visiting/residing in, 147, 163–164
 - festivals and games in, 146, 149, 159, 165
 - foreign (non-Antioch) coins found in, 196–198, 204
 - imperial use of mint, 163–164, 163
 - intersection of imperial power and local agency in, 146–150, 164–171
 - koinon* (provincial assembly) and, 166, 167
 - local industry and trade, 161
 - Mediterranean world, Antiochians spreading throughout, 171
 - as metropolis, 152, 166–168
 - military, civic relations with, 169–170
 - non-Syrian provincial denominations produced in, 179
 - polis* character of, 151
 - political voice in, 168–169
 - population and size, 151
 - provincial coins minted in, 171–204
 - religious and cultural values in, 159–160, 166–167
 - Roman imperial rule in, 161–164
 - rural-urban connections in, 161
 - silver provincial coins, 172–181, 173–174, 176–178, 180
 - urban development of, 164–165
- Ptoion, Antiochians at festival in, 100
- Ptolemaic Egypt
 - coins found in areas controlled by, 87
 - fall of Seleucid Empire, 96
 - Seleucids, Syrian Wars with, 56, 61n114
- Ptolemais (Ake)
 - coins minted at, 90n213, 90
 - hiera kai asylos* (sacred and inviolable), as city title, 104n59
 - silver provincial coins from Antioch found at, 179n180
- Ptolemy III (Egyptian ruler), 58, 64n128
- Ptolemy IV (Egyptian ruler), 64
- Publius Syrus (Antiochian), 111n108
- Qiryat Sefer, provincial Antioch issues found at, 190, 191n218
- Quinctilius Varus (governor of Syria), 181n192
- radiate or antoninianus coins, third-century CE, 210, 216–223, 217–221, 223, 252–256
- ram (Aries), coins with, 153, 159, 230, 231–232, 232
- recovery of coins in archaeological record, 30–32
- reforms of currency/mints
 - under Aulus Gabinius, 118
 - under Aurelian, 217
 - under Caracalla, 248
 - under Diocletian, 267, 269
 - under Nero, 174–176, 174, 180, 301
- religious cults and communities. See also
 - Christianity; Daphne, suburb and sanctuary of; festivals and games; Jews; specific deities
 - in civic body between Seleucids and Romans, 100, 108
 - late antique imperial Antioch, as pluralistic religious body, 291
 - priests, 58, 68–69, 68n153, 166–167
 - in provincial Roman Antioch, 159–160, 166–167
 - in Seleucid Antioch, 68
 - Syrian gods, Antiochians making dedications to, 100
 - Temple tax, 132
- remelting and recycling of coins, 203
- Riot of the Statues (insurrection due to imperial tax), 258–259, 261, 264, 266, 291
- Roman Egypt
 - Alexandrian coins mainly found in, 281, 283

- Roman Egypt (cont.)
 circulation/distribution of Antioch coins in, 274, 277–278
- Roman governors of Syria, Antioch as headquarters for, 162, 211n33, 259, 266
- Roman governors of Syria, mentioned on Antioch coins provincial Roman Antioch, 153, 156–157, 158
 Roman Republican period, 118–120
- Roman Principate, Antioch under. See also late antique imperial Antioch; provincial Roman Antioch; third-century CE Antioch importance of city to empire, 5, 304–305
- Roman Republic
 annexation of greater Syria by, 111–125, 297
 Antioch and. See civic body between Seleucids and Romans
- Rome, Antioch compared to, 265
- Rome, coins minted at koinon of Syria, minted at Rome for, 167, 167 provincial finds of, 204
 silver radiates, 256
 third-century CE Antioch coins compared, 229n125
- royal/imperial coins minted at Antioch civic and provincial coins overtaken by, 216–256 civic body between Seleucids and Romans, Roman Republic, 125–133, 126–130, 134
 civic body between Seleucids and Romans, royal late Seleucid coins, 101–104, 103, 105n67 civic body between Seleucids and Romans, Seleucid client kings, 113 in Late Antiquity, 267–284, 268, 270–272, 274–275, 277–280, 282
 provincial coins compared, 171
 provincial Roman Antioch, 163–164, 163
 Seleucid Antioch, 23, 50–54, 56–57, 62–63 in third century CE, 210, 212–223, 213 third-century CE imperial gold aurei, 210, 212–215 third-century CE imperial silver denarii, 210, 212–215, 213
 third-century CE silver antoninianus or radiate coins, 210, 216–223, 217–221, 223, 252–256
- royal/imperial portraits and images on coins.
