

Index

- Abdul (trader), 115
 Abdullah (trader), 213–18, 249
 Abu Bakr (trader), 243 accusations of spying
 as aspect of fieldwork to be overcome, 44 futility of professing innocence, 46, 49–50 as humorous banter with traders, 46–51 Afghan Boundary Commission, 93
 Afghan restaurants
 benefits of meeting and engaging with traders in, 225–27
 celebrating Nowruz in Yiwu, 223–25
 Central Asian cuisine in Kabul restaurants, 247–51 creation of inter-Asian cuisine, 242–47 as diplomatic space, 242–51, 252 diverse forms of Afghan eateries, 228–34 diversity of clientele, 221, 224 everyday navigation of geopolitical processes and, 227–36 financial viability, 234–35 focus of anthropological scholarship on, 222–23 as front for illicit and criminal activities, 237–38 importance to long-distance inter-Asian trade, 221–23, 251–53 perceptions of restaurateurs' knowledge and power, 236–38 place in the geopolitical imagination of Afghanistan, 227–28 popularity with Saudi nationals, 242–47 role in cultural reproduction of Afghan networks, 247–51 role of in building relationships of trust, 32 role of in ensuring durability of trading networks, 242 signature dish, 242
 see also palaw.
 as source of commercial information, 238–42
 Afghan society, divisions, 48 Afghan traders attitudes towards in Central Asia, 61 citizenship dilemmas of traders in Saudi Arabia, 98–102 concerns about the possibility of deportation, 155 defining political context of action and positioning, 15 diplomatic potential, 16 disadvantages of being born in Afghanistan, 149 diverse commercial roles, 3, 5 ethno-linguistic background, 4 geopolitics and trading networks, 258–62 goods sold by in Chitral bazaar, 3, 4 institution-building efforts, 257–58 languages spoken by, 74 models of trust, mistrust and entrustment, 262–65 navigational agency, 254–57, 260–61
 participation in geopolitical processes, 260 past roles within the Afghan state, 35 religious activities, 142–44 self-image, 53–55
 understandings of Afghan identity, 26–27
 Afghan trading networks, Islam's complex role in, 80–84
 Afghan Turkestan, 93, 94
 Afghanistan
 association with ultra-conservative forms of Islam, 162 Bolshevik persecution of wealthy families, 92 circulation of capital, commodities and people, 201–2

290 Index

- Afghanistan (cont.)
 colonial and postcolonial political construction, 27 composition of non-Muslim trading communities, 164 coup d'état, 95
 former Soviet-trained fighter pilots' transport role, 35–36 historical perspective of intersections of trade and religion, 164–66 historical significance, 27 ninetieth 'independence' celebrations, 153 role in long-distance trade, 192–95
 Soviet invasion and mujahidin conflict, 4, 64, 96
 Soviet Union's role in politics and economy of, 4
 US-led invasion and occupation, 66, 108, 192, 198
 Afghanistan–Pakistan Transit Trade Agreement (ATTA), 131
 Africa, role of trading networks and nodes in economic development, 189 Ahmed, Shahab, 168
 alcohol, 46, 52, 81, 82, 137, 142, 208, 215, 218, 231 alternative geographies, concept of, 191
 Amanullah Khan, King of Afghanistan, 154
 Anderson, Paul, 53, 71, 112, 262
 Andkhuy, 196, 199–201, 213, 235, 246
 Anglo-Afghan relations, history of, 41 anthropology, fieldwork requirements, 39
 Appadurai, Arjun, 153
 Aqcha, 196, 212
 Arabs, Afghans' view of, 141
 Armenia, conflict with Azerbaijan, 36
 Armenian trading networks, 7, 60, 250
 Aslanian's study, 60–61
 Asia, study of intersections between kinship and international politics in, 19
 Aslanian, Sebouh David, 7, 60, 250 Atiq (trader), 184
 autochthonous nationalism, prevalence in Afghan political discourse, 162
 Azerbaijan, 25, 36
 Aziz (trader), 204

 Baluch networks, 18
 Bayly, Christopher, 12
 Bayly, Susan, 20
 bazaars and markets, see markets/bazaars.
 Belarus, 1, 62, 65, 70
 Belt and Road Initiative, 15, 265 announcement of, 2

