In this index “t” refers to a table, “fig” refers to a figure, and “n” refers to a note

| Acemoglu, Daron | 128 |
| Adams, John | 140 |
| Albanian transition to democracy | 43, 44, 46, 132 |
| Alfonso XIII (King of Spain) | 33 |
| Alter, Karen J. | 23 |
| Apodaca, Claire | 36 |
| appointments to judiciary. See judicial appointments |
| arbitrators, courts as | 23, 25–26 |
| Archigos Project (database) | 91 |
| Argentine Constitutions, | 17 |
| attacks on judiciary. See judicial attacks |
| authority of judges, | 112, 23, 29, 80 |
| autocracy |
| competition and | 48–50, 53–54 |
| courts as bulwarks and | 4 |
| judicial attacks and | 130 |
| judicial independence and | 39, 48, 48–49 |
| measurement of | 48, 44–50, 53–54 |
| scholarship on | 1 |
| states of emergency and | 92 |
| transitions to democracy and | 13, 41 |
| autolimitations | 79 |
| autonomy in modeling. See informational model of regime breakdown |
| Bacchus, Peter | 143 |
| Bahry, Donna | 90–91 |
| Barak, Aharon | 3–4 |
| Baratz, Morton S. | 143 |
| Bardella, Kurt | 136 |
| Barrett, Amy | 130 |
| Basic Law (Germany) | 5 |
| Bass, Leeann | 137 |
| Bavarian Constitutional Court | 5 |
| Berlin Wall and judicial independence | 39, 44, 45, 47 |
| Bjørnskov, Christian | 92 |
| Blass, Abby | 28 |
| Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) | 125–127 |
| Boix, Carles | 99, 102 |
| Bolivian Constitutional Tribunal | 7, 17, 58 |
| Bonaparte, Napoleon | 60 |
| breakdowns of democracy. See democratic breakdown |
| Brinks, Daniel | 28 |
| Budowsky, Brent | 121 |
| Bulgarian transition to democracy | 43, 44, 46 |
| bulwarks of democracy. See courts as bulwarks of democracy |
| Bush, George W. | 130, 131 |
| Calvo, Ernesto | 89 |
| Cane, Peter | 22 |
| Carrubba, Clifford | 21, 24–26, 29, 61, 76–77 |
| Chase, Amanda | 129 |
| Chávez, Hugo | 107, 138, 143 |
| Cheibub, José | 124 |
| Chilean transition to democracy | 6, 51 |
| Chilton, Adam | 69, 72 |
| Citizens United v. FEC (2010) | 112 |
| Civic Platform (PO) (Poland) | 6 |
| civil society |
| coups and | 87, 98, 100, 102 |
| judicial attacks and | 87 |
| judicial authority and | 105 |
| judicial independence and | 29, 86 |
| judicial review and | 69 |
| measurement of | 96, 100, 127, 47 |
| prudence and | 80 |
public opinion and, 86
robust civil society, 29, 86, 96, 100, 127–128
V-Dem and, 100, 102, 127
Colombian Constitutional Court, 6, 17, 79
Comparative Constitutions Project (CCP), 37 competition
autocracy and, 48–50, 53–54
compromise and, 53, 124
courts as bulwarks and, 26, 124
democratic breakdown and, 107
economic development and, 122
fixed assets and, 50, 53
fluctuations in, 49, 53
identification analysis of, 50
incentives for, 27, 31, 46–47
interparty competition, 107, 144
investigation of political rivals and, 89–91
judicial attacks and, 135
judicial independence and, 15, 15, 27, 31, 39–41, 46–47, 48fig, 50, 51f, 52f, 53–55, 55–59, 144 measurement of, 48, 49fig, 50f, 51f, 52f, 45–53 54, 55–59
prudence and, 28
regime stability and, 39–41
V-Dem and, 48, 50
compromise
competition and, 53, 124
conditions necessary for, 13, 28
constitutions and, 11, 19
courts as bulwarks and, 12–13, 26, 124
democracy and, 10, 19–20, 140
economic development and, 28
extraordinary actions and, 62
formal institutions and, 141
information and, 11, 28–29
judicial attacks and, 12
judicial independence and, 11–13, 28, 31, 141
limits on power and, 19
noncompliance and, 29
prudence and, 60
regime rules and, 60
regime stability and, 60
scholarship on, 140
Conaghan, Catherine, 90
constitutions
aims of, 20
compromise and, 11, 19
