

Index

- Abraham, Apoleyon, 110
 Adames, Felix M., 191–192 agriculture colonization impact on ethnic Haitians, 49–50, 91–94, 134
 cross-border clandestine farming by Massacre survivors, 234–244, 250–253 Haitian wartime policies and food shortages and, 246
 post-Massacre colonization in, 137–138, 196–198
Alcagé (Haitian religious mythical place), 222–224
 Alcántara, Eliseo, 165, 180–182
 Aldinor, Minis, 112–113
 Alesís, Noemí, 243–244
 Alexis, Jacques Stephen, 226–227
 Alfredo, Genne, 86
 Alfredo, Seniler, 71–74
 Andres, Marcelino, 84–85 anega (Kreyòl term for Haitian-Dominicans), 43–44, 153–154
 Angomás, Alberto, 196 Antenor, Willy, 17
 anti-Blackness Atlantic and Caribbean history of,
 126–133
 impact in Dominican society, 267–268
 post-Massacre intensification of, 158–162 anti-Haitianism in Dominican Republic civilian racism and discrimination and, 122–126 concealment and misrepresentation about, 167
 Dominicanization campaign and,
 187–188
 early twentieth-century spread of, 7–10, 17–19
 escalation of deportation and, 73–74 Haitian massacre linked to, 10–13 historical roots of, 46–47
 impact in Dominican society, 267–268
 indigence, disability and disease as justification for, 174–178
 multigenerational legacy of, 265–269 nationwide round-ups, 169–174 political legacy of, 162–163 post-Massacre expansion of, 10–13 public scandal and slander incidents and, 116–117
 Trujillo era expansion of, 131–133 Arcahaie, 223. See also Alcagé (Haitian religious mythical place) Arcilis, Narciso, 112–113
 Arias, Francisco, 130–131
 Aristil, François, 146–147, 153–154, 156–158, 160–161
 Aristil, Ogisten, 156–158 arrests and ethnic profiling of Dominican-born ethnic Haitians abuse and exploitation of, 112–113
 cédula requirement and, 107–112
 contraband arrests, 101–107 invasive searches of homes, 107

- arrests and ethnic profiling of Dominican-born ethnic Haitians (cont.)
 police harassment and mistreatment and, 99–101 sanitary and hygiene laws as basis for, 73, 99 statistics and accounts of, 91–94
- arson, by post-Massacre Haitians, 229–234
- aspirational whiteness, anti-Haitianism in Dominican Republic and, 17–19
- Associated Press, Haitian Massacre coverage by, 141–143
- Aybar, Armando Mario, 165–166
- Balaguer, Joaquín, 2–3n.2, 3n.2, 3n.3, 261–263
- Basora, Santiago, 46–47
- Batista, Alfredo, 233–234
- Be, Antuan, 113
- Belique, Ana, 258–259, 266
- belonging border region concepts of, 116–117 citizenship and, 29, 60–61 conditions in early twentieth-century Dominican Republic of, 69 ethnicity and birthplace and, 114–115
- Benito, Serafen, 84–85
- Benjamin, Graciis, 28–29
- Bensan, Isabel, 105–106
- Bertier, Felix, 144
- binational families. See mixed Haitian-Dominicans
- birth certificates barriers for Dominican ethnic-Haitians access to, 84–87 citizenship rights for ethnic Haitians linked to, 61–67, 259–260 deportation challenges involving, 71–75, 82–87, 182 requirement for ethnic Haitians, 19–20, 52–53, 71, 78–81
- Black in to White: Race and Nationality in Brazilian Thought* (Skidmore), 29–30
- Blackness
 Caribbean postemancipation history and, 268–269 Spanish-colonial context of, 40
- Blanc, Juan B., 63
- Blood and Soil: A World History of Genocide and Extermination from Sparta to Darfur* (Kiernan), 34
- Bobadilla, Carlos, 221–222
- bòkò* (Haitian wizard), 222–224
- border region. See Haitian-Dominican border region
- Bosch, Juan, 43–44
- Bourbon mercantilism, French Saint Domingue and, 41–42
- Boyer, Jean-Pierre, 45
- braçeros* (field workers)
 abuse and exploitation of, 112–113 children of, legal documentation for, 263 deportations of, 38–39
 Dominican ethnic Haitians as, 30–31
 Executive Order 372 restrictions on, 7–8, 19–20, 59–61 immigration fees required from, 72–73 movement restrictions on, 208–211 taxation of, 63–64
- buccaneers, Hispaniola as refuge for, 40–42
- Caamaño, Fausto E., 190–191, 193–196, 201
- Cáceres, Ramón, 49–50, 91–94
- caco*
 ethnic Haitians' labelling of Dominicans as, 231–233 Haitian armed nationalists labeled as, 48 historical uses of, 232n.22
- Cadet, Robert, 136–152
- Calder, Bruce, 51
- cannibalism (come gente), ethnic Haitians linked to, 117–120
- Caribbean postemancipation history, Black citizenship and, 268–269
- Carrasco, Ana Sofia, 205–208
- caste systems, ethnic Haitian experience in context of, 260–261
- Castor, Suzy, 2–3n.2, 26–31, 256–258
- Castro, Miguel, 129
- Catholic Church, Dominican Republic and, 219–222
- cattle economy in Haitian-Dominican border region, 97–98, 138–141 history on Hispaniola of, 40 theft as social banditry in, 244–250
- caudillismo*, 48
- cédula* (Dominican national identity card) confiscation of, 112–113, 165 cross-border movement and, 90–91, 107–112

