abuse of rights, society of organisations and, 72
academic law, on society of organisations, 67
in France, 69
in Germany, 69
in United States, 69
active risk takers, 69–71
administrative law. See global administrative law Ann v Merton, 102–7
ascription in tort law. See normative ascription bailment, in contract law, 44
Bazley v Curry, 96
Bernard v Attorney General for Jamaica, 96–97
Blyth v Birmingham Waterworks, 46–48
Boston Scientific judgment, 148–54, 174–78
bureaucracy. See public bureaucracy causation
of risk, 65
in vicarious liability, 87
CEN. See European Committee for Standardisation civil liability, 38–39
CJEU. See Court of Justice for European Union Classical Legal Thought (CLT), 38 classical tort law
misfeasance in, 16
nonfeasance in, 16
CLT. See Classical Legal Thought
Code Civil, in France, subjective right and, 30–32
society of individuals and, 31–32
cognitive rupture, 64–86
cognitivisation
in EU law, 129–38
debt-equity ratios as process of, 132
for financial services regulation, 133–36
for state liability, 132, 136
Ladeur on, 9, 25
of tort law, 2–3, 5–9, 11–12
society of networks and, 25
coherence, 33
common calling, in contract law, 44
common law
continental approach to, 16
in Germany, 38
Holmes on, 6–7
negligence and, 62
New Approach to Technical Standards under, 198–99
organisational liability under, 198–99 social responsibility under, 80
society of organisations and, 80
The Common Law (Holmes), 37 community standard of care, 50 commutative justice, 62, 73–74 consent. See informed consent constitutional rights-remedies, 144–45
constitutionalisation
in Germany, 141
Ladeur on, 146–47
of private law, 25–26, 31, 145
re-constitutionalisation, 141
re-programming of tort law through, 142–44
from social justice perspective, 141
society of organisations and, 143–44
Systems Theory and, 141
total, 141
trans-constitutionalisation, 139–40
constitutions, in EU, 138–48

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment
www.cambridge.org
constitutions, in EU (cont.)
  classical private law and, 140–41
eigenstructures and, 139
consumer protection law, 117 contract law, classical, 31
coherentism and, 33
default rules for, 116–17
employment contracts, 32
EU law and, 130
in France, 31–33
freedom of contract and, 31
in Germany, 31–32
liability in, 44
nonfeasance in, 44
recovery categories under, 44
regulatory instrumentalism and, 33
third-party claims in, 44
will theory of, 32, 37–40
Winterbottom v Wright, 41–45
Conway v George Wimpey & Co, 92–93
Corporations, in United States, historical development of, 60 corrective justice, 21, 77, 79–81, 85
Court of Justice for European Union (CJEU)
  individual liability and, 27
  network liability and, 27–28
  New Approach to Technical Standards and, 26–27, 157–58, 166–74
  organisational liability and, 27
  critical standard of care, 50 debt-equity ratios, 132
deterrence, 58–59
Dicey, A V, 105–6
discourse ethics, 15
distributive justice, society of organisations and, 58, 77–80
Donoghue v Stevenson, 75–81, 100–10
Durkheim, Emile, 7, 63
Dutton v Bognor Regis, 104–6
duty, as concept, society of organisations and, 73
  duty of care, 75–81
legal science and, 41–45
from liberal legal orders, 61–62
organisational liability and, 103
standard of care compared to, 45
state liability and, 103

Index

EAL. See economic analysis of law
Earl v Lubbock, 44
East Suffolk v Kent, 100–2
economic analysis of law (EAL), systems theory and, 7
eigenstructures
  EU constitutions and, 139
  in Germany, 62
employment contracts, 32
doctrine of vicarious liability, 57
England
  Crown Proceedings Act, 59, 99
  normative ascription of tort law, 57–59
  royal liability under, immunity from, 57–59
  organisational liability in, 65
  Arms v Merton, 102–7
  Dutton v Bognor Regis, 104–6
  East Suffolk v Kent, 100–2
  Home Office v Donset Yacht Co Ltd, 102–4, 109
  state liability and, in English case law, 100–10
  Public Authorities Protection Act, 59
  enterprise liability, 68
  moral basis of, 87
  social responsibility and, 82
  enterprise risk liability, 91–98
  Escola v Coca Cola Bottling Co, 90–91
ethics. See discourse ethics
EU. See European Union
EU law, 127–38
cognitivisation in, 129–38
debt-equity ratios as process of, 132
  for financial services regulation, 133–36
  for state liability, 132, 136
contract law and, 130
  European Committee for Standardisation, 135–36
  Frankovich liability and, 136 instrumentalist approach to, 131 law of obligations and, 131
  legal reasoning in, 137–38
  national law and, 147–48
  New Approach to Technical Standards under, 183–85
  fragmentary liability regimes, 193–94
  Paul judgment, 152–35
  private law and, 150–51
  society of networks and, 24–26
structural coupling of, 129–30
European Committee for Standardisation (CEN), 135–36
European Union (EU). See also EU law
as network of networks, 139–40, 144 Europeanisation, of tort law, 5–6 experimentalism, 127

