Index

Abu Salim Massacre, 50–52, 96
Ahrar al-Sham, 8
Akhbar Libya (newspaper), 51
Alawites, 102, 124, 214
Al-Salaam (newspaper), 64
Amazigh, 47–48, 51–53, 185, See also Libyan Tamazight Congress, Tmazight language, World Amazigh Conference
American Association of Yemeni Scientists and Professionals, 69, 83, 131
American Libyan Freedom Alliance, 51
Amnesty International, 204
Arab Congress, first, 56
Arab Spring uprising authoritarian responses to, 8
beginnings, 6–7, 93
and conflict transmission, 93
and emergence of diaspora activism, 2, 9, 94
and Libyan exiles, 9, 45
Libyan regime responses to, 96–97, 113
and mobilizing structures, 116
and Syrian dissent, 101–2
and Syrian exiles, 10, 45
Syrian regime responses to, 101–2 and Yemeni dissent, 109–10
and Yemeni exiles, 11, 45
Yemeni regime responses to, 109
Arab Workers League, 66
Arab Workers Union, 65
Arab-Israeli war, 45, 57
Assad, Bashar al-, 8
attempts at “reform”, 59
Assad, Hafez al-, 57
authoritarian regimes durability of, 2
transnational nature of, 35
Ba’ath Party, 57
Barada TV, 180–81
Ben Ali, Zine El Abidine, 6
British Solidarity for Syria, 149, 159 broadcasting, 153, 176
and awareness raising, 142
challenges to, 139–40
demonstrations, 141–42, 144, 146–47, 154, 176, 220
as diaspora activity, 14, 26
as response to propaganda, 141
use of social media, 140–42
brokering, 14, 26, 155–56, 158, 185
#ChicagoGirl (documentary), 159
Caesar file, 150
Cameron, David, 211, 219
capital conversion, 175, 183–84, 187, 190–91, 221–22
Center for Political and Strategic Studies, 119 chemical weapon attacks (in Syria), 8, 130, 163, 194, 213–14, 231 Christians (as minority), 44, 56, 124, 152
cohort, 51
of Alawis, 57
and demonstrations, 127, 134
as horizontal networks, 32
Leftist, 211
pan-Arab, 231
Index

- early resistance to, 49–50
- and Western rapprochement, 52–53, 84
- Gaddafi, Saif al-Islam, 53
- reforms of, 81, 84–85, 113
- response to Arab Spring, 9–10
- responses to reforms, 84–85
- student political engagement, 99

- Islamic State (ISIS), 216
- and Syrian revolution, 214–15, 217
- and Syrian war, 8
- Syrian diaspora opposition to, 150

- Jamahiriya, 48
- JusticeqLibya, 51

- Karam Foundation, 194, 196
- Kurdish independence, 59, 125–26
- Kurdistan, 59, 125
- Kurds, 5, 25, 57, 71, 86–87, 125, 130

- Leftist groups, 231
- anti-war, 231

- lethal retribution
  - effects on diaspora communities, 74
  - as transnational repression, 72–74

- Libya
  - dissident groups, 51
  - history of, 47–48
  - pre-Arab Spring activism, 50–52, 54
  - under Gaddafi regime, 48–50, 52–53
  - Libya AlHurra, 160
  - Libya Human and Political Development Forum, 51
  - Libya Link, 186, 208
  - Libya Outreach, 141, 148
  - Libya Watanona (Our Homeland Libya), 51
  - Libya Watch, 50, 53, 61, 75, 77–88, 116
  - Libya Women’s Association, 54
  - Libya Youth Movement, 140, 176
  - LibyaFeb 17 (website), 141
  - Libyan American Association of Ohio, 160
  - Libyan Association of Southern California, 54, 80, 217
  - Libyan British Relations Council, 149, 206
  - Libyan Constitutional Union, 74
  - Libyan diaspora
    - community-building efforts, 54–55
    - divisions among activists, 115
    - and Global War on Terrorism, 52
    - isolation among, 79
    - migration of, 49
    - mobilization of, 113–15
    - motivations for activism, 97, 99–100
    - and promotion of Amazigh culture, 51
    - and reintegration efforts of regime, 53
    - responses to Arab Spring, 9–10
    - responses to reforms, 84–85
    - student political engagement, 99

