THE TRANSFORMATION OF EUROPE

Joseph Weiler's The Transformation of Europe is one of the most influential works in the history of European studies. Twenty-five years after its original publication, this new collection of essays pays tribute to Weiler's legacy by discussing some of the most pressing issues in contemporary European Union law, policy and constitutionalism. The book does not intend to be a simple expression of intellectual esteem for Weiler's seminal work; instead, the collection honours it by critically engaging with some of its assumptions and theses. Overall, this volume shows how a study written in 1991 can still be fundamental to the present and future of the European Union, including the challenges presented by Brexit and by the Eurozone crises.

MIGUEL POIARES MADURO is Director of the School of Transnational Governance at the European University Institute, Florence.

MARLENE WIND is Professor and Director for the Centre for European Politics (CEP) at the Department of Political Science and Professor at iCourts (Centre of Excellence for International Courts) at the Faculty of Law, both at the University of Copenhagen.

‘This inspiring interdisciplinary, international and inter-generational collection of essays reinforces how Joseph Weiler’s vivid writing and intriguing arguments energise the minds of scholars from diverse fields even today.’

Karen J. Alter, Professor of Political Science and Law,
Northwestern University

‘A superb exercise of self-reflection and reappropriation of knowledge. A unique way of rethinking Europe in our time.’

Loïc Azoulay, Professor of Law, Sciences Po

‘A classic always provides us with a lens through which we understand the world. Weiler’s “The Transformation of Europe” certainly meets these criteria and, as such, deserves the attention it gets here from a group of distinguished scholars.’

Renaud Dehousse, President, EUI