fault, 21
in France, 38, 40–41
in Germany, 38, 40–41
negligence and, 49–50
objective, 21
Pufendorf on, 41
society of organisations and, 72
social responsibility and, 81
standard of care and, 49–50
subjective, 21
in tort law, 34–35
in United Kingdom, 83
faute d’autrui (fault for things), 51
faute de service doctrine, 113–14
faute lourde doctrine, 113–14, 185–87, 191–92
feedback loops, in legal systems, 17, 19 financial services, regulation of, under EU law, 133–36
Forrester, Heinz Von, 116
fortuna concept
in France, in tort law, 48
negligence and, 47–48
fragmentary liability regimes, 193–94
frame of reference, for tort law, 2–3, 5–9 France
academic law in, 69
Code Civil
normative ascription of tort law and, 55–56
society of individuals and, 31–32
subjective right and, 30–32
contract law in, 31–32
fault in, as legal concept, 38, 40–41
faute d’autrui, 51
legal science in, 39
normative ascription of tort law in Code Civil and, 55–56
faute d’autrui, 51
individual liability in, 56–57
public bureaucracy and, 54–57
state liability and, 56–57
organisational liability in, 65, 88
faute de service doctrine, 113–14
faute lourde doctrine, 113–14
social solidarity, 87–88
state liability and, 100, 110–14
society of organisations concept and, 69
tort law in, 40
fortuna concept in, 48
vicarious liability in, 95, 97–98
Francovich liability, 4, 26
EU law and, 136
freedom of contract, 31 French Revolution, social strata after functional differentiation in, emergence of, 29–30
societal differentiation in, emergence of, 29–30
full quality assurance approach, to NATS, 163 fundamental rights, 142–43

Germany
academic law in, 69
constitutionalisation in, 141
contract law in, 31–32
dctrine of vicarious liability in, 53–54
eigenstructures in, 62
fault in, as legal concept, 38, 40–41
legal science in, 39–40
common law reform in, 38
as legal formalism, 38
social legislation in, 17–22
society of organisations concept in, 69
risk paradigms in, 66–68
tort law in, 40–41
doctrine of vicarious liability, 53–54
normative ascription of, 51
unlawfulness in, 41, 51
vicarious liability in, 97–98
global administrative law, 124–25 globalisation, of tort law, 5–6, 22–23 good faith, private law and, 145–46 governance networks. See also New Approach to Technical Standards
historical development of, 158–61 liability of, Court of Justice for European Union and, 27–28 gross negligence, 45–46
Grotius, Hugo, 38–39
Hirman v Westinghouse Elec. Co., 95
holism, 63
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 37
on common law, 6–7
Index

Home Office v Dorset Yacht Co Ltd, 102–4, 109
horizontal vicarious liability, 179–80
human rights, 143
hybrid negligence regimes, 74

individual liability
Court of Justice for European Union and, 27
New Approach to Technical Standards and, 161–74, 197–206
under common law, 198–99
Court of Justice for European Union judgments, 166–74
Schmitt v TÜV Rheinland, 164–74, 182
in tort law, 197–207
value chains and, 208–16
under normative ascription of tort law, in France, 56–57 supply chain liability and, 208–16
individual responsibility, 3, 22
normative ascription in tort law and, 86 individual rights, theory of, 6 inferences of negligence, 85 informed consent, 149
injuries, as capital, 21
institutional rights, 148–54
instrumentalism, EU law and, 131 insurance
origins of, for maritime insurance, 48
reparations under, 21
in risk paradigms, 81
interdependence, 22
society of organisations and, 63
social responsibility and, 86
international soft law, 211

