

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

INDEX

- Adam, Sir Frederick, thwarts some of C. Napier's measures in Cephalonia, 20-2; his charges against Napier, 23
- Afghan War, 31
- Afghanistan, 38
- Afghans, in Sind, 33
- Afridis (Afreedeas), 139
- Alcock, Mrs (second wife of C. Napier), 25. See Napier, Lady (Charles)
- Alexander the Great, 125
- Ali Husain, 157
- Ali Ka Tanda, 95
- Ali Murad (Moorad), obtains from C. Napier promise of the Turban, 54; extorts cession of Turban and tract of land from Rustam, 55, 156-7; other Amirs exasperated by his usurpation, 56, 62, 159; Napier resolves to teach him wisdom of submitting to British, 57; consents to destruction of Imamgarh, 57; loses nothing by Ellenborough's treaty, 60; Napier thinks it wise to uphold, as Rais, 61; agent of, intercepts letter from Napier to Outram, 62-3, 157; other Amirs urge that he should be forced to restore lands taken from Rustam, 67-8, 159; Napier rebukes for disloyalty, 106; co-operates with Napier in Hill Campaign, 116-18; Bija Khan placed under, 121-2
- Ali Pasha, 18
- America, C. Napier serves in expedition against, under Sir S. Beckwith, 15-16
- Amiens, Peace of, 6
- Amirs (Ameers) of Sind (Hyderabad, Khairpur, and Mirpur), 33; their government, 34-6, 128, 150-1; policy of Lord Auckland towards, 36-40; influenced by Outram, during Afghan War, 40; intrigues of Nasir and Rustam, 40; Outram proposes new treaty with, 40; of Hyderabad, C. Napier visits, 41; views of Lord Ellenborough and Napier on policy towards, 41-3; intrigues of Nasir and Rustam reported, 43; Napier proposes new treaty with, 43-4; Napier considers intrigues proved, 44-6, 151-2; alarmed by abolition of political agency, 46; and by rumours of new treaty, 47; Ellenborough's treaty, 49-50; Napier's policy towards, 50-9; fail to meet Outram at Khairpur, 60; Outram pleads in vain against injustice to, 60-1; Outram's final negotiations with, 65-8; Napier convinced of their treachery, 68-70, 159-60; Napier charges with responsibility for war, 80; surrender and treatment, 83-5, 165. See Ali Murad, Husain, Hyderabad, Khairpur, 'Lion,' Nasir, Rustam
- Ashford, 9
- Auckland, Lord, his Sindian policy, 36-40, 42
- Australia, C. Napier disappointed in hope of obtaining government of a colony in, 25
- Bahawalpur (Bhawulpore), 33; cessions to Nawab of, by Ellenborough's treaty with Amirs of Sind, 49, 82. See also 124, 126
- Baluchis (Beloochees), the dominant

