

CONTENTS

Figures, maps and tables	vii
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xiv
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction	1
1 The influence of the Boer War on Australia's First World War commanders	4
2 Preparing for war, 1901–14	27
3 The AIF's commanders: Learning on the job	45
4 Strategic planning between the wars	69
5 Identifying the threat from Japan in 1941	92
6 A pivotal year in Australian history: 1942	106
7 Australia and coalition warfare in the Second World War	124
8 Deciding Australia's war strategy in 1943: The roles of MacArthur and Curtin	144
9 Advancing national interests: Australia's war strategy, 1944–45	161
10 Higher command in the Korean War: The experience of Brigadier John Wilton	178
11 Higher direction of the army in the Vietnam War	194
12 The Gulf War, 1991: Its place in Australian military history	221

vi CONTENTS

13 Deploying and sustaining INTERFET in East Timor in 1999	237
14 Developing a command structure for joint operations	264
Notes	286
Bibliography	308
Index	319