

Index

- ABA. See Brazilian Anthropological Association
- abolition, of slavery
 in Brazil
 under Golden Law, 11
 under Rio Branco Law of 1871, 11
 immediate aftermath of, 30–31, 44–48 land reparations after, lack of, 27–28
 in Ribeira Valley, 58
- ACONERUQ. See Association of Rural Black Quilombo Communities of Maranhão
- activism. See black activism and activists
- Adams, Cristina, 67
- adverse possession of land, 22, 47, 69
- Africa
 in Brazil, re-creation of, 9
 Quilombo dos Palmares, 9
 cultural survivals, 90
 cultural traits in, 41, 190
 memory of, 107
- African diaspora, 190
- African oil palm. See oil palm
- Afro-descendants. See also Quilombo Afro-descendants definition of, 15–16
 historical memories for, 4
 in Iguape Valley. See Iguape Valley
- agrarian reform, 33. See also land rights under Land Statute, 33
- agricultural production systems. See also manioc households as, 70
 in Iguape Valley, 39–40
 stagnation of, 44
 mangroves and. See mangal ecosystems; mangrove ecosystems
 in Ribeira Valley, 165–81
 selected subsistence crops, 168
 tenera hybrid seedlings, 48–50
- agroecology, 174
- agro-industrial modernization schemes
 military support of, 33–34
 state-imposed, 79
- Alberti, Verena, 83
- Alberto, Carlos, 87–88
- Almeida, Alfredo Wagner Berno de, 77–78
- Almeida, Américo Morato de, 62–63
- Almeida, Gonçalves, 93
- Alves, Luis, 87
- Alves da Silva, Benedito “Ditão,” 176–77
- Andrews, George, 32
- Ansell, Aaron, 137
- anthropologists, as experts, 12, 88–91, 119–20
- anthropology, for ethnoracial rights, 108–9, 209–10
- antislavery, insurgent geography of, 11
- Araújo, Maria Raimunda “Mundinha,” 83–85
- Articulation and Advisory Team for Black Communities in the Ribeira Valley (EAACONE), 129–30

- assigning areas of land. See cessão das áreas
- Association of Rural Black Quilombo Communities of Maranhão (ACONERUQ), 97, 103, 105
- Assunção, Matthias, 10
- Atlantic Forest Law (2006), 132, 167
- autonomy, land and, 38, 112, 169, 180–81
- Bahia, Brazil. See also Iguape Valley; Recôncavo, Brazil
- black rural communities in, 2
 - enslaved Africans in, 21–22
 - ethnic tourism in, 198
 - fishing and shellfishing industry in, 143
 - housing, water, and sanitation services in, 142
 - income sources in, 143–47
 - shellfishing, 143
 - land availability in, 47–48
 - selected assets in quilombola households, 142
 - shellfishing as income source in, 143
- Barickman, Bert, 21–22, 26, 28, 37–40, 42, 45, 216
- Barth, Fredrik, 90–91
- Bay of All Saints, black rural communities in, 2
- black activism and activists
- environmental management of territories and, 128–30
 - goal and purpose of, 5
 - historical development of, 21
 - in methodological approach, to
 - Quilombo Afro-descendants, 21
 - militants. See black militant activists
 - rural political mobilization by, 85–87
 - Unified Black Movement, 18, 81–82, 86
 - violence against, 113
- Black Brazilian Front, 81
- black Brazilians, blackness and
- classification as. See race
 - criminalization of, 123–25
 - definition of, 15–16
 - as identity
 - for Quilombo Afro-descendants, 17–18
 - self-identification, 16–17
 - social movements. See social movements
 - war on blackness, 31–32
 - black communities. See black encampments; Quilombo Afro-descendants
 - in rural regions. See rural black communities
- black encampments (campo negro), 10, 26–27, 57–58
- Black Experimental Theatre (TEN), 81
- Black Life Project (PVN), 83–84, 96–97
- black militant activists, 4, 80–88
- Black Brazilian Front, 81
 - Black Experimental Theatre, 81
 - Black Life Project, 83–84, 96–97
 - Black Movement, 9, 83–85
 - quilombismo ideology in, 82–83
 - in social movements, 80
 - Unified Black Movement, 18, 81–82, 86
- Black Movement, 9, 83–84
- Araújo and, 83–85
 - Zumbi March against Racism and for Citizenship and Life and, 102–3
