

Contents

List of Contributors	page viii
Preface	xi
Table of Cases	xiii
List of Abbreviations	xxv
1 Introduction	1
Bridges under Construction and Shifting Boundaries Helmut Philipp Aust and Thomas Kleinlein
PART I IDENTITIES AND INTERACTION
2 Foreign Relations Law As a Bargaining Tool?	23
Felix Lange
3 International Foreign Relations Law	46
Executive Authority in Entering and Exiting Treaties Edward T. Swaine
4 Comparative Foreign Relations Law between Center and Periphery	60
Liberal and Postcolonial Perspectives Michael Riegner
5 Finding Foreign Relations Law in India: A Decolonial Dissent	86
Prabhakar Singh

- 6 Foreign Legal Policy As the Background to Foreign Relations Law? 108
 Revisiting Guy de Lacharrière's La politique juridique extérieure
Frédéric Mégret
- 7 Judicial Review, Foreign Relations and Global Administrative Law 130
 The Administrative Function of Courts in Foreign Relations
Angelo Jr. Golia
- PART II SOVEREIGNTY AND COOPERATION
- 8 The Conseil Constitutionnel's Jurisprudence on 'Limitations of Sovereignty' 161
Niki Aloupi
- 9 Democratic Participation in International Lawmaking in Switzerland after the 'Age of Treaties' 180
Anna Petrig
- PART III POWERS AND PROCESSES
- 10 A Constitution Made for Mandela, a Constitutional Jurisprudence Developed for Zuma 215
 The Erosion of Discretion of the Executive in Foreign Relations
Dire Tladi
- 11 From Scope to Process 239
 The Evolution of Checks on Presidential Power in US Foreign Relations Law
Jean Galbraith
- 12 Division of Competences in the Field of Foreign Relations in the Polish Constitutional System 252
Stanisław Biernat
- 13 The Role of Parliaments in Creating and Enforcing Foreign Relations Law 274
 A Case Study of Bosnia and Herzegovina
Ajla Škrbić

Contents		vii
14	War, International Law and the Rise of Parliament The Influence of International Law on UK Parliamentary Practice with Respect to the Use of Force Veronika Fikfak	299
15	China and Global Environmental Governance Coordination, Distribution and Compliance Ji Hua	317
FINAL REFLECTIONS
16	The Dynamic and Sometimes Uneasy Relationship Between Foreign Relations Law and International Law Curtis A. Bradley	343
17	The Present Salience of Foreign Relations Law Campbell McLachlan	355
	Index	373