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

172

- race in Sind, 33; tyrannize over Hindus, 34; menacing demeanour, 39; Amirs warn Outram of their determination to resist C. Napier, if he advances on Hyderabad, 65; chiefs swear to avenge Rustam, 67; violence of, 67-9; Hyderabad Residency attacked by, 70; carnage among, in battle of Miani, 75-8; impatient of British interference before conquest of Sind, 82; in battle of Hyderabad, 90-3; Napier's treatment of, 97-8, 109-10; their superstitious respect for Napier, 114, 125
- Bath, 24-5
- 'Bayard of India, the,' Outram designated by C. Napier, 48, 62
- Beckwith, Sir S., 15
- Bengal Cavalry, 3rd, in battle of Hyderabad, 90; 9th, in battle of Miani, 73, 77, 163-4
- Bentinck, Lord W., in battle of Corunna, 10
- Beria, 63
- Bermuda, C. Napier in command in, 13-15
- Bhung Bhara, 49, 153
- Bibrak (Beebruck), 43, 114
- Bija Khan, surrenders to Major Billamore, defeats Lieut. Fitzgerald, 114; C. Napier's campaign against, 117-21; compelled to settle on east of Indus, 121-2
- Billamore, Major T. R., 113-15, 122
- Black Mountain, 19
- Blase, 26
- Blatchington, 5
- Bognor, 9
- Bologna, 18
- Bombay, C. Napier arrives at, 30; reserve force sent from, to Karachi, 39; sepoys in battle of Miani, 73-7; Amirs of Sind exiled to, 85; sepoys in battle of Hyderabad, 90, 92; Bombay Times attacks C. Napier, 111-12. See also 113, 124
- Brown, Lieut., 94
- Bruce, Mr W. N., 111 n. 1, 163, 167-8
- Bugtis (Boogtees), 113, 121-2
- Buist, Dr, 111-12, 168
- Bukkur, 41, 49
- Bunbury, Charles, 1
- Burdis (Boordees), 122 n. 1
- Burlton, Lieut.-Col. W., 166
- Burnes, Alexander, 36
- Burton, R. F., 74 n. 1, 103, 106 n. 2, 161 n. 1, 167, 170
- Busaco, 11
- Byron, Lord, 21
- Caen, 24
- Calcutta, 134
- Cambrai, 17
- Camel baggage-corps, C. Napier's, 123, 166-7
- Camel Battery, 58
- Camel-corps, fighting, C. Napier's, 106
- Cameron, Capt. A., 5, 8
- Campbell, Sir Colin, 141
- Campbell, Pamela Lady, 148
- Cape Colonial Corps, 9
- Celbridge, 2-3
- Cephalonia, 18-23
- Chamberlain, Lieut. C., 137-8
- Charles the Second, 2
- Chartists, 28-9
- Chesapeake Bay, 16
- Cholera, 32, 125-6
- Civil officers, Anglo-Indian, C. Napier's prejudice against, 99-100
- Clibborn, Major, 87
- Coa, 11, 32
- Cockburn, Admiral, 16
- Colonies, C. Napier's book on the, 26
- Commander-in-Chief (in India), C. Napier appointed, 132-3; his tenure of office, 134-45, 167-8; he relinquishes command, 145

Index

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

Index

173

- Corfu, 18, 22
 Corunna, C. Napier in battle of, 10
 Craufurd, Gen., 11
- Dabo (Dubba), battle of, 89–93, 165–6. See Hyderabad
- Dalhousie, Lord, hopes to co-operate amicably with C. Napier, 133–4; his and Napier's first impressions of each other, 134–5; his letters to Sir J. Hobhouse about Napier, 137, 144–5; anecdote about, and Napier, 138; Napier's controversy with, 140–4, 167–8
- De Vigny, 26
- Delamain, Capt., 92 n. 1
- Delhi, 125
- Dera (Deyrah), 120
- Diji Kot (Dejee Kote), 55, 58
- Directors, of East India Company, their dislike of Lord Ellenborough, 107; C. Napier's rage against, for recalling Ellenborough, 110; his virulence against, 131; reluctantly appoint Napier Commander-in-Chief in India, 132–3; banquet to Napier, 133
- Dombkis, 113–14, 117, 121–2
- Dublin, 2, 4, 6
- Duff, Sir James, 5
- Duz Kushtak (Douze Kooshta), 118–19
- East India Company, 107. See Directors
- Eastwick, Capt. W., 150, 170
- Edwardes, H. B., 131
- Ellenborough, Lord, Governor-General of India, 41; sympathy of C. Napier with, 41–2, 110; intended policy towards Sind, 42; orders Napier to investigate alleged intrigues of Amirs, 44; orders Napier to require consent of Amirs to new treaty, 49; justice of treaty discussed, 80–1; annexes Sind, 85; thanks Napier for victory at Miani, 89; appoints Napier Governor of Sind, 94; gives him ample powers, 96; disliked by Directors, 107; orders Napier to assemble jaghirdars on Queen's birthday (1844), 109; grief of Napier at his recall, 110; attends Napier's funeral, 149. See 182–3
- Examiner*, the, 107
- Farnham, 17
- Fateh (Futteh) Muhammad, intrigues of, 40, 43–5, 151–2; advises Amirs to proclaim religious war, 47
- Ferozepore, 86
- Ferozeshah, battle of, 124
- Fitzgerald, Lieut., sent against mountain hordes west of Indus, 106; repulsed by Bija Khan, 114; services in Hill Campaign, 119
- Fitzroy Somerset, Lord, 26
- Fox, Charles James, 9
- Fox, Gen., 6
- Freemason, C. Napier becomes a, 9
- Frere, Sir Bartle, 129 n. 1
- Fuentes d'Onoro, 12
- Fuleli (Fullaillee), River, 72, 75–9, 87, 89–90, 162–3
- Gandoi (Gundooee), 118
- George the Third, 1
- Ghent, 17
- Goderich, Lord, 23
- Gomm, Sir W., 132
- Gordon, Lord W., 1
- Gough, Sir Hugh, C. Napier proposes to co-operate with, in first Sikh War, 123; welcomes Napier at Lahore, 125; supersession of, by Napier, demanded, 132. See also 134
- Govindgarh, 141
- Greece, C. Napier travels in, 18; Napier disappointed in ambition of leading struggle for independence, 21