- black rights, 80–88
- blackness. See black Brazilians
- Bloco Ruralista, 7–8
- Bolsa Família* program, 137–38, 146
- Bolsonaro, Jair, 136, 211–12
- Book of Tombo, 60
- Brazil. See also Constitutions; specific cities; specific regions; specific topics
- abolition of slavery in
 - under Golden Law, 11
 - under Rio Branco Law of 1871, 11
 - Africa in, re-creation of, 9
 - Quilombo dos Palmares, 9
 - agrarian reform in, 33
 - under Land Statute, 33
 - black population in, 80
 - Cardoso administration, 7, 89–90, 93
 - conditional cash transfer programs during, 136–37
 - economic class in, 27–34
 - higher education access and, 29–30
 - sesmarias* and, 28
 - embranquecimento* policy in, 31–33
 - Federal Law No. 10.639/2003, 201
 - history of slavery in, 26
 - land in. See land
 - Land Law of 1850. See Land Law of 1850
 - land reform in, 135
 - land reparations in, 27–28, 219
 - land-grabbing in, 77

- Landless Rural Workers' Movement, 2–3, 100–2
- Lula administration, 93, 100
 conditional cash transfer programs during, 136–37
 Workers' Party and, 78–79, 93–102
- military dictatorship in, 33–34
- multicultural constitutionalism in, 5–6
- Point of Culture, 192
- post-slavery era, 30–32
 flight from Recôncavo plantations, 30–31 former slaves during, socioeconomic integration of, 30 urban emigration of former slaves, 30–31
- race in. See race
- racialized labor migration policy, 32
- Rousseff administration, 79
 conditional cash transfer programs during, 136–37
- Sarney administration, 89
- subsidization of labor, 32
- tourism in, economic policy towards, 184–87
 EMBRATUR, 184–85
- wage adjustments in, 155
- war on blackness in, 31–32
- Workers' Party in. See Workers' Party
- Zero Hunger Program, 20
- Brazilian Anthropological Association (ABA), 7
- Brazilian Civil Code of 2003, 47
- Brazilian Tourism Institute (EMBRATUR), 184–85
- Brondizio, Eduardo, 187–88
- Cabral, Jorlane, 198
- Candomblé religion, 43–44
- capuovas* (shifting cultivation plots), 60, 67–68
- Car Wash scandal, 209
 Quilombola Circuit and, 208
- Cardoso, Fernando Henrique, 7, 89–90, 93
 conditional cash transfer programs, 136–37
- Caribbean sugar industry, 40
- Carneiro da Cunha, Manuela, 66, 88
- casual laborers, 8, 134
- cattle ranches
 oil palm plantations converted to, 114
 sugar plantations converted to, 114
- CBT. See community-based tourism
- CCT programs. See conditional cash transfer programs
- certificates of cultural recognition, 117
- cessão das áreas* (assigning areas of land), 62
- CETESB. See Environmental Company of the State of São Paulo
- citizens, in Iguape Valley, 22
- citizenship, under 1988 Constitution, 5
- Coates, Ta-Nehisi, 218
- collective labor practices, 71
- collective land deeds, 219–20
- collective land rights, 106
- collective memory, 2
 of slavery, 22, 107
- collective titles, to land, 91–92
- collective use of land, 120
- Comaroff, Jean, 184
- Comaroff, John, 184
- communal titles, to land, 115
- communal use of land, 91
- communities. See rural black communities
- community activism. See black activism and activists
- community-based tourism (CBT), 187–88
 struggles in, 164–65, 187
 gender analysis of, 189
- CONAQ. See National Coordination for the Articulation of Rural Black Quilombo Communities
- conditional cash transfer (CCT) programs, 15
 during Cardoso administration, 136–37 dependence on, for quilombola families, 136–37, 146–47
 during Lula administration, 136–37
 during Rousseff administration, 136–37
- Constitutions, of Brazil
 1988 Constitution, 4–5, 80–88. See also Transitory Article 68 citizenship rights in, 5
 cultural rights under, 88–93
 territorial rights under, 88–93
- Quilombo Afro-descendants under, definition of, 5
- Transitory Article 68
 cultural rights under, 88–93

- Constitutions, of Brazil (cont.)