 as example of state forging of interregional connectivity, 17 geopolitical significance, 259 growth in power, 6 impact on Eurasian trading communities, 1, 10, 17, 30 increasing importance, 6 influence on livelihoods of informal traders operating in China's mountainous borderlands, 190 launch, 124
 'Muslim culture' in the context of, 80 potential future, 265
 relationship with other state-centric strategies, 259 Yiwu and, 31, 123, 124–26, 128, 160
 Bismillah (friend of Abdullah), 214–15 black economy, 16
 'black money' (pul-e siah), 147, 211, 237
 'Blue Mosque' replica, Shiberghan, 198, 201 boarding schools, consequences of upbringing of Afghan children in, 64 Bolivia, 130
 Bolshevik Revolution, 17, 28, 88, 92, 107, 165 bribes (rishwat), 237 lack of alternative to payment, 210 payment of to customs officials, 65 payments to Dushanbe police, 202 procurement of Turkish residency permits and, 107 sought by officials, 218
 Britain, history of influence in Afghanistan, 41–42 Bukhara, 22–23, 88
 early modern economic dynamics, 93–94 impact of incorporation into the Soviet Union, 94 transregional reach as centre for education, 168 Bukharan traders
 historical background, 28
 identification as 'Afghan', 117
 Bukhari rice (ruz al-Bukhari), consumption in Afghan restaurants in Saudi Arabia, 242–47
 Bukhariyya neighbourhood, Jeddah, 91–92, 96, 102, 118, 244
 Burton, Audrey, 93

 Can, Lâle, 88, 110
 capital, circulation of, 201–2
 carpet trade
 Afghan refugees' involvement in, 86

- Andkhuy, 196, 199
 Bukharan, 95, 96
 Bukhariyya Street, 92 development role of ethnic Turkmen traders, 24
 Pakistan, 224
 Turkey, 105–6, 111, 113
 Caspian Sea, 196
 Central Asia, Bolshevik revolution and isolation of, 88
 Central Asian commercial networks, dynamism of, 11 Central Asian émigrés challenges of conducting business in Saudi Arabia, 100–2 citizenship and residency rights, 98 citizenship dilemmas, 98–102 commercial acumen, 93 culinary influence, 247–49 cultural adaptability, 256 family backgrounds, 92
 ‘gastro-diplomacy’, 248
 historical background, 89 influence of religion, 88, 89 institutional life, 107–12, 118 languages fluent in, 92, 103 migration pathways, 92–94, 95, 97 national identity, 98–99 patterns of mobility, 86–89 political activities, 95, 109 relocation destinations, 104–14 cultural, religious and social concerns, 103–4 Kazakhstan, 104–5
 Turkey, 106–14
 UAE (United Arab Emirates), 105–6 restaurant businesses, 244–47 self-representations, 117 view of Turkish citizenship, 108
 Chabahar, 24
 China
 accession to WTO, 3, 119, 124, 161 Belt and Road Initiative, see Belt and Road Initiative.
 ‘corridors of connectivity’, 2 currency restrictions, 5 identity verification systems, 99 ‘international trade city’, 2 see also Yiwu.
 money transfer restrictions, 126, 147 ‘opening up’ policy, 3 policy towards Muslims of Uyghur and Kazakh ethnicity, 37 settled communities of traders, 10 traders’ institution-building efforts, 257 Xinjiang autonomous region, 3 see also Xinjiang.
 Chitral, Pakistan, 3
 citizenship
 access to in China, 159–60 access to in India, 177 access to in the UAE, 106 access to in Turkey, 106–8 relationship with security, 7 traders’ issues with, 7–8 traders’ strategies to secure access to, 88, 98, 157, 262
 Claassen, Rutger, 18
 Clinton, Hillary, 2
 Cold War, 20, 34, 84, 120
 Afghanistan’s role, 42
 Colombia, 130
 colonialism, 34
 divisive effects of, 19–20 commensality, definition, 222 commercial networks, ideological and cultural complexity of, 18–20 commercial nodes displacement of ethno-religious trading minorities from, 24 diversity in the nature and function of, 255 family life, 152
 fieldwork conducted in, 195–201 importance of Afghan nodes, 189 requirements for working in, 50 role of cultural activities, 153 significance, 255
 understanding, 191
 where Afghan traders operate, 1 commodities of everyday use, 70, 101, 123, 124, 196, 199 conspiracy theories, 44 conviviality beneficial role of in fieldwork, 47–51 concept of, 54
 corridors of connectivity along which traders operate, 2 Eurasian corridor, 31, 56–60
 see also Eurasian corridor of connectivity.
 West Asian corridor, 31, 86–89 see also West Asian corridor of connectivity.
 corruption, 208, 210–11, 215, 219 cosmopolitanism ‘armoured’, 167
 post-cosmopolitanism, 167 cotton trade, 22, 93
 covid, 126