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

174

Greville, C. C. F., 132 nn. 1-2
 Guernsey, 9
 Guibert, 10
 Gurkhas, 141

Hala, 67, 69, 160
 Hala Mountains, 33, 113
 Halifax, 27
 Hampshire, 145
 Hampton, 16
 Hampton Roads, 16
 Hannibal, 2
 Hardinge, Sir H. (afterwards Lord), speaks in Parliament in favour of C. Napier, 108; succeeds Ellenborough as Governor-General of India, 110; in first Sikh War, 123-5; Napier indignant at his presenting Outram at Court, 149; attends Napier's funeral, 149
Harold, C. Napier's romance, 26
 Havelock, Henry, 125
 Hearsey, Col. J., 141
 Henry of Navarre, 2
 Henry the Second, 110
 Hill, Lord, 24
 Hindus, in Sind, 33, 93; oppressed by Baluchis, 34
 Hobhouse, Sir J., 137, 144
 Holland House, 1
 Howell, Mr, 162, 183
 Howick, Lord, speaks in Parliament against C. Napier's policy in Sind, 108; Napier's abuse of, 113
 Husain, 83, 160
 Hyderabad (in Sind), 33; treaties with Amirs of, 36-9; C. Napier's interview with Amirs of, 41; Lord Ellenborough's proposed treaty with Amirs, 49; Amirs promise to accept it, 50; ambassadors from Amirs meet Outram at Khairpur, 60; Outram anxious to prevent Amirs from aiding those of Khairpur, his object frustrated by Napier,

Index

62-4, 82, 158; Rustam and Outram arrive at, 64; Amirs confer with Outram, 65-7; attack on Residency, 70; Amirs surrender to Napier, 83; occupied by Napier, 84; Napier entrenches himself near, 85; British reinforcements arrive at, 88; battle of (see Dabo), 89-93, 165-6; district delimited by Napier, 100; Napier leaves for Karachi, 104; jaghirdars assemble at, 109
 Hythe, 8

Ibrahim Khan, 74 n. 1
 Imamgarh (Emaumghur), Napier marches to and destroys, 57-9; effect of destruction, 62
 Indian Misgovernment, C. Napier's posthumous work on, 147
 Indus, River, 33, 35; explored by A. Burnes, 36; navigation on, regulated by treaties, 36, 39; C. Napier's first voyage up, 41; strongholds on, demanded from Amirs of Sind under Lord Ellenborough's treaty, 49; British force crosses, 52; Napier encamps on left bank of, near Hyderabad, 85; reinforcements sent to Napier by, 86, 88; inundation, 94; patrolled by steamers, 95, 97; Napier's voyage down, to Karachi, 104; Napier sends troops up, to Rohri, 124
 Inverarity, Mr G., 129 n. 1
 Ionian Isles, 17
 Ireland, rebellion in (1798), 4-5; Capt. J. Kennedy's scheme for improving agriculture, 26; Napier wishes he were Dictator of, cordially welcomed in, 131
 Jacob, Capt. J., before and in battle of Miani, 72-3, 77; defeats 'the Lion,' 96; overawes