 distribution of land titles under, 94–96
 implementation of, 78
 land rights under, 4–7, 88–93
 contract labor, 52
 Convention 169 on Indigenous and Tribal Peoples, 92
 Conyers, John, 218
 Costa, Ivan, 86–87
 CPT. See Pastoral Land Commission criminality, criminals and, Quilombo leaders portrayed as, 124, 127
 criminalization of blackness, 123–25
 Cruz, Fernando da, 149–50
 Cruz, Magno, 103
 cultural recognition. See also Quilombo Afro-descendants certificates of, 117
 by FCP, 89–91, 117
 under Federal Law No. 10.639/2003, 201
 under 1988 Constitution, 88–93
 under Transitory Article 68, 88–93
- da Costa, José Silvério, 69
 da Costa, Josilene (Jô) Brandão, 100–1, 104 da Silva, Benedita, 87–88
 da Silva, Givânia, 93, 104–5 deeds, land, 58, 68–69, 212–13, 216–17
 collective, 219–20
dendê. See oil palm plantations; palm oil discrimination, racial democracy as camouflage for, 2–3
 domestic workers, women as, 70, 113–14
 dos Santos, “Seu Lourival” Ferreira, 157–58
- EAACONE. See Articulation and Advisory Team for Black Communities in the Ribeira Valley
 ecotourism, 6, 23, 73–74, 186–87, 199–200, 214
 educational enrollment, for Quilombo Afro-
 descendants, 140
embranquecimento (whitening) policy, 31–33
 EMBRATUR. See Brazilian Tourism Institute
 encampments. See black encampments enclosure campaign, in rural black communities, 69
- engenhos* (sugar plantations with mills), 28
 in Iguape Valley, 40
 transformation into rural black
 communities, 44–45
 Environmental Company of the State of São Paulo (CETESB), 167–68
 environmental crimes, in Ribeira Valley, 126–27
Estatuto de Terra. See Land Statute ethnic tourism
 in Bahia, 198
 purpose of, 182–83
 Quilombo Circuit, 199–210
 in Quilombo communities, 184–89
 Route of Freedom, 189–98
 ethnoracial identity, mobilization of, 107
 ethnoracial rights, 108–9, 209–10
 ethnotourism, 189, 199–200, 204–5, 208.
See also ethnic tourism
 ex-masters, freed people and, in Ribeira Valley, 64–65
 ex-slaves. See also freed people ex-masters and, in Ribeira Valley, 64–65 on plantations, 30–31, 37–38
 urban migration of, 30–31
- Falcão, Edson “Seu Edinho,” 115 families, labor and, 156–62, 170
 Farfán-Santos, Elizabeth, 13–14, 147 farmers, farms and labor and, 156–62
 for manioc, 158–59
 for palm oil production, 158–62
 women and, 158, 160–61
 for manioc, 38–40
 in rural black communities, 67
 squatting on unclaimed land, 28–29 fazendeiros (large private property owners), 4
 FCP. See Palmares Cultural Foundation
 Federal Law No. 10.639/2003, Brazil, 201 Fiabani, Adelmir, 83
 fishing and shellfishing industry, 149–56
 as income source, in Bahia, 143
 as self-employment, 149–51
 wage labor in, 149–50
 women in, 146–47, 152–56
 Fonseca, Ivo, 93, 107
 food procurement programs, 136
 food sovereignty, 165–81

- agroecology and, 174
 through alternative food systems, 178–79
 through marketing cooperatives, 179–80
- Fraga, Walter, 31
- França, Leticia Ester de, 222
- freed people (libertos). See also ex-slaves;
 families
 in Iguape Valley, land conflicts for, 45–46
 in rural communities, integration of, 30
- freedmen. See ex-slaves
- French, Jan Hoffman, 12, 90, 111
- fugitive slaves. See also Quilombo Afro-
 descendants
 creation of communities by, 55–57
 in Ribeira Valley, 65
 as labor, 64
- Furquim, Bernardo, 61–62
- gender. See also women community-based tourism and, 189
 in CONAQ network, 106 division of labor by, 50–52
 labor and division of, by gender, 50–52
 gendered bodies of, 146–47
 in Opalma company, labor divisions in, 50–52
 Quilombos and. See women
- gold-mining
 in Minas Gerais, 59–60
 in Ribeira Valley, 59
- Gomes, Flávio dos Santos, 10
- Gonzalez, Johnhenry, 217
- Grande Paraguaçu community, 13–14
 political recognition of, 13
- grants, for land, 28
- green-grabbing, in Ribeira Valley, 74.