292 Index

- covid-19 pandemic, 126
 credit networks, 191 Crimea, annexation by Russia and its impact, 37, 67, 174
 crypto-colonialism, concept of, 42 cultural and religious diversity Afghans' interest in historic expressions of, 163
 impact of long-term conflict and displacement on in Afghanistan, 163–64
 modern Afghanistan, 164–66 role of in Eurasian connectivity, 187–88 cultural sensibility, traders and, 76–80 customs officials, payment of bribes (rishwat) to, 65
- Daud, Mohammad Khan, 165, 172
 deportation
 Afghan merchants deported by UAE, 37, 261, 264
 Afghan traders' concerns about, 156 commonality of deportations to Afghanistan, 100
 as consequence of non-payment of tax in Saudi Arabia, 102
 undocumented Afghan labourers deported by Russian authorities, 71 undocumented Afghan migrants deported by Turkey, 114
- Dheepak (trader), 175–80, 183–84 diasporas
 as transnational extensions of nation-states, 12
 cultural identity maintenance role, 21 exploration of nation-states' strategic use
 of, 14
 Herat's Jewish community, 163 legal conventions in formerly Soviet countries, 69
 perception of Afghan migrant communities as, 28
 role of diaspora organisations in durability of trading networks, 69, 71 self-depiction of Central Asian émigrés based in Turkey as, 115 trade network establishment role of diaspora organisations, 69–74
- Dil Agha (trader), 67–69, 205–6, 207–9, 224
- Dilmurad (stallholder), 245
 Dongyang, 140, 148
 Dostum, Rashid, 197
 dual role, 84, 141
 durability of trading networks Afghan traders' institution-building efforts and, 257–58
 conferred by ability to switch between different fields of agency, 61 institution-building proficiency of participants and, 21, 257
 interpersonal relationships and, 60 management of underlying contingency and, 202
 neighbourhoods and, 20
 religion and, 80–84, 256 resources essential for understanding, 253
 role of diaspora organisations, 69, 71 role of social institutions, 76, 135 role of trust, 13, 20–22, 32, 220 significance of restaurants for, 223, 242 social relationships and, 60, 254 structural perspectives, 57, 61
- e-commerce, impact on trade in Yiwu, 126 education
 access to as factor in choice of business location, 19, 111, 150–51, 152, 157, 158, 203
 importance for traders, 157 intersection of cultural background in, 140
 Russian and Soviet provisions, 19, 63, 64, 256
 Sikh and Hindu communities' concerns, 172
 transregional reach of Bukhara as a centre for, 168
 Turkish provisions, 111
- Eid, 77, 192, 194
 'the English', Afghan views on, 41
 Erdoğan, Recep Tayyip, 112
 Eurasia
 informal commercial terrain, 16–17 international political significance, 16 Eurasian connectivity circulation of capital, commodities and people, 201–2
 differing conceptions of, 9
 key principle of being a trader in the geopolitical interstices of, 18 significance of ethno-religious minorities to, 31
 traders' role, 10, 11
 Eurasian corridor of connectivity Afghan networks operating in former Soviet countries, 61–69
 Armenian merchant community of New Julfa, 60–61

- import and export of commodities, 62, 70
- informal diplomacy, 74–75
- protection of migrants, 69–74
- role of religion in organisational activities of Afghans, 80–84
- traders and cultural sensibility, 76–80
- Eurasian Customs Union, 17, 105, 119, 259
- Eurasian trading networks
 - flexibility, 18
 - future of, 265–66
 - shared Persian vernacular, 7
- European imperialism, 42, 43, 53
- everyday diplomacy, see also informal diplomacy, 9, 59
- external ties, value for Afghan traders, 62
- family members, benefits of geographic dispersal, 262
- fieldwork
 - analysis of fieldwork practices, 33–34
 - benefits of practising in restaurants, 225–27
 - celebrating Nowruz in Yiwu, 223–25
 - interpersonal relationships and, 38–41, 47–51
 - research visits conducted, 267–68
 - role of geopolitics in anthropological fieldwork, 44–45
 - trip from Mazar-e Sharif to Andkhuy, 195–201
- flexibility, importance for traders, 14
- food, Afghan dishes, 92
- former pilots, role in long-distance transport, 35–36
- former Soviet countries, traders' institution-building, 257
- former Soviet Union
 - Afghan traders' interactions with politics, 62
 - backgrounds of Afghan traders in, 255–56
 - establishment of Afghan trading networks, 61–69
 - marriages of Afghan traders to local women, 117
- former state officials, roles in the field of trade, 35
- Friday prayers, 81, 83–84, 141–42
- friendship
 - as facilitator of long-distance trade, 36
 - friendship circles, 68, 194, 224
 - see also* interpersonal relationships.
- fur trade, 94
- Futian market, Yiwu, 43, 125–26, 128–30, 135, 140, 141, 182, 226, 234
- Gardner, Andrew, 156
- 'gastro-diplomacy', 223, 228, 248
- geographic dispersal of family members, benefits of the strategy, 262
- geopolitics
 - Afghan restaurants and, 227–28
 - Afghan traders' participation in geopolitical processes, 260
 - anthropology and, 9, 14–18, 44–45
 - Belt and Road Initiative's geopolitical significance, 259
 - informal diplomacy and, 14–18
 - northern Afghanistan's geopolitical significance for Turkey and Russia, 200
 - popular geopolitics, 14–15, 258, 260
 - restaurants and everyday navigation of geopolitical processes, 227–36
 - Soviet Union's geopolitical influence in Eurasia, 259
 - traders' perspective, 8, 34–38, 53–55, 120, 123
 - trading networks and, 258–62
- Germany, entrepreneur visa launched by, 157
- Ghani, Ashraf, 75, 171, 227
- giraw* (financial instrument), practice of, 206–9
- global currency markets, Afghan activity in, 73
- globalisation from below, 190, 260
- Goody, Jack, 223
- Green, Nile, 23, 168–69
- Guangzhou, 91–92, 148, 190, 233
- Gulzad (trader), 4–5, 6–8, 37
- Gwadar port, Pakistan, 24
- Hajji Kabir (trader), 151
- Hajji Karim (trader), 68
- hajj, 94, 109–10, 111, 143, 146, 184, 214–15, 216
- Hanifi, Shah Mahmoud, 165
- Hejaz region, Saudi Arabia, 94, 96, 98, 197, 243
 - land purchase legislation, 109
- Hekmatyar, Gulbuddin, 36
- Henig, David, 223, 248
- Herzfeld, Michael, 42
- Ho, Engseong, 26, 112, 167
- Hodgson, Marshall, 168

