

Index

- abduction, 168, 170
- abusive parents, 18, 140, 149–158, 165, 201, 241
- adult children, 34–39, 57
  - autonomy of, 168–171, 220, 244
  - dilemmas faced by, 51–53
  - disciplining, 95–96
  - economic independence of, 247
  - labor and earnings of, 173
  - managing, 123–129
  - marriage arrangement with consent of, 174–181
  - parental abuse, lack of redress for, 24
  - parental authority over, 116–117
  - parental authority over, weakening of, 18, 222–223
  - parent killing of, 82
- adultery, 1–2, 168
- adult identity, construction of, 4
- adult sons, 16–17, 60–64, 72
  - accusations against, 27
  - aged parents, care for by, 78–79
  - disciplining, 247
  - hierarchy between parents and, 56
  - household division and property rights of, 64–72
  - widowed mothers authority over, 72
- aged parents, financial support for, 18
- alcohol, crimes under influence of, 148
- ancestral sacrifice, 9, 10
- ancestral worship, 10
- anti-filial discontent, literary treatment of, 90
- anti-filial-piety movement, 19
- authoritarian party-state, 6
- autonomous adulthood, raising minor children to achieve, 18
- autonomous individuals, family members treated as, 6
- Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara, 8–9
- Book of Documents* (Shangshu), 10
- Book of Odes*, 123–124
- Book of Rites*, 128
- Book of Rites: Great Learning*, 4
- brotherly reverence, 95
- Buddhism, 8–9
- buxiao* (lack of filial piety), 11
- Chen Duxiu (1879–1942), 242
- Chen Hongmou, 91
- Chiang Kai-shek (1887–1975), 230–231
- Chihua Wen, 248–249
- child abuse cases, 16, 166
- child labor, 138
- children
  - death of, 25
  - labor, 18
  - protection of, 140, 149–158, 165, 246
  - state punishment of, 1–2
  - testimony against parents, 106
- children's rights, 18, 141, 167, 201, 204
- child welfare advocacy, 166
- China
  - international order, weakness in, 131
  - legal and social transformation in, 17–18
  - military and economic power, 18
  - parent–child relations role in making of modern, 7
  - rebirth as modern state, 19
  - religious traditions in, 8–9
- Chinese Communist Party (CCP), 242, 252
- Chinese ethics, traditional, 3–4
- Chinese legal and cultural history, core questions in, 13
- Christianity, 8
- citizens
  - connecting to state, 205, 206–215, 238, 244, 247
  - raising productive, 201
- citizenship, modern, construction of, 171–172, 203

290 Index

- Communist government (1949–present)
 filiality cult, struggle to overcome under, 5
 Nationalist government compared to, 249–250
 parenthood under, 247
 Communist regime, rise of, 19
 Confucianism
   ascendance of, 12
   early influences on, 9
   filial piety beyond, 8–13
   forces reshaping, 12 law deviations from, 95, 123–125
   law versus morality, 3 triumph of, 10
Conspectus of Judicial Cases, 14 crimes, family member concealment of each other's, 10, 125, See also parents: crimes, mandatory concealment of criminal justice, hybrid system of, 140 criminal punishment categories, 1
 Cultural Revolution (1966–76), 19, 247–249, 250
- Daoism, 8
 death penalty degrees and forms of, 1
   for parricide, 16–17, 23–24, 25, 40–48, 246
   offenses resulting in, 1
 Ding Linghua, 9
 dynastic succession, 130, 234
- early Republican government (1912–28)
 filiality cult, struggle to overcome under, 5
 generational order under, 140
 marriage under, 172, 174–181
 parenthood under, 173–174
 early Republican law (1912–28), 18 elderly, care of, 250–251
 elopement, 169–170, 171 emperor as grandfather, 101 emperor as parent. See also ruler as father-mother authority of, 95
   fatherland as replacement for, 5–6
   father-mother, 123–125
 empire-to-nation transformation family remaking and, 18–19
   generational dynamics, impact on, 7–8, 200–201
   imperial cult of filiality sharing of, 13 legal and political developments in, 205
- parent-child relations in, 6, 140, 141–149
 Qing role in, 92, 138–139
 realignments in, 201–202
 structural changes in, 14
 Epstein, Maram, 4, 8, 61, 98–99, 120–121 extended families, 10
- fa* (law), 17, 95–96, 123–129
 false accusations court system exploited through, 62–63 filicide used to make, 73–83, 91–92
   in Qing law, 246
   of lacking filial piety, 17, 63, 83–89, 91–92, 166
 familism, 239, 243
 familist (jiazu zhuyi) law, 6 family as only trustworthy institution, 250 imperial China and Rome compared, 111–123
   modernizing, state challenges in, 5 new views of, 206
   remaking, 18–19
   restructuring, 18, 166
 family disputes, state involvement in, 129–130
 family ethics, 4–5
 family law, revolutionizing of, 205 family order, 141, 205 family reform, 225, 241 state-sponsored, 3
   under Nationalist state, 200
   under Republican rule, 19 family relations changes in, 204
   social perceptions in, 247
   state regulation of, 6–7, 136, 167 family revolution, 19, 224–225 family-state relations, 239–240 family values, 63, 252
 fatherland, loyalty and sacrifice required by, 5–6
 father-mother (imperial China)
   and paterfamilias (Rome) compared, 95, 111–123
   emperor as, 123–125
   ruler as, 124–125, 130
   state as, 239
 father-son cardinal bond, denouncing of, 18–19, 238
 felons, parents cared for by, 90
 feminism, 166
 filial disobedience, 58, 126–127
 filial duty, 26–33

