

Index

---

- Anti-Comintern Pact
 Denmark and, 236, 238, 255–8
 Hungary and, 84
 Italy and, 137
 reaffirmation ceremony, 212, 252
 signing of, 255–8
- Antonescu, Ion
 alliance with Germany, 66–7, 69
 anti-Jewish policies, Transnistria, 72–3, 77–8
 attack on Odessa, 70, 147
 desire to regain Transylvania, 70–1
 and the fall of Odessa, 73–4
 German-backed rise of, 62–3, 64
 government of, 64, 66
 leadership of, 77–8
 relationship with Hitler, 9, 13, 64–5, 68f. 2.1
 relationship with the Iron Guard, 64, 65–6
- Austria, 83
- Bandera, Stepan, 412–13, 415–16
- Barbarossa, Friedrich, 1, 13
- Barbarossa, Operation
 as crusade, 1–2, 5, 7, 8, 13–14, 173, 326
 declaration of war against the Soviet Union, 38–9
 Finnish role in, 36–8
 Hungary's role in, 87–90, 101–2
 initial Soviet response to, 90–1 Leningrad as main target, 28
 military planning and role of Axis allies, 7–8, 9–10, 27–9, 134–5
 naming of, 1–2
 Romania's role in, 67–9
- Bárdossy, László
 and the bombing of Kassa, 96
 entry into the war against the Soviet Union, 94–5, 98, 99, 100, 102
 Hungary's role in Operation
 Barbarossa, 88–9
- Soviet stance on his territorial aims, 91–2
- Belarus
 armed anti-partisan groups, Zuev's region, 419–21, 422
 formation of Zuev's autonomous region, 419, 421–2, 423
 occupation of, 419
- Belgium
 anti-Bolshevik propaganda
 narratives, 267–8
 anti-communist sentiments, 260, 281
 Church's stance on volunteers, 281–2
 domestic paramilitary units, 264
 Flemish Legion, 270–2, 273–4,
 275–6, 279–80
 Flemish National Union (VNV), 261–2, 263, 264, 273
 The Flemish SS (De Algemene SS
 Vlaanderen), 263–5, 267, 268–70
 Flemish volunteers in the Waffen-SS,
 6, 264–5
 Freiwilligen Standarte Nordwest, 265–6
 German occupation of, 262
 integration of Walloon Legion as SS-Sturmbrigade Wallonien, 272–3 motivations for Flemish
 volunteers, 279–80
 motivations for Walloon
 volunteers, 276–9
 new collaborationist movements, 263–4 personal motivations for the
 volunteers, 280–6
 recruitment drive, Flemish National Union (VNV), 265–6
 recruitment drives, Walloon Legion, 272, 278–9
 Rex, 260–1, 263, 264, 273
 social profile of armed collaborators, 274–6
 SS recruitment strategies, 262–3
 Walloon Legion, 276–8

428 Index

- Belgium (cont.)
 Walloon volunteers in the Wehrmacht, 6, 265, 266–7, 270–1, 271f. 10.2
 White Russian volunteers, 278
- Bessarabia
 as block to Romanian-Soviet alliance, 48
 and the Molotov–Ribbentrop Pact, 55
 Romanian occupation of, 52, 69–70
 Romanian secession of to the Soviets, 46, 55–6, 84–5
- Bethlen, István
 bombing attack on Kassa, 97 opposition to joining the war, 99
 reconciliation and accommodation
 foreign policy, 80–1
 revisionism of, 81
 state visit to Berlin, 82
- Blücher, Wipert von, 25–6, 28, 30
- Blue Division (Spanish Volunteers' Division)
 anti-Semitism of, 211
 casualties, 193–4, 213
 civilian volunteers to, 201–2
 deployment to the Eastern Front, 204–7
 formation of, 197–9
 German opinions of, 205–7
 interactions with Soviet civilians, 209–10
 military campaign in USSR, 207–9
 military control over, 199–200
 military recruitment drive, 200–1
 recruitment centre, 206f. 7.1
 scholarship on, 194
 training at Grafenwör military camp, 202–4 treatment of Russian POWs, 209, 210–11
 visits to by Spanish officials, 211–12, 213
- Bogomolov, Aleksandr, 294–5, 296
- Bosnia, 169
- Bulgaria, 59, 61–2
- Carol II of Romania
 abdication of, 62, 64
 concerns over Soviet alliance, 48
 Hungarian and Bulgarian pressure on, 59
 neutrality policy, 53
 possible future Romanian-German collaboration, 49
 and the secession of Bessarabia, 55, 56
 and the secession of Transylvania, 60–1 visit to London in, 1938, 49
- Častloš, Ferdinand
 as commander of reservists, 121, 122, 123, 124, 126
- support for I'udák regime, 120
 on the war with the Soviets, 122, 130
- Cavallero, Ugo, 135, 141, 147, 153–4, 157
- communism see also Anti-Comintern Pact
 ban on communist party,
 Denmark, 243–4
 Belgian anti-communist sentiments, 260, 281
 in Czechoslovakia, 130
 Danish anti-communist sentiments, 236, 241–3, 244–5
 detention of in Denmark, 239, 241, 245
 Finnish anti-communist sentiments, 19, 27, 31
 reprisals against, Odessa, 74
- Croatia
 home front war, 159, 172, 179–80
 motives for entering the war, 11–12
 new Europe vs. Bolshevik East ideology, 158–9, 171–6, 188–9
 volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6
 volunteers in the Wehrmacht, 6
- Croatian Legion
 benefits for volunteers, 162, 163, 167, 186
 Bosnian volunteers, 169
 celebratory departure scenes, 169–70
 conditions at the Eastern Front, 159–60, 181–3, 186–8
 deployment to the Eastern Front, 168–9
 ethnic Ukrainians in, 164–5
 and the fight against the Bolsheviks, 162–3, 166
 founding of, 159, 160–2
 under German Army command, 164, 168
 gift campaigns for the soldiers, 176–81
 memories of life under the Serbs, 166–7, 173
 within nationalist discourses, 159–60, 161–2, 169
 recruitment drive, 162–4, 166, 167
 soldiers returning home, 184–6
 soldiers training, 185f. 6.1
 'The Struggle of United Europe in the East' (exhibition), 173–6
 triumphalist media coverage of, 170–1
 volunteers for, 162, 167–8
- Czechoslovakia
 communists in, 130
 Czechoslovak-Soviet Alliance
 Treaty, 131–2
 and the First Vienna Award, 83
 founding of, 107–8
 German strategy for, 112–13