James, Fleming, 8
justice
commutative, 62, 73–74
distributive, 58, 77–80
procedural, 34
relational, 34
of tort law, 7
justiciability, 143

Ladeur, KH
on bridging concepts, 61–62
on cognitivisation of law, 9, 25
on constitutionalisation, 146–47
on discourse ethics, criticism of, 15
on negligence, 61–62
on partial logics, 125

on positive law, 35
on society of networks, 23–28
cognitivisation of law and, 25
EU law and, 24–26
private law and, constitutionalisation of, 23–26
world society thesis, 24–25
on society of organisations, 20, 22, 74 knowledge base in society, 83
tort liability and, 28
on strict liability, 62
on systems theory, 13–24
law. See legal systems
law of negligence, 8
law of obligations, EU law and, 131 Learned Hand test, 83–84
legal consciousness, 37
legal positivism, 35
legal reasoning
in EU law, 137–38
if/then structures of, 23
neo-formalism in, 153
legal science, 37–41. See also fault development and origins of, 37
duty of care, 41–45
in France, 39
in Germany, 39–40
common law reform in, 38
as legal formalism, 38
legal consciousness and, 37 stylistic foundations of, 40
legal systems, law and. See also common law; EU law acentric architecture of, 36–51 Classical Legal Thought and, 38
common law influences on, 39 factual normality in, 16–17
feedback loops in, 17, 19
function of, 117
modern normative remodelling of, 116–29
for organizational liability, 120–23 through organizational responsibility, 118–44
in society of networks, 119–20 natural law and, 36–37
as observing system, 117
overview of, 210–21
reprogramming of, 36–51
in systems theory, 16
Levy v Langridge, 42–45 liability. See also state liability; supply chain liability; tort liability; vicarious liability; specific topics civil, 58–59
in contract law, 44
tort liability, 68
Francovich liability, 20, 46
EU law and, 126
New Approach to Technical Standards and, 173, 180–92
individual, 27
Ladeur on, 52
network liability, Court of Justice for European Union and, 27–28
New Approach to Technical Standards and Francovich liability, 173, 180–92
horizontal vicarious liability, 179–80
legal models of liability, 157 network liability, 179–80, 192–97
vertical vicarious liability, 195
normative model of, 64
organisational, 27
overview of, 210–21
liberal law, society of organisations and, 63–64 liberal legal order, 47
duty of care from, 61–62
standard of care from, 61–62
liberalism, 36
Luhmann, world society thesis, 24–25

MacPherson v Buick, 75, 88–90
maritime insurance, origins of, 48 Medical Devices Directive, 163–64
misfeasance, in classical tort law, 16

NATS. See New Approach to Technical Standards

negligence
common law and, 62
gross, 47–48
hybrid regimes, 74
inferences of, 55
Ladeur on, 61–62
as legal concept, 38
ordinary, 45–46
slight, 45–46
standard of care and, 45–50
Blyth v Birmingham Waterworks, 46–48
fault and, 49–50
fortuna concept and, 47–48

Index 227

providence and, 47
Vaughan v Menlove, 46–47
neighbour principle, 78–79 neo-formalism, in legal reasoning, 153
network liability, Court of Justice for European Union and, 27–28
network responsibility, 4
in tort law, 2–4
individual responsibility, 3
organisational responsibility, 3
New Approach to Technical Harmonisation, 128
New Approach to Technical Standards (NATS), 25, 123–24
Boston Scientific judgment, 174–78
Court of Justice for European Union and, 26–27, 157–58, 166–74
under EU law, 183–85
fragmentary liability regimes, 193–94
faute lourde doctrine and, 185–87, 191–92
historical development of, 158–97
of network governance, 158–61
individual liability and, 161–74, 197–216
under common law, 198–99
Court of Justice for European Union judgments, 166–74
Schmitt v TÜV Rheinland, 164–74, 182
in tort law, 197–207
value chains and, 208–16
liability, general, and Francovich liability, 173, 180–92 horizontal vicarious, 179–80
legal models of, 157
network, 179–80, 192–97
vertical vicarious, 195
organisational liability and, 161–74, 197–216
under common law, 198–99
Court of Justice for European Union judgments, 166–74
full quality assurance approach, 163
under Medical Devices Directive, 163–64
PIP judgment, 161–64
in tort law, 197–207
value chains and, 208–16
Paul judgment, 182–83
responsibility models, 192–97
assumption of responsibility, 202–4
in contract law, 202–4
crisis of, 196–97
normative, for network responsibility, 196
Restatement (Third) of Torts, 160
self-regulatory regimes, 156