Index

291

- filiality, cult of, 12, 13, 61, 63, 90, 201
  - and patria potestas (Rome) compared, 95
  - departure from, 201
  - elements derived from, 240
  - imperial, 95
  - legally sanctioned, 3
- filial obedience, 58
- filial piety. See also state-sponsored filiality
  - agency reinforcing, 90
  - as generational relations axis, 3–8
  - Confucianism and, 8–13
  - cult of, 94
  - de-emphasis on, 199
  - differing views on, 205
  - in Ming dynasty, 5
  - in Qing law, 5, 246
  - in Republican era, 203
  - lacking, false accusations of, 17, 63, 83–89
  - lack of, 17, 25, 61
  - language of, applying, 64
  - modern life and, 11
  - ruling through, 3, 93–94, 129–130, 238, 241, 246–247
  - separation from state legitimation, 148
  - shift away from, 141, 206
  - state-sponsored revival of, 19
  - state sponsorship of, 62, 244
  - statism replacing principle of, 239–240
  - studies on, 8
  - toward state, 238–239, 251, 252
  - writings on, 10, 245
- filial piety law, 5–6, 11–12
- filial sons and daughters, commemorating, 58
- filicide
  - cases involving, 16
  - committing, 15
  - creditors framed through, 17
  - instrumental use of, 63, 73–83, 91–92
  - in urban setting, 165
  - penalty for, 91, 246
  - superior–inferior relations and, 125
- future generations, emphasis on, 141
- Gabbiani, Luca, 148
- Gao Dengting, 200
- generational (defined), 7
- gender equality, 7
- gender hierarchy, 7
- gender order
  - compromises on, 92
  - mother circumventing of, 63
  - overcoming, 246
  - reversal of, 61
  - under early Republican and Nationalist states, 140
- generational dynamics, 7–8, 200–201
- generational equality, 7
- generational hierarchies, 18–19, 90
- generational power dynamics, shift in, 6, 201
- generational relations, 15
  - filial piety as axis of, 3–8
  - in empire-to-nation transformation, 201–202
  - in Republic, 166
  - investigating, 200–201
  - research on, 7
  - state regulation of, afterlife of, 19
  - state-sponsored reconfiguration of, 18–19
- generations, equilibrium of power between, 139–140
- granddaughter, sexual abuse of, 106
- grandfather, emperor in role of, 101
- grandparents, 4, 95
- Great Learning, 124–125, 126
- Great Qing Code. See Qing Code
- grown-up children (sons and daughters). See adult children
- grown-up sons. See adult sons
- Guanyin (deity), 8–9
- guojia* (state-family) (term), 3
- Gutherz, Harald, 141
- Han dynasty, 10
- Han Fei (?–233 BCE), 126–127
- He Aigui, 168–170, 171
- Heaven, parenting all under, 17
- Heavenly Father, 8
- Heavenly principles, 129
- He Dongji, 168–170, 171
- hierarchy, reciprocity in context of, 124–125
- Honor your father and your mother (in Ten Commandments), 8
- household division, 64–72
- household property, 63
- Hsieh Bao Hua, 137
- Huang, Phillip, 61, 137
- Hu Changxing, 60–64
- Hu Hanmin (1879–1936), 146, 204, 215–216
- humanitarian values, 92
- human trafficking, 135–137
- husband–wife hierarchy, 144–146
- Hu Xuanyi, 147