See also land-grabbing
- grilagem* (land theft), 211–12
- grileiros* (persons who illegally claim property through false deeds), 4, 33, 84–85, 132
 in São Paulo, 22–23
- Haiti, land reparations in, 217
- Higgins, Kathleen, 60
- historical memory, 222
 for Afro-descendants, 4, 107
- Holston, James, 29–30
- Hooker, Juliet, 5, 102, 106
- households
 as agricultural production systems, 70
 in Bahia, selected assets in quilombola
 households, 142
 among Quilombo Afro-descendants, 67–68. See also Quilombo Afro-
 descendants
capuovas in, 60, 67–68
moradias in, 67–68
 selected assets of, in Bahia, 142 rural black, in Ribeira Valley, 67–68
capuovas in, 60, 67–68
moradias in, 67–68
- Hunter, Wendy, 137
- Ianovali, Daniela, 169
- identity. See also black; ethnoracial identity;
 racial identity
 ethnoracial, mobilization of, 107
- Iguape Valley
 African oil palm and. See also Opalma
 access to, 41–44
 agricultural production modes in, 39–40
 stagnation of, 44
 Brazilian Civil Code of 2003 in, 47
 Candomblé religion in, 43–44
engenhos in, 40
 transformation into rural black
 communities, 44–45
- labor in gendered, 147–65
 main occupations of adults, 148
 seasonal, 147–65
- land conflict, after emancipation, 44–48
 for access to land, limitations of, 46
 through adverse possession of land, 47 countryside-to-town migration as result of, 46–47
 for freedpeople, 45–46
 legal challenges, 47
roças, 45, 174
- mangal/mangrove ecosystems and, access to, 41–43
- Opalma in, 49–54
 economic influence of, 53
 factories for, 51
 sugar cane plantations replaced by, 49–50
 support of other rural jobs, 53
 during transition to democracy, 54

- Iguape Valley (cont.)
 organizing for land and territory in, by Iguape communities, 113–25
 cycles of eviction in, 115
 INCRA, 117–23
 land ownership issues, 118
 territorial disputes, 115
 water access, 121–23
 palm oil production in. See also Opalma legibility of, 48–49
 modernization of, 48–54
 plantations in, 40
 labor shortages on, 44–45
 oil palm, 51
 political economy of, 39
 racial identity in, for Quilombo Afro-
 descendants, 110–11
 rural black communities in. See rural
 black communities
 Saint Anthony Convent of Paraguaçu, 41–42
 territories of resistance in, 38–44
 through escape, 40–41
 through revolts, 40–41
 INCRA. See National Institute of Colonization and Agrarian Reform insurgent geography, of antislavery, 11
 ITESP. See São Paulo State Land Institute
 Ivaporunduva community, 59–60, 69, 201–3
- Jorge, Antonio Benedito, 169–70
 Jorge, Miguel Antonio, 62–63 justice. See racial justice; social justice
- labor
 casual, 8, 134
 collective practices, 71 contract, 52
 domestic work as, 70, 113–14
 family, 156–62, 170
 in farming, 156–62
 for manioc, 158–59
 for palm oil production, 158–62
 women and, 158, 160–61
 gendered bodies of, 146–47
 gendered division of, 50–52
 in palm oil production on farms, 158–62
 Opalma and, 50–52
 racialized bodies of, 32, 146–47
- in Ribeira Valley, 165–81
 family, 169–70
 main labor occupations for adults, 166 shortages
 of slave labor, 31
 on sugar plantations, 44–45
 slave, 31
 state subsidization of, 32
 labor shortages
 slave, 31
 on sugar plantations, 44–45
 land. See also land rights; land-grabbing
 access to, 41–44, 46
 cessão das áreas, 62
 cycles of eviction and, in Iguape Valley, 115 adverse possession of, 22, 47, 69
 autonomy and, 38, 112, 169, 180–81
 availability of, in Bahia, 47–48 organizing for land and territory, for Iguape communities, 113–25
 as basis of liberty, 1
 claims and rights to. See grileiros collective titles for, 91–92
 collective use of, 120
 communal use of, 91
 deeds for, 58, 68–69, 212–13, 216–17
 collective, 219–20
 demarcation of, 89, 120, 221
 expropriation of, by elites, under Land Law of 1850, 29
grileiros, 4, 33, 84–85, 132
 in São Paulo, 22–23
 in Iguape Valley, conflicts after emancipation, 44–48
 for access to land, limitations of, 46
 through adverse possession of land, 47
 for freedpeople, 45–46
 legal challenges, 47
 roças, 45, 174
 ownership of, 47–48
 by fazendeiros, 4
 under Land Law of 1850, 29 regularization of, 55, 93–102, 112, 117–23
