

CONTENTS

FOREWORD	page vii
PREFACE	viii
MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE	xi
CORRESPONDING MEMBERS	xii
I INTRODUCTION	I
1. Why we Teach the Classics	I
2. Classics and the Link with other Subjects	7
3. Principles and Aims in Teaching the Classics	14
II JUNIOR AND MIDDLE-SCHOOL LATIN	23
1. Age of Starting Latin	23
2. Course for the First Two Years	26
3. Middle-School Latin	32
III GREEK: THE EARLY YEARS	40
1. Position of Greek in the Schools	40
2. Selection of Pupils	42
3. Aims and Content of the Course	44
IV TEACHING METHODS	51
1. The Traditional or Literary Method	51
2. The Direct Method	71
3. The Word Order Method	80
4. Some Do's and Don't's in Learning, Marking and Testing	83
V CLASSICS IN THE SIXTH FORM	85
1. Types of Sixth-Form Course	86
2. Special Topics in Sixth-Form Teaching	99
3. Translation in the Sixth Form	100
4. Sixth-Form Latin Prose Composition	105
5. The Teaching of Verse Composition	107
6. The Project Method	109
7. The Use of Translations	111
8. The Use of Private Study	112

CONTENTS

VI	ANCIENT HISTORY, LIFE AND LITERATURE	page 116
	1. Ancient History	116
	2. Life	123
	3. Literature	124
VII	CLASSICS IN THE SECONDARY MODERN SCHOOL	128
	1. The Scope of Classics in the Modern School	130
	2. The Equipment of the Teacher	135
	3. Suggestions for Possible Lessons	139
VIII	EXAMINATIONS	153
	1. The Junior and Middle School	153
	2. Ordinary Level Examination in Latin	159
	3. Alternative Papers in Latin at Ordinary Level	166
	4. Ordinary Level Papers in Greek	167
	5. Literature in Translation	169
	6. Advanced and Scholarship Levels: Greek and Latin	173
	7. Scholarship Examinations	181
	8. Standardization of Marks in the Examination for the G.C.E.	182
IX	AIDS TO THE TEACHING OF CLASSICS	184
	1. Archaeology	184
	2. Visual Aids	189
	3. School Performances of Classical Plays	196
	4. Broadcasting	201
	5. The School Library	204
APPENDICES		211
	I The Pronunciation of Latin	211
	II The Pronunciation of Greek	220
	III Examination Requirements for Entry to Universities and Professions	225
	IV Short Bibliography on the Teaching of Classics	230
	V Classical Societies and Courses	232
INDEXES		237