- human rights practice, 14

- Gulf Cooperation Council Agreement, 219–20

- Hama Massacre (1982), 58
- Hezbollah, 8
- Hirschman, Albert, 3, 13, 31
- home-country mass movements, 39
- home-country ties, 33
- and conflict transmission, 33
- and diaspora activism, 175–78
- of diaspora members, 11–12
- as hindrance to mobilization, 38
- and remitting, 177
- and transnational repression, 22, 35

- Human Rights Watch, 205

- humanitarian work, 21

- immigrants
  - 1.5 generation, 19
  - second generation, 11–12, 23, 54, 60, 79–80, 84, 86, 113

- indigenous organizations, 46

- International Criminal Court, 204

- Islamic extremism, 214–17, 220
- Islamic Relief, 221

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

www.cambridge.org
Index

Libyan diaspora (cont.)
unity of against regime, 115
and Western rapprochement, 52
Libyan diaspora activism
as auxiliary force for rebellion, 170
advisory efforts, 183–87
and broadcasting demonstrations, 141
brokering efforts of, 155
and capital conversion, 183–84
coordination of home-country groups, 159
demonstrations, 143
divisions among, 115
joining Free Libyan Army, 167
and legal aid, 186, 188
lobbying efforts of, 148–49
and military advice, 187
and NTC, 148
and quotidian disruptions, 136
remitting efforts of, 160–61, 184
and social capital, 184–85
use of social media, 140
use of television broadcasting, 153
volunteer efforts on the ground, 164–65, 167, 187
Libyan Emergency Task Force, 98, 100, 148, 190, 207–8
Libyan Human Rights Commission, 51, 82
Libyan Humanitarian Action, 160
Libyan Islamic Fighting Group, 50, 52, 81
Libyan Martyrs Militia, 167
Libyan regime
counter-mobilization efforts of, 100–1 reintegration efforts of, 53
Libyan revolution
and diaspora activism, 112–15
and geopolitical support, 206–7
and media attention, 209–10
and NATO, 208
and NGO support, 207
and politicization of diaspora groups, 117
and third-party states, 208–9
and UN Security Council, 208
Libyan Tamazight Congress, 52
Libyan Transitional Council, 160
Libyan Women’s Association, 82
Libyan Women’s Union, 117
lobbying, 148–50, 170, 190
and voice, 149, 152
Local Coordination Committees, 153
long-distance nationalism, 37, 56, 70, 96, 225 loyalty, 40, 55
and diaspora movements, 32
and voice, 3, 13, 31, 33, 96
Malta
as hub for activism, 161, 183, 187, 232
Maram Foundation, 195
Marx, Karl, 30
Matar, Hisham, 74
methodological nationalism, 226
Middle East and North Africa (MENA)
social science view of, 1, 16
Middle Easterner immigration, 44, 203 minorities, ethnic Alawites, 102, 124, 214
Amazigh, 47–48, 51–53, 185
Christians, 44, 56, 124, 132
Kurds, 5, 25, 57, 71, 86–87, 125, 130
Tuareg, 48
mobilizing structures, 116
Mubarak, Hosni, 7
Mukhtar, Omar al–, 8
Muslim Brotherhood, 60, 86
and conflict transmission among Syrian diaspora, 122–24
in Libya, 50, 116
in Yemen, 63
Nabbous, Mohammed, 8
National Association of Syrian and Lebanese American Federations, 56
National Board of South Yemen, 68, 90
National Conference for the Libyan Opposition, 51, 141
National Front for the Salvation of Libya, 49
National Independence Party of Syria, 56
National Liberation Army (Libya), 114
National Liberation Front, 65
National Salvation Front, 60
National Syrian American Expatriate group, 105
National Transitional Council, 113–14, 206, 210
and activist advisory efforts, 185 broadcasting of, 153
and capital conversion, 184
formation of, 97
Libyan diaspora support of, 148
lobbying efforts of, 148
recognition of as legitimate government, 206
and Responsibility to Protect doctrine, 185
volunteering of, 167
Index