 reparations, 27–28
 in Ribeira Valley. See Ribeira Valley social movements over, 2–3

- struggles for
 in Ribeira Valley, 125–33. See also Ribeira Valley
 for rural black communities, 1, 72, 125–33
- titles to
 collective, 91–92
 communal, 115
 INCRA record on, 93–94, 98
 for Quilombo Afro-descendants, 95, 98–99
 in Ribeira Valley, 131
- land deeds. See deeds
- land grants
 distribution of land controlled by, 28
 by Portuguese Crown, 28
sesmarias, 28–29
- Land Law of 1850, Brazil, 27, 29
 disenfranchisement of small landowners, 29 expropriation of land under, by elites, 29 literacy requirements under, 29
terras devolutas under, 29
- land reform, 135
- land reparations. See reparations
- land rights
 collective, 106
 under 1988 Constitution, 88–93
 in Ribeira Valley, 67
 in rural black communities, 1, 86, 212, 220–21
 under Transitory Article 68, 4–7, 88–93
- Land Statute (Estatuto de Terra) (1964), 33
- land theft. See grilagem
- land titles
 collective, 91–92
 communal, 115
- land-grabbing, 4, 28
 in Brazil, 77
 green-grabbing, 74
- landholding families, modernization schemes of, 4
- Landless Rural Workers' Movement (MST),
 2–3, 100–2
- Leite, Ilka Boaventura, 76–77
- Leite, Sergio, 77
- libertos*. See freed people
- Linhares, Luiz Fernando do Rosário, 76
- literacy requirements, under Land Law of 1850, 29
- living spaces. See moradias
- Lula da Silva, Luís Inácio (Lula), 93, 100 conditional cash transfer programs under, 136–37
 Workers' Party and, 78–79, 93–102
- mangal ecosystems, 34–37
 in Iguape Valley, access to, 41–43
- mangrove ecosystems, 34–37. See also labor
 in Iguape Valley, access to, 41–43
- manioc, cultivation of farms for, 38–40
 as flour, 42–43, 158
 prices for, 162
 sales for, 164
 labor for, 158–59
 in massapé soils, 38–40 processing and production, 63, 146–47
 surpluses of, 156
- manumission of slaves, 60
- Marinho, Gregório, 69
- markets, for manioc surpluses, 156
- marriage, in rural black communities, 66
- massapé* soils, manioc in, 38–40
- memory of Africa, 107
 collective, 2
 of slavery, 22
 historical, 222
 for Afro-descendants, 4, 107
 of slavery, 22
- Mészáros, George, 79
- migration. See urban migration
- Miki, Yuko, 10–11, 27
- military dictatorships
 agro-industrial modernization schemes
 and, 33–34
 settling or rural poor by, on public lands, 33–34
- military recruitment, in rural black
 communities, 66–67
- Minas Gerais, gold-mining in, 59–60
- Mitchell, Sean, 14–15, 88
- MNU. See Unified Black Movement
- MOAB. See Movement of People Threatened by Dams
- modernization schemes. See also agro-industrial modernization schemes of landholding families, 4
 in Ribeira Valley, 68
 in rural black communities, 68, 213–14

- Montero, Carla, 187–88
moradias (living spaces), 67–68
 Movement of People Threatened by Dams (MOAB), 129–30
 MST. See Landless Rural Workers' Movement multicultural constitutionalism, 5–6
- Nascimento, Abdias do, 82–83
 Nascimento, Beatriz, 82–85
 Nascimento, Maria Elena, 127–28
 National Constituent Assembly, 79–81, 86–88
 National Coordination for the Articulation of Rural Black Quilombo Communities (CONAQ), 7, 18, 75, 102–9, 216
 ACONERUQ and, 97, 103, 105 campaigns by, 108–9
 establishment of, 103
 gender representation in, 106
 goal and purposes of, 103
 leadership issues, 104
 membership issues in, 104
 organizational networks within, 105
 politicization of racial inequalities, 109
 National Institute of Colonization and Agrarian Reform (INCRA), 45–46, 76–77, 111 outstanding land titles and, 93–94, 98
 Palmares Cultural Foundation and, 92–93
 Quilombola Mesquita, 77
 in Ribeira Valley land struggles, 132–33
 Novis, Elvira, 47, 49
- off-farm employment, wage labor and, 134–35
 oil palm, African (plant). See also oil palm plantations red ring disease, 54
 subsontaneous, 42–43, 46, 53, 160, 214
 tenera hybrid seedlings, 48–50
 oil palm harvesters. See palmeiteiros
 oil palm plantations. See also Opalma; palm oil in Iguape Valley. See also Opalma access to, for ex-slaves, 41–44
 one-drop rule, for racial identity, 123–25