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

Index

175

- tribesmen of Kachhi, 114; serves in Hill Campaign, 117, 120; finally subdues Dombkis and Jakranis, 122; books by, noticed, 166–7, 169
- Jakranis, 113–14, 117, 121–2
- Jamak (Jummuck), 118–19
- James, Lieut. H., 98 n. 2, 169
- Jersey, C. Napier fails to obtain Lieut.-Governorship of, 26
- Joannina, 18
- Judge, J., 4
- Kachhi (Cutchee) Hills, 113–14, 116–22
- Karachi (Kurrachee), C. Napier arrives at, 32; occupied by British (1839), 39; Outram, and afterwards Napier, recommend acquisition of, 40; to be ceded under Lord Ellenborough's treaty, 49; district delimited by Napier, 100; Napier anxious to make it a commercial port, 104; Napier returns to, after Hill Campaign, 121; cholera at, 125–6; letter from Nasir Khan and Muhammad Khan to Governor, 159–60
- Kardars, 102
- Katri, 162, 166
- Kelly, Elizabeth, marries C. Napier, 22. See Napier, Elizabeth
- Kennedy, Capt. J., works under C. Napier in Cephalonia, 20; his scheme for improving Irish agriculture, 26; Napier's letter to, before battle of Miani, 71
- Kersal Moor, 28
- Khairpur (Khyrpore), Amirs of, 33; earlier treaties with principal Amir, 36, 39; rumour that C. Napier is about to advance on, 47; earlier military preparations of Amirs, 48, 50–1, 152–4; Lord Ellenborough's treaty with Amirs, 49–50; Amirs profess submission to treaty, 50; English mails robbed near, 52; Napier resolves to march on, 53; Napier marches from neighbourhood, against Imamgarh, 58; Outram goes to, to arrange details of treaty, 59; Outram protests against harsh treatment of Amirs, 60–1; Napier orders Amirs to go to Hyderabad, 63, 158; and warns them to disperse troops, 65; conferences of Amirs with Outram, 65–8, 159–60; Amirs surrender, 83. See Nasir Khan, Rustam
- Khosas, 122 n. 1
- Khuseri (Khooserie), 89
- Kohera, 60
- Lahore, 125, 147
- Lake District, 29
- Lali (Lallee), 118–19
- Land revenue, C. Napier's collection of, in Sind, 101–2, 166
- Lawrence, Henry, C. Napier, as Commander-in-Chief, rejects information offered by, 138; on Napier's administration of Sind, 169
- Lawrence, John, praises C. Napier's administration of Sind, 103 n. 1; refutes Napier's attack on Punjab Government, 139
- Lennox, Lady Sarah, 1. See Napier, Lady Sarah
- Leslie, Major, 91
- Light Division, 8, 11–12
- Limerick, 5
- 'Lion, the' (Sher Muhammad, Amir of Mirpur), sends message to C. Napier after battle of Miani, 83; why he did not comply with Napier's terms, 85; prepares for war, 85–8; defeated in battle of Hyderabad, 89–93; finally defeated, after abandoning Mirpur and Umarnot, by J. Jacob, 96
- Lisbon, 11–12, 14
- Liverpool, Lord, 13