292 Index

- ideology, building of, 19
- imperial insignia, 57–58
- imperial state, local actor relations with, 64
- incest, 23–25
- individual-based legislation, 243
- initiative and liability, distribution of, 125
- intergenerational disagreement, 101–102
- Islamic tradition, 8
- Japanese-controlled collaborationist regimes, 15
- Javers, Quinn, 62
- Jewish laws and ethics, 8
- Jiangjin county, 15
- Jiang Qishun, 23–25
- Jiang Qishun, son of, 23–25
- Jiang Yuan Shi, 23–24
- Jiaqing emperor, 123–124, 126
- Jin Genzhu, 135–137, 139
- Ji Xianzhao, 135–137, 139
- joss paper store, 60, 63
- Jun Zhang, 251
- Keliher, Macabe, 128
- Knapp, Keith, 9–10
- Kuang-Hui Yeh, 10–11
- Kutcher, Norman, 128
- Lao Naixuan (1843–1921), 144–145
- late imperial Chinese law, 2–3
- law
  - national and local perspectives integrated through, 13–14
  - parental order in conflict with, 1–2
- legal cases, empire-to-nation transformation structural changes illustrated through, 14
- Legalist notions, 95
- Legalist rule, 127
- legal majority (concept), 18, 170–171
- legal practice and culture, gap between, 15
- li* (rites and prescribed moral codes), 17
- Liang Qichao (1873–1929), 238–239
- Li Ji, 147
- lineage
  - boundaries, crossing of, 246
  - expulsion from, 72
  - marriage uniting of, 172, 175
  - politics and, 9
  - sons to carry on father's, 78
  - state encroachment on autonomy of, 118
  - succession and property inheritance, 192
  - survival of, 82
  - women's property rights and, 65
- Lin Fuqing, 168–170, 171
- Liu Shun, 148
- Liu Yuanji, 100–102
- Liu Zhiqing, 52–53
- local actors
  - false accusations raised by, 63
  - legally sanctioned filiality exploited by, 17
  - tactics employed by, 90
- local perspectives, national history with, 13–16
- Long Gui, 53–54
- Longquan county, 15
- Long Zhang Shi, 53–54
- loyalty-filiality, criticism of, 242
- Lü Kun (1536–1618), 91
- MacCormack, Geoffrey, 10, 11, 12
- majority, age of, 18, 170–171
- male offspring, sacrifice by, 9
- Mandate of Heaven, 130, 233–234
- Maoist anti-family iconoclasm, departure from, 19
- Mao Zedong (1893–1976), 248–250
- marriage
  - in early Republican period, 136–137, 139, 172, 174–181
  - in Nationalist period, 230–231, 237
  - instrumental approach to, 200
  - purpose, shift in, 18
  - self-determination in, 172, 181–190
  - state-family relations in context of, 6–7
  - transformation of, 172, 173
  - young people's attitude toward, 200
- marriage arrangement
  - debates over, 199
  - in early Republican law (1912–28), 136
- May, Reinhard, 128
- Miaoshan, Princess, 8–9
- Ming dynasty (1368–1644), 5
- mother-child attachment
- mother-son relations, 61
- Nakamura Masato, 90
- nation, birth of modern Chinese, 203–204, 234
- national history with local perspectives, 13–16
- nationalism, sacrifice generated by, 244
- Nationalist government (1928–49)
  - Civil and Criminal Codes, 146–147, 204
  - Communist system compared to, 249–250
- family reform under, 200
- filiality cult, struggle to overcome under, 5