- Hungarian-German interests in, 82, 83
 National Defence (underground organization), 119–20 opposition to German occupation, 117
 Slovak identity within, 108–9
 Slovakia's programme for political autonomy, 109–10
 transfer of Ruthenia to Hungary, 84, 111–12
- Daluege, Kurt, 360f. 13.2
- Danish Legion (Free Corps Denmark)
 deployment to the Eastern Front, 247–9
 first volunteers, 248f. 9.1
 formation of, 246
 mobilization of under Waffen-SS, 240
 prosecution of members, 249–50
 volunteer numbers, 245
 volunteers' motivations, 246–7
- Degrelle, Léon
 as charismatic leader, 284–5
 integration of Walloon Legion as SS-Sturmbrigade Wallonien, 272–3
 as leader of Rex, pre-1940, 261
 as leader of Walloon volunteer force, 271f. 10.2
 political ambitions of, 271–2
 stance towards Germans, 263
 and the Walloon Legion, 260, 265, 266–7, 268
- Deloncle, Eugène, 290–1, 297, 299
- Denmark see also Scavenius, Erik
 and the Anti-Comintern Pact, 236, 238, 255–8
 anti-communist sentiments, 236, 241–3, 244–5
 ban on the communist party, 243–4 business opportunities in Eastern Europe, 250–5
 Danish-German relations, 236–7, 258–9
 detention of communists, 239, 241, 245
 level of commitment to Operation
 Barbarossa, 237–8
 neutrality policy, 236, 246, 256
 public opinion on the war in the East, 243
 severance of diplomatic ties with the Soviet Union, 239
 SS-Standarte Nordland, 218, 246
 statement on German attack on USSR, 239–40
 volunteers in Finland, 245
 volunteers in Spain, 245
 volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6, 219, 226–8, 234, 245
 'working towards Berlin' policies, 238–9
- Erkko, Elias, 21
- Estonia
 annexation by the USSR, 351–2
 Army Group North operations in,
 354–5, 360–1
 arrests and deportations by the Soviets, 354
 authoritarian regime, 345
 Baltic Entente, 346
 foreign policy towards Germany and the USSR, 345–6
 German ideology and independence of, 357–8
 inter-regional relations, historical, 343–5
 and the Molotov–Ribbentrop
 Pact, 347–8
 motivations for collaboration, 355–7
 Mutual Assistance Pact with the USSR, 348–9
 national army, 344, 347, 352–3
 neutrality policy, 346, 347
 recruitment to German armed forces, 366–8
 resettlement of ethnic German communities, 349–51
 self-administration under German occupation, 366
 volunteer security troops, 365
- Fabricius, Wilhelm, 53, 54–5, 58,
 62–3, 64
- Finland see also Ryti, Risto
 anti-communist sentiments, 19, 27, 31
 civilian deaths, 42
 civilian urging the Soviets to surrender,
 42f. 1.2
 Danish volunteers in, 245, 246
 democracy in, 19–20, 34–6
 the Finnish front, 39–41, 42–3, 93
 Finnish soldiers crossing the Soviet border, 40f. 1.1
 Finnish War Guilt Trials, 21–2
 Finnish-German alliance, 21–2, 43–5
 geopolitical history of, 18–19
 Germany as potential ally for, 22–3, 25–7, 28, 29–30
 involvement in German military planning, 8, 27–9
 Jaeger soldiers, 30, 33
 lack of formal alliance with the Nazis, 8 military deaths, 41
 mobilization for war, 36–8
 Molotov–Ribbentrop Pact, 17, 22
 motives for entering the war, 11
 nickel mines at Pechenga, 25, 26, 28, 36, 37

