CONTENTS

List of Figures and Tables  page ix
Acknowledgements xi
List of Abbreviations xv

Introduction
Two Enduring Problems: A Parmenidean Greek Miracle, and ‘Why Verse?’  3
The Agenda: A General Outline of the Book  12
(Met)hodology  15
Aims: What Is and Is Not at Stake  19

PART I Prooimia  29

1 Roads: Words and Things  31
1.1 Archaic and Classical Greek Roads  32
1.2 The Semantics of the word hodos  46

2 Parmenides the Late Archaic Poet  65
2.1 Hesiod’s Muses, Xenophanes’ Doubt  69
2.2 Archaic Receptions of Homer  72
2.3 Poetics and Epistemology  84
2.4 Parmenidean Strategies: A Culmination  94
2.5 Conclusion  114

PART II Routes  117

3 The hodos in Homer  119
3.1 The Theoretical Apparatus in Context  121
3.2 How the hodos Organizes Homeric Discourse: Forms of Succession  131
3.3 Conclusions  143

4 The hodos in Odyssey  146
4.1 Odyssey 12: Rhetorical Schema of the hodos  146
4.2 Krisis  157
4.3 Concluding Remarks  191

© in this web service Cambridge University Press & Assessment
Contents

5 Krisis: Fragment 2 195
5.1 Disjunctions 203
5.2 Opening Moves 214

6 Con(-)sequence: Fragment 8 217
6.1 Sēma I: Systematicity and Argumentativeness 226
6.2 Sēma II: Discursive Architecture and Temporality 230
6.3 Sēma III: Hodopoiēsis (the ‘Route to Truth’ and Fragment 8) 249
6.4 Sēma IV: Accomplishments and Completions 270

PART III  Doxai 279

7 Mortal Opinions 281
7.1 End of the Line 281
7.2 Epi/-Apologoi: ‘Here I End My pistos logos …’? 283
7.3 An End That Is No End 296
7.4 Another K/Crisis, More Con(-)sequences? 298

Appendix Fragment 5 301

Works Cited 314

Index 355

Index Locorum 363