consent of governed and, 5–6
constitutional courts, 5, 11, 17–18, 21, 23, 46, 79 constitutional hardball, 129, 135 constitutional review, 4, 5, 22, 36, 144
courts as bulwarks and, 4–6, 26, 139
democracy and, 5–6, 17, 40
electoral reform and, 88
information and, 21
interpretative challenges of, 20, 76–77 judicial appointments and, 7
judicial attacks and, 7
judicial independence and, 46, 120
limits on power and, 20
measurement and, 46
mobilization of masses and, 69 organizational interests and, 69
regime rules and, 10, 19, 20, 46
scholarship on, 22
unconstitutional constitutional amendment doctrine, 89
Coppedge, Michael, 48
Costa Rican Supreme Court, 6, 8, 87, 104

coups
civil society and, 87, 98, 100, 102
definition of, 99
economic development and, 140
formal institutions and, 124
incentives for, 98
judicial attacks and, 87, 100, 101
judicial independence and, 14, 86, 98, 101–102
likelihood of, 101fig, 101–102, 112
measurement of, 100–102, 101fig, 112
noncompliance and, 100
overview of, 98–102
scholarship on, 99
V-Dem and, 100
Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU), 24, 61 courts as arbitrators, 23, 25–26 courts as bulwarks of democracy active role of courts as, 120, 122 argument overview for, 10–12, 26fig, 27fig, 26–29
autocracy and, 4
checking function of courts and, 120–121
competition and, 26, 124
compromise and, 12–13, 26, 124
constitutions and, 4–6, 26, 139
corruption and, 12
economic development and, 140
empirical challenges to, 12–13
failure cases of, 6–10, 12 historical context of, 3–4, 120 implications for, 14, 142–144
judicial appointments and, 7–10
judicial attacks and, 6–10
lack of guarantee of, 12 limits of, 112, 142–144
limits on power and, 12
methodological approach for, 12–13
noncompliance and, 5–6, 144
nonexistent bargains and, 142–143
open questions for, 144–145 overview of, 3–6, 13–14, 20, 26, 27f, 29, 140–142 problem of governance and, 22–26
prudence and, 141, 143–145
regime stability and, 12, 20
requirements for, 11, 12, 26, 124
rule of law and, 4
scholarship on, 3, 11–12, 14, 26, 140, 143
states of emergency and, 4
success cases of, 4–6
tensions within, 4
transitions to democracy and, 5–6 democracy. See also courts as bulwarks of democracy, transitions to democracy
compromise and, 10, 19–20, 140
constitutions and, 5–6, 17, 46
contested status of, 15
definitions of, 10, 15–20
economic development and, 124, 140
global assault on, 1, 20–22, 140, 143
incentives for, 15
judicial review and, 22, 25
limits on power and, 10, 19
maximalist-substantive definition of, 15–19, 29
minimalist-procedural definition of, 15–19, 29 peaceful transfer of power and, 10, 12, 16, 19, 26, 141, 142 problem of governance in, 19–26, 29
regime rules and, 10, 19, 22
regime stability and, 15, 20
requirements of, 10
rule of law and, 16
scholarship on, 1, 10, 15, 140
uncertainty and, 22
values required for, 15, 18, 19, 29
democratic breakdown
competition and, 107
economic development and, 105
frailty model and, 104
global assault on democracy and, 1, 140, 143
judicial attacks and, 86, 87, 103, 104, 143
judicial independence and, 14, 39f, 41f, 86, 102–106, 122f, 143 measurement of, 39f, 41f, 102–106, 113–117, 122f
noncompliance and, 86, 103, 104
reverse causal account of, n105
scholarship on, 102
V-Dem and, 102, 103
Democratic Party (US), 130, 136, 138
Donnelly, Ann, 2
Doyle, Arthur Conan, 84
Duda, Andrzej, 7

Index

Easterbrook, Frank, 127
Eastern Bloc states’ judicial independence, 44f, 45f, 47f, 41–47 economic development
competition and, 122
compromise and, 28
courts as bulwarks and, 140