430 Index

Finland (cont.)

- Norwegian sympathies for, 326, 327, 331, 332
- opposition to Soviet Union, 20–1
- as passive victim forced into war, 38–9
- peace treaty with the Soviet Union (1940), 23–5
- possible deployment of the Norwegian Legion to, 327, 330, 338–9
- pro-German attitudes, 31–3
- proposed Finno-Swedish defensive alliance, 20, 28–9
- separate war thesis, 22
- Soviet policies on, 25
- support from the national army, 7–8
- transit arrangements with Germany, 27
- transit arrangements with the Soviets, 27
- volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6, 33–4
- the Winter War, 17, 21, 22–5, 52, 349
- France see also Légion des Volontaires
  - Français contre le Bolchevisme (LVF); Vichy government
  - Anglo-French guarantee with Romania, 50, 53, 58
  - collaborationism, overview of, 288–9
  - Comité Secret d'Action Révolutionnaire (CSAR) (cagouards), 290–1
  - Croix-de-Feu, 289, 290
  - far-right parties, 1930s, 289–93
  - Parti Populaire Français (PPF), 291–2, 310
  - political currents during the occupation, 293
  - Rassemblement National Populaire (RNP), 292
  - Spanish desire for French territories, 196–7
  - volunteers in the Wehrmacht, 6
- Franco, Francisco, 195, 196–7
- Gafencu, Grigore, 50, 51, 52, 53
- Germany
  - annexation of Austria, 83
  - Army Group North operations in the Baltic states, 354–5, 358–61
  - Danish-German relations, 236–7, 258–9
  - and the economic opening up of Eastern Europe, 251, 252
  - ethnic definition of (Volk), 2
  - extermination of Soviet war prisoners, 374
  - 15-series propagandists, 383–4
  - Finnish-German alliance, 21–2, 43–5
  - German propaganda in occupied areas of the USSR, 389–91

- German-Italian relations, 137–8
- historical relationship with the Baltic states, 343–5
- ideological stance on the Baltic peoples, 357–8
- in the Lokot' autonomous region, 401–3
- and the National-Labor Alliance of the New Generation (NTSNP) in Smolensk, 393–6
- Novoe Slovo* ('New Word'), 381–2
- occupation of Smolensk, 391–2
- policy on the Soviet territories, 5, 372–3, 402–3, 424–5
- policy on Ukraine, 373, 411, 416
- pro-German propaganda strategies, 382–5
- resettlement of ethnic German communities, Baltic states, 349–51
- revisionism of the Versailles treaties, 47, 59, 81–3
- Romanian-German relations, 49–51, 53–5, 58–9, 63–4, 66–7, 69
- Russian emigrant population, 381
- Russian People's Labour Party (RTNP), Hammelburg prisoners of war, 385–9, 423
- scorn for Axis allies, 7–10, 43
- Slovakian-German relations, 111, 112, 115, 116, 120
- social and military processes at the rear of the army, 423
- Spanish-German relations, 196–7, 212, 213
- stance on Ukrainian independence, 415–16, 418
- stance towards Czecho-Slovakia, 112–13
- Treaty of Protection with Slovakia, 116, 120
- volunteer security troops, Baltic states, 361–5
- Goebbels, Joseph, 36, 38, 43, 135
- Göring, Hermann
  - advocacy for Finnish-Soviet peace treaty, 23
  - Four Year Plan, 253
  - on proposed Finnish-Swedish alliance, 28–9
  - Romanian-German relations, 49
- Great Britain
  - Anglo-French guarantee with Romania, 50, 53, 58
  - clashes with Spain, 200, 213
  - declaration of war against Romania, 75–6
  - threat to from war in the East, 138, 148