- Opalma (company). See also agro-industrial modernization schemes; oil palm plantations gender divisions within, 51–52
 in Iguape Valley, 49–54
 economic influence of, 53
 factories for, 51
 sugar cane plantations replaced by, 49–50
 support of other rural jobs, 53
 during transition to democracy, 54
 labor and, 50–52
 plantations, 51
 red ring disease and, 54
 wage jobs in, 50
 women as workers in, 51–52
 Operation Car Wash, 208
 Osório, Rafael, 137
 Oya, Carlos, 147
- Paim, Paulo, 87–88
 palm oil, production of. See also Opalma in Iguape Valley. See also Opalma
 legibility of, 48–49
 modernization of, 48–54
 labor in
 for farms and farmers, 158–62
 Opalma and, 50–52
palmeiteiros, 70, 170–71
 subsontaneous, 42–43, 46, 53, 160, 214
 women in, as processors, 51–52 Palmares Cultural Foundation (FCP), 89–91 cultural recognition certificates, 117 INCRA and, 92–93
palmeiteiros (oil palm harvesters), 70, 170–71
 Paraguay War (1865–1870), 66
 Pasinato, Raquel, 133
 Pastoral Land Commission (CPT), 74, 129
 Peasant Leagues, 2–3
 Penna-Firme, Rodrigo, 187–88
 Pereira, Amílcar Araujo, 83
 Pereira, Antônio Fernandes, 84
 Pereira, José Henrique Sampaio, 76
 Pereira, Wilson, 176
 Pereira de Jesus, Salvador, 50–51
 Perry, Keisha-Khan, 123–24
 persons who illegally claim property through false deeds. See grileiros
 Pinho, Patrícia de Santana, 190–91

- plantations. See also Opalma; palm oil;
 sugar plantations
 ex-slaves on, 30–31, 37–38
 in Iguape Valley, 40
 labor shortages on, 44–45
 oil palm, 51. See also Opalma wage labor on, 72
 prejudice. See discrimination
 private property, adverse possession of, 22, 47, 69
 PT. See Workers' Party
 Pupo, Salvador, 69
 PVN. See Black Life Project
- quilombismo ideology, 82–83
 Quilombo Afro-descendants (quilombolas).
See also Recôncavo
 Bolsonaro and, racism towards, 136, 211–12
 collective land rights for, 106
 communal use of land for, 91
 communities of. See Iguape Valley;
 Ribeira Valley
 under Constitutions, definition of, 5 contemporary scholarship on, 8–15
 cultural commodification of history, 183–84. See also ethnic tourism;
 ethnotourism
 cultural rights of, 80–81
 definition of, 57
 dehumanization of, 136
 economic outcomes for, 134–38, 215
 through antipoverty programs, 137–38
Bolsa Família program, 137–38, 146
 through conditional cash transfer programs, 136–37, 146–47
 educational enrollment and, 140
 food procurement programs, 136
 household incomes, 162–64
 income sources as factor in, 143, 145 methodological research on, 138–47 ethnic tourism and. See ethnic tourism historical memory for, 4, 107 households among, 67–68
capuovas in, 60, 67–68
moradias in, 67–68
 land titles for, by federal and state agencies, 95, 98–99
 methodological approach to, 18–21
 through activist involvement, 21
 institutional support in, 20–21
 through oral accounts, 19
 surveys in, 19–20
 political and social invisibility of, 5 portrayed as criminals, 124, 127
 racial identity for. See racial identity recognition of territories for, 7
 in Ribeira Valley, 129–30
 of São Mateus in Espírito Santo, 11 self-identity as black, 17–18 on slaveholders' properties, 9. See also
 plantations
 wage labor marginalization of, 135 in wider society, interactions within,
 10–11
 Workers' Party politics and, 93–102. See also Workers' Party
- Quilombo Circuit, 199–210
 Quilombo dos Palmares, 9
 Quilombola Mesquita, 77
quilombolas. See Quilombo Afro-descendants; specific topics
- race
 ambiguities of, 16–17
 categories of, 16–17, 60
 color and, 16–17
 skin color, 60
 mixture of, 31–32, 60
 one-drop rule, 123–25
- racial democracy discrimination camouflaged by, 2–3
 as ideology, 2
 myths about, 2
- racial identity, for Quilombo Afro-
 descendants, 7, 88–93
 benefits of accepting identity, 111–12
 federal recognition of, 112–13
 in Iguape Valley, 110–11
 juridical questions of, 12
 National Coordination for the Articulation of Rural Black
 Quilombo Communities, 7
 rejection of Quilombo identity, 111
 in Ribeira Valley, 110–11
- racial inequalities, politicization of, 109 racial justice, land reparations as, 216–22 racialized bodies of labor, 32, 146–47 racism, against Quilombo Afro-descendants, by Bolsonaro, 136, 211–12