294 Index

- humour and wit, role of in establishing relationships, 41, 45–47, 50, 54
 Humphrey, Caroline, 39, 51
- Ibañez-Tirado, Diana, 97
 Ibrahimi, Niamattullah, 109
- India
 Bayly's analysis of colonial 'information order', 12 connectivity with Central Asian states and China, 24 export goods, 192, 242
 history of trading networks, 22 medicine trade and, 171
 Sikh and Hindu traders' connections with, 162, 166, 170–71, 176–77, 181
- informal diplomacy
 anthropology, geopolitics and, 14–18 in the Eurasian corridor, 74–75 traders' skill, 9
 value of informal diplomatic skills, 59
- international boundaries, role of in traders' livelihoods, 8
- international interventions post-2001 and continuing, 42 Soviet invasion of Afghanistan, 4, 162 traders' criticisms of the effects on their country, 43 US-led invasion of Afghanistan, 66, 108, 192, 198
- interpersonal relationships fieldwork and, 38–41, 47–51 influence on durability of trading networks, 60, 254 role of in maintaining trading networks, 209–11
- interregional connectivity, role of the state, 17
- Iran
 Armenian trading networks, 7, 22
 labour migration from northern Afghanistan, 197 recruitment of Afghans to fight in Syrian conflict, 36 US sanctions, 126, 140
ishleki (Turkmen dish), 249–50
 ISIS, 9, 104, 162, 171, 197
- Islam
 Afghanistan's association with ultra-conservative forms of, 162 Chinese state suspicion, 144 contested nature, 82, 143 distinct culture of 'halal' business and, 80 giraw practice and, 206–9 influence on Central Asia's émigré traders, 88–89, 95
 Islamic cosmopolitanism, 167–68
 Muslim communities in China, 141
 national identity and, 58 role in Afghan traders' business activities, 206–9 role in the dynamics of trading networks, 80–84 role of in maintaining connections, 88, 89 stabilising role, 82
 theoretical connection with neoliberalism, 58
 see also Sufism.
- Islamic cosmopolitanism
 concept of, 167
 in Odessa, 180–85
 relationship with Muslim majority settings today, 168–69 role of language, 168
- Istanbul
 Afghan associations, 107
 Afghan restaurants, 236–37
 carpet trade, 105
 as favoured destination point for émigré families, 106, 111–13, 115, 245 as favoured destination point for Yiwu traders, 150, 261
 fieldwork conducted in, 2
 importance of connections between Jeddah and, 195 role of Afghan restaurants, 237 traders' experiences of, 19, 87, 99, 104, 109 see also Turkey.
- Jeddah, fieldwork conducted in, 2
- Jewish communities in Afghanistan Afghan travellers' writings, 163 historical trading connections, 164
- jihadis, 18, 36
- Kabul
 'Bush bazaar', 193
 Central Asian cuisine in Kabul restaurants, 247–51 challenges of running a business in, 194–95 debt collection in, 211–18 favours and friendship in, 209–11
 fieldwork conducted in, 2
 importance as node in long-distance trading networks, 252 insecurity, 195