See also specific royal/imperial personages denominational marker, lack of imperial portrait as, 157
 in Late Antiquity, 269, 270
 from late Seleucid period, 102–103 local patron gods replacing, 106–108 posthumous portrait of Philip I Philadelphus, in Roman Republican period, 117–119, 117, 122, 122, 130 provincial Roman Antioch, civic coins, 157, 158 provincial Roman Antioch, provincial coins, 173, 174, 183 from Seleucid Antioch, 57, 57, 65 third-century CE Antioch, civic/provincial bronze coins, 230, 231, 232 third-century CE Antioch, imperial coins, 217 third-century CE Antioch, provincial silver coins, 250
- Samaria-Sebaste, late Seleucid/early Roman coins from Antioch found at, 136, 139
- Samosata coins from, 194
 as metropolis, 167
- Sardis, civic coins of, 193n229
- Sasanian Empire
 late antique Antioch, as threat to, 264, 267 Parthians, overthrow of, 208 third-century CE Antioch, as threat to, 5, 208, 215–216, 225–226
- Saturninus (Gaius Sentius; Roman governor of Syria), 162
- Saxa (Roman governor), 123
- “SC” on provincial coins
 bronze coins from provincial Roman Antioch, 182, 183–184 bronze coins from third-century CE Antioch, 210, 231–233, 232, 243 silver coins from third-century CE Antioch, 250, 250
- Scriptores Historiae Augustae*, 8, 146, 168
- Seleucia on the Tigris bronze coins from Seleucid Antioch found at, 92 compared by Strabo to Antioch, 151 mint at, 52, 75, 92
- Seleucia Pieria. See also Tetrapolis as administrative center, 58
 Antioch bronze coins found at, 86, 88

- autonomous status, celebration of, 104
- “of the brother peoples” coins with Antioch, 65, 65
- civic coins minted at, 193n227
- coins minted in, 50n42, 50, 54n73, 65, 65, 66, 78, 91, 109, 153, 155, 243
- coins of late Seleucid/early Roman period from, 106n68, 105n71, 141
- Eugenius revolt and, 263
- foundation by Seleucus I, 48
- late Seleucid/early Roman Antioch coins found at, 140
- as naval base, 49
- provincial issues at, 193, 199
- Ptolemaic control of, 87
- Roman coins found at, 204, 256
- Roman provincial Antioch, civic coins of, 152n35
- as Seleucid capital, 49, 54n73
- Teos, Syrians granted citizenship by, 59
- third-century CE Antioch, civic/provincial coins of, 244
- Seleucid anchor countermark, coins found with, 86n195
- Seleucid Antioch (300–129 BCE), 17, 43–94
 - bronze coins, limited distribution of, 78–93, 79–81, 83, 90
 - as capital, 44, 49–50, 54, 60–63
 - as city, 45–46
 - civic coins minted in, 54–56, 65–69
 - coins as medium for exploring, 297
 - coins reflecting character of, 46–47
 - in early Hellenistic period after Seleucus I, 56–60
 - festivals and games in, 61, 149
 - first royal coins produced in, 50–54
 - foreign (non-Antioch) coins found at, 84n192, 84–85
 - foundation of Antioch by Seleucus I, 4, 44, 47, 56, 74, 303
 - as imperial center, 44
 - intersection of imperial power and local agency in, 43–44, 46–47, 58–60, 64–69
 - Jewish population of, 49n35, 69
 - other Seleucid cities striking civic coins, 66
 - as regional administrative center, 58
 - royal library at, 58
 - royal minting of coins at Antioch and, 23, 50–54, 56–57, 62–63
 - royal portraits and images on coins of, 57, 57, 65