 Rangel, Pedro Paulo “Piroca,” 47

- Recôncavo, Brazil. See also specific regions
 quilombolas in, 11
 rural black communities in, 2
 sugar plantations in, 11
 regularization of land, 55, 93–102, 112, 117–23
 reparations, land, 27–28
 in Brazil, 27–28, 219
 in Haiti, 217
 as racial justice, 216–22
 as social justice, 216–22
 in United States, 218–19
 resistance
 Black Movement as, 9
 in Iguape Valley, territories of resistance
 in, 38–44
 through escape, 40–41
 through revolts, 40–41
 rural. See specific communities
 by slaves, 38–44
 Zumbi March against Racism and for Citizenship and Life, 7, 102
 Ribas, Rafael, 137
 Ribeira Valley
 after abolishment of slavery, 58
 agricultural systems in, 165–81
 selected subsistence crops, 168
 average annual incomes in, 173 collective labor practices in, 71
 environmental crimes in, 126–27 environmental management of territories
 in, 125–33
 under Atlantic Forest Law, 132, 167 organization of, by black activists, 128–30
 for untouched wilderness, 126
 food sovereignty in, 165–81
 agroecology and, 174
 through alternative food systems, 178–79
 through marketing cooperatives, 179–80
 free black settlements in, 65
 green-grabbing in, 74 infrastructure development in, 71–72
 labor in, 165–81
 family, 169–70
 main labor occupations for adults, 166
 land in federal land titles, 131 government appropriation of, for protected area protections, 73–74
 public/state-owned, 130
 regularization of, 55, 93–102, 112, 117–23
 land struggles in, 125–33
 INCRA financial allocations towards,
 132–33
 ITESP recognition of Quilombo
 communities, 129–30
 Pastoral Land Commission in, 74, 129
 political economy of communities in, 58
 racial identity in, for Quilombo Afro-
 descendants, 110–11
 runaway slaves in, 65
 as labor, 64
 rural black communities in. See rural
 black communities
 slave farms in, 65
 slave labor in, 64
 shortages of, 66
 socioeconomic relations within, 57–58
 state parks created in, 73–74
 wage jobs in, 50
 Ribeiro, Matilde, 92–93 rights. See ethnoracial rights to land. See land rights
 Rio Branco Law of 1871, Brazil, 11
 roças (small plots of land), 45, 174
 Rodrigues, Oriel, 93
 Rota de Liberdade. See Route of Freedom
 Rousseff, Dilma, 79, 100, 113
 conditional cash transfer programs, 136–37
 Route of Freedom, 189–98
 royal land grants. See sesmarias
 runaway slaves. See fugitive slaves
 rural black communities. See also Quilombo Afro-descendants; specific
communities
 in Bay of All Saints, 2
 Bloco Ruralista and, 7–8 fugitive slaves' creation of, 55–57
 in Iguape Valley, 22, 34–54
 Bantu heritage in, 34
engenhos and, 34–37
 land autonomy in, 38
 legal situation of, 35
 in mangal/mangrove ecosystems, 34–37
 timeline for, 39
 land rights for, 1, 86, 212, 220–21

- marriage in, 66
 methodological approach to, 2–3
 in academic studies, 2
 National Coordination for the Articulation of Rural Black
 Quilombo Communities, 7, 18, 75 political mobilization of, 15. See also Workers' Party
 in Recôncavo, 2
 in Ribeira Valley, 2, 54–74
 agricultural production systems in, 70
 cessão das áreas, 62
 economic development of, 68–69 economic ties between social groups in, 63 enclosure campaign in, 69
 farming in, 67
 free black settlements, 65
 gold-mining settlements in, 59
 historical origins of, 55–57
 Ivaporunduva, 59–60, 69, 201–3
 land rights in, 67
 military recruitment in, 66–67
 modernization schemes for, 68, 213–14 near ex-slaveholders estates, 64–65
 political economy of communities in, 58
 state economic intervention in, 67–74
 state policies in, 67–74 rights to land in, 86
 in São Paulo, 2–3
 subsistence agriculture in, 10, 63
 rural communities. See rural black
 communities
- Saint Anthony Convent of Paraguaçu
 (Convento de Santo Antônio do Paraguaçu), 41–42
- Salvador, freed slaves in, 30–31
- Santana, João de Antonio, 46–47
- Santos, Daiane da Silva, 175
- Santos, Rosalina dos, 93
- Santos, “Seu Jorge” Brito dos, 78–79, 152
- Santos, Silvano dos, 93
- São Mateus, in Espírito Santo, quilombolas
 in, 11