Index

293

- generational order under, 140
- marriage under, 172, 181–190
- parent–child bond in, 165–166
- parenthood under, 169, 174
- radical reforms under, prelude to, 139
- Nationalist Party, 203–204, 240, 249
- nation building, 18
- nation-state
  - and political dynasty, connection between, 3
  - citizen loyalty to, 247
  - parenthood connection to, 201
- natural parental love, 124
- New Culture Movement, 242–243
- New Life Movement (1934–49), 243
- Ng, Vivian, 23–24
- One Supreme Authority, united under, 95, 102–111
- Pao K. Chao, 10
- parens patriae*, 140
- parental authority, 6, 201–202, 241
  - children's rights versus, 18, 141, 167, 201, 204
  - emperor assuming role of, 95
  - grandparents' authority overpowering, 95
  - late imperial China and Roman patria potestas compared, 95
  - law in conflict with, 1–2
  - limiting, 130–130
  - protecting, 243–244
  - state enforcement of, 18
  - state overruling of, 1–2
  - temporary nature of, 244
  - violent approach toward, 19
  - weakening of, 205, 247
- parental guardianship (concept), 203
- parental infallibility
  - and authority, 16–17
  - as enduring principle, 130
  - Confucian teachings versus, 124
  - ethical-legal notion of, 94–95
  - in Qing law, 246
  - institutions upholding, 58
  - Legalist notions of, 127
  - local actor belief in, 101–102
  - myth, disintegration of, 141
  - notion of, 17
  - Republican adjudication treatment of, 148
- parental instruction (legal concept), 25–26, 48–56, 58
- parent–child hierarchy
  - and ruler–subject hierarchy, 95
  - exploiting privilege in, 91–92
  - familial relations under umbrella of, 95
  - gender order reversed in, 61
  - historical development and gender dynamics of, 95
  - husband–wife hierarchy compared to, 144–146
  - in Republican state, 139–140
  - opposition to, 129
  - state and social understanding of, 4
  - state law supporting, 16
  - state prioritizing of, 63, 241
  - state sponsorship, reduced of, 203
  - toppling of, 13
- parent–child relations, 7–8, 18, 131, 141, 167, 201, 204
  - asymmetry in, 62–63, 91
  - Confucian versus Legalist influences on, 95
  - emotional and social bonds, 4
  - equalization of, 205
  - in Confucian context, 11
  - in early Republican state, 140
  - in empire-to-nation transformation, 6, 141–149
  - in Qing dynasty, 16, 92, 124, 125, 130
  - law regulation of, 14
  - legal equality in, 139
  - Legalist notions concerning, 127
  - legal mechanisms of, 94
  - normative discourse on, 10
  - normative notions, local actor role in reinforcing, 17
  - and party–citizen relations, 203–204
  - reconceptualizing, 15
  - state regulation of, 63–64
  - vernacular understanding concerning, 137
- parenthood
  - as transitory guardianship, 169, 170–172, 201, 204
  - relationship to state building, 131
  - transformation of, 166, 171–172, 241, 245
- parents
  - abusive, 18, 140, 149–158, 165, 201, 241
  - children beaten to death by, 4
  - children's challenge of, 205, 225
  - children's legal actions against, 140–141, 158–165
  - child testimony against, 106

294 Index

- parents (cont.)
  - crimes, mandatory concealment of, 16–17, 24–25, 26–33, 57, 58
  - felons permitted to care for, 90
  - inflicting injury on, 2
  - obligations to living, 9–10
  - physical violence against, 147–148
  - plot to kill, 11
  - proper behavior toward, 56–57
  - property rights of, 18
  - Republican law and, 165
  - reverence for, 8, 9
  - sale of children by, 135–137, 246
- parricides
  - mitigating circumstances, 148–149
  - plot to kill parents, 11
  - punishment for (as deterrent), 57
  - punishment for (beheading), 23–24
  - punishment for (slicing), 16–17, 25, 40–48, 246
  - testimony about, 106
- party–citizen relations, 203–204
- paterfamilias* (Rome), 95, 111–123
- Pater Patriae*, 241
- Pater Patriae* cult, 205–206, 224–238
- patria potestas* (Rome), 95
- patrilinealism, 9, 11
- People's Republic of China (1949–present), 5, 247, 249–250
- Pines, Yuri, 9
- political dynasty and nation-state,
  - connection between, 3
- political hierarchies, 5
- power and liability, distribution of, 94–95, 96–102
- power dynamics, 16, 94
- property
  - control over, 63
  - custodial rights of, 64–72, 172–173, 190–199
- Qing Code
  - as source material, 14
  - child slavery addressed in, 138, 246
  - overview of, 1
  - revision of, 92, 138–139
- Qing dynasty (1644–1911)
  - administration and moral penetration of
    - local society, 6
  - filial values promoted by, 5
  - Legalist rule of, 127
  - parent–child and ruler–subject hierarchies in, 16
  - parent–child bond in, 165–166, 201
  - political order, state-sponsored filiality
    - integration with, 17
  - reform measures, 138–139, 140, 204–205
- Qing law
  - Nationalist law compared to, 147
  - overview of, 245–247
  - Republican law replacing, 18
- Qing New Policy Reform (1902–11), 143
- Qu Tongzu, 111–112
- Ransmeier, Johanna, 136
- rape, 23–25
- rebellion
  - condemnation of, 123
  - state stimulation of, 201
- rebellious children, 16–17, 23, 24, 57
  - in Republican state, 140, 148–149
  - language describing, 249
  - punishing
- rebellious sons, 25, 33–39
  - cases involving, 60–64
  - punishing
- reciprocity, 124–125
- Republic of China (1912–49)
  - family reform under, 19
  - generational equality versus gender equality under, 7
  - People's Republic of China compared to, 247
  - reforms under, 131
- ritual mourning obligations, 24
- role ethics, 3–4
- Routine Memorials of the Board of Punishments*, 14
- ruler as father–mother, 124–125, 130
- ruler–subject hierarchy (Qing dynasty), 95
- ruler–subject relations (Qing dynasty)
  - citizen–state relations (20th century) compared to, 240
  - Confucian versus Legalist influences on, 95
  - Legalist notions concerning, 127
  - parent–child relations linked to, 16, 94, 124, 125, 130
  - sybiotic relationship between parent–child relations and, 92
- Sacred Edict*, 93–94
- Self-Strengthening Movement, 5
- semi-colony, China as, 6
- sentimental family, parent–child relations in
  - context of, 4
- sexual abuse, 106