democracy and, 124, 140
democratic breakdown and, 105
fixed assets and, 124
judicial independence and, 28, 122
measurement of, 32, 96, 103, 103
regime stability and, 124
Egyptian Constitution, 17
election of 2020 (US), 121, 129, 137 electoral reform
constitutions and, 88
troversial nature of, 88–89
extraordinary actions and, 85
international examples of, 88–89
judicial attacks and, 106
judicial review and, 88
limits on power and, 85
measurement of, 89
overview of, 88–89
political context of, 85
presidential reelections and, 89
prudence and, 84, 98
regime stability and, 89
V-Dem and, 89
Elkins, Zachary, 37, 39
Epperly, Brad, 13, 48, 91
Executive Order 13769 (2017), 2–3, 120 extraordinary actions. See also electoral reform; investigation of political rivals; states of emergency
compromise and, 62
coups and, 98
definition of, 85, 88
electoral reform and, 85
judicial attacks and, 106
judicial independence and, n87, 120–121
limits on power and, 88
overview of, 88–98
perceived necessity of, n87
prudence and, 84, 98
regime rules and, 77–78, 85
regime stability and, 84
scholarship on, 65
Fariss, Christopher, 92–93
FEC, Citizens United v. (2010), n121
Federalist 51, 15, 20
Federalist Society, 125
Feld, Lars, 33, 36
forbearance norm, 79, 121, 129–130 formal institutions, 39–41, 45–46, 53, 124–125, 141, 144–145
Fox, Justin, 62, 65
Fujimori, Alberto, 21, 89
Gabel, Matthew, 11, 24–26, 62, 76–77
Garland, Merrick, 130, 137–138
German Federal Constitutional Court, 4–5
Ginsburg, Ruth Bader, 130, 137
Ginsburg, Tom, n12, 16, 22, 37, 39, 52, 129
Global Competitiveness Report (GCR), 33
Global Terrorism Database (2018), 97
Gorsuch, Neil, 130, 138
Hafner-Burton, Emilie, 92–93
Hamilton, Alexander, 1
Helfer, Laurence, 92–93
Historical Statistics (2012), 101, 103
Honduran democratic breakdown, 88, 138–139 human rights, 4, 36, 79, 92–93
Hungarian transition to democracy, 17, 44, 46
Huq, Aziz, n12, 16, 129

independence of judiciary. See judicial independence information
asymmetries in, 21, 21, 24, 60
compromise and, 11, 28–29
constitutions and, 21
court influence outside of, 79–80 credibility of, 23–25
decision through, 21, 24
incentives for, 24, 61
investigation of political rivals and, 85
judicial appointments and, 79, 85
judicial independence and, 11, 13, 15, 23, 26, 27, 77–78, 108, 148
judicial review and, 24–26, 77–78
limits on power and, 27
noncompliance and, 26, 77–78, 107–108, 144
private information, 10, 25–26, 61, 77–78 problem of, 11, 23, 26, 70, 141
regime rules and, 10, 11, 21, 61, 76–77
regime stability and, 13, 27, 61, 77–80
reveling of, 77–78
sharing of, 11, 13, 15
transmission of, 24–26, 61, 76–78, 108
trust and, 24
uncertainty and, 21
informational model of regime breakdown analysis of, 64
baseline model of, 62–64, 66, 67fig, 71, 72fig communication in, 64
definitions in, 64, 66
equilibria in, 64–66, 67fig, 67, 71, 72fig
extraordinary policies in, 64
interpretation of results of, 67fig, 67–68, 71, 72fig judicial review model in, 71fig, 72fig, 68–76 measurement in, 74fig
opportunism in, 64–66
overview of, 62
political conflict in, 66–67
political failure in, 64–66
preferences in, 63
probability of conflict in, 74fig
propositions in, 65, 66
regime rules and, 62, 65, 66
responses available within, 64
international aid, 123
investigation of political rivals, 62, 85, 91, 88–91, 91
Irish Constitution, 17
Israeli High Court, 21
Jackman, Simon, 118
judges as mediators, 23–26
judges as trustees, 23, 76–77 judicial appointments
blocking of, 129–130, 135
blue slip and, 130
constitutions and, 7
courts as bulwarks and, 7–10
information and, 79, 85
