

Contents

Preface	page ix
List of Abbreviations	xiv
Introduction: Filial Piety beyond Confucianism	1
Part I Ruling the Empire through the Principle of Filiality	21
1 “Parents Can Never Be Wrong”: Punishing Rebellious Children as a Didactic Show	23
2 Policies and Counterstrategies: Negotiating State-Sponsored Filiality in the Everyday	60
3 “Parenting All under Heaven on Behalf of Heaven”: State-Sponsored Filiality and Imperial Rulership	93
Part II Building the Nation through Restructuring the Family	133
4 Reorienting Parent–Child Relations: From Parents’ Authority to Children’s Rights	135
5 Reconceptualizing Parent–Child Relations: From Lifelong Parental Privilege to Transitory Guardianship	168
6 A Constitutional Agenda: Remaking the Family to Make a New State	203
Conclusion: Filial Piety toward the State	242
Glossary	254
Bibliography	270
Index	289