Cambridge University Press & Assessment
978-1-316-51200-5 — Network Responsibility
Rónán Condon
Index
More Information

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment www.cambridge.org
New Approach to Technical Standards (NATS) (cont.)
state liability and, reconstruction of, 197–216
theoretical approach to, 156–58
under tort law
organisational liability and, 197–207
value chain models and, 210–16
individual liability and, 208–16
under international soft law, 51
organisational liability and, 208–16
tort law for, 210–16
nonfeasance
in classical tort law, 16
in contract law, 44
normative ascription, in tort law, 51–59
applications of, 51
bureaucracy and
private, 51–54
public, 54–59
doctrine of vicarious liability, 51–54
in employment context, 52
in German law, 53–54
justification of, 52–53
in England, 57–59
Crown Proceedings Act, 59
Public Authorities Protection Act, 59
royal liability in, immunity from, 57–59
in France
Code Civil and, 55–56
faute d’autrui, 51
individual liability in, 50–57
public bureaucracy in, 54–57
state liability in, 56–57
in Germany, 51
doctrine of vicarious liability, 53–54
individual responsibility and, 86
organisational responsibility and, 86
Workmen’s Compensation Acts, 54
normative model of liability, 64
objective fault, 21
O’Keefe v Ireland, 191
Oliphant, Ken, 65
ordinary negligence, 45–46
organisational liability, 87–114. See also state liability Court of Justice for European Union and, 27
in England, 65
Anns v Merton, 102–7
Dutton v Bognor Regis, 104–6
East Suffolk v Kent, 100–2
Home Office v Dorset Yacht Co Ltd, 102–4, 109
state liability and, in English case law, 100–10
enterprise risk liability and, 91–98
in France, 65, 88
faute de service doctrine, 117–14
faute lourde doctrine, 113–14
social solidarity, 87–88
state liability and, 100, 110–14
New Approach to Technical Standards and, 161–74, 197–216
under common law, 198–99
Court of Justice for European Union judgments, 166–74
full quality assurance approach, 163
under Medical Devices Directive, 163–64
PIP judgment, 161–64
in tort law, 197–207
value chains and, 208–16
in normative remodelling of legal systems, 120–23
product liability and, 88–91
Escola v Coca Cola Bottling Co, 90–91
MacPherson v Buick, 88–90
res ipsa doctrine, 88–91
supply chain liability and, 208–16
vicarious liability and, 91–98
as agent-centred, 92
Conway v George Wimpey & Co, 92–93
Rose v Plenty, 93
Salmond test for, 92
organisational responsibility, 3, 22
normative ascription in tort law and, 86
in normative remodelling of legal systems, 120–23
outcome responsibility, 19
passive risk takers, 60–71
Paul judgment, 132–35, 182–83
personal rights, 148
PIP judgment, 161–64
pluralism, in tort law, 7–8 positive law, 35
post-national tort law, 219 precaution, 148–49
prevention, in risk paradigms, 65–67
private bureaucracy, in normative ascription of tort law, 51–54
private law
© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment
Index