judicial attacks and, 7
measurement of, 35, 36
overview of, 129–130
judicial attacks
alternative interpretation of, 105–106
autocracy and, 130
civil society and, 87
competition and, 135
compromise and, 12
constitutions and, 7
coups and, 87, 100, 101
courts as bulwarks and, 6–10
democratic breakdown and, 86, 87, 103, 104, 143
electoral reform and, 106
extraordinary actions and, 106
international examples of, 14, 132
interpretation of, 135
judicial appointments and, 7
judicial independence and, 8fig, 7–10, 101, 106fig, 105–106
measurement of, 8fig, 106fig, 130fig, 132fig, 132
noncompliance and, 87
prudence and, 106
regime stability and, 14, 104, 107, 143
V-Dem and, 102, 130
verbal attacks, 101, 132–135, 137 judicial authority, n12, 23, 29, 80
judicial autonomy, 32, 37
judicial decision-making, 8, 11, 125 judicial independence. See also measurement of judicial independence
autocracy and, 39, 48–49
causes of, 13, 31, 44, 46–47, 50, 53
civil society and, 29, 36
compromise and, 11–13, 28, 31, 141
constitutions and, 46, 120
coups and, 14, 86, 98, 101–102
de facto independence, 8–10, 101, 106, 48–49, 47, 13, 31–35, 44

def jure independence, 37–39 leisure and, 11, 13, 15, 23, 26, 27, 77–78, 108, 145 insurance model of, 11, 16, 28–29, 31, 39, 41
judicial attacks and, 8–10, 101, 106
judicial review and, 25–26
limits on power and, 27, 29
natural disasters and, 96, 96, 110
noncompliance and, 8–10, 13, 77–78
opportunism and, 76–77
prudence and, 12–13, 27, 60, 79, 84, 106–108, 120, 141
regime rules and, 11, 13, 23, 46, 76–80, 120–121, 144–145
regime stability and, 10, 13, 14, 25, 39–41, 76–80, 107, 120, 122, 142
requirements for, 11, 12, 27–29
rule of law and, 16
scholarship on, 8–12, 14, 16, 26, 36–38, 125, 141
states of emergency and, 93, 94–95, 95, 96, 110–117
terrorism and, 98–99
judicial orders. See noncompliance with judicial orders judicial review
civil society and, 69
democracy and, 22, 25
electoral reform and, 88
information and, 24–26, 77–78
judicial independence and, 25–26
jurisprudence and, 25–26
noncompliance and, 26, 29
political conflict reduced by, 25–26
regime rules and, 22, 26, 76–80
regime stability and, 26
scholarship on, 24–26
veto power and, 25–26
judicial review model
analysis in, 70–75
autonomy version of, 76
conflict reduction in, 74–75
definitions in, 70
equilibria in, 70–74, 76
extraordinary policies in, 70
interpretation of, 72–75
judicial strategies in, 74, 76
leader strategies in, 74–76
limits on power in, 75
mixed strategies in, 71–72 mobilization of masses in, 69
noncompliance in, 68–69, 75
opportunism and, 72, 74, 75
preferences in, 69–70
propositions in, 71–72
results in, 72, 74, 75
scholarship on, 69
utility of court in, 70
prudence in, 11, 16, 24–26, 120
Keith, Linda, 36
Kim, Young Hum, 90–91
Kouba, Karel, 89
La Porta, Rafael, 36
Latin American electoral reform, 88–89, 124–125
Law and Justice Party (PiS) (Poland), 6
Law, David, n18
leadership forbearance, 79, 121, 129–130 Levitsky, Steven, 1, 2, 16, 79, 121, 129
limits on power
compromise and, 19
constitutions and, 20
courts as bulwarks and, 12
democracy and, 10, 19
electoral reform and, 85
extraordinary actions and, 88
information and, 27
judicial independence and, 27, 29
noncompliance and, 29
scholarship on, 125
separation of powers and, 36, 125
Lincoln, Abraham, 107–108, 144
Linzer, Drew, 32, 35, 41, 89, 91
LJI. See measurement of judicial independence
Madison, James, 15
Madison’s Historical Statistics (2012), 101, 103 measurement of judicial independence. See also specific models, datasets, and concepts autocracy and, 49fig, 44–50, 53–54