- Heinrichs, Erik, 37, 38
- Himmler, Heinrich
 eastern settlement program, 255
 and the Flemish and Walloon Legions, 264, 272
- Freiwilligen Standarte Nordwest
 formation, 265
- Norwegian volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 324–5
 race ideology of, 321
 SS occupation in the Netherlands, 262
 volunteers for the Waffen-SS, 215–16, 245, 320–1
- Hitler, Adolf
 bilateral diplomacy and the Nazi allies, 13
 conception of race and nation, 2–4
 Hitler, Mussolini and von Rundstedt, German-Soviet front, 144f. 5.1
 meeting with Henri Pétain, 295
 negotiations with Franco, 196–7 relations with Ion Antonescu, 9, 13, 64–5, 68f. 2.1
 revisionism of, 47, 59
 scorn for non-Nordic allies, 7–10 stance over Transylvania, 60
 violation of Covenant of the League of Nations, 48, 49
- Hlinka's Slovak People's Party (HSL'S)
 as authoritarian party, 110–11
 factions within, 112, 114–15
 Hlinka Guard, 114, 118
 Jozef Tiso's leadership of, 109–10
 Slovak autonomy policy, 109
- Horthy, Miklós
 crusade against communism, 11
 and declaration of war on Soviet Union, 90, 95, 98, 99, 100
 during the German occupation, 103, 104–5 epithets for, 86, 106
 relations with Hitler, 10 response to bombing of Kassa, 94, 96
- Hungary see also Bárdossy, László
 Anti-Comintern Pact and, 84
 the bombing of Kassa, 93–4, 95–8
 claims to Transylvania, 47, 49, 59–61, 84–5 consequences of wartime stance, 105–6 declaration of war against the Soviet Union, 94–5, 98–101
 and the First Vienna Award, 83
 German occupation of, 103–5
 Hitler's scorn for, 10
- Hungarian military cemetery, 103f. 3.2
- Hungarian-German interests in Czechoslovakia, 82–3, 84
- Hungarian-Russian sign, 101f. 3.1
- Italian-Hungarian treaty of friendship, 81
- Jewish community in, 104, 105
 and the Little Entente, 47, 49–50, 80, 81–2
- partition of Transylvania (Second Vienna Award), 46, 85
- peace attempts with Allies, 102
- Polish refugees in, 84
- pro-German stance, 84, 88, 93, 105
- reconciliation and accommodation
 foreign policy, 80–1
- resistance movement, 104–5
- revisionism of, 59, 80, 81–3
- role in Operation Barbarossa, 87–90, 101–2
- role in the invasion of Yugoslavia, 85–6
- severance of diplomatic ties with the USSR, 91–2
- Soviet stance on territory claims against Romania, 91, 92
- support for Operation
 Barbarossa, 10–11
- support from the national army, 7–8, 10–11
- territorial gains, 84, 85, 86, 106
- transfer of Ruthenia from Czechoslovakia, 84, 111–12, 116
 after the Treaty of Trianon, 79–80, 81
- troops in the Soviet theatre of operations, 101–2
- volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6
- Italy see also Mussolini, Benito
 Anti-Comintern Pact and, 137
 campaigns in Greece and North Africa, 137–8, 139, 141 constrained industrial production, 140
 declaration of war against the USSR, 93
 economic motives for entering the war, 138–9, 148–50
- Eighth Italian Army (the Armata Italiana in Russia (ARMIR)), 154–7
- equipment shortages for Eastern Front troops, 152, 153–4
- German-Italian relations, 137–8
- inclusion in the war with the Soviets, 135–6
- Italian-Hungarian treaty of
 friendship, 81

432 Index

Italy (cont.)

- lack of inclusion in preparations for Operation Barbarossa, 9–10
- military capacity, 135–6, 139–41
- motives for entering the war, 12
- political hesitancy over Eastern Front, 152–3
- relations with USSR, 137
- revisionism of, 81
- support from the national army, 7–8
- troops deployed to the Eastern Front (Corpo di Spedizione Italiano in Russia (CSIR)), 135–6, 141–6

Japan, 10

Jews

- anti-Jewish legislation, Slovakia, 114
- anti-Jewish pogrom, Ukraine, 407f. 14.1, 414–15
- anti-Semitism in the Blue Division (Spain), 211
- anti-Semitism in ‘The Struggle of United Europe in the East’ (exhibition, Croatia), 175–6
- Baltic phase of the Holocaust, 357f. 13.1, 362–5
- in the Baltic states, historical, 344
- Der Ewige Jude* (Hippler), 174
- and the fall of Odessa, 73–4
- in Hungary, 104, 105
- under the Romanian administration of Transnistria, 72–3, 77–8
- Soviet deportations of from the Baltic states, 354
- war crimes by Cossak formations, 410

Kaminskiĭ, Bronislav, 397, 401–2, 403, 404

Killinger, Baron Manfred von, 53–4, 59

Kononov, Ivan, 406–8

Kristóffy, József, 91, 92

Kryssing, Peter, 247–9, 248f. 9.1

Larsen, Gunnar

- and the Anti-Comintern Pact, 256
- and the Eastern Committee, 250, 251, 252–4
- pro-German stance, 242
- proposal for a volunteer unit, 246

