

Contents

General Editors’ Preface	page xi
Preface	xv
List of Abbreviations	xviii
1 THE SACRED WORLD	1
The Setting of Leviticus Within the Pentateuch	1
A Theology of Holiness	8
Critical Scholarship and Leviticus	16
Leviticus, Decentralization, and the Israelite Home	22
Conclusion	29
2 SIN, SACRIFICE, AND ATONEMENT (LEVITICUS
1–7, 16)	32
The Nature of Sacrifice	32
Who Can Sacrifice?	39
Types of Sacrifice	43
Performing the Divine Drama	49
The Life Is in the Blood	55
A Theology of Sin and Atonement	61

viii	CONTENTS
	Yom Kippur 70
	Anselm, Atonement, and Leviticus 75
3	PURITY AND IMPURITY (LEVITICUS 11–15) 83
	Defining Boundaries 83
	Eating Our Way to Holiness 87
	Purification and Childbirth 102
	Purification, Skin Disease, and Bodily Discharge 109
4	INHABITING SACRED SPACE (LEVITICUS 8–10, 24–27) 114
	A Priestly Theology of Space: The Tabernacle 114
	Inhabiting Sacred Space: The Ordination of Priests 121
	The Consecration of the Altar 130
	Defiling Sacred Space 133
	Holiness and the Land 140
	The Jubilee 149
5	LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR (LEVITICUS 17–22) 157
	The Holiness Code 157
	A Bridge from God’s Home to Israel’s Home 160
	Sexual Ethics and the Health of the Family 169
	The Imitatio Dei 179
	From Lay Household to Priestly Household 195
6	LIVING IN SACRED TIME (LEVITICUS 23) 203
	Holy Times and Seasons 203
	A Priestly Theology of Time 209
	Sabbath 212
	The Festivals 217

CONTENTS ix

7	LEVITICUS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT AND BEYOND . .	234
	Leviticus and the Old Testament	234
	Leviticus in the Second Temple Period	242
	Leviticus in the New Testament and Beyond	247
	Conclusion	260
	Further Reading	263
	Index	270