- denial to Dominican-born Haitians of, 256–260
- ethnic Haitians' manipulation of, 178–183
- history of, 12–13
- requirement for ethnic Haitians, 52–53
- Charles, Alexandre, 66
- Charles, Bison, 108
- Charles, Floren, 67–68, 98–99
- Chatterji, Joya, 54–55
- Cherilus, Jean-Baptiste Monroe, 111–112
- children
- Haitian Massacre and killing of, 16–17, 136–137, 146–148
 - as Massacre survivors, 147–148
- Christophe, Henri (King), 42–43, 45
- citizenship
- birthright citizenship, ethnic Haitians and, 262–263
 - Caribbean potemancipation history and, 268–269
 - Dominican constitutional requirements for, 3–6
 - Dominicanidad* and definitions of, 59–61
 - Executive Order 372 impact on, 255–260
 - proof of, requirements for Haitian-Dominicans, 61–67
 - reversal for ethnic Haitians of, 256–260
 - skin color and ethnicity tied to, 70–76
- civil genocide (jenosid sivil), 268
- statelessness as, 256–260
- civilian complicity in massacre
- historical accounts of, 148–151
 - looting and extortion by collaborators, 153
 - research on, 26
- clerén* (kleren, moonshine liquor), border smuggling of, 96–97, 106–107
- cocolos* (West Indian immigrants), in Dominican Republic, 170n.18
- coffee plantations
- Haitian Massacre and seizure of, 140–141
 - on Saint Domingue, 41–42
- Colas, Ivona, 16, 53, 139
- Colon, Diego, 39
- colonial mawonnaj (marronage), post-Massacre clandestine farming as, 236
- Colonia Trinitaria, Dominican territorial claim to, 91–94
- colonization, of Hispaniola, 39–44
- contagious disease, deportation of ethnic Haitians based on, 73
- contraband arrests, targeting of ethnic Haitians for, 101–107, 125–126
- conuco* (small garden or farm)
- Dominican-born ethnic Haitian ownership of, 69, 95–96
 - post-Massacre refugees continued use of, 192–193
 - secret cross-border farms of post-Massacre survivors, 234–244, 250–253
- Corniel, Higanor, 63
- Crassweller, Robert, 4–5
- credit arrangements, Haitian and
- Dominican governments and role of, 48–50
- cross-border movement
- cédula* requirement and, 107–112
 - currency, taxation and state control of, 198–199
 - Dominicanization campaign and challenge of, 195–196
 - Dominican taxation of, 88–91
 - illegal crossings and contraband and, 199–205
 - livestock theft and, 244–250
 - by post-Massacre Haitians, 158–162
 - of rayanos and mixed Haitian-Dominicans, 191–192
 - resistance, fight and survival strategies of ethnic Haitians and, 178–183
- Cruel, Asunción, 117–118
- Cuba
- ethnic Haitians in, 30, 185–186
 - Partido Independiente de Color in, 31
- Cuello, Jose Antonio, 14–15
- cultural beliefs and practices
- contraband traffic in Haitian-Dominican border region as reflection of, 101–107
 - eradication of Haitian lifeways and religion, 214–216
- currency exchange, binational commerce and, 199
- customs and immigration controls
- abuse and exploitation of detainees and, 112–113
 - contraband trafficking and, 101–107
 - illegal crossings and contraband, 199–205
 - imposition on Haitian-Dominican border of, 88–91

- customs and immigration controls (cont.)
 participation in Haitian Massacre and, 149–150
 rural border commerce and, 198–199 customs receivership, US enforcement in Dominican Republic and Haiti, 7–8, 49–50
- Dalembert, Philippe, 226–227
 Dance of the Millions sugar boom, 28–29
 Daniel, Servilius, 144–148
 Danticat, Edwidge, 114–115, 226–227
 Debreñor, Cia, 144, 146–148
 Delismo, Delisma, 75
 Delliiaire, Rosa, 102–103
 depopulation campaigns, on Hispaniola, 40–42
 deportation and denationalization concealment and misrepresentation
 about, 164–169
 Dominican border colonization campaign and, 91–94
 of Dominican-born ethnic Haitians, 70–76, 134, 256–260
el dealojo campaign, 22–24 escalation in 1930s of, 73–74
 of ethnic Haitians, 3–6 of Haitian criminals, 121 immigration tax as excuse for, 170–171
 indigence, disability and disease as justification for, 174–178
 lack of historical research on, 6–7 national round-up of ethnic Haitians and, 169–174
 official lists of ethnic Haitians, 183–186 regional patterns in, 80 statelessness in Dominican border region
 and, 20
- Derby, Lauren (Robin), 27, 119–120
 Desquin, Estel, 68
 Dessalines, Jean-Jacques, 42–43
diez tareas law, 90–91
 Diloné, Juan, 81 Dirección General de Migración (DGM), as historical source, 13–17, 22 disability, stigmatization of ethnic Haitians linked to, 174–178
 disease, stigmatization of ethnic Haitians using, 174–178
 Dival, Ignacio, 199–205 documentation, ethnic Haitians and role of, 261–263
 d'Ogeron, Bertrand, 40–42
 Dominican-born ethnic Haitians anti-Haitian targeting of, 130–131 arrest rates in border region for, 91–94 barriers to obtaining birth certificates for, 84–87 burden of proof shifted to, 84–87 citizenship denied to, 255–260 civil rights advocacy by, 257–260 contraband arrests of, 101–107 denationalization of, 78–81 deportation of, 256–260 discrimination under Trujillo, 70–78 in Dominican border region, 5, 49–50, 91–94
 dual naming practices among, 120–122 families of survivors, 265 foreigner status of, 115–116 illegal border crossings by, 67–68, 94–101
 language and culture preservation by, 140–141
 national round-up of, 169–174 protests against deportation by, 82–87, 91–94
 racial and ethnic slurs used by, 126–133 repression of Kreyòl language and, 211–214 resistance, fight and survival strategies of, 178–183
 in Samaná, 218
 statelessness for, 82–87, 114–115 survival strategies of, 265–269 targeting of, 61–67
- Dominican-Haitian military and political collaboration, Santo Domingo reannexation and, 47
- Dominicanization (Dominicanidad), 7–8, 29, 52–53
 anti-Haitian sentiment and, 130–133 border colonization and, 49–50, 91–94 border conflicts and, 43–44 cultural eradication of Haitian lifeways and religion, 214–216 erasure of Haitian presence and, 252–253 legacy of Haitian Massacre and, 162–163 post-Massacre Haitian refugees' challenge to, 228–229
 religious practices linked to, 219–222

