

CONTENTS

	Acknowledgments	page vii
1	Minim Stories in the Talmud: Introductory Discussion	1
2	“A Fool You Call Me?”: On Insult and Folly in Late Antiquity	43
3	“He Who Forms the Mountains and Creates the Wind”: Amos 4:13 and the Jewish-Christian Argument in b. Hullin 87a	66
4	“Rejoice, O Barren One Who Bore No Child”: Isaiah 54:1 and the Jewish-Christian Argument in b. Berakhot 10a	109
5	“The Best of Them is Like a Brier”: Micah 7:4 and the Jewish-Christian Argument in b. Eruvin 101a	143
6	“He has Drawn off from Them”: Hosea 5:6 and the Jewish-Christian Argument in b. Yevamot 102b	165
7	Reflections	187
	Bibliography	195
	Index of Primary Sources	219
	Subject Index	224