- São Paulo, Brazil. See also Ribeira Valley Environmental Company of the State of São Paulo, 167–68
- environmental management of territories
 in, 125–33
grileiros in, 22–23
 housing, water, and sanitation services in, 142
 income sources in, 143–47
 land struggles in, 125–33
 rural black communities in, 2–3
 origins of, 22–23
- São Paulo State Land Institute (ITESP), 129–30
- Sarney, José, 89
- Sauer, Sérgio, 77, 79
- Schwartz, Stuart, 9
- sesmarias* (royal land grants), 28
- shellfishing industry. See fishing and shellfishing industry
- Silva Júnior, Hédio, 87
- slave farms, in Ribeira Valley, 65
- slave labor
 in Ribeira Valley, 64
 shortages of, 66
 shortages of, 31
 in Ribeira Valley, 66
- slave trade. See specific topics
- slaveholders, properties of Quilombo Afro-descendants on, 9
 rural black communities near, in Ribeira
 Valley, 64–65
- slavery. See also abolition
 in Bahia, 21–22
 in Brazil, history of, 26 internal economy of, 26, 43
 memory of, 107
- slaves. See also ex-slaves; fugitive slaves
 gender of. See women reduction in population of, 11
- small plots of land. See roças
- Smith, Christen, 16
- Soares, Fábio, 137
- social justice, land reparations as, 216–22
- social movements
 black. See black activism and activists;
 black militant activists
 black militant activists in, 80
 Black Movement, 9, 83–84
 Landless Rural Workers' Movement, 2–3, 100–2
 over land, 2–3
 Peasant Leagues, 2–3

- social movements (cont.)
 for Quilombo Afro-Descendants. See National Coordination for the Articulation of Rural Black
 Quilombo Communities
 Unified Black Movement, 18, 81–82, 86
 Zumbi March against Racism and for Citizenship and Life, 7, 102
- squatting, on land, 28–29
terras devolutas and, 29
- state-imposed agro-industrial modernization schemes, 79
- subsistence plots, in rural black
 communities, 10, 63
- subspontaneous oil palm, 42–43, 46, 53, 160, 214
- sugar industry. See also sugar mills; sugar
 plantations
 Caribbean competition for, 87–88
 wage labor in, 46
- sugar mills, engenhos, 28
 transformation into rural black
 communities, 44–45
- sugar plantations
 cattle ranches and, conversion to, 114
engenhos, 28
 transformation into rural black
 communities, 44–45
 ex-slaves on, 30–31, 37–38
 labor shortages on, 44–45
 in Recôncavo, 11
 Sugiyama, Natasha, 137
- Temer, Michel, 79
- TEN. See Black Experimental Theatre
- tenera hybrid seedlings, 48–50
- terras devolutas* (unoccupied land), 29
- titles. See land titles
- tourism. See also ecotourism; ethnic tourism; ethnotourism
 in Brazil, government policy towards, 184–87
 EMBRATUR, 184–85
 community-based, 187–88
 struggles in, 164–65, 187, 189
 Point of Culture, 192
- traditional shifting cultivation system.
See capuovas
- Transitory Article 68
 cultural rights under, 88–93
 distribution of land titles under, 94–96
- implementation of, 78
 land rights under, 4–7, 88–93
- Unified Black Movement (MNU), 18, 81–82, 86
- United States, land reparations in, 218–19
- unoccupied land. See terras devolutas
- urban migration
 for ex-slaves, 30–31
 of wage labor, 58
- Vargas, Getúlio, 4, 68, 81
- Viana, Ananias, 116–17, 120–21, 149, 192, 194
- wage jobs, 8
 in Opalma, 50
 in Ribeira Valley, 172–73
 rural, 49
- wage labor
 annual income for, 163–64
 on commercial farms and plantations, 72 fishing as, 149–50
 marginalization of, 135 off-farm employment, 134–35
 in sugarcane industry, 46
 urban migration of, 58
- wages, in Brazil, annual adjustments to, 155
- war on blackness, 31–32
- Watkins, Case, 43
- whitening policy. See embranquecimento
- Williams, Erica, 194
- Wolford, Wendy, 99
- women
 as domestic workers, 70, 113–14
 as factory workers, 51–52
 in fishing and shellfishing industry, 146–47, 152–56
 in labor occupations, 158, 160–61
 as oil palm processors, 51–52
 in Opalma, 51–52
- Workers' Party (PT), 6, 14–15, 78–80
 conditional cash transfer programs and, 15
 Lula administration and, 78–79, 93–102
 regularization of land and, 55, 93–102
- Wuyts, Marc, 147
- Zero Hunger Program, 20
- Zumbi March against Racism and for
 Citizenship and Life, 7, 102
 Black Movement and, 102–3