- Mandawi market, 192–94
 Yiwu's Afghan traders at home in, 192–95
- Kalakani, Habibullah, 154
- Karachi
 discovery of Turkestanian-branded socks in, 90 historic importance as commercial node, 224–25
- Karakul lamb fur trade, 196
- Karzai, Hamid, 227
- Kashgar, 4–5
- Kazakhstan, 25
 Central Asian émigrés relocation to, 104–5 citizenship policy, 104–5 wheat trade, 212
- Keqiao, 148
- Kia, Mana, 25, 168
- kidnapping of merchants for ransom, 195
- King Faisal Research and Islamic Studies Centre, Riyadh, 91
- kinship, 205, 212, 220, 264
 neighbourhoods and, 20
- Kwon, Heonik, 20
- lamb fur trade, 94, 196
- landmines, 199
- Lapis Lazuli Corridor, Turkey, 196
- Latin American traders, 130
- Li, Darryl, 18
- lingua francas, 11
- London, fieldwork conducted in, 2
- long-distance trading networks anthropological perspectives, 13 cultural and ideological perspectives, 14 historical perspectives, 11–13 importance of flexibility, 14 traders' self-reporting of their experience, 13 trust and mistrust in, 20–22
- Lutfi, Aameem, 18
- Machold, Rhys, 44
- Mandawi market, Kabul, 192–94
- markets/bazaars
 Bingwan night market, Yiwu, 139
 'Bush bazaar', Kabul, 193
 Chitral bazaar, 3, 4
 Futian market, Yiwu, 43, 125–26, 128–30, 135, 140, 141, 182, 226, 234
 Mandawi market, Kabul, 192–94
 Saddar Bazaar, Karachi, 225
- Seventh-Kilometre Market, Odessa, 4, 68, 70, 72–74, 78, 82, 174, 180–85, 203, 208
- Marouda, Marina, 73
- marriage, 6, 7, 62, 68, 95, 111, 115, 117, 156
- Massoud, Ahmad Shah, 154
- Mathews, Gordon, 190, 264
- Mazar-e Sharif
 foreign exchange services, 198 road trip to Andkhuy, 195–201
 'methodological nationalism', 25 micro-networks, 56, 77
- migrants, protection of in the Eurasian corridor, 69–74
- migration, between Afghanistan and former Soviet settings, 66–67
- Mirziyoyev, Shavkat, 62
- mistrust
 concept of, 54
 Humphrey's formulation, 51 significance in traders' lives and relationships, 40, 45, 47, 49, 51, 55
 'socially productive' role in sociality, 34
see also practices of entrustment; trust.
- mobile citizenship, strategic and cultural dimensions, 98
- mobile societies, Ho's definition, 26
- Mongolia, 25
- monocentric networks, 60
- mononodal networks, 60, 119, 175
- Monsutti, Alessandro, 204
- Moscow
 Afghan restaurants, 230, 252
 significance for Afghan traders' commercial activities, 62, 70, 174, 177, 262
- Moscow Olympics (1980), 70
- mosques
 Chinese closure of, 144
 dual role, 84
 ethnolinguistic diversity and mosque attendance, 81 functional role of mosque attendance, 83–84 mosque attendance in Odessa, 81 mosque attendance in Yiwu, 141 mujahidin, 42, 90, 96, 166, 176–77, 184, 208 mujahidin government, 35, 46, 154, 181
- multinodal networks, 62
- Muslim societies, role of neighbourhoods, 20
- Myanmar, 196

296 Index

- Nadir Shah, 60, 154
 Nagorno-Karabakh, 36
 Najibullah Ahmadzai, 176–77
 Nasir (trader), 43, 181–84 national identity, traders' predilection for secular forms, 58
 nationalism, 25, 162
 nation-states, tendency for scholars to address regional dynamics through the lens of, 25
 NATO
 occupation, 182
 role in trading networks, 193 withdrawal, 42, 182, 199, 204
 navigational agency
 accomplishing, 254–57, 260–61
 Afghan traders in Eurasia, 254–57 Claassen's model, 18 demonstrations of, 160, 243, 247 potential for Afghanistan to capitalise on, 59
 Navoi, Ali Sher, 82
 neighbourhoods
 Bukhariyya neighbourhood, Jeddah, 91–92, 96, 102, 118, 244 comparison with conception of social institutions, 103, 112
 durability of trading networks and, 20 importance for Sikh and Hindu communities, 175
 and kinship, 20
 'partial neighbourhoods', 20, 114, 118
 Sohrab Goth neighbourhood, Karachi, 90
 see also Zeytinburnu neighbourhood, Istanbul.
 Nepal, 196
 New Julfa, Nadir Shah's invasion, 60
 New Silk Road
 alternative geographies, 24–29 conventional geographies, 24
 increasing importance, 6 launch of the strategy, 2 northern Afghanistan geopolitical significance for Turkey and Russia, 200
 labour migration, 197
 north-western Afghanistan influence of Turkey and Saudi Arabia, 198
 road trip, 195–201
Nowruz, 77, 231
 celebrating in Yiwu, 223–25
 date of, 223
- Odessa
 Afghan community, 4
 Afghan restaurants, 184, 230, 252
 diaspora organisations, 77
 fieldwork conducted in, 2 mosque attendance, 81, 83
 Seventh-Kilometre Market, 4, 68, 70, 72–74, 78, 82, 174, 180–85, 203, 208
 significance for Afghan traders' commercial activities, 29, 35, 43, 62, 70, 72, 77, 174, 175–80, 184, 187–89, 203
 see also Ukraine.
- Pakistan
 Afghan carpet trade, 86
 Afghan trade networks, 131 palaw, 215, 230, 244 cooking pot, 92
 cultural and commercial significance, 242–51, 252
 modified forms of, 245 Pashtun itinerant merchants, 4 passports, 4, 99–100, 149, 226
 Pelkmans, Mathijs, 44
 People's Democratic Party of Afghanistan
 (PDPA), 80, 165
 Persian Gulf, new or redeveloped ports, 24
 Persian language, transregional reach, 168 Picket, James, 168
 pilgrimage visas, 86
 pilots, role in long-distance transport of Soviet-trained fighter pilots, 35–36 place-making practices of traders in Yiwu, 123, 127, 128–40
 Bingwan night market, 139
 morally circumspect establishments, 137
 religion and, 137
 restaurants, 135–36, 137
 shisha cafés, 138–39
 significance of Tianhe and Fuyuan Towers, 130–34
 Wu Ai neighbourhood, 139 politics, Afghan traders' interactions with, 62
 polycentric networks, 60
 popular geopolitics, 14–15, 258, 260
 post-Soviet world, sites of 'informal economy', 1
 practices of entrustment, 201 debt collection in Kabul, 211–18 favours and friendship in Kabul, 209–11 ontological assumptions about human behaviour and, 263–65

