

Contents

---

Preface and Acknowledgments	page xiii
Introduction by Patricia Owens, Sarah C. Dunstan, Kimberly Hutchings, and Katharina Rietzler	1
1. Field and Discipline
Introduction by Patricia Owens	23
Jessie W. Hughan	37
From “A Course in International Relations” (co-authored with Nicholas Kelley) (1915)
Committee on the Bureau of International Research in Harvard University and Radcliffe College (n.d. c. 1923)	39
From “Proposal for a Foundation for Instruction in International Affairs” and “Foundation for Instruction in International Affairs”
F. Melian Stawell	41
From The Growth of International Thought (1929)
Lucy Philip Mair	46
From “International Relations as an Independent Subject” (1934)
Merze Tate	49
From “Teaching of International Relations in Negro Colleges” (1947)
Agnes Headlam-Morley	55
From “Idealism and Realism in International Relations,” an Inaugural Lecture (1949)
Annette Baker Fox	65
From “The Teaching of International Relations in the United States” (co-authored with William T. R. Fox) (1961)
Rachel Wall	69
From “The Nature of Contemporary History” (1966)
	v

vi	Contents
2.	Geopolitics and War
	Introduction by Patricia Owens	75
	Ellen Churchill Semple	87
	From Influences of Geographic Environment on the Basis of Ratzel's System of Anthro-Geography (1911)
	Sylvia Pankhurst	92
	From "The Fascist World War (Ethiopia and Spain)" (1935)
	Elizabeth Monroe	94
	From The Mediterranean in Politics (1938)
	Margaret Sprout	97
	From Toward a New Order of Sea Power (co-authored with Harold Sprout) (1940)
	Claudia Jones	105
	From "What We Must Now Do about India" (1942)
	Hannah Arendt	110
	From "The Question of War" (1958–1959)
	Roberta Wohlstetter	117
	From Pearl Harbor: Warning and Decision (1960)
	Mary McCarthy	121
	From Vietnam (1967)
3.	Imperialism
	Introduction by Sarah C. Dunstan	127
	Jessie Fauset	143
	From "Impressions of the Second Pan-African Congress" (1921)
	Lillian M. Penson	152
	From "The London West India Interest in the Eighteenth Century" (1921)
	Anna Julia Cooper	157
	From Slavery and the French and Haitian Revolutions (1925)
	Lilian Knowles	161
	From Economic Development in the Nineteenth Century (1932)
	Margery Perham	167
	From Native Administration in Nigeria (1937)
	Sibyl Crowe	172
	From The Berlin West African Conference, 1884–1885 (1942)

Contents	vii
Amy Jacques Garvey	177
From “Chinese Milk Africans in the Caribbean” (1946)
Mary Macdonald Proudfoot	181
From Britain and the United States in the Caribbean (1954)
4. Anticolonialism
Introduction by Sarah C. Dunstan and Patricia Owens	187
Jane Nardal	201
From “Internationalisme noir” (1928)
Dorothy Macardle	204
The Irish Republic (1937)
Una Marson	211
From “To Joe and Ben” (1937)
Nancy Cunard	214
From White Man’s Duty (1942)
Simone Weil	220
From “The Colonial Question and the Destiny of the French People” (1943)
Suzanne Roussy Césaire	224
From “Le grand camouflage” (1945)
Eslanda Robeson	230
From African Journey (1946)
Claudia Jones	232
From “The Caribbean Community in Britain” (1964)
5. International Law and International Organization
Introduction by Katharina Rietzler	245
Mary Parker Follett	257
From The New State (1919)
Sarah Wambaugh	261
From A Monograph on Plebiscites (1920)
Lucie A. Zimmern	268
From Must the League Fail? (1932)
Barbara Wootton	275
From “Socialism and Federation” (1941)

viii	Contents
	Krystyna Marek	278
	From The Identity and Continuity of States in Public International Law (1954)
	M. Margaret Ball	282
	From International Relations (co-written with Hugh B. Killough) (1956)
	Pauli Murray	291
	From The Constitution and Government of Ghana (co-written with Leslie Rubin) (1961)
	Louise W. Holborn	298
	From Refugees: A Problem of Our Time (1975)
	6. Diplomacy and Foreign Policy
	Introduction by Katharina Rietzler	305
	Margaret Lambert	317
	From The Saar (1934)
	Merze Tate	323
	From “The War Aims of World War I and World War II and Their Relation to the Darker Peoples of the World” (1943)
	Elizabeth Wiskemann	328
	From The Rome–Berlin Axis (1949)
	Vera Micheles Dean	334
	From Foreign Policy without Fear (1953)
	Adda B. Bozeman	337
	From “India’s Foreign Policy Today” (1958)
	Judith Shklar	345
	From “Decisionism” (1964)
	Coral Bell	351
	From The Debatable Alliance: An Essay in Anglo-American         Relations (1964)
	Agatha Ramm	356
	From Germany 1789–1919: A Political History (1967)
	7. World Peace
	Introduction by Sarah C. Dunstan	359
	Bertha von Suttner	373
	From “Universal Peace – From a Woman’s Standpoint” (1899)

