CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of Figures</th>
<th>page x</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List of Tables</td>
<td>xii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>xv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>List of Abbreviations</td>
<td>xx</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1 Introduction 1

The Puzzling Broad Social Base of a Radical Uprising 4
Perspectives on a City That Refuses to Die 8
Cities and States in World Capitalism 12
Method and Outline: Capital, Empire, and Resistance 15

2 At Empires’ Edge, 1197–1997 22
Fishers and Empires 24
Agrarian Conflicts from Manchu to British Rule 27
Urban Industrial Class Formation 33
Hong Kong in the Longue Durée 39

Part I Capital

3 The Making of China’s Offshore Financial Center 45
The Hong Kong Gateway from Mao’s Autarky to the China Boom 47
International Foundations of Hong Kong’s Financial Centrality after 1997 51
The Rise of Mainland Chinese Capital 59
The Nexus of RMB Internationalization 63
Table of Contents

4  The Mainlandization of Business Monopolies 72
   The CCP–Local Business Elite Ruling Coalition 72
   The Displacement of Local Capital by Mainland Capital 76
   The Political Ascendancy of the Mainland Business Elite 83
   Hong Kong in the US–China Rivalry 96

Part II  Empire

5  “One Country, Two Systems” before Hong Kong 105
   The Frontier Questions from the Qing Empire to the Chinese Nation 107
   From Autonomy to Bloodbath in 1950s Tibet 112
   The Taiwan and Hong Kong Questions in the Mao Era 117

6  From Autonomy to Coercive Assimilation 122
   Forging a United Front in Support of Sovereignty Handover 122
   Racialist Nationalism and National Security 129
   Seeing Hong Kong Like an Empire 136
   The Making of the CCP’s Direct Rule 140

Part III  Resistance

7  The Class Politics of Democratic Movements 151
   The Genesis of the Hong Kong Democratic Movement 153
   The Advance of the Middle-Class Democrats 155
   New Social Movements and Radicalization 161

8  Hong Kong as a Political Consciousness 172
   Latent Localism in Social and Democratic Movements 173
   On the Hong Kong City State 177
   The Dawn of Localist Politics 183
Contents

- The Occupy Movement 187
- The Militants, the Separatists, and Hong Kong Self-Determination 193

9 Conclusion: Endgame or New Beginning? 198
- The Early Arrival of 2047 201
- Financial Centrality on the Line 206
- Hong Kong’s Future in Comparative and Global Perspective 209

Glossary 218
Notes 224
References 251
Index 277