

Contents

List of Figures	page viii
List of Maps	x
Acknowledgements	xi
Note to the Reader	xiii
List of Abbreviations	xiv
Introduction	1
1 Conflict: Imperial Attempts to Terminate Nomadic Domination in the Arab Countryside and the Tribal Response	35
2 Reinforcement: Land Settlements and Military Fortification in the Desert and Its Frontiers, 1840–1870	66
3 Expansion, Reaction and Reconciliation I: Establishment of the Deir al-Zor Mutasarrıfate and Reconciliation with the Fid'an and Deir al-Zor's Shammar	99
4 Expansion, Reaction and Reconciliation II: Nomads and the Extension of the Ottoman Administration into the South of Syria	132
5 Partnership, Provincialization and Conflict: The Shammar in the Provinces of Mosul, Baghdad and Deir al-Zor, 1870–1914	173
6 Taxation: The Collection of the Shammar and Anizah Duties	201
7 Justice: The Imperial Legal System and the Bedouin Disputes	230
Conclusions	257
Bibliography	263
Index	272
	vii