- relationship with risk, 262–65
 Yama and Dil Agha, 205–9
 Pyatigorsk, 37
- Rabbani, Burhanuddin, 181, 227
 Rahimullah (restaurateur), 246, 251
 Rahman, Abdul (trader), 86–87, 88
 Ramadan, 137, 144
 Rauf Baig (moneylender), 212–13, 214–15, 216–18 refugees, 6, 108, 158, 173, 202, 203–4, 209, 265 regional conflicts, past involvement of traders, 36–38 regional connectivity alternative viewpoints, 24–29 emphasis of scholarly work on role of nation-states, 25 limitations of nation-state perspective, 29 religion
 Afghan traders' religious activities, 142–44
 and durability of trading networks, 80–84, 256 Green's 'religious market' theory, 58 long-distance Eurasian trade and religious plurality, 22–24 and place-making practices of traders in Yiwu, 137 role of in maintaining connections, 88, 89 role of religious specialists in inter-Asian trading networks, 250 see also cultural and religious diversity.
 restaurants
 Afghan, see Afghan restaurants.
 and durability of trading networks, 223, 242
 and place-making practices of traders, 135–36, 137 restaurant trade in UAE, 105 role of in cultural interpenetration of Asian societies, 252
 Riaz (trader), 78, 178
 Rui, Huaichuan, 124
 Russia
 annexation of Crimea, 37, 67, 174 mercenary background of some traders, 36 role in establishment of a Eurasian Customs Union, 17
- Saddar Bazaar, Karachi, 225
 Saudi Arabia
 Afghan restaurants in, 225, 242–47
 Central Asian émigré trading community, 90–92
see also Central Asian émigrés.
 challenges of conducting business in, 100–2 citizenship dilemmas of traders in, 98–102 deportation as consequence of non-payment of tax in, 102 Hejaz region, 94, 96, 98, 197, 243 immigration policy, 97, 99
kafala system, 100
 labour migration from northern Afghanistan, 197
 national dish, 96
 recruitment of Afghans to the Yemeni conflict, 36 relocation destinations of Central Asian émigrés, 104–14 restaurant trade, Afghan activity, 92
 Saxer, Martin, 56
 Seth (trader), 166, 170
 Sevastopol Hotel, 69–72, 76, 174, 185
 Seventh-Kilometre Market, Odessa, 4, 68, 70, 72–74, 78, 82, 174, 180–85, 203, 208
 Shahid (trader), 203, 204
 Shanghai Cooperation Organisation, 25 sharing of food, role of in establishing and sustaining relationships, 222–23 Sharma (trader), 170
 Sikh and Hindu communities
 Afghanistan-based, 170–73 concerns over education of children, 172 cultural influence, 255 difficulties carrying out religious rituals, 172 from transnational merchants to religious minority, 169–73 historical role in trade between Central and South Asia, 28, 165 impact of ISIS and Taliban activities, 171 impact of mujahidin and Taliban rule, 166 importance of neighbourhoods, 175 relationships with Muslim Afghan traders, 173–75
 Dheepak in Odessa, 175–80
 Odessa's Seventh-Kilometre Market, 180–85
 UK, 185–87
 religious and political influences, 165 role in the extension of Afghan commercial networks, 256