Latvia

- annexation by the USSR, 351–2
- Army Group North operations in, 354–5, 359–60
- arrests and deportations by the Soviets, 354

authoritarian regime, 345

Baltic Entente, 346

foreign policy towards Germany and the USSR, 345–6

German and Latvian officers, 360f. 13.2

German ideology and independence of, 357–8

inter-regional relations, historical, 343–5 and the Molotov–Ribbentrop

Pact, 347–8

motivations for collaboration, 355–7

Mutual Assistance Pact with the USSR, 349

national army, 344, 347, 353–4

neutrality policy, 346, 347

recruitment to German armed forces, 366–8

resettlement of ethnic German communities, 349–51

self-administration under German occupation, 366

volunteer security troops, 364–5

League of Nations

and the Baltic states, 346

and the Germans and Italians, 48, 49

Hungary and, 80, 81, 84

Romania and, 47, 58

Légion des Volontaires Français contre le Bolchevisme (LVF)

action on the Eastern Front, 313–15

founding of, 297

German attitude towards, 298–9, 312

leadership of, 299, 301

legionnaires’ perceptions of the USSR, 307

media representations of, 301

motivations for volunteers,

308–10, 311–12

non-French volunteers, 310–11

overview of, 315–16

pay system, 300–1

Pétain’s support for, 305–6

and PPF membership, 310

propaganda for, 303f. 11.1, 306–7, 311

recruitment, 299, 300, 302–4

social profile of volunteers, 308

uniform and insignia of, 304–5

Vichy government’s stance on, 297–8

volunteers’ military experience, 307–8

White Russian volunteers, 310–11

Lithuania

annexation by the USSR, 351–2

Army Group North operations in, 354–5, 358–9

- arrests and deportations by the Soviets, 354
- authoritarian regime, 345
- Baltic Entente, 346
- Baltic phase of the Holocaust, 357f.
 13.1, 362–4
- foreign policy towards Germany and the USSR, 346
- German ideology and independence of, 357–8
- inter-regional relations, historical, 343–5
- Lithuanian Action Front (LAF), 352, 356, 358–9, 362–4
- and the Molotov–Ribbentrop Pact, 347–8
- motivations for collaboration, 355–6
- Mutual Assistance Pact with the USSR, 349
- nation building in, 346
- national army, 344, 347, 352
- neutrality policy, 346, 347
- Police Battalions, 362–4
- recruitment to German armed forces, 366–8
- relationship with Poland, 343–4, 346
- resettlement of ethnic German communities, 349–51
- self-administration under German occupation, 366
- Little Entente, 47, 49–50, 80, 81–2
- Lokot' autonomous region
 formation of, 396–7
 manifesto of NSPR, 398–9
 militia groups, 396, 397–8
 partisan conflict, 399–401
 People's Socialist Party of Russia (NSPR), 398, 399, 402–3
 under the Second Panzer Army, 401–3
- Luxembourg, 6
- Mannerheim, Carl Gustaf Emil
 as Commander-in-Chief, 21, 26
 crusade against communism, 8
 Germany as potential ally for, 27, 28
 proposed delay to Finnish offensive, 38
 refusal to engage in Leningrad, 41
 Western sympathies, 24–5, 30
- Messe, Giovanni, 141, 145–6, 157
- Michael I of Romania, 64, 67
- Molotov, Vyacheslav and Estonia, 348–9
 and Latvia, 349
 and Lithuania, 349
 policies on Finland, 28, 38
 and policies on Romania, 52, 55
- Soviet stance on Hungary's territory claims, 59–60, 91, 92
- Molotov–Ribbentrop Pact
 and the Baltic states, 347–8
 Bessarabia under, 55
 and Italian–Soviet relations, 137
 and Norway, 326
 Russian and German interests under, 51
 unification of Ukraine, 411
 and the Winter War, 17, 22, 330
- Munich Agreement, 49, 83, 112
- Mussert, Anton, 214, 224, 229–30, 231
- Mussolini, Benito see also Italy expansion of Italian troops on the Eastern Front, 146–7, 148, 150–2
 Hitler, Mussolini and von Rundstedt, German–Soviet front, 144f. 5.1
 lack of inclusion in preparations for Operation Barbarossa, 9–10, 134–5
 motives for entering the war, 136–9, 147–8
 revisionism of, 81
 violation of Covenant of the League of Nations, 48, 49
- Nasjonal Samling see also Norway
 as collaborationist regime, 317, 318–19, 326
 national regeneration vision, 322, 324
 and the Norwegian Legion, 329, 333–5
 reaction to Operation Barbarossa, 326–7
 stance on military collaboration, 322–3
- National Socialism
 in Belgium, 261, 280, 282
 in Croatia, 161–2
 in Denmark, 246
 higher nations concept, 3, 4, 215
 Hitler's conception of, 2–4 lower nations concept, 3, 4
 and the Netherlands, 214, 226
 role of allied armies/volunteers within, 3–4, 12–13
 Slovakian hybrid form of, 115
 and the Wiking division, 218–19
- the Netherlands see also Volunteer Legion
 Netherlands
 Dutch public's attitude towards volunteers, 228, 232–4, 235
 Dutch-SS, 226, 229
 German occupation of, 214–15
 motivations for volunteers, 226–8, 234–5
 the NSB (Nationaal-Socialistische Beweging), 214, 216, 226
 the NSB–German relationship, 228–9