Contents	ix
Emily Greene Balch From “The Time for Making Peace” (1915)	379
Helena Swanwick From “Women and War” (1915)	384
Mary Church Terrell From “Speech and Resolution Presented at International Women’s Congress, Zurich” (1919)	392
Jane Addams From Peace and Bread in Time of War (1922)	394
Vera Brittain From “Peace and the Public Mind” (1935)	396
Helene Stöcker From “Review of The Twenty Years’ Crisis, 1919–1939 by E. H. Carr” (1940)	402
Edith Sampson From “Address by the Hon. Mrs. Edith Sampson” (1952)	406
8. World Economy
Introduction by Patricia Owens	411
Rosa Luxemburg From The Accumulation of Capital (1913)	425
Persia Campbell From Chinese Coolie Emigration to Countries within the British Empire (1923)	430
Lilian M. Friedländer From “Labour Problems in Two Worlds” (1929)	436
Eleanor Lansing Dulles From The Bank for International Settlements at Work (1932)	443
Ursula K. Hicks From “Learning about Economic Development” (1957)	447
Sudha R. Shenoy From “The Coming Serfdom in India” (1966)	452
Edith Penrose From The Large International Firm in Developing Countries (1968)	456
Susan Strange From Sterling and British Policy (1971)	462

x	Contents
9.	Men, Women, and Gender
	Introduction by Kimberly Hutchings	467
	Anna Julia Cooper	477
	From “Woman versus Indian” (1892)
	Vernon Lee	480
	From “The Economic Parasitism of Women” (1902)
	Ellen Churchill Semple	488
	From “Geographical Research as a Field for Women” (1916)
	Emily Greene Balch	493
	From “Women’s Work for Peace” (1922)
	Virginia Woolf	497
	From Three Guineas (1938)
	Pearl S. Buck and Eslanda Robeson	503
	From American Argument (1949)
	Simone de Beauvoir	506
	From The Second Sex (1949)
	Jeanne Vialle	513
	From “Femmes africaines/African Women” (1951)
10.	Public Opinion and Education
	Introduction by Katharina Rietzler	517
	Nannie Helen Burroughs	533
	From “The Colored Woman and Her Relation to the Domestic Problem” (1902)
	Fannie Fern Andrews	536
	From “The Relation of Teachers to the Peace Movement” (1908)
	Eileen Power	541
	From “The Teaching of History and World Peace” (1921)
	Virginia Gildersleeve	547
	From “The Creation of the International Mind” (c. 1931/1932)
	Merze Tate	550
	From The Disarmament Illusion (1942)
	Margaret Read	557
	From Problems of Mass Education (1947)
	Dorothy Fosdick	564
	From Common Sense and World Affairs (1955)

Contents	xi
Amy Ashwood Garvey	569
From “The Birth of the Universal Negro Improvement Association” (c. 1960s)
11. Population, Nation, Immigration
Introduction by Sarah C. Dunstan	573
Rosa Luxemburg	587
From “The Right of Nations to Self-Determination” (1907)
Margaret Sanger	593
From Pivot of Civilization (1922)
Annie Marion Maclean	598
From Modern Immigration (1925)
Caroline Playne	603
From Neuroses of the Nations (1925)
Lucy Philip Mair	610
From The Protection of Minorities (1928)
Luisa Moreno	613
From “Caravans of Sorrow: Noncitizen Americans of the Southwest” (1940)
Sheila Kitzinger	618
From “Conditional Philanthropy towards Colored Students in Britain” (1960)
Shirley Graham	624
From “Minority Peoples in China” (1961)
12. Technology, Progress, and Environment
Introduction by Kimberly Hutchings	631
Bertha von Suttner	643
From The Barbarization of the Skies (1912)
Elizabeth Lippincott McQueen	647
From “Talk at Aviation Luncheon” (1934)
Margaret Mead	650
From Cultural Relations and Technical Change (1953)
Mary Matossian	656
From “Ideologies of Delayed Industrialization” (1962)
Rachel Carson	663
From Silent Spring (1962)

xii	Contents
	Margaret Gowing	670
	From Britain and Atomic Energy, 1939–1945 (1964)
	Ayn Rand	673
	From The New Left (1971)
	Susan Sontag	678
	“On Photography” (1973)
13.	Religion and Ethics
	Introduction by Kimberly Hutchings	691
	Jane Addams	703
	From Introduction to Democracy and Social Ethics (1902)
	Emma Goldman	708
	From “Anarchism: What It Really Stands for” (1911)
	Anna Julia Cooper	713
	From “Equality of Races and the Democratic Movement” (1925)
	Pearl S. Buck	718
	From Is There a Case for Foreign Missions? (1933)
	Zora Neale Hurston	722
	From “Hoodoo” (1935) and “Voodoo” (1938)
	Simone Weil	727
	From Letter to a Priest (1951)
	Barbara Ward	732
	From Faith and Freedom: A Study of Western Society (1954)
	G. Elizabeth Anscombe	738
	From Mr Truman’s Degree (1956)
	Index	743