classical, EU constitutions and, 140–41
constitutionalisation of, 25–26, 31, 145
EU law and, 130–31
good faith and, 145–46
instrumental theory of, 7
justice of, 7
philosophical approaches to, 12
reasonableness and, 145–46 subjective rights in, 142
will theory in, 40
procedural justice, 34
product liability, 88–91
Escola v Coca Cola Bottling Co, 90–91
MacPherson v Buick, 88–90
res ipsa doctrine, 88–91
providence, negligence and, 47
Public Authorities Protection Act, England (1893), 59
public bureaucracy
in normative ascription of tort law, 54–59
society of organisations and, 62–63
public law, society of organisations and, 69 public service-based theory, 86 Pufendorf, Samuel von, 41
reasonableness, private law and, 145–46 reciprocity theory, 6
re-constitutionalisation, 141
regulatory instrumentalism, 33
regulatory intermediaries, 170–71, 182, 213, 215–16, 218 relational justice, 7, 34
reparations, under insurance, 21
res ipsa doctrine, 88–91
responsibility. See also network responsibility; organisational responsibility; social responsibility; individual responsibility assumption of, state liability and, 102
models of, 2–4
individual responsibility, 3, 22
organisational responsibility, 3, 22
New Approach to Technical Standards and, models for, 102–97
assumption of responsibility, 202–4 credit of, 196–97
normative models, for network responsibility, 196
in society of organisations, 64–86
Restatement (Second) of Torts, 75
Restatement (Third) of Torts, 160
reticular irresponsibility, 125 rights
abuse of, 72
Boston Scientific judgment, 148–54
constitutional rights-remedies, 144–45
fundamental, 142–43
human, 143
institutional, 148–54
moral understanding of, 147–48
personal, 148
subjective
Code Civil and, 30–32
in private law, 142
together of individual rights, 6 universal understanding of, 147–48 rights-balancing, 153–54
risk compensation theory, 70
risks
as concept, 49
society of organisations and, paradigms for, 65–74
for active risk takers, 69–71 causation of risk, 65
under German law, 66–68
insurance and, 81
for passive risk takers, 69–71
prevention in, 65–67
risk compensation theory, 70
security in, 66
standard of care and, 81–86
Rose v Plenty, 93
Rylands v Fletcher, 54
Salmond test, for vicarious liability, 92, 137
Schmitt v TÜV Rheinland, 184–74, 182
security, in risk paradigms, 66 self-constitutionalisation, society of organisations and, 143–44 slight negligence, 45–46
social interdependence, theory of, 7
interdependence, 22
society of organisations and, 63, 86
social legislation, 17–22, 59, 66, 68 social responsibility, society of organisations and, 77–86
under common law traditions, 80 Donoghue v Stevenson and, 75–81
duty of care and, 75–81
enterprise liability and, 82
fault and, 81
hybrid negligence regimes, 74
social responsibility, society of organisations and (cont.)
interdependence and, 86
MacPherson v Buick and, 78
neighbour principle, 78–79
in public service-based theory, 86
Restatement (Second) of Torts, 75
standard of care and, 81–86
society of networks
as legal concept, 126
in normative remodelling of legal systems, 120–23
law and, 23–28
cognitivisation of law and, 25
EU law and, 24–26
private law and, constitutionalisation of, 25–26
world society thesis, 24–25
tort liability and, 28
society of organisations, 20, 22. See also organisational liability; social responsibility abuse of rights and, 72
academic law and, 67
in France, 69
in Germany, 69
in United States, 69
cognitive rupture and, 64–86
commutative justice and, 62, 73–74 conceptualisation of, 63
constitutionalisation and, 143–44
distributive justice and, 58, 77–80
doctrine of vicarious liability, 64–65
duty concept and, 73
tort liability, 68
social responsibility and, 82
fault and, 72
social responsibility and, 81
historical context for, 61–64 holism and, 63
interdependence and, 63
social responsibility and, 86
Ladeur on, 74
on knowledge base in, 83
liberal law and, 63–64
normative model of liability, 64
public bureaucracy and, 62–63
public law and, 69
responsibility in, 64–86
self-constitutionalisation and, 143–44 social transformation as influence on, 70
standard of care and
risk paradigms for, 81–86
social responsibility and, 81–86
tort liability and, 25, 68–74
soft law. See international soft law standard of care, 45–51
community, 50
critical, 50
duty of care compared to, 45
elements of, 50
from liberal legal order, 61–62
negligence and, 45–50
Blyth v Birmingham Waterworks, 46–48
fault and, 49–50
fortune concept and, 47–48
providence and, 47
Vaughan v Menlove, 46–47
society of organisations and risk paradigms in, 81–86
social responsibility and, 81–86
state liability
assumption of responsibility and, 102
cognitivisation in EU law, 122, 126
duty of care and, 102
in England, in case law, 100–10
under EU law, 132, 136
in France
normative ascription of tort law, 56–57
organisational liability, 110–14
New Approach to Technical Standards and, 197–216
organisational liability and, 98–114
Anns v Merton, 102–7
assumption of responsibility and, 102
under Crown Proceedings Act, 99
Donoghue v Stevenson, 100–10
Dutton v Bognor Regis, 104–6
duty of care and, 103
East Suffolk v Kent, 100–2
duty of care and, 103
emergence of, 110–14
in English case law, 100–10
in France, 100, 110–14
Home Office v Dorset Yacht Co Ltd, 102–4, 109
social role of state, 112–13
Yuen case, 107–8, 110
subjective fault, 21
subjective right
Code Civil and, 30–32
society of individuals and, 31–32
in private law, 142
supply chain liability, 197–216
individual liability and, 208–16
under international soft law, 211
organisational liability and, 208–16
tort law for, 210–16
Systems Theory, 9–28
communication systems, 11–12
double contingency problems, 11 individual paradigms, 14–23 organisational paradigms, 14–23
constitutionalisation and, 141 economic analysis of law and, 7, 10
as frame of reference, 9–14
as analytical, 10
Ladeur on, 15–24
on individual paradigms, 14–23
models of modernity in, 14–28
on organisational paradigms, 14–23 legal systems in, 16
as observation of observations, 10
for tort law, 1–2, 6
Von Forrester and, 116