434 Index

- the Netherlands (cont.)
 NSB-Waffen-SS relationship, 224, 229–32
 political system, 214
 SS-Standarte Westland, 215, 217–18, 232, 234
 volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6, 215–17, 219, 234
 Wiking division, 218–19, 234
- Norway see also Nasjonal Samling; Quisling, Vidkun
 under German occupation, 317–19
 and the Molotov–Ribbentrop Pact, 326
 SS-Standarte Nordland, 218, 324–5
 sympathy for Finland, 326, 327, 331, 332
 volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6
- Norwegian Legion
 discontent with the German administration, 335–9
 formation of, 328–9
 Jørgen Bakke speaking to volunteers,
 336f. 12.1
 motivations for volunteers, 330–3
 Nasjonal Samling's aims for, 329, 333–5
 possible deployment to Finland, 327, 330, 338–9
 recruitment campaign, 329–30
- Paasikivi, J.K., 21, 31
- Pétain, Henri, 289, 295, 297, 305–6
- Poland
 German and Soviet invasions of, 348 refugees in Hungary, 84
 relationship with Lithuania, 343–4, 346
 Slovak military involvement in, 120–1
 territorial dispute with Slovakia, 112
 withdrawal to Romania, 51–2
- propaganda
 anti-Bolshevik propaganda narratives,
 Belgium, 267–8
 anti-Soviet/pro-German
 propaganda, 382–5
 15-series propagandists, 383–4
 for the Légion des Volontaires Français contre le Bolchevisme (LVF), 303f.
 11.1, 306–7, 311
 Lokot' autonomous region, 398–9
Novoe Slovo ('New Word'), 381–2
 in the occupied areas of the USSR, 389–91
 by the Russian People's Labour Party, 387
- Quisling, Vidkun see also Nasjonal
 Samling; Norway
 disillusionment over Barbarossa campaign, 339–40
 as head of collaborationist regime, 317, 318–19, 321–2, 334–5
 and the Norwegian Legion, 317, 328
 Norwegians in the Wehrmacht, 324
 stance on military collaboration, 322–3
 volunteers and national independence, 325
- Ribbentrop, Joachim von
 Anti-Comintern Pact, 256–7, 258
 on French volunteer force, 298
 and Hungarian-Romanian territorial disputes, 55, 60, 61
 on Russian war, 212, 252
- Romania see also Antonescu, Ion;
 Bessarabia; Carol II of Romania administration of Transnistria, 70–3
 alliance with Germany, 66–7, 69
 Anglo-French guarantee, 50, 53, 58
 anti-Semitism of, 9
 British declaration of war against, 75–6
 Bulgarian claims to Dobrogea, 61–2 and the collapse of the Axis, 76–7 economic importance to Germany, 63–4 fear of the Soviet Union, 46 German-Romanian economic agreement, 49–51
 Hungary's claims to Transylvania, 47, 49, 59–61, 84–5
 impact of Munich agreement, 49–50
 interwar foreign policy, 47–8 Iron Guard, 64, 65–6
 motives for entering the war, 11
 neutrality policy, 51, 52–3
 new Soviet-Romanian border, 56–8
 oil fields, 50, 53, 54, 63–4
 partition of Transylvania (Second Vienna Award), 46, 85
 Polish army and government withdrawal to, 51–2
 role in Operation Barbarossa, 67–9
 secession of Hertza, 56
 support from the national army, 7–8, 9
 territorial gains, WWI, 46–7 territorial losses, overview of, 62 turn towards Germany, 53–5, 58–9
 volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6
- Rosenberg, Alfred
 appointment as Reichsminister for the occupied eastern territories, 372
 civil administration in the Baltics, 355, 357, 359, 366–7
 and the Danish initiative for exploiting the East, 252–3, 254

