

Contents

List of Contributors	page xii
Foreword
DAVID T. HANSEN	xix
Acknowledgments	xxiii
Note on Abbreviations	xxiv
 Introduction
LEONARD J. WAKS & ANDREA R. ENGLISH	1
 Part I Companion Chapters	3
 Introduction to Part I
LEONARD J. WAKS	5
1 Learning by Doing and Communicating
On Chapter 1: Education as a Necessity of Life
LEONARD J. WAKS	15
Renewal of Life by Transmission	16
Education and Communication	19
The Place of Formal Education	20
2 Learning and Its Environments
On Chapter 2: Education as a Social Function
LOREN GOLDMAN	23
The Nature and Meaning of Environment	24
The Social Environment	25
The Social Medium as Educative	27
The School as Special Environment	28
3 Giving Form and Structure to Experience
On Chapter 3: Education as Direction
A.G. RUD	31
Modes of Social Direction	32
On Imitation	34
Problems in the Text	35

vi	Contents
24	Growth, Habits, and Plasticity in Education On Chapter 4: Education as Growth
	SARAH M. STITZLEIN	38
	The Context of Dewey's Writing	38
	Defining Growth	39
	Cultivating Habits	41
	Growth, Habits and Plasticity in Contemporary Schools and Educational Philosophy	43
25	Democracy without Telos : Education for a Future Uncertain On Chapter 5: Preparation, Unfolding and Formal Discipline
	GONZALO OBELLEIRO	46
	Non-Teleological Growth	46
	Four Evils Today	50
	Conclusion	52
26	What Is the Role of the Past in Education? On Chapter 6: Education as Conservative and Progressive
	ANDREA R. ENGLISH	54
	Education as Formation	54
	Education as Recapitulation and Retrospection	58
	Education as Reconstruction	61
27	"A Mode of Associated Living": The Distinctiveness of Deweyan Democracy On Chapter 7: The Democratic Conception in Education
	KATHLEEN KNIGHT ABOWITZ	64
	The Implications of Human Association	64
	The Democratic Ideal	66
	Summary	72
28	A Democratic Theory of Aims On Chapter 8: Aims in Education
	LEONARD J. WAKS	73
	The Nature of Aims	74
	Criteria for Good Aims	76
	Applications in Education	78
	Aims in Education after Dewey	79
29	What Is the Purpose of Education?: Dewey's Challenge to His Contemporaries On Chapter 9: Natural Development and Social Efficiency as Aims
	AVI I. MINTZ	81
	Nature as Supplying the Aim	82
	Social Efficiency as Aim	84

	Contents	vii
Culture as Aim	86
Summary	88
10 Shaping and Sharing Democratic Aims: Reconstructing Interest and Discipline
On Chapter 10: Interest and Discipline
TERRI S. WILSON	89
What does Dewey mean by Interest and Discipline?	90
Key Lessons for Education	92
Key Lessons for Democratic Life	96
11 Experience and Thinking: Transforming our Perspective on Learning
On Chapter 11: Experience and Thinking
ANDREA R. ENGLISH	99
The Nature of Experience and Its Connection to Learning	99
Reflection in Experience	102
The Paradox of Thought as a Challenge for Educators	105
12 The Role of Thinking in Education: Why Dewey Still Raises the Bar on Educators
On Chapter 12: Thinking in Education
JOHN P. SMITH III & SPENCER P. GREENHALGH	108
Dewey's View on "Thinking" and Its Centrality to Education	109
Thinking and Problems in Contemporary Education	113
Closing	115
13 Method: Intelligent Engagement with Subject Matter
On Chapter 13: The Nature of Method
DORIS A. SANTORO	117
The Unity of Subject Matter and Method	119
Method as General and as Individual	120
The Traits of Individual Method	121
14 Subject Matter: Combining "Learning by Doing" with Past Collective Experience
On Chapter 14: The Nature of Subject Matter
MEINERT A. MEYER	124
Learning by Doing	125
Subject Matter	133
Conclusion: Combining Learning by Doing with Past Collective Experience	135
15 Work, Play, and Learning
On Chapter 15: Play and Work in the Curriculum
CHRISTOPHER WINCH	137
Work and Play	137

viii	Contents
	Dewey on Play and Kerschensteiner's Conception of Productive Work	139
	Practical and Vocational Education	143
	Concluding Remarks	144
16	Boundaries as Limits and Possibilities
	On Chapter 16: The Significance of Geography and History
	SCOTT L. PRATT	146
	The Role of Geography and History in Education	146
	Teaching and Learning How to Extend Connections	149
	Critical Tension in the Text	152
17	Knowing Scientifically Is Essential for Democratic Society
	On Chapter 17: Science in the Course of Study
	CHRISTINE MCCARTHY	155
	The Nature of Science	155
	Teaching Science	158
	Science and Intellectual Development	159
	Science and Humanism	161
	Science and Naturalism	162
	Science and Democracy	163
	Final Words	164
18	Educational Values: Schools as Cultures of Imagination, Growth, and Fulfillment
	On Chapter 18: Educational Values
	STEVEN FESMIRE	167
	The Nature of Realization or Appreciation	167
	The Valuation of Studies	173
	The Segregation and Organization of Values	174
19	The Value of the Present: Rethinking Labor and Leisure through Education
	On Chapter 19: Labor and Leisure
	SCOTT R. STROUD	177
	Labor versus Leisure	177
	Labor and Leisure as Social Products	179
	Reconceptualizing Means and Ends	180
20	An Old Story: Dewey's Account of the Opposition between the Intellectual and the Practical
	On Chapter 20: Intellectual and Practical Studies
	DAVID I. WADDINGTON	185
	The Shape of the Problem	185
	The Error of the Ancient Greeks	186
	Modern "Experience" and Object Lessons	187
	Synthesis and Resistance	189