NATO, 208
negative coalitions, 95
network ties. See home-country ties
New Syria Party, 56
norm brokerage, 12
Obama, 149, 151, 208, 211, 213, 219
One Hundred Thousand Names Project, 146 online activism, 7, 13–14, 26, 82, 97–98, 104, 138, 141–42, 148 People’s Democratic Republic of Yemen, 63 permanent exile, 76, 82
positionality, political, 14, 232
Power, Samantha, 10, 146, 158, 208
Proclamation of Principles for the Free Syrian Army, 163 professionalization of activism, 192–93 protests, 143
proxy punishment, 75, 77
Public International Law and Policy Group, 163
Qatar
as hub for activism, 21, 142, 153, 163
quotidian disruptions
Arab Spring uprising as, 25
and climate change, 227
and conflict transmission, 26
definition of, 94
and diaspora activism, 26, 94
and Libyan diaspora activism, 136
and Syrian diaspora activism, 136
and voice, 22, 31, 38, 42, 96, 224
Rabita Shamal Afriqiya, 51
red line policy, 213
Red Lines (documentary), 213
regionalism. See conflict transmission remittances. See remitting.
remitting. See also capital conversion
diaspora activity, 27
and home-country ties, 177
and Libyan diaspora activism, 160–61
and Syrian diaspora activism, 161–62
and Yemeni diaspora activism, 163
representation
diaspora activity, 14, 26
resource conversion, 22, 174. See also capital conversion
challenges to, 21, 203
diaspora activism, 14, 40–41, 203
differences in, 175
and geopolitical support, 42
and political action, 31 types of, 175
resource mobilization. See resource conversion Responsibility to Protect doctrine, 185, 190
and voice, 206, 229
Rethink Rebuild Society, 142, 217
Return, The (memoir), 74
Revolutionary Committees (Libya), 48
Saleh, Ali Abdullah, 7, 63
Saudi Arabia
as hub for activism, 159
and Yemeni politics, 87
scholarship restrictions, 76, 82
Shaam News Network, 154
Sheikh Abdullah al-Hakimi, 64
simultaneity, 35
social capital, 184–85, 187, 190–91, 199–200
and voice, 201
social media, 154–55, 176
and awareness raising, 142
and broadcasting demonstrations, 141–42
and Libyan diaspora activism, 140
and responses to propaganda, 141
and Syrian diaspora activism, 142, 154–55, 176
and Yemeni diaspora activism, 142
social remittances, 12, 40
Solidarity for Syria, 194
South Yemen, 19, 26, 37, 65–68, 88, 90, 127, 135
South Yemen Association, 130
South Yemeni American Association, 68, 83
Southern Democratic Assembly, 87, 129
Supreme Council of the Syrian Revolution, 122
Sykes-Picot Agreement, 56
Syria Campaign, The (Twitter), 142
Syria Future Current Party, 125
Syria Justice and Accountability Centre, 217
Syria Parliamentary Affairs Group, 150
Syria Relief, 196
Syrian American Council, 61, 80–81, 118, 149, 157, 190 conflict with diaspora activists, 118 politicalization of, 119
and Syrian revolution, 118
Syrian American Council (SAC), 60
Syrian American Engineers Association, 162
Syrian American Federation of New York, 56
Syrian American Medical Society, 120, 216
Syrian British Medical Society, 120
Syrian Center for Political and Strategic Studies, 61, 163