 - silver coins, distribution of, 69–78
 - in Tetrapolis, 48–50
 - transition to Roman rule (See civic body between Seleucids and Romans)
- Seleucus I (Seleucid ruler)
 - boundaries of Seleucid Empire, establishment of, 44
 - civic coinage issued under, 54–56, 91
 - coins minted in Antioch by, 51–56, 51–52
 - foundation of Antioch by, 4, 44, 47, 56, 74, 303
- Seleucus II (Seleucid ruler), 56, 58n93
- Seleucus IV (Seleucid ruler), 59
- Septimius Severus (emperor)
 - in Antioch, 211
 - coins produced under, 212, 228, 247
 - Pescennius Niger’s revolt and punishment of Antioch, 206–212, 224–225, 228
- Serapis (Egyptian deity), on coins from Seleucid Antioch, 62, 63
- Sestos, civic coinage issued in, 105n65
- Severus Alexander (emperor), 212, 232, 237
- Shapur (Sasanian ruler), 215
- Si (Hauran), third-century CE Antioch coins found at, 239
- Side, coins with Seleucid anchor countermark found at, 86n195
- Sidon
 - coins minted at, 66, 90, 110n104, 128
 - intercity rivalries, coins expressing, 106
- single coin finds, generally of base metals, 33n78
- Siscia, silver radiates from, 256
- Smyrna, third-century CE Antioch-minted radiates found at, 220n87
- solidus*, 269
- Sosibios (Antiochian), 159
- Spain, coin finds in, 185, 219, 271–272
- Strabo
 - on Antioch and Antiochians, 4, 8, 159
 - comparing Antioch and Alexandria, 100, 151
 - comparing Antioch and Seleucia on the Tigris, 151
 - on Daphne, 6
- Suetonius, on circulation of coins, 28
- Susa
 - absence of late Seleucid/early Roman-era coins from, 131n203
 - coins minted at, 52, 75
 - provincial Antioch coins found at, 185
 - Seleucid Antioch coins found at, 92
- Sibylline Oracle (thirteenth), 215

- Syria, as Roman province. See also provincial coins minted in Antioch; Roman governors of Syria; specific locations administration of, 161–162, 208, 235 koinon (provincial assembly) at Antioch, 166–167, 167
Roman annexation, 111–125, 297
Syrian Gates (Belen Pass), 4
Syrian gods, Antiochians making dedications to, 100
Syriarch, 292n155
- Tacitus, 5, 8, 19, 147, 163, 169
Tall Šēḥ Ḥamad provincial Roman Antioch, civic coins of, 152n35 provincial Roman Antioch, provincial coins of, 185, 194, 200 third-century CE Antioch, civic/provincial coins of, 244n177
Tanagra, Boeotia, Antiochians in, 59
Tarsus
 Antioch bronze coins found at, 87
 coins minted at, 173n160
 as metropolis, 110n103
taxation. See also liturgies civitas libera and exemption from, 115 denominations used in reckoning, 27, 192n225 Jesus on legality of paying, 28 officials, 28
 in Palmyra, 27, 192n225
 production/circulation/distribution, affecting, 25, 53, 98, 116
 Riot of the Statues (insurrection due to imperial tax), 258–259, 261, 264, 266, 291
 Roman collection of (129–31 BCE), 116
 Temple tax, 132
Tel Anafa, Antioch coins found at, 128
Tel Kalak hoard, 248n191
Tell Abou Danné halved coin found at, 203n254
 late Seleucid/early Roman coins found at, 142
 Roman provincial Antioch, civic coins of, 152n35
 Roman provincial Antioch, no provincial coins from, 185n210
 Seleucid-era coins found at, 91
Tell el Hajj
 late Seleucid/early Roman coins found at, 142–143
 provincial issues at, 193