	Contents	ix
21 Nature and Human Life in an Education for Democracy On Chapter 21: Physical and Social Studies: Naturalism and Humanism
MARTIN A. COLEMAN	193
The Historic Background of Humanistic Study	194
The Modern Scientific Interest in Nature	195
The Present Educational Problem	198
22 Individuality and a Flourishing Society: A Reciprocal Relationship On Chapter 22: The Individual and the World
HONGMEI PENG	203
Individualism: Old and New	204
Individual Mind as the Agent of Reconstruction	206
Educational Implications and Educational Equivalents	208
23 Autonomy, Occupation, and Vocational Education On Chapter 23: Vocational Aspects of Education
CHRISTOPHER WINCH	211
Three Senses of "Vocational Education"	211
Snedden's Challenge to Dewey	214
Concluding Remarks	216
24 Philosophy of Education On Chapter 24: Philosophy of Education
RICHARD PRING	219
Philosophy: A Mode of Thinking	220
Meaning and Experience	221
Meaning and Knowledge	222
Growth of Knowledge, Social Interaction, and Democracy	223
Moral Purpose and Social Aim	224
Relevance to Education	227
25 Healing Splits: Dewey's Theory of Knowing On Chapter 25: Theories of Knowledge
BARBARA THAYER-BACON	228
Continuity versus Dualism	229
Schools of Method	233
Summary	235
26 The Consciously Growing and Refreshing Life On Chapter 26: Theories of Morals
DOUGLAS J. SIMPSON	237
Dualisms in Moral Thought	237
Social and Moral Connections	241
School Conditions for Moral Development	242
Conclusion	243

	Part II Democracy and Education in Context	245
	Introduction to Part II
	ANDREA R. ENGLISH	247
27	The Dialogue of Death and Life: Education, Civilization, and Growth
	THOMAS ALEXANDER	250
	Education as a "Necessity of Life"	250
	Culture as Spiritual Ecology	251
	Education as Communication or Imaginative Self-transcendence	252
	Education as Reenactment (Mimēsis) versus Growth	254
	Two Ways to Look at the Present	256
	Democratic Education as Exploration of Possibility	257
28	John Dewey, a Modern Thinker: On Education (as Bildung and Erziehung) and Democracy (as a Political System and a Mode of Associated Living)
	DIETRICH BENNER	263
	On the Diverse Ways of Interpreting Deweyan Pedagogy: A Journey	263
	Dewey on Erziehung (Pedagogical Interaction), Bildung (Educative Formation) and their Interrelationship in the School as "Special Environment"	266
	Dewey's Understanding of the Educative, Productive Meaning of the Negativity of Human Experience	268
	Dewey's Differentiation between Society and Community	271
	Dewey's Distinction between Democracy as a Mode of Living and as a Form of Government	273
	Conclusion: Toward a Non-Hierarchical Relationship between Education (as Erziehung and Bildung) and Democracy (as a Political System and a Mode of Associated Living)	275
29	John Dewey's Refutation of Classical Educational Thinking
	JÜRGEN OELKERS	279
	"New Education"	279
	Dewey's Philosophical Theory of Education	281
	Dewey's Refutation of Five Concepts of Education	283
	Conclusion	288
30	The Social as the "Inclusive Philosophic Idea" of Democracy and Education: Some Constructivists' Reflections
	JIM GARRISON, STEFAN NEUBERT, & KERSTEN REICH	290
	"The Social" in Democracy and Education	290
	Education and "The Inclusive Philosophic Idea"	294
	Cologne Interactive Constructivism, Education, and the Inclusive Philosophic Idea	298

	Contents	xi
31 John Dewey and the Analytic Paradigm in Philosophy of Education: Conceptual Analysis as a Social Aim?
CHRISTOPHER MARTIN	304
The Analytic Paradigm in Education in Context	304
The Analytic Approach to Educational Problem-Solving	305
A Deweyan Conception of Education?	308
Conceptual Analysis as a Social Aim	311
32 Dewey, Care Ethics, and Education
NEL NODDINGS	314
Democracy and Human Relationships	314
Education as Communication	316
Vocational Education	319
Moral Life and Education	321
Conclusion	323
33 Technologies for Democracy and Education in the Twenty-first Century
CRAIG A. CUNNINGHAM	325
Dewey's Evolving Conception of "Technology"	325
The Educational Affordances of New Technologies	328
Technologies for Democratic Participation	330
34 Inviting Dewey to an Online Forum: Using Technology to Deepen Student Understanding of Democracy and Education
ROSETTA MARANTZ COHEN	333
The Principle of Association: From Individual to Collective Discourse	334
The Role of Imitation	335
Connections	336
The Role of the Teacher	337
Conclusions	338
35 John Dewey: Philosopher of Education for Our Time
RICHARD PRING	340
Introduction: The Divisive Figure	340
Dewey's Pedagogic Creed	341
Our Time	342
Philosopher for Our Time	344
Conclusion	347
Index of Names	349	