

Contents

List of Figures, Maps and Tables	page ix
Acknowledgements	x
List of Abbreviations	xii
Introduction: ‘Another generation of jail-birds’	1
Case Study 1 ‘The terrible temptation’: Mary Enright	33
1 ‘A powerful engine in reforming the prisoner’: The Prison Framework and the Convict Body and Mind	39
Case Study 2 ‘A gang of coiners’: The Carroll Family	81
2 ‘A strange medley of character do these prisoners’ friends present’: Family Ties	93
Case Study 3 ‘The workhouse girls’: Arson in the South Dublin Union	129
3 ‘Even in prison, they have those extreme friendships, antipathies, and jealousies’: Convict Relationships	135
Case Study 4 ‘A person of very superior attainments’: Delia Lidwill	175
4 ‘At first she refused to say how she got it’: Networks of Acquisition	181

viii Contents

Case Study 5 ‘A most remote part of the country’: Suspected Murder in Mayo	205
5 ‘I will be very desolate leaving Prison’: Liberation	215
Conclusion: ‘I think of the time that you and myself ust [used] to be to gether’	255
Bibliography	261
Index	287