- relocation initiatives and, 88–89 repression of Kreyòl language, 211–214 repression of Kreyòl language and, 211–214
 sugary economy and ideology of,
 260–261
 Dominican Republic. See also Hispaniola; Santo Domingo border colonization program, 91–94 constitutions of, 5–6 Dominican-born Haitian border population in, 27, 91–94 European immigration incentivization campaign in, 7–8 genocide refugees' irredentist land claims in, 225–234
 Haitian linguistic influence in, 126–133
 Haitian Occupation period in, 45–46 history of Haitian communities in, 42–43 independence declaration, 45–48 manipulation of Haitian Massacre data
 by, 141–143
 modern Haitian migration into, 264–265 national unity ideology in, 2–6 official concealment of massacre in, 25–26
 official silence about massacre in, 21–22
 postcolonial border changes, 44–53
 racial and national consciousness in, 40–42
 re-annexation to Spain by, 46–47 recurring charges of racism in, 10–13 religion in, 219–222 slavery and racial conflict and, 39–44
 slave uprising in, 46–47
 sugar boom in, 28–29, 59–61 taxation of rural border commerce by,
 198–199
 U.S. military occupation of, 26–31, 48–50
 Dominican Restoration War, 48
 Doñe, Andrés, 126–133 dual naming, Haitian-Dominican practice of, 120–122, 179–180
 Duarte, Juan Pablo, 45–46
 Duvalier, Jean-Claude, 264–265
- economic conditions binational nature of, on Haitian-Dominican border, 95–98 contraband trafficking in border regions
 and, 101–107
 excuse-making by border detainees as reflection of, 102–104 in Haiti, 196–198
 in post-Massacre Dominican Republic, 196–198
 state laws and intrusion on, 125–126 edible wild plants, post-Massacre survivors reliance on, 227–228
 Edouard, Joseph, 97–98
 Elestia, Alteyon, 111 Elia, Paul, 95–96 elite Dominicans anti-Haitian sentiment among, 130–133 scientific racism embraced by, 10–13
 Eller, Anne, 5–6, 43–44
El masacre se pasa a pie (Prestol Castillo), 244–245
 Ernesto, Ladislao, 192–193
 Estime, Relio, 75
 Estrella, Daniel, 177–178 ethnic cleansing, history of, 6–7 “Ethnic Cleansing in the Caribbean” (Pierre), 258–259 ethnic consciousness, in Haitian-Dominican border region, 114, 120–126 ethnic Dominicans anti-Haitian sentiment and,
 130–133 assistance to Massacre survivors from, 150–151
 contraband arrests of, 101–107
 definition of, 54
 Haitian Massacre accounts from,
 137–138
 Haitian Massacre participation by, 150–151, 153–154
 land seizure and pillaging during Massacre by, 153–154, 228–234 livestock theft in border region and, 247–249
 marketplace interactions, 196–198
 migration patterns of, 54–55 positive relations with Haitians, 128n.21 post-Massacre conflict with Haitian refugees, 158–162, 228–234
 racial and ethnic slurs used by, 126–133
 repression of Kreyòl language and, 211–214
 ethnic Haitians. See also Dominican-born ethnic Haitians
 afterlives of genocide for, 250–253

- ethnic Haitians. (cont.)
 birth and property certificates required for, 61–67
 birthright claims of, 76–78
cédula requirement and, 107–112 civilian racism and discrimination against, 122–126 concealment and misrepresentation about campaign against, 167 in Cuba, 30
 definition of, 53–55
 displacement and denationalization campaign against, 3–6, 61–67, 70–78
 documentation primacy for, 261–263 Dominican nationality campaign against, 3–6
 as Dominican property-owners, 63 early displacement efforts against, 49–50 early twentieth century status of, 69 economic usefulness of, 69
 Executive Order 372 and, 60–61 foreigner label in Dominican Republic
 for, 115
 government positions held by, 63, 121–122, 126
 history in Dominican Republic of, 6–10 invasive searches of homes of, 107 Massacre River in memory of, 157–158
 migration patterns of, 54–55
 national round-up of, 169–174 official lists of, 183–186 police targeting and mistreatment of, 99–101
 popular stereotypes of, 120–122 post-genocide border challenges by, 225–234
 post-genocide land contestation by, 226 post-genocide survival strategies of, 225–234
 post-Massacre return to the border by, 157–162, 229–234
 post-Massacre round-up and relocation of, 208–211
 property ownership and prosperity for, 140 racial profiling of, 6–7 racial slurs used against, 117–120 resistance, fight and survival strategies of, 178–183
 rights of, 61–67
 in Samaná region, 216–219 sources and records about, 13–17 stigmatization of, 174–178 ethnic origin citizenship and nationality and, 3–6 rights to citizenship and Dominican nationality and, 70–76
 Etienne, Lendal, 150–151
 Etienne, Oguisten, 97–98
 European immigration incentivization campaign, 7–8, 10–13, 29 Haitian-Dominican border
 transformation and, 90–91
 European Jewish refugees, in Dominican Republic, 185 excuse-making by border detainees, cultural and economic factors in border crossings and, 102–104
 Executive Order 372 (1919) (U.S.), 7–8 anti-Haitianism and, 19–20 border enforcement under, 51–53 ethnic Haitians targeted by, 61–67 human rights for Haitian-Dominicans linked to, 259–260
 impact on immigration of, 59–61 licencia de permanencia and, 27–28 racialized policy in, 10–13 statelessness of Dominican-born ethnic Haitians under, 82–87, 131–133, 253–254
 white supremacist ideology, 29–30
 Fanon, Gaspar, 17, 146–147, 153–154
The Farming of Bones (Danticat), 114–115 fascism, Trujillo's embrace of, 17–19
 Félix, Jose, 178–185
 Fenay, Fenelice, 144
 Fernández, Leonel, 264–265 fictional representations of Haitian Massacre, 6n.11, 114–115, 226–227, 244–245
 Filoma, Filisma, 76–78
 Fish, Hamilton, 32–33 fishing, secret post-Massacre Haitian engagement in, 243–244
 Fleurant, Maismy-Mary, 48
 Fleurimé, St. Ilme, Fleurimé 161 forced internal relocation of ethnic Haitians, 208–211
 of mixed Haitian-Dominicans and rayanos, 189–196, 205–208, 222–224 forced labor

