The right of Christopher Stone to be identified as author of this work has been asserted by him in accordance with the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988.

While the advice and information in this book is believed to be true and accurate, neither the authors nor the publisher can accept responsibility or liability for any loss or damage arising from actions or decisions based in this book. The ultimate responsibility for treatment of patients and the interpretation lies with the medical practitioner. The opinions expressed are those of the author and the inclusion in the book of information relating to a particular product, method or technique does not amount to an endorsement of its value or quality, or of the claims made of it by its manufacturers. Every effort has been made to check drug dosages; however, it is still possible that errors have occurred. Furthermore, dosage schedules are constantly being revised and new side effects recognised. For these reasons, the medical practitioners is strongly urged to consult the drug companies' printed instructions before administering any of the drugs mentioned in this book.

The publisher makes no representation, express or implied, with regard to the accuracy of the information contained in this book and cannot accept any legal responsibility or liability for any errors or omissions that may be made.

A catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library.