298 Index

- Sikh and Hindu communities (cont.)
 role in the trade between South and Central Asia, 22 security threats towards, 171–72
 UK-based, see under United Kingdom (UK).
 Yiwu gatherings, 173
- Silk Road, scholar's use of the concept, 2
- social institutions
 Afghan traders' institution-building efforts, 257–58
 Anderson's conception, 112
 Central Asian émigrés in Turkey, 107–12, 118 cultural role, 103, 118 remit of trader-established institutions, 76–80, 84, 134–35, 209, 257–58 restaurants as, 136, 221
see also Afghan restaurants.
 role in establishing the 'rules of the game', 69, 257 scholarship on, 21
 Sufi lodges (tekkes), 109–11, 256
see also Sufism.
- Sohrab Goth neighbourhood, Karachi, 90
- Sood, Gagan, 7
- Soviet Union
 collapse, 17, 57, 64–65, 230, 256, 259 creation, 94
 education and training opportunities, 63 geopolitical influence in Eurasia, 259 invasion of Afghanistan, 4, 162 long-term connections between Afghan state and, 160
 Moscow Olympics, 70
 official barter trade with, 165, 176, 178 role in politics and economy of Afghanistan, 4 trade between Afghanistan and, 29, 63 wars against, 102, 142, 154 state officials, traders' relationships with, 69, 71, 72–74, 76, 84, 210, 222, 257
- Sufism, 109, 110–11, 167, 214, 223, 256
- Syria, role of Afghans in the conflict, 36
- Tajikistan, difficulties for Afghan trader-refugees, 202
- Taliban
 and Afghanistan's association with ultra-conservative forms of Islam, 162 Afghan traders informal diplomacy, 75 arrests by, 200
 attitudes towards, 52, 218 defeat, 42, 177
 demands for monetary contributions, 195 political settlement between Afghan government and, 75 questioning of Afghans about their relationships with, 142, 144 rise in levels of violence perpetrated by, 104 territory controlled by, 197 Taliban insurgency, 171 Taliban regime, 35, 131, 154 tax/taxation, 72, 74, 102, 140, 147, 148, 195, 245
- traders
 citizenship issues, 7–8 diversification strategies, 20 forging of transnational routes and nodes of circulation, 9 importance of consular support from foreign states, 17 importance of flexibility, 14
 sense of pride and professional accomplishment, 10
- trading networks
 comparative historical approach, 117–21 conditions for success, 18 cosmopolitanism in, 166–69 geopolitics and, 258–62 implications for the foreign policies of weaker countries, 59 implications of structural differences, 60 multidimensionality of networks, 56 overview of inter-Asian networks, 3–8 polycentric networks, multinodal vs mononodal, 60 role of in resilience against shocks, 57 role of neighbourhoods, 20 Saxer's 'pathway' concept, 56 significance of historical processes, 255 structures, dynamics and geographies, 60–61 two especially significant types, 60
- translators, 66, 119, 218
- transport companies
 Afghan traders' arrangements with in former Soviet countries, 65 function, 35
 importance of personal relationships with officials, 35 role of Afghanistan's Soviet-trained fighter pilots, 35–36

- trust
 Afghan traders' models of trust, mistrust and entrustment, 262–65
 and durability of trading networks, 13, 20–22, 32, 220 impact of boarding school upbringing on establishment of, 64 importance for network ties, 13 shared consumption of food and, 222 significance to family life in Afghanistan, 204
- Turkestan, 90, 94
- Turkey
 Central Asian émigrés relocation to, 106–14
 immigration policy, 114
 institutional life, 107–12, 118
 labour migration from northern Afghanistan, 197
 Lapis Lazuli Corridor, 196
 national identity and, 108–9
 'pivot to the East' policy, 18, 108, 117, 259
 political activities, 109
 political and cultural implications of Turkish citizenship, 114–16 as relocation destination, 160
- Turkmenistan, 86
 Afghanistan government's strategy to improve trade with, 196 introduction of policies targeting commercial activities of Afghan traders, 61
- UAE (United Arab Emirates)
 Central Asian émigrés relocation to, 105–6 deportation of Afghan merchants, 37, 261, 264 impact of tensions with Iran on Afghan traders, 37
- Ukraine
 Afghan traders' experiences of, 5, 43, 61, 67–69, 79, 83, 176, 178–79, 182–83, 203, 205 Afghans educated in, 4, 19 attitudes of traders towards conflict with Russia, 79–80 clandestine migration of Afghans to the EU from, 78 community organisations, 77–78 decline in the value of currency, 67 impact of the conflict on trade, 37, 70, 174, 179
- mercenary background of some traders, 36 role of Afghans in the conflict, 36 traders' relationships with the authorities, 72–74 transport and capital links with China, 29, 65 see also Odessa.
- undocumented migrants, 66, 69, 70–71, 72–73, 114
- United Kingdom (UK)
 fieldwork conducted in London, 2 Sikh and Hindu communities, 169–70, 174
 relationships with Muslim Afghan traders, 185–87
- United States (US)
 distant neighbour role, 31
 New Silk Road strategy, see New Silk Road. sanctions on Iran, 126, 140
 US-led invasion and occupation of Afghanistan, 66, 108, 192, 198 unregulated economy, 16
- Uyghurs, 3, 37
- Uzbekistan, encouragement of Afghan merchants' investment, 62
- Van Schendel, Willem, 265
 Venkatesh, Sudhir, 40
 Vietnamese exchange agents, 73–74 violence, Afghan traders' relationship with, 34 Vora, Neha, 97
- 'War on Drugs', 265
 'war on terror', 167, 265
- Watan Trading Centre, Sevastopol, 70, 72, 76
- water, scarcity in north-western Afghanistan, 197
- West Asia
 traders' institution-building efforts, 257
 Turkey's 'look east' policy and the concept of, 18
- West Asian corridor of connectivity, 31, 86 citizenship and residency rights of traders, 98
 citizenship dilemmas of traders in Saudi Arabia, 98–102 significance within the wider Eurasian arena, 89–92 the region and its connections, 86–89 the region and its inhabitants, 92–96