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

176

Index

London, 6
 Lunar (Loonar), 88
 Maharajpore, 127 note
 Maitland, Sir T., 18, 20
 Malegaon (Mulligaum), 31
 Manchester, 28
 Massena, 12
 Matari (Muttaree), 70, 87
 Mayne, Major W., 167
 Mazaris, 37
 McMurdo, Lieut. (afterwards Sir Montagu), in battle of Miani, 79; joins Major Stack, 87; believes that C. Napier will succeed in Hill Campaign, 115; on Napier's choice of site for barracks at Meean-meer, 136 n. 1; watches over Napier's death-bed, 149; on the battles of Miani and Hyderabad, 79, 162-3, 166; on camel baggage-corps, 167
 Meean-meer, 136
 Miani (Meeanee), 69, 71; battle of, 71-9, 92 n. 2, 161-4
 Military Board, 138
Military Law, 26
 Mirpur (Meerpore), 33; surrenders, 93; garrisoned by C. Napier, 95
 Moira, Lord, 3
 Montrose, 2
 Mooltan, 43, 123
 Moore, Sir John, his military reforms, inspires C. Napier, 8, 14; commands a division in which Napier serves, 9; in battle of Corunna, 10
Morning Chronicle, 107
 Muhammad Husain, 54
 Muhammad Khan, 70, 84-5, 165
 Muhammad Shahdad Khan, 70, 83, 160
 Muhammad Sharif, 43
 Muharram, 66, 118
 Mulraj (Moolraj), 132
 Murrees, 120
 Napier, Caroline, 11

Napier, Charles James, birth and parentage, 2; childhood, 2-3; first experience of camp life, school-days, 3-5; early life in the army, 5-8; influenced by Sir J. Moore, 8-9, 14; in 50th regiment, 9; Peninsular War, 10-13; promoted to command 102nd regiment, 13; in Bermuda, 13-15; in American expedition, 15-16; at Farnham, volunteers against Napoleon, obtains appointment in Ionian Isles, 17; mission to Ali Pasha, 17; Military Resident of Cephalonia, 17-22; disappointed in hope of leading struggle for Greek independence, death of mother, marriage, 21-2; quits Cephalonia, 22; charges brought against, by Sir F. Adam, 23; life in Berkshire, Hampshire, and Bath, death of wife, religious views, goes to Caen, 24; fails to obtain government of an Australian colony, marries again, settles at Bath, interests himself in politics, 25; fresh trials, literary efforts, 25-6; K.C.B. and commander of Northern District, 26-9; appointed to Indian staff, 30; characteristics, 30-1; at Poona, appointed to command of Sind, 31-2; voyage to Karachi, 32; interview with Amirs of Hyderabad, 41; views on situation in Sind, 41-3; recommends a new treaty with Amirs of Sind, 43-4; charged to investigate alleged intrigues, 44; concludes that Amirs are guilty, 45-6, 151-2; enforces discipline, 46-7; irritated by Outram, 48; neglects to point out flaw in treaty, 50, 154; convinced that Khairpur Amirs intend to resist, 50-1; occupies Bhung Bhara and Sabzalkot, 52; overworked,