Temple tax, 132
- Teos, Syrians granted citizenship by, 59
tetradrachms
 civic production of, 105–106, 116–120 iconography, 51, 62, 117, 174, 232–233, 247–249 provincial Roman Antioch (31 BCE–192 CE), silver provincial coins from, 172–180, 173–174, 176–178, 180 reforms of, 118, 174, 248, 301 royal/provincial production of, 113, 117–118, 122 Seleucid silver coins, 69–78
 third-century CE silver provincial coins, 210, 246–252, 247, 250–252
 weight standard, 51, 54, 62, 102, 248
Tetrapolis, 4, 48–50. See also Antioch; Apamea; Laodicea ad Mare; Seleucia Pieria
Tetrarchy, 259, 289
Theodoret of Cyrrhus, 207n5
Theodosius I (emperor), 258, 264
Theodosius II (emperor), 270
theological school at Antioch, 290
theoretical models and methodologies, 13–17, 19–42, 307–320. See also monetization/demonetization active status of coins as currency, 29–30
 Annual Average Coin Loss Equation, 37, 313
 Antioch, minting of coins at, 19–23 assemblage size, 39n98
 binary logarithms, 39, 314–315
 challenges and opportunities of, 20–21 chronological groupings, 40, 311
 circulation/distribution of coins, 25–30, 38–41
 civic coins, 23
 coin finds, methodology for studying, 32–42
 coins, defined, 22
 data collection, 307–311 data preparation, 311–312 database assembly, 33–37
 digital mapping, 39, 318–320
 EDA (Exploratory Data Analysis), use of, 14, 19–21, 37–42, 306, 313–318 graphical techniques and tools, 39, 313–318 historical evidence, coin finds as, 22–32 loss of coins in archaeological record, 30
 production of coins, 22–25
 provincial coins, 24
 recovery of coins in archaeological record, 30–32
 royal/imperial coins, 23
 silver versus bronze finds, 40

- Thessalonica, coins from, 282
- third-century CE Antioch (192–284 CE), 18, 206–257
- antoninianus* or radiate coins, 210, 216–223, 217–221, 223, 252–256
 - bronze civic and provincial coins, 210, 227–246, 230, 232
 - as civic body, 224–227
 - coins as means of exploring, 298
 - colonia* status, 224, 229
 - crisis of, 206–211
 - diversity of issues from mint of, 210
 - emperors and would-be emperors, as seat of, 211–223
 - festivals and games in, 206, 209, 224, 228
 - foreign (non-Antioch) coins found in, 255
 - governor of Syria, continuing as seat of, 211n33
 - imperial gold aurei, 210, 212–215
 - imperial silver denarii, 210, 212–215, 213
 - intersection of imperial power and local agency in, 209–210
 - mintings for other cities in, 210
 - Pescennius Niger and Septimius Severus, 206–212, 224–225, 228
 - Roman mint compared, 229n125
 - Sasanian threat, 5, 208, 215–216, 225–226
 - “SC” on bronze provincial coins, 210, 231–233, 232, 243
 - “SC” on silver provincial coins, 250, 250
 - silver provincial coins, 210, 246–252, 247, 250–252
 - termination of civic and provincial coin production, 202, 252–256, 253–255
 - Zenobia and Palmyrans, 5, 208, 216, 226–227
- Thucydides, 110
- Tiberius (emperor), 157, 158, 165
- Tiberius Gracchus (senior), 61
- Tigranes II of Armenia, 111–113, 112
- Tille, Antioch provincial coins found at, 185, 191n220
- Timon and Timaios of Antioch (artists), 109n95
- Tisamenus (governor of Syria), 292
- Titus (emperor), 169, 203n255