Technical Standards. See New Approach to Technical Standards

third-party claims, in contract law, 44 Tocqueville, Alexis de, 29
tort law, 217–18. See also specific topics classical
misfeasance in, 16
nonfeasance in, 16

cognitivism of, 2–5, 5–9, 11–12
constitutionalisation and, re-programming through, 142–44 Europeanisation of, 5–6
fault in, 34–35
frame of reference for, 2–3, 5–9 functional complementarity of, 7 functional equivalence of, 7
globalisation of, 5–6, 22–23
goals and purpose of, 8–9 Grotius and, 38–39
justice of, 7
local knowledge in, 34–35 models of responsibility in, 2–4
individual responsibility, 3
organisational responsibility, 3
New Approach to Technical Standards under
organisational liability and, 197–207
value chain models and, 210–16
pluralism in, 7–8
post-national, 219
Restatement (Second) of Torts, 75
Restatement (Third) of Torts, 160
society of networks and, 23–28
cognitisation of law and, 25
EU law and, 24–26
private law and, constitutionalisation of, 25–26
world society thesis, 24–25
supply chain liability under, tort law for, 210–16 systems theory for, 1–2, 6
theoretical approach to, 1–5
will theory and, 18
tort liability, 4
Francovich liability, 4
models of, 28
society of networks and, 28
society of organisations and, 28
tort networks. See network responsibility;
society of networks
tort theory. See also tort law; tort liability constitutionalisation of, 1–5 total constitutionalisation, 141
trans-constitutionalisation, 139–40
Tuori, Kaarlo, 14–15

United Kingdom (UK). See also England
fault in, 83
social legislation in, 17–22
Workmen’s Compensation Acts, 54, 67–68
enterprise liability and, 68
United States (US)
academic law in, 69
corporations in, historical development of, 60
social legislation in, 17–22
society of organisations concept in, 69
unlawfulness, in German law, 41, 51
US See United States

value chain models, liability in, 197–216
individual liability, 208–16
under international soft law, 211
organisational liability and, 208–16
tort law for, 210–16
Vaughan v Menlove, 46–47
vertical vicarious liability, 105
vicarious liability, 38
causation in, 87
vicarious liability (cont.)
doctrine of, 51–54
in employment context, 52
in German law, 53–54
justification of, 52–53
society of organisations and, 64–65
expansion of, 93–94, 97
historical development of, 95–98
Bazley v Curry, 96
Bernard v Attorney General for Jamaica, 96–97
in France, 95, 97–98
in Germany, 97–98
Hirman v Westinghouse Elec. Co., 95
horizontal, 179–80
organisational liability and, 91–95
as agent-centred, 92

(b) Conway v George Wimpey & Co, 92–93
(b) Rose v Plenty, 93
(b) Salmond test for, 92, 137
vertical, 195
victim, as legal concept, 21

will theory
of contract law, 32, 37–40
in private law, 40
tort law and, 18
Williams, Glanville, 87–88
Winterbottom v Wright, 41–45
Workmen’s Compensation Acts, U.K. (1897), 54, 67–68
enterprise liability and, 68
world society thesis, 24–25
Yuen case, 107–8, 110