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

Index

177

resolves to march on Khairpur, 52–3; tries to stifle his desire for war, 53; promises reversion of Turban to Ali Murad, 54; advises Rustam to go to Ali Murad, who extorts from him cession of Turban, 55, 155–7; will not investigate circumstances of cession, 56; marches on, and destroys Imamgarh, 57–9; deposes Outram to adjust details of treaty, 59; rejects Outram's protest against cession of Turban lands to Ali Murad, 60–2; tardily allows Outram to go to Hyderabad, 62; orders Khairpur Amirs to go to Hyderabad, 63; Hyderabad Amirs, believing him bent on war, collect troops, 64; warns Khairpur Amirs to disperse troops, 65; halts at Outram's request, 66, 69–70; marches to attack Amirs, 68–70; Outram rejoins, 70–1; feelings on eve of battle, 71; battle of Miani, 71–9, 161–4; reflections on Napier's policy, 80–3; receives surrender of Amirs, offers terms to 'the Lion,' 83; occupies Hyderabad, treatment of Sobdar and Muhammad Khan, 84–5, 165; prepares for battle with 'the Lion,' 85–9; battle of Hyderabad, 89–93, 165–6; occupation of Mirpur and surrender of Umar-kot, 93–4; appointed Governor of Sind, 94; overthrow of 'the Lion,' 95–6; enters upon administration of Sind, 96–7; secures tranquillity, crusade against wife-murder, 97–8; appoints military men as civil officers, 99–100; administrative system, 100–2; its general excellence, 102–3, 129 n. 1, 169; inspires enthusiasm, 103; ill from overwork, recovers, 104; public works, 104–5; firmness during crisis, 105–7; conquest attacked in England, 107–8; breach with Outram, 108; feelings on reading report of Parliamentary debate, 108–9; assembles jaghirdars at Hyderabad, 109–10; grief at Ellenborough's recall, 110; indignant at attacks of Press, 111–12; abuses Outram and Lord Howick, 112–13; campaign in Kachhi Hills, 115–21; its comparative failure, 122; plans for Sikh War, 123; disappointed at being unable to participate, summoned to Lahore, 124–5; returns to Sind, shattered in health, attends sufferers at Karachi, 125–6; last months in Sind, 126–8; comments on his work, 128–9; embarks for England, 130; homeward journey, 130–1; welcomed in England and Ireland, 131; appointment as Commander-in-Chief in India, 132–3; Lord Dalhousie expects to work smoothly with, 133–4; Napier's first impressions of Dalhousie, Dalhousie's of him, 134–5; tries to improve housing, discipline, and moral tone of army, 135–7; despite C. Chamberlain's protest, violently abuses Outram, 137–8; chafes at restrictions on power, attacks Punjab Government, last campaign, reflections on glories and sorrows of war, 138–40; takes precautions against mutiny, controversy with Dalhousie, 140–5, 167; relinquishes command, 145; life at Oaklands, 145–8; attends funeral of Wellington, 148; last illness, death, and funeral, 148–50; statue in Trafalgar Square, 150

 Napier, Charles (grand-nephew of Sir Charles), 147

- Napier, Elizabeth, 22-4. See Kelly
- Napier, Col. George, 1-2; Assistant Quartermaster-General under Lord Moira, 3; his services in Irish Rebellion (1798), 4-5; death, 8
- Napier, George, in Peninsular War, 11-12; Sir Charles stays with, at Nice, 130; declines offer of Indian command, 132
- Napier, John, illness of, 52; death, 126
- Napier, Lady (Charles), accompanies Sir Charles to India, 30; he longs to go back to, after conquest of Sind, 94; finds her husband an estate in Hampshire, 145; he asks her to take care of Red Rover, 149. See Alcock
- Napier, Richard, 151, 155, 170
- Napier, Lady Sarah, letters of C. Napier to, 6-8, 11-14; uses her interest in his behalf, 12; death, 22. See Lennox
- Napier, William (son of Sir William), 152
- Napier, Sir William, in Peninsular War, 11-12; joins C. Napier at Farnham, 17; advises C. Napier to accept a command in India, 30; passionately defends his brother Charles against Outram, 107-8, 112; misquotes Buist, 111 n. 1; at Sir Charles's funeral, 150; his books on Sind criticized, 161-4, 170; his biography of Sir Charles, 168-9
- Napoleon, 17, 116 n. 1
- Nasir (Nusseer) Khan, of Hyderabad, intrigues, 40, 43-5, 151-2; promises (?) to aid Rustam, 47; punished, under Lord Ellenborough's treaty, by loss of revenue, 49; surrenders to C. Napier, 83; absurd story of, believed by Napier, 84; resolves to fight, 159-60
- Nasir Khan, of Khairpur, intrigues, 40; punished, under Ellenborough's treaty, by loss of revenue, 49; promises to sign treaty, 67; surrenders to C. Napier, 83
- Nepal, 139
- Netley Camp, 3
- Nice, 130
- Norfolk, 16
- Normanby, Lord, 29
- North Carolina, 16
- Northern District, C. Napier in command of, 27-9
- Nowshera, 63
- Nusseerpore, 95
- Oaklands, 145
- Outram, James, Resident in Sind, his views on character of Amirs' rule, 150-1; wishes to impose a new treaty on Amirs, 40; informs C. Napier about alleged intrigues of Amirs, 43-6, 151-2; irritates Napier, 48; points out flaw in Ellenborough's treaty, 50; commissioned to arrange details of treaty with Amirs, 59; interview with Rustam, 59-60, 157; protests against cession of Turban lands to Ali Murad, 60-1; asks leave to go to Hyderabad, 62, 157; arrives at Hyderabad, 64; confers with Amirs, 65-8, 158-60; rejoins Napier after defence of Residency, proposes to burn shikargahs, 70-1, 161; by following his advice, war might perhaps have been postponed, 82; persuades Napier to offer terms to 'the Lion,' 83, 164; urges restoration of Amirs, 85; effect of his 'Notes of Conferences,' 107; Napier breaks off acquaintance with, 108; controversy with the Napiers, 112-13; C. Napier abuses, despite C. Chamberlain's