- by ethnic Haitian detainees, 172
- of ethnic Haitians, 208–211
- Saint Domingue, 42–43
- foreign capital, Haitian and Dominican governments and role of, 48–50
- foreign status for Dominican-born ethnic Haitians
 - transition to, 78–81, 115, 120–122
 - Trujillo-era institution of, 71–73, 131–133
- Francisco, Martin, 29–30
- Franco, Emelia, 123–124
- Francois, Clement, 168–169
- François, Simeon, 216–218
- Fransua, Filomena, 99
- French colonialism, Hispaniola and, 40–42

- García, Elizardo, 95–96
- García, Juan Manuel, 153
- García, Manuel, 148
- García Peña, Lorgia, 43–44
- Garzon, Etienne, 76–78
- Gastón, Brener, 168–169
- Gédéon, Eloisa, 18–19, 136–137, 228
- Geffrard, Fabre Nicolas, 47
- Genao, Jacinta, 123–124
- Genao, Manuel, 126–133
- genocide
 - archival methodology in research on, 13–17
 - Haitian massacre classified as, 17–19, 31–38
 - Haitian massacre in historical context of, 10–13
- genocide studies
 - absence of Haitian massacre in, 32–38
 - establishment of, 20
- geography of repression
 - Haitian-Dominican border and, 38–53
 - Massacre River as Haitian Massacre site, 155–158
- Gevelo, Elvetis, 79–80
- Gomez, Capeto, 166
- Gomez, Peña, 147–148
- Gomez family, 265
- Gonzalez, Arturo, 165, 180–182
- González, Raymundo, 40
- Gran Colombia confederation, 45
- Grito de Capotillo* uprising, 47–48
- Guacacuba, Dominican Republic, mass deportation of ethnic Haitians from, 71–74, 76–78. See also La Colonia Trinitaria
- Guardia de Frontera, 7–8
- Guistal, Roselia, 105–106

- Haiti. See also Hispaniola; Saint Domingue
 - agricultural economy in, 196–198
 - independence in 1804, 42–43
 - postcolonial border changes, 44–53
 - taxation of rural border commerce by, 198–199
 - U.S. military occupation of, 26–31, 48–50
 - wartime policies and food shortages in, 246
- Haitian culture, Dominicanization
 - eradication of Haitian lifeways and religion, 214–216
- Haitian-Dominican border region
 - absence of government in, 88–91
 - afterlives of genocide in, 250–253
 - agriculture in, 196–198
 - arrests and ethnic profiling in, 91–94, 99–101
 - border solidification after Haitian Massacre, 157–158
 - cédula* requirement impact in, 107–112
 - closures of, 67–68
 - commerce along, 198–199
 - contraband trafficking in, 101–107, 199–205
 - cross-border movement in, 88–91
 - Dominican-Haitian refugee conflicts in post-Massacre period, 229–234
 - Dominicanization in, 187–188
 - early twentieth-century transformation of, 59–61
 - ethnic and cultural divisions in, 114, 120–122, 126–134
 - ethnic Haitian residences in post-Massacre period, 241–243
 - fishing by post-Massacre ethnic Haitians in, 243–244
 - genocide refugees' encroachment in Dominican territory, 225–234
 - Haitian immigrant arrests in, 67–68
 - Haitian linguistic influence in, 126–133
 - Haitian Massacre bodies distributed along, 156–158
 - Haitian property ownership and prosperity in, 138–141
 - history in Hispaniola of, 39–44

- Haitian-Dominican border region (cont.) illegal crossings on, 67–68, 94–101, 199–205 interethnic border communities, 43–44 land occupation by post-Massacre ethnic Haitians in, 243–244 livestock management by post-Massacre Haitians, 243–244 livestock theft in, 244–250 local complicity in Haitian Massacre and, 148–151
 neoliberal economy and, 264–265
 postcolonial border changes, 44–53 public scandal and slander incidents in, 116–117 racial and ethnic slurs used in, 126–133 racial tension in, 122–126 rayanos and mixed Haitian-Dominicans in, 189–196 religious beliefs and practices in, 219–224 repression of Kreyòl language in, 211–214 secret cross-border farms in, 234–244, 250–253
 Trujillo era repression and enforcement in, 88–91
 U.S. occupation and, 51–53, 59–61, 88–91
- Haitian-Dominican border treaty of 1929, 88–89
- Haitian-Dominicans. See Dominican-born ethnic Haitians
- Haitian immigrants, border arrests of, 67–68, 91–94, 99–101
- Haitian Massacre of 1937
 afterlives of genocide and, 250–253
 concealment and misrepresentation about, 211 deaths of children and babies in, 16–17, 136–137, 146–148 death toll estimates for, 2–3n.2, 15 documentation sources on, 141–143 erasure of genocide studies of, 32–38 evidence of, 21–22
 extortion of captors during, 152–153 fictional representations of, 6n.11, 114–115, 226–227, 244–245 genocide and historical context of, 10–13 genocide classification for, 17–19, 31–38 land seizure and pillaging during, 137–138, 151–154 local complicity in, 148–151 Massacre River as site of, 155–158 newspaper accounts of, 16, 21–22 official concealment of, 25–26 oral history record of, 15 ‘Parsley Massacre’ epithet for, 132–133 political legacy in Dominican Republic of, 162–163 post-massacre fear of sombi, 223 premeditated planning for, 143–148 property confiscation during, 140–141 psychological terror of, 156–158 racism ideology and, 260–261
 regional patterns in, 23
 rural land grab as motivation for, 137–138 secrecy and deception surrounding, 144–145, 149 statistics on refugee survivors of, 226–227 survivors’ testimonies about, 135–137, 142–143, 146–148 terminology used for descriptions of, 23–24 timeline and narrative of, 21–25
 Valdez’s account of, 2–6
- haitiano* epithet, Trujillo-era emergence of, 131–133
- Haitian Revolution (1791), 42–43
- Haiti Español, creation of, 45
- haitiphobia, in Dominican discourse, 4–5
- Haytian American Development Company, 26–31
- Haytian Fruit Company, 26–31
- Hernandez, Delfín, 241–243
- Hernandez, Elías, 9–10, 82–83
- Heureaux, Ulises, 47–49
- Hintzen, Amalia, 19–20, 261–263
- Hispanidad* ideology anti-Haitianism in Dominican Republic and, 17–19 impact in Dominican society of, 267–268 re-annexation to Spain by Dominican Republic and, 46–47 slavery and racial conflict linked to, 39–44
- Hispaniola
 history of slavery and racial conflict on, 39–44 Spanish and French colonization of, 40–42
- Hobsbawm, Eric, 245

