

Contents

Foreword
William Twining	page ix
Acknowledgements	xii
Notes on Contributors	xiii
List of Images	xix

INTRODUCTION

Where the ‘Real Action’ Is: From Comparative Law to Cosmopolitan Jurisprudence
Helge Dedek	3

PART I THE TRADITION OF COMPARATIVE LAW: CONTEXT, HISTORY, PROMISE

1 How to Do Comparative Law: Some Lessons to Be Learned
Mauro Bussani	29
2 The ‘Comparative Method’ at the Roots of Comparative Law
Giorgio Resta	44
3 The Value of Micro-Comparison
John Bell	64
4 Sociocultural Challenges for Comparative Legal Studies in Mixed Legal Systems
Esin Örücü	83
5 Breaking Barriers in Comparative Law
Michele Graziadei	97

PART II THE CONCEPT OF TRADITION: POTENTIAL AND CHALLENGES
6	Too Much Information Martin Krygier	117
7	Legal Systems as Legal Traditions Catherine Valcke	143
8	Learning from Patrick Glenn: Tradition, Change, and Innovation David Nelken	161
9	The Sunni Legal Tradition: An Overview of Pluralism, Formalism, and Reform Ahmed Fekry Ibrahim	180
10	Commensurability, Comparative Law, and Confucian Legal Tradition Marie Seong-Hak Kim	202
PART III CROSSING BOUNDARIES: CULTURAL TRANSFER, LEGAL COSMOPOLITANISM, AND THE DISSOLUTION OF THE STATE
11	The School of Salamanca: A Common Law? Thomas Duve	223
12	The Un-Common Law Vivian Grosswald Curran	236
13	The Fabric of Normative Translation in Law Ko Hasegawa	249
14	Statehood as Process: The Modern State Between Closure and Openness Gunnar Folke Schuppert	267
15	Cosmopolitan Attachments Neil Walker	280
	H Patrick Glenn: Publications	292
	Index	299