backdating data for, 33 challenges of, 16, 38–39, 35
civil society and, 96, 100, 127fig competition and, 48, 49fig, 50t, 51t, 52t, 45–53, 54, 55–59
constitutions and, 46
coups and, 100–101, 101fig, 112
data availability and, 37fig
de facto independence and, 32–35, 43, 45, 53–54 de jure independence and, 35–38, 51–53 democratic breakdown and, 39fig, 44fig, 102–106, 113–117, 122fig
economic development and, 32, 96, 101, 103
electoral reform and, 89
identification analysis and, 50
inputs used for, 30–38
instrumental variables and, 48–53
international scores for, 125
judicial appointments and, 35, 36
judicial attacks and, 8fig, 102, 106fig, 130fig, 132, 134fig, 130–132, 135
limitations of, 32
measurement errors and, 118fig, 118–119
methodology for, 12–13, 18, 118
natural disasters and, 121, 96fig, 96, 110
noncompliance and, 8fig, 9, 86, 100, 102, 126–127
opportunism and, 64–66, 72, 74, 75
overview of, 16
regime rules and, 35, 76–80
regime stability and, 122
scholarship on, 32–39, 118
states of emergency and, 93, 94fig, 96fig, 110–117 terrorism and, 92–93, 98fig, 97–98 transitions to democracy and, 39fig, 41–47
mediators, judges as, 23–26
Melton, James, 37, 39, 52, 118
Merryman, John, 107, 144
Meserve, Stephen, 118
models. See informational model of regime
democracy breakdown; judicial review model;
measurement of judicial independence Montesquieu, Baron de, 31
Morales, Evo, 8
Muslim travel ban (2007), 2, 3, 120, 134, 137
mutual tolerance norm, 129–130
natural disasters
annual risk of, 96
constituions and, 121
costs of, 96
human intervention and, 95–96
index of, 95
judicial independence and, 96fig, 96, 110
measurement of, 121, 96fig, 96, 110
opportunism and, 95–97
prudence and, 85
scholarship on, 93
states of emergency and, 85, 91, 93, 94fig, 96, 110
Negretto, Gabriel, 89
Netanyahu, Benjamin, 8, 87
New Deal policies, 131
Nixon, United States v. (1974), 121
noncompliance with judicial orders
compromise and, 29
consequences for, 29, 86
costly noncompliance, 29, 61–62, 69, 127, 144
coups and, 100
courts as bulwarks and, 5–6
democratic breakdown and, 86, 103, 104
dilemma posed by, 9
as healthy indicator, 14, 80, 86, 144
information and, 26, 77–78, 107–108, 144
judicial attacks and, 89
judicial independence and, 8fig, 8, 13, 77–78
judicial review and, 26, 29
limits on power and, 29
measurement of, 8fig, 9, 86, 100, 102, 126–127
prudence and, 86
public opinion and, 29
rule and, 61–62, 144
regime stability and, 12, 14, 26, 29, 79–80, 107–108, 144
risks involved with, 12, 107–108
rule of law and, 8, 87, 108
scholarship on, 29, 87
tolerance by judges of, 29
V-Dem and, 8fig, 100, 122, 126fig, 126–127
vetoing policies and, 86 Obama, Barack
democracy breakdown; judicial review model;
lack of judicial comments under, 133
social media use by, 133fig, 133–134
Office of Democracy and Governance (USAID), 9, 87
opportunism
judicial independence and, 76–77
measurement of, 64–66, 72, 74, 75
natural disasters and, 95–97
regime rules and, 76–77
states of emergency and, 91–95
terrorism and, 97–98
Ortega, Daniel, 138

peaceful transfer of power, 10, 12, 19, 19, 26, 141, 142
Penin, Daniel, 118
Pinochet, Augusto, 8, 89
Polish Constitutional Tribunal (CT), 6, 8 Polish transition to democracy, 7–10, 43–44, 46, 112 political emergencies, 93, 93–95, 95, 97–98, 110 political reform. See electoral reform politicization of courts, 90, 115, 144 Popova, Maria, 90
populism, 1, 129
Powell, Johnathan, 99
power. See limits on power presidential election of 2020 (US), 121, 129, 137 Primo de Rivera, Miguel, 33
problem of democratic governance, 19–26, 29