- Holocaust, Haitian Massacre in context of, 36–38
- human rights, citizenship rights as, 256–260
- Hurst, Harry, 28–29
- Hurston, Zora Neale, 223
- identity documents, Haitian strategic manipulation of, 178–183
- Illis, Tina, 107, 115–116
- immigration forces and policies
- border arrests of Haitian immigrants, 67–68, 91–94, 99–101
 - concealment and misrepresentation in, 164–169
 - deportation of ethnic Haitians and, 38–39
 - discrimination against ethnic Haitians in, 61–67, 70–76
 - Dominican racialized legislation and, 7–8
 - ethnic Haitians relegation to sugar industry and, 262–263
 - institutional discrimination and, 257–260
 - local government and, 178–183
 - nationwide round-ups, 169–174
 - officers participation in Haitian Massacre, 149–150
- immigration tax
- imposition on Dominican-born ethnic Haitians, 73–75, 113
 - nationwide round-ups linked to collection of, 170–171
 - Trujillo-era imposition of, 72–73
- indigence, stigmatization of ethnic Haitians and, 174–178
- Inter-American Court of Human Rights, 258–259
- Isaac, Anacelle, 19, 150–151
- Jacoby, Russell, 18–19, 148–151
- Jacque, Pepe, 69
- Jacques, Pedro Maria, 97–98
- Jayaram, Kiran, 264–265
- Jean, Cime, 136–137, 151–152
- Jean, Clasilus, 102
- Jean, Crecilia, 123–124
- Jean, Fifine, 139
- Jean, Filomena, 67–68, 99–101
- Jean, Fisaina, 102
- Jean, Gilbert, 16–17, 90–91
- Jean, Joseph, 94–95
- Jean, Margarita, 104–105
- Jean-Baptiste, Dieudonné, 228
- Jean-Baptiste, Flerisma, 86–87
- Jean-Joseph, Josué, 124–133
- Jones, Adam, 35
- Jose, Sante, 82–83
- Jose, Susana, 130–131
- Joseph, Alteon, 146–149
- Joseph, Antonio, 178–183
- Joseph, Clemencia, 95–96
- Joseph, Dumesle, 48
- Joseph, Graveis, 109–110
- Joseph, Israel, 120–122
- Joseph, Marie, 152–153
- Joseph, Simé, 120–122
- Julien, Germaine, 16–17, 53
- jus sanguini* principle, citizenship and, 3–6, 255–260
- jus solis* principle, citizenship and, 3–6, 255–260
- Kiche, Richard, 75
- Kiernan, Ben, 34
- kou pye* shrub, post-Massacre survivors reliance on, 227–228
- 'kout dwèt' (fingerpointing)
- local officials participation in Massacre through, 148–151
 - targeting of ethnic Haitians with, 132–133
- Kreyòl language, 120–122, 126–133
- Dominicanization and repression of, 211–214
- La Colonia Trinitaria. See also Guacacuba
- arrests and ethnic profiling in, 91–94
- land seizure
- arson, threats, and post-Massacre politics in refugee land claims, 229–234
 - Haitian Massacre and, 137–138, 151–154
 - post-genocide refugees' land claims and, 225–234
- language
- Haitian and Dominican cultural/linguistic influences in, 117–120
 - Haitian linguistic influence in Dominican Republic, 126–133
 - popular stereotypes of Haitian language, 120–122
- law and order rhetoric, modernization ideology and, 70, 125–126
- Ledesma, Jean Baptiste, 63

- Lemba, Sebastián, 216–217
 Lemkin, Raphaël, 20, 36–37
 Lens, Sentelis, 121
Le peuple des terres mêlées (Philoctète), 194
 Lescot, Élie, 2–3n.2, 198–199
 Lescot, Henri, 207–208, 233–234
 Lespès, Anthony, 226–227
 Libón River, as Massacre site, 155–158 license of temporary permanence (licencia de permanencia temporal), 7–8, 27–28, 59–61, 82–83 lieue de mémoire, Haitian Massacre and, 155–158 limpieza de sangre concept, slavery and racial conflict linked to, 39–44 Liriano, Jose D., 107
 livestock
 Haitian-Dominican border economy and, 97–98, 138–141 post-massacre ethnic Haitian raising of, 243–244 theft of, as social banditry, 244–250 local government complicity in Haitian Massacre and, 148–151 ethnic Haitians in offices of, 63, 121–122, 126 official lists of ethnic Haitians and, 183–186 rayanos and mixed Haitian-Dominicans identification by, 191–192, 195–196 round-ups, arrests and deportation involvement of, 178–183
 Lorbeté, Decidel, 228
 Lorbeté, Devilia, 16–17, 228
 Louverture, Toussaint, 42–43
lua (lwa) worship, 216–219
 Luis, Desiderio, 210
 Luis, Nini, 182
 Luis, Rosa, 117–118
 Luisant, Luisilia, 83
 “Luis Pie” (Bosch), 43–44
 Lundahl, Mats, 4–5, 222–224
 Lundius, Jan, 222–224
 Luperon, Gregorio, 47–48