- trade and commercial activity
- Antioch, trade routes through and around, 74–75, 80, 85, 143, 161
 - Antiochians involved in, 100
 - coin circulation/distribution, effect on, 19, 53, 75, 77, 80, 92, 144, 194, 272–273, 278, 303
- Trajan (emperor), 1, 163–165, 167, 167, 180, 180, 191, 235
- Trajan Decius (emperor), 230, 250
- Trajanus (M. Ulpius; Roman governor of Syria), 152, 162, 165
- Trebonianus Gallus (emperor), 217, 248n191, 249, 254
- Trier, compared to Antioch, 265
- Tripolis
- autonomous status, celebration of, 104
 - silver coins of late Seleucid period from, 106n68
- Tryphon (guardian of Antiochus VI), 61–62, 63
- Tyche (deity)
- on civic coins from Antioch in late Seleucid period, 109, 109
 - on civic coins from late antique Antioch, 287–289, 288
 - on civic coins from Roman provincial Antioch, 153, 158, 159
 - on civic coins from Roman Republican period, 115
 - on civic/provincial bronze coins from third-century CE Antioch, 230n128, 230, 231
 - on coins from Seleucia Pieria, 65, 65
 - on coins from Seleucid Antioch, 48, 62, 63
 - Eutychides’s statue of, 48, 62, 109, 112, 159, 173, 180, 231, 242, 287
 - koinon* of Syria, on coin minted at Rome for, 167, 167
 - on Mark Antony’s coins from Antioch, 123
 - on provincial silver coins (31 BCE–192 CE), 173, 173, 180, 180
 - on royal coins from Antioch in late Seleucid period, 102–103, 103
- Tarsus, on coins minted at, 173n160
- on Tigranes II silver tetradrachm from Antioch, 112, 112
- on Vespasian’s coins minted at Antioch, 163, 163
- Tyre
- coins minted at, 77, 90n213, 90, 153, 155, 172, 174–175, 178, 199n246, 243, 247
 - coins of late Seleucid/early Roman period from, 106, 110n104, 128
- Hasmonean state, use of Tyrian coins in, 132
- hiera kai asylos* (sacred and inviolable), as city title, 104n59
- intercity rivalries, coins expressing, 106
- as metropolis, 167

- Tyre (cont.)
 - Roman provincial Antioch, no provincial coins from, 185n210
 - silver reforms of Nero and, 174–175, 174, 178
 - third-century CE Antioch coins found at, 244n176
- Vaballathus (son of Zenobia), 216, 217
- Valerian (emperor), 216
- Ventidius Bassus, 139
- Vespasian (emperor), 19, 162–163, 169, 203n255, 212
- water channel for fullers, 151
- weight standard, for coins
 - Attic, 51, 53, 70–71, 75, 77
 - circulation/distribution, effect on, 53, 71, 77, 88, 131–132, 248
 - Ptolemaic, 77
 - reduction of, 62, 102, 217
- Xenophon, 110
- Zamaris (Babylonian Jewish leader), 162
- Zenobia (queen of Palmyra), 5, 208, 216, 226–227
- Zeugma
 - Antioch coins found at, 185, 236, 244n176
 - coins minted at, 200n246, 244
- Zeus (deity)/Zeus Nicephorus (Zeus with Nike)
 - founding of Antioch and, 47
 - late Seleucid period, civic coins from, 108, 109
 - late Seleucid period, royal coins from, 102–103, 103, 113
 - provincial Roman Antioch, civic coins from, 158, 158
 - on provincial silver coins (31 BCE–192 CE), 173
 - Roman Republican period, civic coins from, 115
 - Roman Republican period, posthumous Philip I Philadelphus coins in, 116, 117, 122
 - Seleucia Pieria, coins from, 65, 65
 - Seleucid Antioch, coins from, 51, 55, 57, 57, 62n119, 62, 63, 66, 66
- Zosimus, 216, 258