

Contents

List of Figures	page vii
List of Tables	viii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiv
Notes on Transcriptions and Translations	xvi
List of Abbreviations	xvii

PART I SETTING THE STAGE

1 Introduction	3
2 What Is Pollution?	27

PART II EMBODYING POLLUTION THROUGH THE LIFE CYCLE

DISEASE

3 The “Touch” of Leprosy: Diagnosing Disease between Language and Experience	59
4 The Missing Ritual for Healing Skin Disease	76
5 Diagnosing Sin	91
6 Naturalizing Disease: Pollution as a Causal Theory	107

THE SOUL: FROM THE TABLE TO THE GRAVE

7 You Are What You Eat: Impure Food and the Soul	131
8 Death and the Polluting Spirit	145

MATING

9	Sexual Pollutions: The Moralized Body	175
10	Gender Fluidity and the Danger of Leaky Manhood	207
11	Did Women Need to Wash?	225

PART III IMAGES, CODES AND DISCOURSE

12	Contagious Holiness	243
13	Conclusion: Naturalizing a Religious Concept	261

	Works Cited	271
	Index of Biblical Sources	301
	Index of Selected Ancient Near Eastern Sources	308
	Index of Rabbinic and Second Temple Literature Sources	309
	Subject Index	311