 Macallé family, 231–233
 Macasías land conflict in, 213–214 postgenocide conflict in, 229–234 Madley, Benjamin, 31, 36–37

 magic and sorcery, Haitians associated with, 117–120 Mamdani, Mahmoud, 25–26
 Mamontel, Chervilia, 80–81
 Mañon, Jacinto I. (Dr.), 174–175
 Manuel, Pitipiti, 170–171
 Marcadieu family, 231–233
 Marcelin, Antonio, 146–148
 Marcelis, Nentias, 75 Marcelis, Pierre, 75
 marketplace interactions
 binational character on Haitian-Dominican border of, 95–98 clandestine cross-border farms, sale of food from, 238–239 closing of border markets and, 196–198
 contraband trafficking and, 101–107
 currency, taxation and state control of, 198–199 escalation of racial and ethnic slurs in, 122–126 geography, economics, and politics and, 196–198 illegal crossings and contraband and, 199–205 public squabbling and slander incidents and, 116–120 repression of Kreyòl language and, 211–214
 Maroons (marronage, cimarrones, mawonaj) agriculture of, 234–244 early rebellions by, 39 as ethnic Dominicans, 54* historical foods of, 227–228 as rayanos, 189–196
 as refugees, 185–186 resistance, flight and survival strategies of, 178–183 in Spanish colonies, 40–42, 227–228
 Marte, Melido, 213–214
 Martínez, Angel, 205–208
 Martínez, José, 210
 Martínez Arana, Jacinto, 212, 216
 Massacre River, as Massacre site, 155–158
 Matirén, Maria, 64, 76–78
 McLeod, Marc, 30, 185–186
 Melina, Ramon A., 216–217
 Mella, Matías Ramón, 45–46 mental patients, deportation of, 174–175
 Messidor, Yantelle, 69

- Metelis, Jouissant, 138
 Metellis, Louis, 83–84, 86
 Michel, Selima, 136–137, 227–228 migrant laborers. See also braçeros (field workers) Cuban sugar industry and, 30, 185–186 ethnic Dominicans and, 54
 Executive Order 372 and, 27–28, 60–61
 forcible relocation of ethnic Haitians and, 208–211 foreign status imposed on ethnic Haitians, 255–260 neoliberal economy and, 264–265
 taxation of, 169–174
 Milat, Notilia, 227–228, 236
 Milien, Jose, 83–84 military forces of Dominican Republic
 deportation of ethnic Haitians and, 164–165, 174–178 illegal crossing and contraband by, 203
 livestock theft in border region and, 246–249
 news coverage of Massacre and, 141–143 post-Massacre defense of land by, 228–229, 236, 239–243 post-Massacre Haitian attacks on, 233–234 post-Massacre violence by, 250–253 rayanos and mixed Haitian-Dominicans, internal relocation by, 189–196, 205–208 repression by, 10–13 role in Haitian Massacre of, 31–38 suppression of records by, 22, 136–152, 187–188 Mintz, Sidney, 217–218
 mixed Haitian-Dominicans
 Dominicanization campaign and, 189–196
 Executive Order 372 arrests of, 64 forced internal relocation of, 189–196, 205–208, 222–224 forcible relocation of, 185–186, 193–196
 marketplace interactions, 196–198
 modernization initiatives Euro-centric vision of, 29 legality framework for, 70, 125–126
 Molosó, Hibana, 191
 Monpremier, Francilia, 136–137, 155–159, 236–237
 Monsieur, Limenez, 78–79
 Moral, Paul, 88
 Morales, Perez, 166
Movimiento de Mujeres Dominicano-Haitianas (MUDHA), 258–259, 266
 Moya Pons, Frank, 49–50, 191–192 myth-making, Dominicanization campaign and, 187–188
 Napoleon, Makit, 136–137, 139
 Napoleon, Saintilus, 136–137
 Narciso, Eshina, 104–105
 Narcisse, Saint-Ange, 99–101, 112–113 National Guard (Dominican Republic) border patrols of, 59–61
 U.S. establishment of, 48–50
 neighborly violence Haitian massacre as, 18–19
 local complicity in Haitian Massacre and, 148–151
 Nemesio de Moya, Casimiro, 119–120 neoliberal economy, migrant labor and, 264–265 newspaper accounts of Haitian massacre, 16, 21–22, 32–35
 Trujillo manipulation efforts and, 141–143
New York Times, 32–33, 141–143
 Norweb, Henry, 21–22
 Núñez de Cáceres, José, 45
 Offrand, Maria, 96–97
 Ortega Frier, Julio, 70
 Osorio, Antonio de, 40–42
 The Oxford Handbook of Genocide Studies (Kiernan), 34 PadreJean, 42 paintings, Haitian Massacre in, 156–157
 Panama Canal, 48–50
 “passing” strategies of Dominican-born Haitians, 265–269
 Patterson, William L., 35
 Paul, Sentilia, 69
 Paulino, Edward, 7–8, 15, 18–19, 148
 Peace of Ryswick (1697), 41
Peasants and Religion (Lundius & Lundahl), 222–224
 Peguero Oscar Ernesto, 199–205
 Peña Batlle, Manuel Arturo, 70
 Peña Gomez, José Francisco, 151, 265
perejil epithet, post-Massacre emergence of, 132–133