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

Index

179

- protest, 137–8; grief at Napier's death, 149; views about earlier military preparations of Khairpur Amirs, 152–4; and about alleged message from Rustam, 155–6; calumniated by W. Napier, 168; his Commentary, 170
- Parliament, votes thanks to C. Napier for victories in Sind, 108
- Pattle, Col., in battle of Miani, 77, 163–4; in battle of Hyderabad, 93
- Peel, Sir Robert, praises C. Napier's work in Sind, 109, 131
- Peninsular War, C. Napier in, 10–13
- Peshawar, 141
- Pestilence, in Sind, 105–6
- Philip of Macedon, 2
- Phuleji (Poolagee), 117–18
- Pir Awees, 95
- Plutarch, 2
- Police, in Sind, 97–9, 129 n. 1
- Poona, 31; Poona Horse, 74, 87, 93
- Pope, Capt., 156–7
- Portsmouth, 146, 149
- Postans, Capt., 151–2
- Pottinger, Col. H., 35, 37–40
- Press, C. Napier attacked by, 107–8, 111–12, 115. See Buist, Examiner, Morning Chronicle
- Pringle, Mr R. K., 127 note, 129 n. 1
- Punjab, disquieting rumours from, reach Sind, 105; C. Napier's tour of inspection through, 136; Napier attacks Government of, 139. See also 100, 142
- Rais, the, 54–5, 57. See Ali Murad, Rustam, Turban
- Ranjit Sing (Runjeet Singh), 37–8
- Rawalpindi, 141
- Red Rover, 119, 149
- Reynolds, Sir Joshua, 1
- Roberts, Col., 86
- Rohri (Roree), cession of, demanded by Lord Ellenborough, 49; C. Napier at, 53; Napier ordered to assemble army at, 123–4. See also 153
- Russell, Lord John, 28–9, 133
- Russia, C. Napier anxious to prevent, from extending dominions to Mediterranean, 18; Lord Auckland tries to check advance in Central Asia, 37
- Rustam (Roostum), forced (1838) to conclude treaty with British, 39–40; intrigues of his minister, 40, 151–2; alleged treasonable correspondence of, 43–50, 151–2; correspondence with C. Napier, 51–3; alleged message to Napier, 55, 155–6; Turban extorted from, by Ali Murad, 55, 156–7; Outram's interview with, 59–60; goes to Kohera, 60, 157; arrives at Hyderabad, 64; restoration of Turban and lands to, demanded by other Amirs, 65–8, 159–60; Baluchis swear to avenge, 67; treatment of, proximate cause of war, 82, 159–60; surrenders to Napier, 83
- Sabzalkot (Subzulcote), C. Napier recommends annexation of, 43; to be ceded under Lord Ellenborough's treaty with Sind, 49; cession of, proclaimed, 51; occupied, 52. See also 153
- Sakranda (Sukkurunda), 69
- Santarem, 12
- Sertorius, 2
- Shahdad, 83. See Muhammad
- Shahgarh, 95
- Shah Muhammad, 95
- Shahpur, 117–19, 121
- Shah Shuja, 38
- Shaitan-ka-bhai, 114, 118
- Sheffield, 29
- Sher Muhammad, 83. See 'Lion, the'

