

Contents

List of figures	page vi
Preface to the second edition (2020)	vii
Introduction	1
1 Three historiographical configurations	6
2 Politicians and diplomats: Why war and for what aims?	34
3 Generals and ministers: Who commanded and how?	59
4 Soldiers: How did they wage war?	82
5 Businessmen, industrialists, and bankers: How was the economic war waged?	109
6 Workers: Did war prevent or provoke revolution?	126
7 Civilians: How did they make war and survive it?	152
8 Agents of memory: Witnesses and historians, 1918–2000: how did the memory of the First World War unfold over the course of the twentieth century?	173
9 A new century: The age of the Internet	193
10 Writing the history of the Great War, 2000–2020	214
Conclusion: After the Centenary	232
Select bibliography 1914–2020	242
Index	278