- Perez, Celestino (Clestino Pierre), 99
 Perez, Julio, 205–208
 Perez, Tomas E. (Dr.), 174–175
 Petion, Antoine, 109–110
 Philip III (King of Spain), 40–42
 Philoctète, René (Philoctète), 194, 226–227
 physicians and health professionals, involvement of ethnic Haitian deportation, 174–178
 Pié, Jose, 174–175
 Pier, Lembe, 216–219
 Pierre, Albea, 86
 Pierre, Alfonso, 98–99
 Pierre, Filomar, 85–86
 Pierre, Francique, 236
 Pierre, Irélia, 139–140
 Pierre, Juliana Degius, 256–260
 Pierre, Marcellus, 149
 Pierre, Massillon, 108
 Pierre, Merida, 146–148
 Pierre, Monier, 80–81
 Pierre, Natividad, 66
 Pierre, Parchide, 152–153
 Pierre, Ramona, 150–151
 Pierre, Sonia, 257–260
 Pierrot, Jean-Louis, 46–47
 Poché family, survival narrative of, 194 police abuse and exploitation by, 112–113
cédula requirement and, 107–112 conviction of anti-Haitian actions by, 125 ethnic Haitian targeting and mistreatment
 by, 99–101
 forced internal relocation of ethnic Haitians and, 210–211
 Haitian Massacre and role of, 18–19, 136–137, 148–151
 increased authoritarianism of, 125–126 invasive searches of homes by, 107 medical examinations of ethnic Haitians
 by, 174–178
 national round-up of Haitians and role of, 172 protection of ethnic Haitians by, 126–133
 Polo, Digozie, 107–112
 Prestol Castillo, Freddy, 244–245
 Price-Mars, Jean, 2–3n.2, 21–22 property ownership Dominican ethnic Haitians citizenship linked to, 61–67, 69
 ethnic Haitian prosperity linked to, 138–141
 Haitians culture and importance of,
 217–218
 Trujillo-era deportation challenges involving, 72–78
 Prophète, Ernst, 156–157
 Prophil, Prosper, 16 psychological terror, Haitian Massacre and, 156–158 public scandal incidents, escalation in border region of, 117–120, 122–126 racial and ethnic slurs escalation in civilian population of, 122–126
 Haitian linguistic influence on, 126–133 historical origins of, 134 post-Massacre Haitian name-calling in border region, 231–233
 Trujillo-era escalation of, 131–133 racism and racial consciousness in American-owned businesses, 28–29 Atlantic and Caribbean history of, 126–133
 citizenship denial based on, 256–260 contemporary codification of, 261 Dominican immigration policies and, 7–8
 of ethnic Haitians, 6–7 ethnic Haitians and, 6–7 in Executive Order 372, 10–13, 59–61 historical evolution on Hispaniola of, 39–44
 rights to citizenship and Dominican nationality and, 70–76
 Ramirez, Leonidas, 81
 Rankin, James, 32–33
 Rape of Nanjing, 36–38
raptos ritual, 219–222
rayanos (border-dwelling people)
 Dominicanization campaign and, 189–196
 forced internal relocation of, 189–196,
 205–208, 222–224
 Haitian residents in Dominican Republic characterized as, 2–6
 history of, 43–44
 marketplace interactions, 196–198
 origin of term, 3n.3

- “reconoci.do” movement, 266
- refugees of Haitian Massacre
- afterlives of genocide for, 250–253
 - fate of, 185–186
- reintegration campaign, mixed Dominican-Haitian families and, 194
- religious beliefs and practices
- in Dominican Republic, 219–222
 - in Haitian-Dominican border region, 222–224
- pilgrimages, illegal border crossings for, 94–101
- repeating island cycle in Caribbean history, 42–43
- resistance by ethnic Haitians
- post-Massacre livestock theft as, 244–250
 - post-Massacre violence and, 250–253
 - secret cross-border farms of post-Massacre survivors, 234–244, 250–253
 - strategies of, 178–183, 228–229
- Revilo, Lomeis, 78–79
- Reyes, Rosita, 124–133
- Reyes, Susana, 130–131
- Reynolds, Quentin, 2–3n.2, 14–15, 21–22
- Richard, Teló, 111
- Rifen, Cifen, 65–66
- right to have rights, Haitian statelessness and, 257–260
- Rivière-Hérard, Charles, 46–47
- Robert, Father Émile, 2–3n.2
- Roca, Divina, 207–208
- Rodriguez, Jose, 84–85
- Rosario Sánchez, Francisco del, 45–48
- Roumain, Jacques, 35–36
- round-ups
- of braçeros, 208–211
 - DGM evidence of, 14–15, 22
 - early border escalation of, 38–39, 80
 - nationwide round-ups, 169–174
 - pre- and post-Massacre roundups, 164–165, 208–211
- Rueda, Manuel, 43–44
- Ruling 168-13, citizenship provisions in, 256–260
- Rwandan genocide, Haitian massacre compared to, 25–26
- Saint Domingue (now Haiti), French colonization of, 41–42
- salt tax, Trujillo’s imposition of, 105–107
- Samaná region, Haitian culture in, 216–219
- San Domingo Improvement Company, 49
- sanitation and hygiene laws
- border control escalation based on, 98–99, 125–126
 - ethnic Haitian deportations based on, 73
 - national round-up linked to, 171
 - stigmatization of ethnic Haitians as diseased, 174–178
- San Lorenzo de los Negros Mina (slave settlement), 42
- Santana, Manuel, 170–171, 179–180
- Santana, Pedro, 46–47
- Santo Domingo (now Dominican Republic)
- abolition of slavery on, 42–43, 45
 - colonial history of, 39–44
 - Haitian invasion of, 42–43
 - re-annexation of, 46–47
 - as slave refuge and settlement, 42–43
- scientific racism
- anti-Haitianism in Dominican Republic and influence of, 17–19
 - Dominican elites and influence of, 10–13
- Scott, James C., 238–239
- Séjourné, George, 26–31
- Sentil, Sentilea, 81
- Senvilís Senvíl, Devuanciá, 120
- Senvito, Sensila, 104–105
- Shal, Semeis, 63, 121–122
- Silven, Petion, 76–78
- Simarra reyes, Victor, 227–228
- Sinois, Alseis, 109
- Skidmore, Thomas, 29–30
- skin color
- citizenship linked to, 70–76, 133–134
 - Dominicanization campaign and, 187–188
 - ethnic superiority linked to, 133–134
 - passing strategy for ethnic Haitians and, 265–269
 - rayanos* and mixed Haitian-Dominicans, 191
- slander incidents, escalation in border region of, 117–120, 122–126
- slavery, history on Hispaniola of, 39–44
- Smith, Matthew, 173–174
- Snowden, Thomas, 7–8, 59–61
- social banditry, post-Massacre livestock theft as, 244–250
- Sodis, Juanis, 9–10, 91–94
- Sombí* (zonbi, zombies), 222–224