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

180

Sher Sing, 43, 151
 Shikargahs, love of Amirs of Sind for hunting in, 35; Outram intends to burn before battle of Miani, 71, 161
 Shikarpur, C. Napier advises Lord Ellenborough to demand cession of, 43; Napier posts troops at, 114
 Shori, 119–20
 Shorncliffe, 6, 14
 Sialkot (Sealkote), 136
 Sibri, 119
 Sikhs, C. Napier prepares for war with, 123–4; his disappointment, 124
 Simla, 134
 Sind (Scinde), C. Napier appointed to command in, 32; description of, 33; government of Amirs, 34–6, 150–1; early dealings of British in, 36–40; Napier anxious to rescue from misgovernment, 42; annexation foreseen by Napier, 42–3, 48, 58, 83; conquest, 71–96; administration by Napier, 96–129, 166, 169
 Sind Horse, 58, 71–3, 77, 87, 93–4
 Sindians, 33, 93
 Sobdar, 84–5, 160, 165
 Sobraon, 125
 Sorani, 117–18
 Sori Kushtak, 117–18
 Soult, Marshal, kindness of, to C. Napier after battle of Corunna, 10; compliments Napier, 131. See also 116 n. 1
 St Omer, 17
 Stack, Major, 86–7, 92
 Sukkur, 41; C. Napier recommends annexation of, 43; enforces discipline among troops at, 46–7; to be ceded under Lord Ellenborough's treaty with Sind, 49; Outram embarks at, 64; reinforcements for Napier reach, 86 (cf. 88); troops assemble near, for Hill Campaign, 115
 Sullivan, J., 170

Index

Sullivan, Tim, 5
 Sutlej, 127 note
 Talpuris (Talpoorees), 33
 Tatta, 49
 Tew, Capt. J., 74
 Tong, 117–18
 Traki (Trukkee), 120–1
 Treaties, early, with Amirs of Sind, 36; of 1832, 36; of 1838, 37; Tripartite treaty between British, Shah Shuja, and Ranjit Sing, 38–9; treaties of 1838–9 with Amirs, 39–40; Outram wishes to impose a new treaty on Amirs, 40; treaty proposed by C. Napier, 43–4; draft of, sent by Lord Ellenborough to Napier, 44; rumours of, reach Amirs, 47; terms of, 49; flaw in, 50, 60–1, 80–1, 153; Amirs promise to accept, 50–1; Outram to adjust details, 50, 59; effect of, on position of Amirs of Upper Sind, 60; treaty discussed with Outram and signed by Amirs, 65–8; Ellenborough justified in requiring Amirs' consent to, 81
 Tucker, Capt., 164
 Turban, the, symbol of authority exercised by principal Amirs of Sind, 54. See Ali Murad, Rustam
 Uch (Ooch), 117–18
 Umartkot (Omercote), 'the Lion' flees to, 93; surrenders, 94; garrisoned by C. Napier, 95
 Victoria, Queen, 97, 107, 109
 Virgin Isles, 13
 Volunteer Force, 147
 Wali Muhammad (Wullee Chandiah), 115, 117
 Walpole, Horace, 1
 Wazirabad (Wuzeerabad), 141

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-316-50959-3 - Sir Charles Napier
 T. Rice Holmes
 Index
More information

Index

181

- Wellesley, Lieut.-Col., 3. See Wellington
- Wellington, Lord, on Busaco mountain, 11; Duke of, praises C. Napier's operations in Sind, 109; advises Directors to appoint Napier Commander-in-Chief in India, 132-3; decides against Napier in his controversy with Dalhousie, 148, 167-8; death and funeral, 148. See also 116 n. 2
- Whitehall, 2
- Whitlie, Capt., 94
- Wife-murder, by Baluchis of Sind, 35; C. Napier's efforts to suppress, 98, 101
- Zamindars, in Sind, 99 note
- Zante, 23