

Contents

	page xi
Preface
1 Being an Author	1
Understanding Each Other	3
How to Use This Book	4
The Author's Bookshelf	6
The Publishing Partnership	7
2 Journal Articles	11
Who Is an Author?	12
Writing Well	14
Selecting a Journal	18
Some Things to Avoid	22
Submitting Your Manuscript	23
Peer Review	25
Good News and Bad	29
Revising Oral Presentations	30
Money	33
Book Reviews	36
3 Revising a Dissertation	38
Purpose and Audience	39
Revising	42
Journal Articles	47
A Word of Encouragement	49
4 Finding a Publisher for a Scholarly Book	51
Types of Book Publishers	51
When Are You Ready?	61
How Long Is Too Long?	62
Choosing a Publisher	63
Writing a Prospectus	64
Submitting Your Manuscript	70
Peer Reviews	71

Contents

	Getting a Prompt Decision	74
	The Letter	74
5	Working with Your Publisher	77
	The Contract	77
	Subventions	99
	Seeking Grants	102
	Working with an Editor	104
	Manuscript to Bound Book	108
	The Ad in The New York Times	109
	After Publication	113
6	Multiauthor Books and Anthologies	115
	Collections of Original Essays	115
	Anthologies and Readers	126
7	Finding a Publisher for a College Textbook	131
	College Textbooks	132
	Choosing a Publisher	134
8	Working with Your Textbook Publisher	146
	Writing a Textbook	146
	Reviews and Rewriting	150
	Working with Your Editors	155
	Supplementary Materials	157
	Marketing	159
	Revised Editions	159
9	Books for General Readers	163
	Economic Realism	164
	Finding a Literary Agent	165
	Writing for General Readers	167
	Finding a Publisher for a Trade Book	179
	Editing and Design	181
	Marketing	184
	Are You Ready for This?	186
10	The Mechanics of Authorship	188
	Preparing a Manuscript for Submission	188
	Camera-Ready Copy and Electronic Page Makeup	192
	Preparing Revised Editions	195
	Illustrations	196
	Permissions	204
	Proofreading	208
	Indexing	211
11	Costs and Prices	215
	Costs	215
	Prices	225

Contents

Why Prices Vary	230
Subtracting Paper and Ink	233
Paperback and Reprint Editions	235
Textbooks	238
Trade Books	239
Financial Partnership	242
12 Being a Digital Author	244
Digital Authorship	245
Digital Publication	251
Working with a Digital Publisher	255
Evaluation and Funding	256
Money	258
Marketing and Maintenance	259
Afterword	262
Bibliography	263
Index	275