300 Index

- West Asian corridor of connectivity (cont.)
 trading networks, comparative historical approach, 117–21
see also Central Asian émigrés.
- Western Europe, traders' interest in securing residency in, 157
- women
 life in Turkey, 113
 life in Yiwu, 150, 152
 potential challenges of moving to Kazakhstan for, 105
- World Trade Organization (WTO), China's accession to, 3, 119, 124, 161
- Xi Jinping, 2
- Xinjiang
 impact of Chinese policy towards Uyghur and Kazakh Muslims, 37–38 impact of security state on traders, 261 surveillance practices, 37, 139 tourism, 3
 visits to as trigger for surveillance, 226
- Yama (trader), 202–6, 208–9
- Yemen, role of Afghans in the conflict, 36
- Yiwu
 Afghan restaurants, 238–41
 Afghan traders' religious activities, 142–44
 Afghan trading community, 122
 Afghan-Pakistan cross-border trade and, 131–32
 Belt and Road Initiative and, 31, 123, 124–26, 128, 160
 'capitalist supermarket' depiction, 126, 158 celebrating Nowruz in, 223–25 challenges for family life of foreign traders, 149–52, 159 China's accession to the WTO and, 161 Chinese money transfer restrictions, 126, 147 co-existence of diverse trading networks, 123 commercial and geopolitical significance, 191 conceptions of the city, 126–28 consequences of traders' inability to secure citizenship or long-term residency, 159 cultural life, 152–55 development as trading hub, 123, 124–26 development of Central Asian trade routes and, 131 different expectations of Yiwu's status as an inter-Asian commercial node, 122 disadvantages for traders of being born in Afghanistan, 149 dispute resolution scheme, 40 distribution of ethno-religious networks, 144–46, 159 Eurasian geopolitical implications, 159
 fieldwork conducted in, 2
 freight train routes, 125
 Futian market, 43, 125–26, 128–30, 135, 140, 141, 182, 226, 234 future of as a trading node for international networks, 125 global significance for trade of everyday commodities, 123 impact of e-commerce, 126 impermanence of life for international traders, 160 implications of Chinese residency and currency regulations for Afghan traders, 148–52 influence as site of sociological reproduction, 148–52 interactions with Central Asian émigré merchants in, 90
 'international trade reform pilot city' status, 125 introduction of new visa policy, 159 leisure and tourism, 128 likelihood of Afghan traders to invest capital in, 155–56
 location, 5
 main international languages of trade and sociality, 130 marriages of Afghan traders to Chinese women, 156 Muslim communities, 141 place-making practices of traders in, see place-making practices of traders in Yiwu.
 places of worship, 141
 as relocation target of Xinjiang-based traders, 261 role in Afghan trading networks, 147–48, 155–58 schools, 141
 significance as a commercial node, 255 social and intercultural mixing, 140–44 spatial organisation, 144–46, 159 surveillance of UK passport-holders, 226 temporal dynamics, 137

Index

301

- Tianhe and Fuyuan Towers, significance for the city's Afghans, 130–34 trade and infrastructure, 147–48
Yiwu's Afghan traders at home in Kabul, 192–95
Yusuf Aka (trader), 198
Zahir Shah, King of Afghanistan, 82, 165
Zeytinburnu neighbourhood, Istanbul, 87, 104, 108–9, 110–13, 114, 118, 243, 245, 249
Afghan restaurants, 236–37
Zia (trader), 1, 2, 10, 258