

Listening and Reading

Listening example: Question 3

Instructions End Test ...

1 For this question, choose the correct answer.
 Read the question first. Click play to listen. You can listen twice.

Listen to James Carter, a photojournalist who takes photographs for magazines, giving a talk about his work.

3 Why did James decide he wanted to be a photojournalist?

- Several members of his family worked for newspapers.
- He enjoyed taking photographs when he was a boy.
- He was impressed by the work of a famous photographer.

James has recently attended a course on

- commercial photography.
- action photography.
- colour photography.

2 4 5

6 What was the subject of the last article James did in Australia?

- towns
- deserts and mountains
- wildlife

James mostly gets ideas for his photographs

- by talking to reporters.
- from conversations with picture editors.
- when he's walking around.

James says that when he photographs people

- he treats them politely.
- he does so secretly.
- he needs a long time to prepare.

Speaking

Speaking example tasks: Part 3

1 → You will have 1 minute to talk about a topic. First, you have 40 seconds to read the task and prepare what you are going to say. You will then have 1 minute to speak. Please speak for all the time you have.

Listen Think Speak

35 seconds

Talk about a practical skill you would like to learn.

You should say:

- 2 • what practical skill you would like to learn
- 3 • why you would like to learn this practical skill
- 4 • how difficult you think it would be to learn this skill.

1 → You will have 1 minute to talk about a topic. First, you have 40 seconds to read the task and prepare what you are going to say. You will then have 1 minute to speak. Please speak for all the time you have.

Listen Think Speak

39 seconds

Talk about a training course you have attended for your work.

You should say:

- 2 • what the course was
- 3 • why you did the course
- 4 • whether you would recommend this course.