Syrian Christians for Democracy, 194
Syrian Christians for Peace, 152
Syrian diaspora
community-building efforts of, 62
and conflict transmission, 86–87
and Damascus Declaration, 60
divisions among, 86, 108
eyearly activism of, 56
early anti-regime activism of, 60
eyearly migration of, 55–56
emigration to Israel, 57
and first Arab Congress, 56
guarded advocacy of, 104
and Hama Massacre, 58
isolation of, 79
and Kurdish divisions, 125–26
mobilization of, 108, 117–19, 126
motivations for activism, 101, 105–8
and neutrality of groups, 121
post-Arab Spring divisions among, 121–25 racial discrimination of, 55–56 religious discrimination of, 55
responses to Bashar regime, 60
social costs of activism, 107
socioeconomic status of, 190
and transnational repression, 95, 103–4
use of media, 60–61
Syrian diaspora activism
advisory efforts, 162–63, 168, 190
and broadcasting demonstrations, 141, 146, 154, 176
brokering efforts of, 156, 158
coordination of home-country groups, 159–60, 167
demonstrations of, 143–44, 146
dilusionment of, 215–16
financial struggles of, 194, 196
fundraising efforts of, 190
home-country ties, challenges of, 178–81 humanitarian efforts of, 168
joining Free Syria Army, 168
lobbying efforts of, 149–50, 170, 190
and media representation, 154
opposition to ISIS, 150
professionalization of, 192–95, 197
and quotidian disruptions, 136
remitting efforts of, 161–62
and social capital, 190
specialization of, 194–96
teach-ins, 142
use of social media, 142, 154–55, 176
use of television broadcasting, 153
volunteer efforts on the ground, 167–69, 217
waning of, 191
Syrian Emergency Task Force, 149–50, 190, 193, 213
Syrian exiles
responses to Arab Spring, 10
Syrian Expatriates Organization, 179
Syrian Human Rights Committee, 123
Syrian Justice and Development Party, 190
Syrian National Coalition, 153
Syrian National Council, 121, 153
Syrian Nonviolence Movement, 142, 167, 195
Syrian Observatory for Human Rights, The, 61
Syrian Parliamentary Affairs Group, 194
Syrian revolution
beginnings, 102
and challenges to geopolitical support, 215 characterization as civil war, 211
and diaspora activism, 117–19
effects on diaspora activism, 95
and geopolitical support, 211, 218
and home-country support, 211
and ISIS, 214–15, 217
and Islamic extremism, 214, 216
and media support, 212
militarization of, 211
and politicization of diaspora groups, 119
and refugee crisis, 218
and third-party states, 212–13, 218
and UN Human Rights Council, 211, 215
US v. British support, 212
Syrian Revolution Coordinators Union, 122
Syrian Revolution General Commission, 122
Syrian Support Group, 156, 161, 215
Syrian War, 8
teach-ins, 142
technology
and transnational activism, 30
and transnational repression, 36
Terbil, Fathi, 7
Tharwa Foundation, 61, 117, 119, 163
The Suriya el-Fatat (Young Syria Party), 56
The Yemen Peace Project, 17
third-party states, 208–9, 212–13, 218
transnational activism of diaspora groups, 13
episodic nature of, 34
Index
Index