- and the ideology of race for the Baltics, 357–8
 policy on the Soviet territories, 5, 372–3, 402–3
 policy on Ukraine, 411, 416
 Rundstedt, Gerd von, 144f. 5.1
 Russia see also Soviet Union (USSR)
 historical relationship with the Baltic states, 343–5
 Russian emigrant population in Germany, 381
 Russian People's Labour Party (RTNP),
 Hammelburg prisoners of war,
 385–9, 423
 Slovak-Russian relations,
 historical, 129–30
 White Cross (émigré-translator)
 detachments, 375–80
 White Russian volunteers, Belgium, 278
 White Russian volunteers,
 France, 310–11
 Ryti, Risto
 advocacy for Finnish-Soviet peace
 treaty, 23–5
 declaration of war against the Soviet Union, 17–18
 diplomatic strategies, 30
 on Finnish potential for opposition to the Soviets, 26–7
 Germany as potential ally for, 8, 28
 mobilization for war, 34
 role of, 21
 Scavenius, Erik
 and the Anti-Comintern Pact, 256
 appeasement policies, 238–9
 and business opportunities in the East, 251, 252
 and the mobilization of the Danish Legion, 240, 245
 public demonstrations against, 258
 stance on Germany, 237
 statement on German attack on the USSR, 240
 Schobert, Eugen Ritter von, 9
 Serbia
 Croatian struggle against, 166–7, 173
 volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6
 Serrano Suñer, Ramon, 196, 197, 199,
 200, 201, 211, 212–13
 Seyffardt, Henry Alexander, 220–2, 225
 Slovakia see also Hlinka's Slovak People's Party (HSL'S); Tiso, Jozef
 and the founding of Czechoslovakia, 107–8
 anti-Jewish legislation, 114 attitudes towards participation in the war, 132–3
 authoritarian regime, 110–11, 113–14, 132
 autonomy within
 Czecho-Slovakia, 109–10
 declaration of independence, 112–13
 dependence on Germany, 111, 112
 formation of Slovak Republic, 84
 German occupation of, 132
 historical Slovak-Russian relations, 129–30
 international recognition of, 116–17
 justification for the war, 130–1
 military involvement in Poland, 120–1
 motives for entering the war, 11
 national identity under Czechoslovakia, 108–9
 opposition to the regime, 117–18
 political consequences of the war against the USSR, 131–2
 political involvement of Germany
 in, 115
 repression under, 115–16
 resistance movement, 132
 the Security Division in Ukraine, 128–9
 Slovak army, 118–20, 123
 Soldiers of the Slovakian Mobile
 Brigade at the battle of Lipovets,
 125f. 4.1
 support from the national army, 7–8, 11
 territorial dispute with Poland, 112
 the Mobile Division, 126–8
 transfer of Ruthenia to Hungary, 84, 111–12, 116
 Treaty of Protection with Germany, 116, 120
 volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6
 and the war against the Soviet Union, 121–5
 Soviet Union (USSR) see also Lokot'
 autonomous region; Russia
 annexation of the Baltic countries, 351–2
 arrests and deportations in the Baltic
 states, 354
 Baltic states foreign policy towards, 345–6
 and the bombing of Kassa, 93–4, 95–8
 brutality of the partisan conflict, 403–4
 cooperation with the SS, 380
 Cossak formations in the Wehrmacht, 405–11
 Cossak peoples under, 404–5
 Czechoslovak-Soviet Alliance
 Treaty, 131–2