prudence
civil society and, 86
competition and, 28
compromise and, 60
courts as bulwarks and, 141, 143–145
democratic regime collapse, 84
electoral reform and, 85
extraordinary actions and, 84, 98
forbearance norm and, 79, 121, 129–130
incentives for, 60, 79, 120, 141, 143–144
judicial attacks and, 106
judicial independence and, 12–13, 27, 60, 79, 84, 106–108, 120, 141
natural disasters and, 85
noncompliance and, 86
regime rules and, 60, 84
regime stability and, 11, 101–102, 120
stakes of holding power and, 28
states of emergency and, 91–95, 95
terrorism and, 85
transfer of power and, 106–108
Przeworski, Adam, 11, 19, 122
public opinion, 29, 86, 127, 136–137, 145
Radean, Marius, 122
Reenock, Christopher, 122
reforms. See electoral reform Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP), 2 regime rules
compromise and, 60
constitutions and, 10, 19, 20, 46
context dependence of, 21
definition of, 10
democracy and, 10, 19, 22
disagreement over violations of, 60
extraordinary actions and, 77–78, 85
fundamental regime rules, 89, 22, 60
information and, 10, 11, 21, 61, 76–77
judges as trustees and, 23
judicial independence and, 11, 13, 23, 46, 76–80, 120–121, 144–145
judicial review and, 22, 26, 76–80
measurement of, 35, 76–80
nomination of judges as a, 46
noncompliance and, 61–62, 144
opportunism and, 76–77
opposition parties and, 79 policing of, 10, 11, 22, 79
policy failure and, 76–77
political conflict and, 76–77
prudence and, 60, 84
regime stability and, 10, 62
states of emergency and, 91
uncertainty of, 23, 76–77
undermining of, 108
violations of, 79, 84, 120–122
regime stability. See also democratic breakdown;
informational model of regime breakdown;
transitions to democracy
communication and, 27
competition and, 39–41
compromise and, 60
conditions necessary for, 25
constitutions and, 27
courts as bulwarks and, 12, 20
democracy and, 15, 20
destabilizing factors for, 14
economic development and, 124
economic factors in, 122
electoral reform and, 89
extraordinary actions and, 84
information and, 13, 27, 61, 77–80
international examples of, 79
judicial attacks and, 14, 104, 107, 143
judicial independence and, 10, 13, 14, 25, 39–41, 76–80, 120, 122, 142
judicial review and, 26
measurement of, 122
noncompliance and, 12, 14, 26, 29, 79–80, 107–108, 144
prudence and, 11, 101–102, 120
Index

regime rules and, 10, 62
scholarship on, 11, 79
transitions to democracy and, 39–41
uncertainty and, 25
Republican Party (US)
competition and, 135
election of 2020 and, 129, 137
judicial appointments and, 125, 129–130
Supreme Court as agent of, 135–137
Tea Party Republicans, 129
transfer of power and, 129
review by judiciary. See judicial review Ríos-Figueroa, Julio, 11–12, 23–26, 29, 60
Robart, James L., 2, 134
Roberts, John, 120, 134
Robinson, James A., 128
Romanian transition to democracy, 43, 44, 132
Romero, Anthony, 2–3, 120, 143
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 131
Rosato, Sebastian, 99, 102 rule of law, 2, 4, 8, 10, 16, 79, 87, 108
Sanders, Bernie, 129
Schepple, Kim, 6, 17, 19, 120
Schumpeter, Joseph, 15, 20
separation of powers, 36, 125
Sosa, Cecilia, 107, 143
Sotomayor, Sonia, 133
South African Constitutional Court, 5 states of emergency (SOE)
autocracy and, 92
cooking of, 92–93
courts as bulwarks and, 4
declaring of, 92
definition of, 92–93
judicial independence and, 93, 93\fig, 94\fig, 92–95, 96\fig, 110–117
measurement of, 92–93, 93, 94\fig, 96\fig, 110–117
natural disasters and, 85, 91, 93, 94\fig, 96, 110
opportunism and, 91–95
overview of, 92–92
political emergencies and, 93\fig, 94, 94\fig, 92–95, 95, 97–98, 110