Index

295

- sexuality, state–family relations in context of, 6–7 sexual order, transgression of, 62
 Shen Fu (1763–1825), 57
 slavery, abolition of, 138
 social disintegration, 19
 social order
   breakdown of, 19 establishing new, 149
 social relations, new standards concerning, 136 state as ultimate parent, 205, 215–224, 244 state building parenthood relationship to, 131
   Pater Patriae cult in Nationalist, 205–206, 224–238 scholarship on, 6–7
 state–citizen relationship. See also citizens:
   connecting to state
   description of, 240
   establishing new system of, 5–6 state-sponsored filiality, 90, 94, 101–102 and imperial rulership, 17 at local level, 12–13, 14–15
   disintegration of, 131
   exploiting, 174–181
   ideology and socio-legal institutions concerning, reforming, 18
   legal mechanisms of, 12–13
   li-fa relationship and, 95–96 negotiating with, 64 reform of, 6
 statism, 239–240, 243
 statist (guojia zhuyi) law, 6 sui (defined), 1–2 suicide, 1–2, 28, 47–48, 52–55, 87–89, 109
 Sullivan, Lawrence, 243
 Sun Jiahong, 112
 Sun Yat-sen (1866–1925), 203–204, 205–206, 228–233, 234–238, 240, 249

 Taiping Heavenly Kingdom, 5
 Taiping leaders, 8
 Tang Code, 12, 209
 Tang law, 115, 128
 Tan Sitong (1865–98), 127
 Ten Commandments, 8

 Tian Fuyou, 106
 Tian Li, 106
 transactional family building, 136–137 transitory guardianship, 18

 unfilial children, punishment of, 16–17, 57
 unfiliality, instigating or teaching, 12 united under the most revered (principle), 17, 107–108, 110–111
 urbanization, 165, 166

 Wang Dacai, 1–2, 4–5, 13
 Wang Hebao, 1–2
 Wang Rongbao (1878–1933), 146
 Wang Yan Shi, 35–36, 58
 Wang Yukuan, 35–36, 58
 Warring States period, 10
 Washington, myth of, 228–229
 Weber, Max, 111
 wedding ceremony (Nationalist period), 230–231, 237 Western Zhou period, 9, 10
 widowed mothers, 17, 35, 60–64, 65–66, 168–170
 wifely obedience, 95
 women
   property rights of, 65–66
   women, legal status of, 61 women, oppression of, 23–24

xiao (concept), 9–10
 Xiao Qi, 128
 Xing Lu, 248
 Xu Heyun, 168–169, 170
 Xu Zhenyao, 148

 Yang Chen Shi, 60–64
 Yang Shiqing, 60–64
 Yuan Bin, 91
 Yuan Mei (1716–98), 91
 Yu Xuerui, 147–148

 Zarrow, Peter, 125–126, 239–240
 Zhang Hongbing, 249, 250
 Zhang Wuwei, 56–57, 58
 Zhang Zhidong (1837–1909), 8, 130
 Zhao Ma, 170, 171