

Contents

Acknowledgements	page ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
Note on Fragment Numbers	xiii
Introduction
Philosophy and Poetry, Truth and Symbolism	1
1 Aims, Methods and Assumptions	1
2 Truth, Symbolism and Sublime Perspectives in Early Greek Song	9
3 Poetics	20
1 Xenophanes	24
1 Introduction	24
2 Xenophanes and the Hexameter Genre	27
a Epistemology and the Immersive World of the Text	29
b Xenophanes' Theology and the Language of Hexameter Poetry	34
c The Attacks on Homer and Hesiod	41
3 Xenophanes' Elegies	46
a Xenophanes as a 'Wandering Poet'	49
b D61=B2	52
c D59=B1	56
4 Xenophanean Elegies and Xenophanean Hexameters	61
5 Conclusion	63
2 Parmenides	65
1 Introduction	65
2 Poetry and Parmenides' Philosophy	67
3 Poetry and Deception	70
a Deception and the Doxa	70
b The Sirens	73
c Deception and the Proem	76
4 Profound Visions and Sublime Emotions	78
a Seeing the Unseeable	78
b The Vision	80
c Perspective and Character	82

viii	Contents
	d The Emotional Trajectory of the Poem	84
	e Parmenides and the Sublime	87
	f Mystic Initiation	90
	g The Reception of Parmenides' Poem	91
	h The Emotions and Parmenides' Philosophy	93
5	Poetry and Symbolism	93
	a Intratextuality	93
	b Intertextuality	94
	c Allegory and Subtext	97
6	Conclusion	100
3	Empedocles	102
	1 Introduction	102
	2 Religion and Philosophy, One Poem or Two	104
	3 Empedoclean Poetics	107
	a Empedocles and His Predecessors on Poetry	108
	b Love and Poetry in Empedocles' Cosmology	116
	c Love's Craft and Empedocles' Poetry	119
	d Conclusion to Section 3	124
	4 Empedocles' Narratives	126
	a The Narrative of the Daimon	127
	b Initiation, D257=B110 and the Education of the Singular Addressee	142
	c The Two Narratives Combined	152
	5 The Effects of Empedocles' Narratives	156
	a Empedocles and Myth	157
	b Emotions and Aesthetics	162
	c Textual Visions	166
	d Interpreting the Text, Understanding the World	170
	6 Conclusions: Empedocles in the History of Greek Poetry and Poetics	175
	Conclusion	177
	Epilogue: The Legacy of Presocratic Poetics	183
	1 Introduction	183
	2 Anaxagoras, Allegory and Ainigmata	183
	3 Gorgias	188
	4 Democritus on Literature	192
	5 Democritus and the Sophists on Language	196
	6 Plato and Mimesis	199
	Bibliography	207
	Index	236