and global capitalism, 30
and technological advances, 30
and voice, 22
transnational advocacy networks, 179, 197, 226 transnational network ties, 173
transnational perspective, 225–27
and methodological nationalism, 226 transnational repression, 5, 22–23, 25, 35, 226 Arab Spring effects on, 94
by Assad regime, 72, 74, 76, 80–81
and fear among diaspora, 76–78
by Gaddafi regime, 72–75, 77, 81–82
and home-country ties, 22, 35
and horizontal voice, 36
historical examples of, 36
and isolation of diaspora members, 36
and lethal retribution, 72–74
of post-Arab Spring Syrian diaspora, 95, 103–4, 108
of post-Arab Spring Yemeni diaspora, 95 and political engagement, 25
and technology, 36
and voice, 31, 36, 71, 79, 83–84, 94, 112
by Yemeni regime, 83
transnational turn, the, 31, 33
Tuareg, 48
Tunisia
as hub for activism, 160–61, 183, 209, 232
Tunisian revolution, 2, 10, 93, 109
Turkey
as hub for activism, 21, 162–63, 204, 213, 218
and Kurdish repression, 123
and Syrian refugees, 10, 191
UN Human Rights Council
and Syrian revolution, 211, 215
UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs, 213
UN Security Council, 206 condemnation of Yemeni regime, 220
and Libyan revolution, 208
United Arab Republic, 57
United Nations Human Rights Council, 204 voice, 248, 251–52, 254
conditions for use of, 34
definition of, 33
deterrents to, 34, 36
differences in, 29
and exit, 4, 13
and external animation, 42
and geopolitical support, 31, 222
and geopolitics, 45
and home-country reforms, 228
limits of, 40
and lobbying, 149, 152
and loyalty, 3, 13, 31, 33, 96
obstacles to, 94
opportunities, 70
and quotidian disruptions, 22, 31, 38, 42, 96, 225
and shared identity, 37
shifts in, 170
and social capital, 201
threats to, 36
and transnational activism, 22
and transnational repression, 39, 71, 79, 83–84, 94, 112
and transnational ties, 92
voice, horizontal, 33, 230
and quotidian disruptions, 38
and transnational repression, 36
voice, vertical, 33, 143, 173
and quotidian disruption, 38
and transnational repression, 36
volunteering
as diaspora activity, 14, 27
and Libyan diaspora activism, 164–65, 167, 187
and Syrian diaspora activism, 167–68, 217
and Yemeni diaspora activism, 169
Western Kurdistan Association, 59, 125
women’s activism, 54, 82, 112, 117, 141, 146, 156, 159–60, 185, 209
World Amazigh Conference, 53
World Medical Camp for Libya, 161, 209
Yemen
civil wars, 63
early history of, 63
reunification of, 63
under Ottoman rule, 63
Yemen Forum Foundation, 69, 91, 200
Yemeni Arab Association, 67
Yemeni American Association of Bay Ridge, 69
Yemeni Arab Organization, 69
Yemeni Arab Spring, 17
Yemeni Association of Scientists and Professionals, 91
Yemeni Benevolent Society, 67
Yemeni civil war and divisions among diaspora, 88, 90 as obstacle to mobilization, 126–28
Yemeni Community Associations, 67, 69, 88–91, 131–33 political insularity of, 133
Yemeni diaspora community-building efforts of, 68–69 divisions among, 67, 87, 89–91, 95 early activism of, 64 early discrimination of, 64 early emigration of, 64 early financial remittances of, 66 and home-country families, 65 financial support of NLF, 65 mobilization of, 83, 87–88, 91, 110 motivations for activism, 110–11 obstacles to mobilization, 126–28 and pro-secession groups, 67 political insulation of existing organizations, 131–32 post-Arab Spring divisions among, 130, 134 post-World War II emigration, 65 pre-Arab Spring activism, 68 use of media, 65 and Yemen civil war, 63
Yemeni diaspora activism and broadcasting demonstrations, 142, 147, 220 brokering efforts of, 158 demonstrations of, 146–47 failed potential of, 172 home-country ties, challenges of, 181, 200 host-country lack of support of, 220 and lack of trust, 134 lobbying efforts of, 152 and media representation, 155 as non-political, 135 and photo exhibits, 143 and politicization of organizations, 132 remitting efforts of, 163 resistance to formalization, 197, 199 resource limitations of, 199 and social capital, 199–200 selective nature of, 170, 172 use of social media, 142 volunteer efforts on the ground, 169

Yemeni exiles responses to Arab Spring, 11
Yemeni Immigrants General Union, 67
Yemeni Migrant Workers Organization, 69
Yemeni regime relative weakness of, 83
Yemeni revolution and diaspora activism, 126 and geopolitical support, 219–20 and Islah party, 129 and Islamic extremism, 220 southern Yemeni opposition to, 126–30, 134–35
Yemeni Welfare Association of Manchester, 66
Yemeni Workers’ Union, 66
Yemeni Youth Abroad for Change, 152, 155
Yemeni Youth Association, 70
Zakarya, Qusai, 146, 158, 213