- Souloque (Haitian emperor), 46–47
- Spanish language, Haitian linguistic influence in Dominican Spanish, 126–133
- Spanish mercantilism loss of Hispaniola and, 40–42 slavery and racial conflict and, 39–44
- Spanish Restoration
 history of, 46–47
 racial politics of, 5–6
- state-building in Dominican Republic Haitian-Dominican border
 transformation and, 90–91
 racist vision of, 70–76
- statelessness of ethnic Haitians Dominican denationalization campaign and, 20
 historical evolution of, 253–254 Ruling 168–13 and, 256–260
- St. Hubert, Joseph, 144
- St. Vil, Osse, 144
- sugar industry
 colonial history of, 39–44
 decline of, 264–265 ethnic Haitian forced labor in, 208–211, 262–263
 sugar boom (Dominican Republic), 28–29, 59–61
- survival strategies of Dominican-born Haitians, 265–269 of post-Massacre Haitians, 178–183, 194, 225–244
- Teleyran, Teresa, 146–148
- temporary residence permits Dominican-born ethnic Haitians’
 payment for, 86
 Dominican-born ethnic Haitians’ protest
 of, 83
 Trujillo-era institution of, 76–81
- Terelis, Denis, 86
- theft and pillaging by post-Massacre
 Haitians, 229–234
- ti banza* (tuber), post-Massacre survivors reliance on, 227–228
- Tiresias, Jean, 48
- Tiresias, Madame, 138
- trade restrictions, Haitian and Dominican imposition of, 198–199
- Trinitaria (pro-independence secret society), 45–46
- Trouillot, Michel-Rolph, 13–14, 33–34, 217–218
- Trujillo, Rafael anti-Black prejudice escalation under, 126–133
 anti-Haitian campaign of, 10, 37–38 border controls imposed by, 88–91 currency policies of, 199
 Dominicanization campaign and, 54–55, 187–188 eradication of Haitian lifeways and religion under, 214–216
 fascism embraced by, 17–19
 Haitian deportations under, 38n.56
 Haitian massacre and, 2–6, 21–25
 nationwide round-ups and, 169–174
 Nobel Peace Prize nomination for, 26 official lists of ethnic Haitians under, 183–186
 persecution of post-Massacre returning Haitians by, 157–158 planning for Haitian Massacre by, 167–168
 post-genocide border policies of, 225–234 post-Massacre agricultural colonization and, 137–138
 premeditative planning for Haitian Massacre by, 143–148
 property seizures by, 140–141 racial and ethnic ideology under, 193–196
 religion under, 219–222
 repression of Kreyòl language under, 211–214
 rights to citizenship and Dominican nationality under, 70–76
 sugar industry controlled by, 208–211
 U.S. links to, 48–52
- Turits, Richard, 2–3n.2, 15, 53–55
- UN Convention on Genocide, 36–38
- United States
 Dominican border control and, 7–8 enforcement of Executive Order 372 by, 19–20, 29–30
 genocide and ethnic cleansing in, 31
 Haitian massacre and role of, 10–13
 involvement Haitian massacre of, 26–31 occupation of Haiti and Dominican Republic by, 48–50
 response to Haitian massacre in, 32–38

- vagabond laws, Trujillo's imposition of, 90–91
- Valdez, Reynaldo, 259–260
- Dominicanization campaign and, 189–196
- Dominican race and national consciousness and, 42–43
- on Haitian fraud strategies, 180–182
- Haitian Massacre and, 2–6, 21–25, 167
- nationwide round-ups and, 169–174
- official concealment of Massacre and, 25–26
- stigmatization of Haitians by, 177–178
- Vargas, Luis, 261
- Vatican records of Haitian massacre, 21–22
- Véard, Barbot, 16
- Vega, Bernardo, 2–3n.2, 14–15, 26, 30–31, 128n.21, 244–245
- velas a los santos* ritual, 219–222
- Velos, Alcides A. (Dr.), 175
- Vensant, Octavien, 63
- Verdreu, Vernet, 168–169
- Veya, Destin, 94–95
- Vidal, Mercedes, 120
- Vidor, Oguist, 67–68
- Vincent, Sténio, 21–26, 225–226
- violence against ethnic Haitians
- escalation in border region of, 122–126
- post-Massacre continuation of, 250–253
- Vodou* religion, 216–219
- Catholic campaign against, 221–222
- prevalence in Haitian culture of, 117–120
- rituals and traditions of, 222–224
- Volmar, Solón, 129
- Volmar, Zephir, 139
- “We Charge Genocide” petition, 35
- whiteness, Spanish-colonial context of, 40
- whitening ideology
- ethnic profiling in Haitian-Dominican order regions and, 91–94
- in Latin American political thought, 29–30
- Yean and Bosico children v. the Dominican Republic*, 258–259
- Yena, Previlía, 109
- Zapata, Modesto, 174–175
- Zeller, Emilio, 21–25, 185
- zonbi*. See sombì