PREFACE

IN sending forth this little book, I should like to express the conviction that much information concerning Browne and Harrison still lies buried in the ecclesiastical records of the city of Norwich. I hope ere long to have leisure to unearth sufficient data for a fuller life of Robert Harrison than has hitherto been possible.

I have to thank the Misses Colman; Mr G. A. Stephen, City Librarian; Mr L. G. Bolingbroke, of the Diocesan Registry; Mr F. R. Beecheno; as well as several of the clergy of the city, for facilitating my investigations. To the Dr Williams's Trustees, who gave me permission to print the documents in The Seconde Parte of a Register (of which the present document is one), I have already expressed my indebtedness.

ALBERT PEEL.