436 Index

- Soviet Union (USSR) (cont.)
 extermination of Soviet war prisoners by the Germans, 374
 French legionnaires' perceptions of, 307
 French-Soviet relations, 293–7
 German occupation of Smolensk, 391–2
 German policy on occupied Soviet territories, 5, 372–3, 402–3, 424–5
 German propaganda in occupied areas of, 389–91
 historiography on collaboration with the Germans, 369–72
 Hungarian declaration of war against, 94–5, 98–101
 Hungary's severance of diplomatic ties with, 91–2 initial response to Operation Barbarossa, 90–1 motivations for collaboration with the Germans, 374–5, 422–4
 Mutual Assistance Pact with Estonia, 348–9
 Mutual Assistance Pact with Latvia, 349
 Mutual Assistance Pact with Lithuania, 349
 National-Labor Alliance of the New Generation (NTSNP) in Smolensk, 393–6
Novoe Slovo ('New Word'), Germany, 381–2 Orel Province, 423
 peace treaty with Finland (1940), 23–5
 plans for Finland, 25
 post-war stance on Hungary, 106 proposed Soviet-Romanian pact, 48
 relations with Italy, 137
 Romanian fear of, 46
 Slovak military involvement in, 121–5
 social and military processes at the rear of the German army, 423
 Soviet citizens in the Wehrmacht (Hilfswillige or HiWi), 375
 Soviet-French relations, 293–7
 Soviet-Romanian border, 56–8
 volunteers in the Wehrmacht, 6
 White Cross (emigre-translators) detachments, 375–80
 the Winter War, 17, 21, 22–5, 52, 349
 Spain see also Blue Division (Spanish Volunteers' Division)
 church and army during Francoism, 195–6 clashes with Great Britain, 200, 213
 Danish volunteers in, 245
 fratricidal wars, 195
 Spanish-German relations, 196–7, 212, 213
 unwillingness to declare war against the USSR, 199, 200
 volunteers in the Wehrmacht, 6
 Spanish Civil War, 195
 Stahlecker, Franz Walter, 355, 359, 361, 362–3, 364
 Stalin, Joseph, 90–1, 348, 351–2
 Sweden
 proposed Finno-Swedish defensive alliance, 20, 28–9
 volunteers in the Waffen-SS, 6
 Switzerland, 6
 Tanner, Väinö, 21, 25, 34, 35
 Teleki, Pál, 84, 85, 86, 88
 Terboven, Josef, 318–19, 324, 326, 329–30, 338
 Tilea, Viorel, 50
 Tiso, Jozef
 anti-Semitism of, 110–11
 authoritarianism of, 110–11
 autonomy policies, 112
 as leader of HSL'S, 109–10
 as President, 114–15
 and the pro-Nazi faction, 115
 stance on Operation Barbarossa, 11
 and the war against the Soviet Union, 122–3
 Titulescu, Nicolae, 47–8, 49
 Treaty of Trianon, 79, 80, 81
 Treaty of Versailles, 47, 59, 81–2
 Tuka, Vojtech
 pro-Nazi wing of HSL'S, 112, 114, 115
 and the war against the Soviet Union, 122–3
 Ukraine
 anti-Jewish pogrom, 407f. 14.1, 414–15
 auxiliary police, 412f. 14.2
 ethnic Ukrainians in the Croatian Legion, 164–5 German policy on, 373, 411, 416
 independent ideology and the Germans, 415–16, 418
 management by the nationalists, 417
 organization of Ukrainian Nationalists (OUN), 411–13, 416
 OUN-B battalions, 413–15, 416–17
 OUN-M, 412, 416, 417
 OUN's Act of Proclamation, 415–16
 Slovak Security Division in, 128–9
 Vichy government
 Soviet-French relations, 293–7

- stance on the LVF, 297–8
 Vienna Awards, 46, 83, 85
 Volunteer Legion Netherlands
 assignment to the Waffen-SS, 222–5 commander of, 220–2, 225
 formation of, 219–20
 motivations for volunteers, 226
 volunteers leave for the Eastern Front, 222f. 8.2
 Voskoboïnik, Konstantin Pavlovich, 396–7, 398, 400–1, 404
 Wackerle, Hilmar, 218
 Waffen-SS
 Danish Legion (Free Corps Denmark), 6, 240, 246–50
 Danish volunteers in, 6, 215–17, 219, 226–8, 234, 245
 Dutch volunteers in, 6, 215–17, 219, 234
 Einsatzgruppe A, 355
 Finnish volunteers in, 6, 33–4
 Flemish Legion, 270–2, 273–4, 275–6, 279–80
 Flemish volunteers in, 6, 264–6, 267, 268–70
 foreign volunteers' motivations for joining, 331
 Norwegian volunteers, 6
 NSB-Waffen-SS relationship (the Netherlands), 229–32
 race ideology and, 319–21
 recruitment of non-Germans into, 319, 321
 SS-Standarte Nordland, 218, 246, 265–6, 324–5
 SS-Standarte Westland, 215, 217–18, 232, 234, 265–6
 SS-Sturmbrigade Wallonien (Walloon Legion), 272–3
 Swedish volunteers in, 6
 Swiss volunteers in, 6
 Volunteer Legion Netherlands assigned to, 222–5
 volunteers in, 6–7
 Wiking division, 218–19, 234, 325
 Wehrmacht see also Légion des Volontaires Français contre le Bolchevisme (LVF)
 'Guidelines for the employment of foreign volunteers in the struggle against the Soviet Union', 5–6 command of the Croatian Legion, 164, 168 comparisons with Italian troops, 143–5 Cossack formations in, 405–11
 non-German National armies in the East, 12f. 0.2
 non-Germanic volunteers in, 6, 78f. 0.1, 7f. 0.1
 Norwegians in, 324
 Ostheer (eastern army), 4–5
 recruitment of Baltic nationals to, 366–8
 Red Army soldiers volunteering for, 4–5
 Soviet citizens in (Hilfswillige or HiWi), 375
 Walloon volunteers in, 266–7
 Werth, Henrik, 88–9, 91–2, 94, 99, 102
 Winter war, 17, 21, 22–5, 52, 330, 349
 Witting, Rolf, 25, 26, 34
 Wohlthat, Helmuth, 50
 Yugoslavia, 85–6
 Zuev, Mikhail, 419–22