

Contents

List of Figures	page ix
Acknowledgements	x
Note on the Text	xii
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction: Party in History and Politics
1 Background, Contexts, and Discourses	12
2 Rapin on the Origins and Nature of Party Division in Britain	40
3 Bolingbroke's Country Party Opposition Platform	77
4 David Hume's Early Essays on Party Politics	111
5 Faction Detected? Pulteney, Perceval, and the Tories	140
6 Hume on the Parties' Speculative Systems of Thought	151
7 Hume and the History of Party in England	174
8 Political Transformations during the Seven Years' War: Hume and Burke	201
9 'Not Men, But Measures': John Brown on Free Government without Faction	214
10 Edmund Burke and the Rockingham Whigs	238
11 Burke's Thoughts on the Cause of the Present Discontents	253

viii	Contents
12	Burke and His Party in the Age of Revolution	277
13	Burke and the Scottish Enlightenment	309
	Conclusion	326
	Bibliography	336
	Index	368