prudence and, 92–92, 95
regime rules and, 91
scholarship on, 92–93
terrorism and, 97
timing of, 94–95
types of, 97–95
Staton, Jeffrey, 32, 35, 41, 89, 91, 122
Steinbugl, Bon, 129
Stephenson, Matthew, 62–63, 65
strategic deference of judges, 23, 107, 141 substantive values, 15, 18, 19, 20
Supreme Court (US)
election of 2020 and, 137
judicial appointments to, 129–130 legitimacy of, 127, 137, 138
media coverage of, 137
myth of legality and, 137
noncompliance of, 126–127, 138
politicalization of, 138, 139
public opinion on, 127, 136–137
as Republican agent, 135–137
scholarship on, 127, 137
Svolik, Milan, 65
Tanner, Martin, 118
Tea Party Republicans, 129
Tenth Amendment, 17
terrorism
annual risk of, 97–98
definition of, 97
judicial independence and, 98\fig, 98
measurement of, 92–93, 98\fig, 97–98
opportunism and, 97–98
prudence and, 85
scholarship on, 97
states of emergency and, 97
Thyne, Clayton, 99, 100
transfer of power, 10, 12, 16, 19, 26, 141, 142
transitions to democracy
Albanian transition, 43, 44, 46, 132
autocracy and, 13–41
Bulgarian transition, 43, 44, 46
Chilean transition, 6, 51
courts as bulwarks and, 5–6
Hungarian transition, 17, 44, 46
lag in process of, 46–47
measurement of, 93\fig, 94\fig, 47–47
overview of, 5–6, 39–41, 46
Polish transition, 7–10, 43–44, 46, 132
regime stability and, 39–41
Romanian transition, 43, 44, 132
travel ban (2017), 2, 3, 120, 134, 137
Treier, Shawn, 118
Trump, Donald J.
contested 2020 election and, 121, 129
coronavirus pandemic and, 123
disruptive effects of, 3 Executive Order 13769 of, 2–3, 120 extraordinary actions by, 129 judicial attacks by, 134, 133–135, 135 judicial independence under, 125 Muslim travel ban of, 2, 3, 120, 134, 137 social media use by, 133\fig, 134\fig, 132–135 trustees, judges as, 23, 76–77
Tushnet, Mark, 129
Tymoshenko, Julia, 90

United States
caveats to courts as bulwarks in, 128–137 checks and balances system in, 2 civil society in, 127f (127–128)
competition in, 135
compromise in, 124–125
constitution of, 129, 135
coronavirus pandemic and, 123
coup potential in, 124, 134
court failures in, 121
courts as bulwarks in, 14, 121, 122, 124–128, 137–139 democratic breakdown in, 129, 131, 135 economic development in, 124 extraordinary actions in, 129 formal institutions in, 124–125 immigration court in, 126–127 income inequality in, 128 judicial appointments in, 129–130 judicial attacks in, 130–135
limits on power in, 125
military–civilian relationship in, 124
noncompliance in, 126–127, 137
overview of, 123, 137–139
partisanship of judiciary in, 125 politicization of the judiciary in, 139 presidential system in, 2, 124–125
prudence in, 121
regime stability and, 122
scholarship on, 123–125, 128
stressors in, 123

2020 election in, 121, 129, 137

values, 15, 18, 19, 29
Varieties of Democracy (V-Dem) project. See also measurement of judicial independence civil society and, 100, 102, 127f (127–128)
competition and, 48, 50
coups and, 100
democratic breakdown and, 102, 103
electoral reform and, 89
importance of data from, 19, 32–33 judicial attacks and, 102, 130f (130–135) measurement errors and, 118f (118–119) methodology for use of data from, 32, 34, 48, 50, 100 noncompliance and, 8f (100, 102, 126f (126–127)
voter participation and, 48, 50
Venezuela Supreme Court, 107, 143 Versteeg, Mila, n18, 22, 69, 72 veto power of courts. See noncompliance with judicial orders Voigt, Stefan, 33, 36, 92
Warren Court, 34, 126
Wooldridge, Jeffrey, 50
Yanukovych, Viktor, 90
Zelaya, Manuel, 88, 138–139
Ziblatt, Daniel, 1, 2, 16, 79, 121, 129